A NOVELTY
—IN—
DRESS GOODS
—AT—
TURNBULL'S

(From the New York Dry Goods Economist.)

"Jasper is a novelty in dress goods. It is of foreign production, popular character and reasonable price. Retailers are showing their opinion of its merits by their eager purchases, and shoppers in want of a dressy and useful gown will voice the correctness of the retailers' preparation.

Its appearance combines both a crepe and a fancy figure and embraces two figures in the same design. The material composing this fabric is entirely fine worsted yarn. The two colours found in the fabric are distinct and separate; one colour is confined entirely to the warp threads and the other colour is found only in the filling threads.

As the filling threads supply one colour and the warp threads the other colour to the fabric, so one set of threads produces one effect and the other set of threads produces the second effect in the design.

The crepe effect is caused entirely by bringing some of the warp threads on the surface and the figured effect is produced by bringing some of the filling threads on the surface. As the warp threads are of a different colour from the filling threads, the crepe effect and the figured effect are consequently of two different colours.

The crepe effect is formed by certain warp threads being raised at the proper places in the pattern for five or six picks of the loom, when that number of filling threads are thrown in under these raised warp threads. The wrap threads that have been raised are next made to work in a regular weaver for four picks, in which one pick of warp is bound in with one pick of filling.

The variation of the motion of the warp threads does two things. When they are raised for five or six picks they produce threads lying on the surface of the cloth like stitches from a needle, and the large number of these covering the surface of the fabric gives the crepe effect. When these warp threads are made to work in a regular weave the fabric is built up, the loose stitches producing the crepe effect are bound in and good weaving material is insured.

The figured effect is produced in a contrary method from the crepe effect. As the warp threads are raised and the filling threads thrown under them to produce the crepe, so the warp threads are depressed and the filling thrown in under them to produce the figured effect.

In the crepe the colour of the wrap threads only shows and in the figure the colour of the filling threads only shows. There is in each a contrast of pattern and of colour. The Jacquard motion of the loom produces both effects and contrasts with unerring accuracy, guided by the pattern which the manufacturer has designed.

There is no dyeing to be done to the fabric, for the coloured threads that form it give its color. After being woven, it is finished in the manner regularly employed with such goods. Its construction and material insure its giving every satisfaction to the wearer. Its pattern is popular and safe. Its colour gives two tones without being an iridescent and its crepe effect is a complement to this order of weave without actually being a crepe.

CHINA TO MAKE AMENDS

Officers Responsible for the Missionary Outrages to be Beheaded.

THE BATTLE AT PING-YANG

Defeat of Japanese Forces by the Chinese Confirmed—They Retreated in Disorder With a Loss of 1,500 Men—Japanese Spies Captured.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—A despatch from Shanghai to a news agency here says a letter received in Chee-Foo on the 24th from Chemulpo, Corea, reasserts that the Japanese were defeated by the Chinese at Ping-Yang. Thirteen Japanese transports, convoyed by nineteen warships, arrived in the estuary of Taston-Kang on the 18th inst., and landed a force of 6,000 men, who advanced upon Ping-Yang. When mid way between the landing place and their objective point the Japanese were attacked by Chinese cavalry, who succeeded in dividing the advancing column into two parts. Thereupon the Chinese artillery poured a heavy fire into the Japanese ranks, creating almost a panic. The Japanese retreated in disorder to the shore, where the advance of the Chinese was checked by the fire from the guns of the Japanese fleet. The Japanese lost 1,500 men.

It is reported that the Japanese are re-embarking their heavy baggage in Ping-Yang inlet. The country is being scoured by Chinese cavalry, who have taken prisoners and beheaded 100 stragglers.

A despatch from Tien-Tsin to the Times says: "An imperial edict which has just appeared condemns the officers responsible for the recent outrages on the missionaries and orders that they be beheaded. The actual criminals are rebuilding the chapels and liberal compensation will be given to the relatives of the victims. Li Hung Chang has expressed regret to the British Minister."

It is reported in Yokohama that fifty Japanese camphor makers in Formosa have been massacred.

On the Watch for Spies.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 27.—Seven Japanese in Chinese dress were arrested here on Saturday. It is stated they will be driven from the country, but should more rigorous measures be adopted it would cause no surprise. Chinese activity in hunting down Japanese spies is daily growing, and, according to Chinese statements, Japanese government agents are scattered along the entire coast. Throughout China the Japanese are harshly treated, many said to be spies having been beheaded on the Island of Formosa.

Asan to be the Scene of a Big Battle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—"Japan and China are on the eve of a big battle," said the Japanese Consul, Naoeymon Hashiguchi, to a reporter. He was talking to a number of friends. One of the persons present was a tall-soldierly-looking man to whom Mr. Hashiguchi paid unusual deference. The gentleman's name could not be obtained, but he consented to comment on Mr. Hashiguchi's declaration that an important battle was imminent:

"Asan will be the scene of a battle memorable in the history of the orient," said he. "It will be the Marathon of the east, for the contest will be waged both on land and on sea. Asan is a place of great natural strength. It is a small seaport on the coast of Corea. The Chinese have a fort and garrison there. On the seaside it looks over to an island by which the northern and southern approaches are narrowed into channels easily capable of torpedo defence. On land it is assailable from one direction only, that of Heitaku.

"Curiously enough there is a prediction current in Corea that Asan will witness a struggle and that the present year will mark the downfall of the Li dynasty in Corea. A copy of the prophecy is said to have been in the hands of the Japanese consul at Tusan for eight years.

"The Chinese forces have been busily engaged strengthening the position. They have dug trenches, prepared obstacles and laid mines so that the task of storming the place must present difficulties. The 2,500 Chinese troops have been reinforced until there are now about 6,000. Further, the whole Chinese squadron, aggregating over twenty ships, have arrived at Asan. China has accepted Corea as a battlefield. On the side of the sea she plants a navy to secure the line of retreat and a basis of supplies. On the other side of the land she is marching a powerful army across the northern frontier of Corea to recover possession of Seoul and effect a junction with the troops and fleet at Asan. It will be Japan's business to prevent such a junction and she is settling out the work in earnest. If China succeeds in crippling the Japanese fleet she will be virtually mistress of the situation. If Japan wins China will be helpless."

SOLD HIS WIFE BY AUCTION.

A Cherokee Boomer Adopts a Novel Way to Retrieve His Fortunes.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—A special from Guthrie, Ok., says Wm. Cardwell, an erstwhile Cherokee strip boomer, had become hard up, and some days ago announced that he was going to sell his wife to the highest bidder. The sale came off on Saturday at Cardwell's cabin. There were half a dozen bidders present, and as the woman was buxom and good looking, bidding was spirited. John Insley, a grass widower of this city, secured the woman, bidding $100 in cash, a colt, a horse and a lot of household furniture. The wife seemed to be wholly unconcerned about the matter and departed with Insley. The pair left for Texas in a covered waggon.

BIG BLAZE AT OTTAWA

Booth's Lumber Yards in the Suburbs Swept by Fire.

LOADED LUMBER CARS BURNED

A Public School and a Railway Bridge Also Fall Prey to the Flames—The Total Loss a Heavy One—The Fire Believed to be Incendiary.

OTTAWA, Aug. 27.—A big conflagration visited Ottawa yesterday afternoon. A fire alarm came from Rochesterville, on the west side of the city, while about the same time an alarm was sounded from New Edinburgh in the opposite direction, on the east side of the city. A very small blaze in the New Edinburgh direction was extinguished with a few pails of water. But a portion of the brigade was detained from reaching the Rochesterville fire until it was well under way.

The fire in Rochesterville started in the piles of lumber belonging to John R. Booth. It was with some difficulty that the brigade got to work owing to the length of hose required and the scarcity of the necessary fire protection in the way of hydrants at this point. As a consequence the fire spread rapidly and soon got entirely beyond control of the city brigade which was assisted by the Union Fire Brigade, an organization belonging to the Chaudiere lumbermen.

The fire was extending towards the city until six o'clock when the wind changed and it then proceeded north and south. Had this not fortunately occurred the whole of Rochesterville would have run a risk of being burned. As it was the loss was heavy.

The territory covered by the fire was about ten acres. There is between six and eight million feet of lumber on this belonging to Mr. Booth which was valued at about $150,000. Besides this there were six railway cars with lumber belonging to the Export Lumber Company. Then there was the Cedar Street public school which was burned to the ground and which will be a loss of about $3,000. There was only one small dwelling house near. The Parry Sound Railway bridge was destroyed. It is generally believed that the fire was the work of an incendiary. It was after ten o'clock before the brigade had it entirely under control. Mr. Booth was on the scene from the first and worked until the last.

Civil Servants Dismissed.

Mr. Parent, Chief Engineer, Mr. Kennedy, Superintendent, Mr. McConnomy, store-keeper, Mr. Daragh, foreman carpenter of Lachine Canal, have all been dismissed. Messrs. Kennedy and Parent have been under suspension for a long time. This is a result of their share in the Curran bridge affair. No one has been appointed to take their places.

Application for Divorce.

Helen Woodburn Jarvis, of the city of Toronto, has applied for divorce from her husband, George Hamilton Jarvis, barrister, formerly of Toronto, but now of Detroit, on the ground of adultery, desertion and bigamy.

HON. MR. FRASER'S FUNERAL.

The Remains of the Late Commissioner of Public Works Interred at Brockville.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Aug. 27.—The largest funeral ever seen in Brockville took place yesterday when all that was mortal of Hon. C. F. Fraser was laid to rest. The Ontario Cabinet was represented by Sir Oliver Mowat, Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hon. Wm. Harty and Hon. G. W. Ross, who arrived yesterday in Mr. Wainwright's special car per Grand Trunk. The firemen and members of the bar and town council marched in a body and leading citizens from all parts of the province were present.

The service took place at St. Francis Xavier church, Vicar-General Gauthier conducting it. Telegrams of regret were received from Archbishop Cleary, the members of the Cabinet who were unable to attend, and hundreds of prominent men.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the procession re-formed and proceeded to the cemetery just west of the town, when the remains were interred amid the deepest regrets of a sorrowing people. The Rev. Mr. Griffith, of Wall Street Methodist church preached an eloquent sermon in the evening on the life of Mr. Fraser, Sir Oliver Mowat being present.

Steamer Collingwood Aground.

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich, Aug. 27.—The Canadian steamer Collingwood, of the North Shore Navigation Co., en route from Collingwood to Mackinac Island, with a passenger list of 280, ran hard aground on Tin Shoals, off Bois Blanc Island during the dense smoke. Passenger steamboats were at once despatched to her, but were unable to land passengers owing to a telegram from the Grand Haven collector ordering the health officer to inspect for a clean bill of health. Special telegrams from the department at Washington were received allowing them to land American passengers en route to points in the States. The Canadian people protested strongly against quarantine being sprung on them here and will probably carry the matter to Washington.

Seven Cross-Petitions Entered.

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—Conservatives of West Algoma, who carried the constituency by seventeen votes, have filed a cross-petition—the seventh that has been entered—wherein they accuse the Reformers of certain illegal acts. The proof of this, they declare, through Robert E. Foy, of Rat Portage, they are prepared to offer. The petition is filed as an offset to the one already entered against Mr. Savage, the member-elect. The disqualification of Mr. Conmee is asked.

Searching for Bodies in St. John Harbor

ST. JOHN, N.B., Aug. 27.—Diver Herlon of Halifax made unsuccessful attempts Saturday and yesterday to find the bodies of the men lost from the yacht Princess. He was down at one time one hour and five minutes. He thoroughly examined the yacht, found all sails fastened, but there were no bodies in her. The bottom is muddy. He saw dogfish travelling about but they made no attempt to bother him

Save your hair by using Dr. Grant's "Hairene." For sale by all druggists.

FELL A HUNDRED FEET.

A Sightseer From Pennsylvania Meets His Death at the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Aug. 27.—Despatcher Knight, of Cantilever [illegible], while looking over the side of the bridge last evening noticed what he thought was the body of a man on the rocks 100 feet below. Word was sent to Constable Maine, of the Ontario police, who with four other men, descended the stairway near the abutment of the cantilever and found the body of a man, about 70 years of age. He had grey hair and moustache, no beard and was dressed in a dark tweed suit with sack coat and soft black felt hat.

The man was still breathing and moaning faintly but was unconscious.

The rescuing party carried the [illegible] up the stairway and to Dr. McGarry's office where restoratives were administered and everything done to bring back the life that was fast ebbing away, but without avail. The last spark of life fled a few minutes after the unfortunate man was brought into the office.

The man was about 5 feet 11 inches in height and was respectably and neatly dressed. Dr. McGarry upon examination found a large scalp wound on the top of the head and the neck broken. The man evidently upon arrival at Niagara Falls walked across the upper Suspension bridge to the Canada side and down the river bank to the cantilever bridge, and after climbing through the iron pipe fence sat down on the step for a rest, and, falling asleep, fell over the bank. The distance he fell is fully 100 feet, and if it had not been for the breaking of his fall on a tree below his head would have been crushed into a jelly.

Later, upon investigation at Mrs. Devlin's, it was learned that the man's name is supposed to be Williams, of Halls, Pa. He had not been at Devlin's, but was expected. The body is in charge of Undertaker Morse.

UNION IN THE ANTIPODES.

Prospect of an Early Confederation of the Australasian Colonies.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The free trade victory in New South Wales has breathed fresh life into the Australasian federation scheme. Not only has the Victorian premier seconded Reid's suggestion for a new conference but the Australians here are confident that the idea has made good progress in the other colonies as well, so that now it may be taken up with good promise of a practical outcome during the next twelve months. Oddly enough they count upon the tacit opposition of the British official politicians; both parties are said to feel that the merging of the colonies will greatly diminish the prestige and money values of those six governorships which now play a considerable part in patronage and rewards for faithful service at Westminster, but, of course, this will exert no real influence on the question if the Australians are once agreed.

Estimates of the Wheat Crop of 1894.

VIENNA, Aug. 27.—The annual international grain fair will open here to-day. The official crop estimates for 1894 as compared with 1893 are given by percentages and are not so complete as last year, none being received from Bulgaria and several divisions of Russia. The figures for the countries outside of Europe are: India, 6,923,000 tons of wheat, against 7,749,000 last year; United States, 390,000,000 bush. of wheat, against 382,000,000 last year; 23,000,000 bush. of rye, against 24,000,000 last year; 1,500,000,000 bush. of corn, against 1,809,000,000 last year; Canada, 53,000,000 bush of wheat, against 50,000,000 last year.

Toronto Hotel Robbed.

TORONTO, Aug. 27.—When the proprietor of the Shakespeare hotel, Yorkand Wellington streets, opened up on Saturday morning he found that the bolts on the door had been tampered with and burglars had entered through the transom. About $25 in money and 1,500 cigars were taken. The job must have been done between the hours of one and half-past four o'clock. The corner is one of the best lighted in the city, and policemen, night-watchmen and pedestrianes repassing that point at all hours of the night.

A Railroad Magnate Dies Suddenly.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Aug. 27.—President John Newell, of the L. S. and M. S. Railroad, and also president of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie road, died at the Tod house yesterday. While Mr. Newell was in his private car near Newcastle, en route to Cambridge, Pa., he was taken suddenly ill. A fast run was made to this city and he was removed to the Tod house in an ambulance. Mrs. Harry Garfield, President Newell's daughter, arrived from Mentor at noon and was with her father in his last moments.

Boy Drowned at Port Colborne.

PORT COLBORNE, Aug. 27.—A young man named Eddie Langraf and his younger brother Fred, with another boy named Will Booth, went out in a sailboat yesterday on the lake and were capsized. After remaining with the capsized boat over three hours Eddie Langraf was compelled to let go of it and was drowned. The other two boys managed to hang on the boat and were picked up in an exhausted condition by the steamer Timon and brought into the harbor.

The Nicaraguan Canal.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Daily News comments on the quarrel on the Mosquito reservation as effecting the Nicaraguan canal. It holds that the prospects of the undertaking are extremely gloomy. "The work can be carried out" it says, "only by the support of American and British capitalists. As the United States would certainly seize the canal in the event of war with any great power, the canal must be cut by Americans or not at all.

Rossa's Tour in Ireland.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—J. O'Donovan Rossa, the dynamite agitator, arrived from Queenstown yesterday. He said that he had run for city marshal of Dublin, but was defeated by an organized political band. He was well treated in Ireland and enjoyed his three months' sojourn immensely. Everything was very flat in Ireland, according to Mr. Rossa, and political interests were languishing.

The Situation in Bluefields.

PRAISE FROM FRIEND AND FOE.

Tributes to the Ability and Honesty of the Late Hon. C. F. Fraser.

The death of the Hon. C. F. Fraser, late Commissioner of Public Works in the Ontario Cabinet, has called forth words of praise for his worth, both as a man and a minister, from both friend and foe. This is not due to the observance of the injunction, "de mortuis nil nisi bonum," for the deceased statesman was the subject of similar sentiment of commendation during his lifetime and official activity. The following extracts, though from widely differing political sources, are in their practical unanimity, a tribute which few men who have spent a score of years in active political life, have been permitted to earn:

A GOOD MAN GONE.

Hamilton Herald (Independent.)

Christopher Finlay Fraser was one of the ablest men this province has yet produced. Born in Brockville fifty-five years ago, he first made his mark in law, then in politics, and it can be fairly said of him that no one can point to a dishonest or underhand transaction in his life. His administration of the Department of Public Works was singularly scrupulous. Insinuations without number have been made against his honesty of character by Conservative journals, but they were all unfounded. Those who know him best know that he was exacting to a degree and looked after the expending of public moneys as conscientiously as if they had been his own. When there was public work to be done the best friend of the party stood on the same footing as its worst enemy. The lowest tenderer was the successful one. Mr. Fraser would show no favoritism under any circumstances. He regarded a public office as a public trust, and it was this high ideal of duty, and the faithfulness with which he lived up to it, that set him apart from the ordinary run of the politicians of Canada. Ontario lost a faithful and valuable friend when he resigned his portifolio. The same unflinching honesty that marked his public life was characteristic of his private life. Withal he was warm-hearted, generous, genial and popular, and those who knew him best will regret his death the most.

UNIQUE RECORD AS A PUBLIC MAN.

Toronto News, (Independent Conservative.)

In the death of the Hon. C. F. Fraser Canada loses one of her ablest statesmen and most faithful servants. His promotion, at all events, was not due to sectarian influence. It might rather be said, indeed, that his advancement was made despite the bar which religious prejudices had placed in his way.

As a speaker, he was clear, convincing and eloquent, but it was as a wise counsellor that he gained his chief fame. To the wisdom of the late Commissioner of Public Works, aided by that of the late Hon. T. B. Pardee, Sir Oliver Mowat is, in fact, mainly indebted for his long lease of power in Ontario.

But Mr. Fraser was not only an able counsellor, a wise leader, and a silver-tongued orator—he was an honest man.

In his twenty odd years in office—during which he controlled the expenditure of millions and built the new Parliament buildings—the breath of scandal never even touched him. Not once was he so much as accused of the misappropriation of a single dollar. A record such as that is, unhappily for Canada, unique.

But, happily, the reward is as great as the service rendered. That reward is more precious than silver; it is brighter than gold. It consists in the universal respect and esteem of his mourning countrymen and a name for his children that has never been tarnished by a mean or unworthy action.

HE WAS HONEST.

Toronto Mail.

Mr. Fraser was never subservient or dependent. He was essentially a leader, and the circumstances of his withdrawal from a position which, after all, did not adequately remunerate a man of his talents for the time and labour he expended, rendered it desirable and just that the province, in losing his services in one department, should retain them in another. This is not the time to discuss these features of Mr. Fraser's career to which, during his period of political activity, exception has been taken. Rather on the occasion of his departure should we consider the qualifications which enabled him to retain for twenty years the confidence of a majority of his fellow-citizens and the personal esteem of them all. Mr. Fraser rose to prominence by the sheer force of his own abilities. He was a remarkably acute politician. So generally was his political talent recognized that he was long regarded as the moving spirit of the Administration and the close friend and counsellor of the Premier. In addition to his instinct as a leader, he had remarkable powers as a public and parliamentary speaker. He was not magnetic nor oratorical; but he was very clever in his observations and very thorough in his reasoning. He never spoke except to offer an argument; he never offered an argument that was not strong. In the administration of his office he was business-like and prompt. What is more, he was honest. The parliament buildings are his monument. To their construction he devoted the later years of his official term watching them as a father watches a child. Mr. Fraser has passed away in the prime of life. A distinguished though by no means ostentatious Canadian, he has gone too soon.

A MAN WHOM IT WAS EASY TO RESPECT.

Ottawa Journal, (Independent.)

The Hon. Christopher Fraser was a man whom it was easy to respect. A staunch Roman Catholic and the thoroughly trusted political leader in Ontario politics of a majority of the Catholics of the province, he was at the same time a public-spirited, strong-minded, squarely-honest man, who might be fierce in his political contests, but never underhand. The new Legislative Buildings of Ontario, in the Queen's Park at Toronto, will remain a monument to his integrity. The final cost of the work far exceeded the original estimates, but this was due to changes in the plans. There were no "extras" on the contracts, nor any suspicion of either extravagance or negligence in the construction, thanks largely to Mr. Fraser's personal grip of the business in connection with it. Undoubtedly he was a useful man to the province and to his fellow Canadians, as well as a man of whose personal character his friends could well be proud. There is something pathetic in his removal from the earthly scene just as his ripe years had entered upon rest from political turmoil. But after all, the rest is made only the more complete.

ONE OF ONTARIO'S MOST TALENTED SONS.

Toronto Empire, (Conservative.)

Now that he is gone there are many who will recall memorable nights in the Legislature, when they have listened with delight to the impetuous torrent of his eloquence, for during the twenty-two years which he sat in the House, until weakness in the latter years made his abstention compulsory, he was ever in the front in debates. Many a time when the tide of debate was going against his political friends, have they looked to the Minister of Public Works to come to their rescue, and rarely did he fail them. With a genius rarely equalled for grasping the the salient points and marshalling the arguments in the most effective way, he would take up the lagging debate and drive home the contention of his side with a force and eloquence which always evoked the enthusiastic applause of his friends, while his opponents, if not convinced, would at least listen with pleasure and admiration of his talents. Nor was his eloquence the only quality which rendered him a tower of strength to his friends, for his fertility of resource and readiness at turning the tables by an adroit amendment was quite as noticeable.

It speaks volumes for the character of Mr. Fraser that he came personally unblemished through a long political career, for although it would be departing from the fact to say that his opponents did not find plenty to criticise in connection with his department as well as in the positions which he took in conjunction with his colleagues, yet never once was there a personal accusation made against him—in fact his opponents were as ready as his friends to admit that his reputation was that of an honest and upright man; and although he was a hard hitter in debate, and many were the blows which he gave and took in return, personal bitterness never followed, and among the Opposition, as well as on the Ministerial side, there was the most friendly personal feeling toward him. The pathetic scene in the Legislature last session, when the man who had ever been in the thick of debate arose in feebleness to address the House, and three times broke down in the attempt, will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it, and the sympathy which the sad episode evoked was as strong and sincere on one side of the House as the other. No man had ever earned a greater right to consideration from his party friends than did Hon. Mr. Fraser, and when he retired into the office which he filled for the last couple of months of his life he did so with the well wishes of his political opponents, who along with his friends hoped that relief from the more arduous cares of office would prolong his life. But the characteristic of restless activity and faithfulness in the performance of his duties, stuck to him to the end, and though by no means in a fit state he went off on a tour of inspection, from which he had just returned when he gave up the long struggle against disease, and breathed his last.

He is gone now, but by friend and opponent alike the name of Christopher Finley Fraser will long be remembered as that of one of Ontario's most talented sons, and the hearty sympathy of all classes will go out to the widow and family in the bereavement which although they must have been in a measure prepared for, yet came so suddenly at the last.

HIS CAREER AN INSPIRATION.

Toronto Globe (Liberal.)

He was the very model of a parliamentary orator; ready, but with a depth and originality which are sometimes lacking in a ready man; a strenuous and powerful debater, yet fair and magnanimous, never seeking to take an unfair advantage of an opponent, to belittle his argument, or to place him in a ridiculous or contemptible position; speaking always with strong conviction, often with passion, but showing his excitement only by a more deliberate and emphatic utterance, an increased concentration of his mind upon the subject in hand and a keener analysis of the argument he was combatting. The style was characteristic of the man; whatever he did was done with all his heart and with the utmost power of his intellect. Applied to the work of his department, this method produced an administration which, humanly speaking, may be termed almost faultless. Under his supervision were erected the buildings necessary for a system of caring for the insane and otherwise afflicted, probably not surpassed in any part of the world. We cannot measure his work by saying how many millions of public money were expended under his care; the value of his service must be measured not by what was spent, but by what was saved for the province and by the excellence of the work. The last and most conspicuous example of his administration is the building in which he died, and which will remain for many years a monument to his fidelity as a public servant. Mr. Fraser held and publicly announced the strictest views of his accountability for the conduct of his department. If corruption or waste had prevailed there he would have scorned to screen himself behind the excuse that it was the fault of some subordinate or contractor. He felt it to be his duty to see that they fulfilled their obligations. He also publicly repudiated the doctrine that it is lawful for public works to be given in exchange for a constituency. Among patriotic Canadians of all parties there can be no opinion but that Mr. Fraser's way was the right way, and the only way, for a man who aspires to do his country faithful service. While we may expect to hear from all parts of the country, and from the representatives of every shade of political opinion, tributes to the worth of a devoted servant, we should be sorry if that expression of opinion should be the end of the train of thought aroused by his life and death. His career ought to be an inspiration to every young Canadian who cherishes an honourable ambition for the public service. It should be an inspiration for honesty, for fidelity, for sturdiness of conviction. It should help us to bring about such a condition of public opinion that at the end of another decade public men of the stamp of Mr. Fraser will be found at the head of every department of the public service.

" Affliction sore long time she bore
Physicians were in vain."
At la-t one day, a friend did say,
" You'd soon be well again"

if you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus, and kindred weaknesses. As a nervine it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is now well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of curing in every case, or money paid for it returned.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Monday evening last Mr. Wilson and Mr. Tranter, of Toronto, had the misfortune to lose their complete outfit including two tents, utensils, etc., on Black Islands, Rice Lake, owing to the grass catching fire around their fireplace, which spread towards their tents, completely destroying everything. The boys were out for a troll at the time and on their return you can imagine. "If we are discovered we are not found"—of course the fiery element left its mark.

A team of horses owned by Mr. Lance Nicholson, of South Monaghan, and driven by Geo. Robinson, were engaged in hauling water from the lake; the barrel rolled off the wagon and the horses became unmanageable, throwing the driver off and making for Cow Island. Everything was saved. The horses became entangled in the weeds, where they were unhitched from punts supplied by Mr. Jackson. The wagon is still in the weeds. It was a close call.

Those registered at Hotel Jubilee are chiefly Americans and are as follows: Miss Knox, Miss Kit B. Smith, Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Sudia D. Campbell, Philadelphia; Mr. S. R. Dredge, Dr. P. H. Smith and wife, of Rochester; Mr. John Nurse, Bewdley; Mr. Geo. Nurse, Bensfort; Mr. and Mrs. James Drain, Ashburnham.

Messrs. S. W. Tennent, Toronto, W. P. Wilger, and W. E. Wilger, Cobourg, are camped on the point and will remain till the duck season sets in, which is on the 1st of September. Those carrying firearms should look out for themselves, as they may be nabbed and their guns seized. They must distinctly understand that the feathered tribe are not to be slaughtered until the 1st Sept. So govern yourselves accordingly.

Long Island, which has an area of about 180 acres, is on fire, causing the dense smoke which clouds the lake, everything being mowed down by the flames.

Court Tam Ochanter, No. 1022, Hastings, will ran their annual excursion per steamer City of Peterborough to Idyl Wild on Thursday, August 30th. It is anticipated that it will be a monster affair, as previous excursions under the management of this popular lodge have always been successful and they spare no pains in looking after those accompanying them for a day's outing. Good music will be provided for dancing. The brethren from Peterborough may take the train for Hastings the evening previous and return by steamer home the following evening. A most delightful trip.

Mr. Billy Creamer and Dave McGreggor, both of town, are camped on the Point, and are having great luck. Mr. Billy Deacon and Harry Mahar accompanied the boys.

A "free and easy" excursion from Bewdley to Hastings per steamer Beaver and barge Friday was a grand affair, some three hundred passengers took in the trip through the lake and river Trent. Good music was furnished by the Bewdley string band for dancing. They returned home by moonlight after a sojourn in Hastings for several hours, highly pleased. Their next outing will be to Jubilee Point early in September. Mr. J. Smith, secretary of committee deserves great credit for the manner in which he looked after those under his charge.

The Balsam grove, Cold Springs, Otonabee, picnic, per steamer City of Peterborough, to Idyl Wild, passed through here at noon, with some three or four hundred passengers aboard.

The Baltimore picnic per steamer Daisy, to Jubilee Point, was fairly well attended, some 200 passengers in all. There was a palace barge attached and grand music by the Baltimore string band for those desirious of doing the heel and toe exercise throughout the excursion. They returned at 7.30 p. m., highly delighted with their outing. The generosity shown by the attendants in and about the Point, convinced them to have a similiar one at an early period in the month of September. They consider "Jubilee" out of sight.

The recent arrivals are as follows,—Mr. Chas. Neil, Mr. Wm. East, Mr. Joseph Ponder, Illinois; Messrs. Alex. Welsh and John Hutchinson, Gore's Landing; Mr. James Thompson, Coldsprings; Miss May Ponder, Illinois; Mrs. Chas. Neil, Gore's Landing; Mrs. Jas. Thompson, Coldsprings; Misses Winnie, Lula and Maud Neil, Mrs. West, Mr. Hugh McCollough and wife. They will remain till the wind up of the season. Apparently they are enjoying themselves immensely.

Mr. James Wedlock, of Wedlock's Landing, states that the frogs are gradually disappearing and thinks that the government should protect the frogs as well as the bass and lunge in these waters. He says that frogs should not be caught or handled between 1st of April and 1st July. This should be the close season. When Mr. Wedlock was engaged in frog buying, as he says, it took four frogs to the pound, now it takes sixteen, the larger ones being picked up. The frogs commence spawning generally about the first of June. However, frog catching should be strictly looked after, the same as fish and game, and give them time to mature. A stop should be put to it and a close season added also.

The excursion from Bewdley to Keene per steamer Daisy, Friday, was a most successful one. Several hundred passengers aboard. It was found necessary to attach the "Rice Scow" to accommodate the crowd. The party returned home early in the evening immensely pleased. The captain (Chas. Calcutt) looked after the excursionists in such a manner that they contented themselves that he was in it, and decided they would enjoy themselves again in another round about the lakes, which is their intention later on.

Wm. Langton, Samuel Medds, Thomas Newton and Wm. Wilkinson are camped at the Point. They are a jolly lot of boys, and are enjoying themselves immensely. Being anglers up-to-date they are hooking quite a number of the finny tribe. They hail from Cavanville. Their stay is indefinite.

The excursion per the steamer Daisy, Capt. Chas. Calcutt in command, given by the Bewdly football team, was an immense success. Commodore Johnston looked after the excursionists in a successful manner.

Don't buy a blood-purifier because it is "cheap." The best—the Superior Medicine—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is, in the end, the cheapest blood-purifier on the market. The ingredients of which it is composed are the most expensive and medicinally efficacious that can be obtained.

CHEMONG PARK ITEMS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

That this charming place is still filled with guests, every room at the hotel being occupied, as well as the cottage belonging to the house, and to see the cots and sofas utilized for beds, speaks for itself. No sooner do guests leave than by next stage as many more new arrivals. Among the latest signatures on the hotel register are the following names:—Mr. E. W. Osborne, Mrs. Osborne, Miss B. Osborne and Miss Keeler, Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Ostrom, Peterborough; T. H. Whiteside and party, Youngstown, Ohio. (five in party); J. D. Chisholm, Port Hope; B. C. Jones, Westchester, Pa.; Mr. W. A. Beecher, Mrs. Sabine, Youngstown, Ohio; Geo. Herzberger, Rochester, N.Y.; F. P. Nuse, Buffalo, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, D. J. Palmer, wife and daughter, F. W. Parsons, Toronto; H. Merrifield and wife, Oswego; Chas. P. Warren, wife and daughter, Schnectady; B. Ostrander and wife, Miss B. Ostrander, Miss Mary Parker, Elmira, N. Y.; Samuel Purdow and party of four, Syracuse, N.Y., and many who drive from Peterborough, to enjoy the fresh, cool breezes and partake of an excellent cuisine at "the Hotel." Fishing is daily improving. Mr. Ben. Ostrom, who is counted the champion fisher at the Park, has had remarkably good catches every day, as he goes out every day, being a good man with the oars, a noted swimmer, and never nervous, no matter how hard it blows, he is out when others are in and never comes in without fish. Friday evening he came in with Mr. D. C. Sullivan, of Rochester, N. Y., and, oh my! what a catch they had, seven bass and five maskinonge. But amongst the guests, there are other lovers of fishing, and these are Miss Osborne and Miss Keeler. They went out for an hour and returned with a nice maskinonge, and Friday evening, whilst the guests were discussing Mr. Ostrom's catch, and listening to his interesting stories of the time he had landing each fish, in came Miss Osborne, and was far from being outdone, as she had with her a maskinonge of such gameness and size, tipping the scales at 13½ pounds, so that her smaller fish were overlooked. Miss Osborne is also possessor of a fine camera, and has it with her and this fish will be photographed to-morrow, as no doubt will be many of the beautiful scenes around here.

Mr. Aug. Brown of San Antonio, Texas, left for home yesterday, delighted with his first trip, and the many friends he made here from his general sociability and readiness to join in any amusements.

Mr. M. Dunn delighted everyone at the hotel lost night by singing—and a fine singer he is. Dancing was also indulged in, and also this evening, but not to such an extent as it has been, as it was a little too warm.

Mrs. Fuller, of Ottawa, and Miss Shewill went to town to-day and were the guest of Mrs. Fairweather. Mr. Fuller enjoyed a trip on the Empire to Fenelon Falls yesterday, and to-day to Lakefield, then joining Mrs. Fuller for tea at Mrs. Fairweather's.

The new steamer Idle-Hour still keeps up its popularity and general favour with the public. Every day this week the boat has been with parties to Buckhorn and other points of interest.

That Chemong Park has had a big season is certain, and all who have been here are so delighted that they will return next season if spared and with more friends, and there is no doubt but that the hotel will be considerably enlarged to accommodate the many extra that will be present, and this season's trade not only speaks of the popularity and favour of the park but of Mr. Fobert and his attentive staff, whose whole ambition is to make their guests comfortable, and have an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Geo. Ball, who is visiting at Mrs. McFadden's at the Park, got three fine fish, and she also feels satisfied that Chemong Park gives lots of fine fishing.

Pimples, boils and other humours of the blood are liable to break out in the warm weather. Prevent it by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

One of Those Successes.

When any special effort is made in a line of trade and that effort results satisfactorily the public make the comment "that's another of those successes." The expression is not one of faultless grammar, but it states the case. The opening day of the autumn reduction sale at Jos. Armstrong's brought a large crowd of buyers, who finding that the promises made as to prices and qualities were kept to the very letter, bought freely, and to themselves profitably. The sale continues for 30 days and those who need autumn and winter dry goods will do well to visit the store.

Caused by a Frisky Colt.

Mr. John Hunter, of Otonabee, while engaged in leading a colt a few days ago had his leg broken in a rather peculiar manner. The colt was being led at the rear of the buggy, the slack rope being thrown loosely in the bottom of the vehicle. While Mr. Hunter was getting into the buggy the colt became frisky and drew back, drawing Mr. Hunter, whose leg had become entangled in the rope, over the back of the seat, with the result that he obtained a severe fracture of one of his legs. It will be some time before he will be able to use the limb.

Convent Congregation de Notre Dame.

It will be learned with regret that Mother St. Aubert, so long and so favourably known to the musical world of Peterborough, has not returned this year. Her place, however, we are glad to learn, will be filled by one of the most accomplished and successful musicians of the order. She and her assistant will, no doubt, uphold the high reputation the Convent of Notre Dame, Peterborough, has acquired of imparting a thorough musical education. The sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame will be prepared to receive pupils in vocal and instrumental music after Sept. 1st, prox.

At the Opera House.

Frost and Fanshawe's company presented "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" at the Opera House, Saturday evening, before a small house. The play, as presented, was a modern version, and not the old stereotyed one. The different characters were exceptionally well taken. Mr. Panton as "Simon Slade," and Mr. Russell as "Joe Morgan," being worthy of special praise. Miss Mabel Frost, in her singing, acquitted herself in an excellent manner, and was very warmly received. The company is an excellent one in every respect, and it is to be regretted that they were not greeted with large houses. They will play in Belleville this evening.

A Successful Fishing Party.

A fishing party composed of Mr. Tobe Fitzgerald, the veteran Nimrod of Peterborough, and Messrs. Patterson, general manager of of Home Life Association, Toronto, J. Firstbrook, of Firstbrook Bros., Toronto, Mr. Bailey, commission merchant, Toronto, Mr. Wilson, of 62 King street, East, Toronto's popular tobacconist, and J. G. Haworth, general agent Home Life Association, Toronto, have returned from a successful fishing expedition at the back lakes. The result of their outing is a catch of 117 bass at Turtle and Cool lakes and at Burleigh. Mr. Patterson, of the party, was also successful in catching a fourteen pound lunge with steel rod at Burleigh. The jaunt only occupied three days from the time they left home until they made their return journey, which left them only two days to make this enormous catch.

Going to St. John.

Mr. George E. Williams, the retiring secretary of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association, the News says, will take his departure next week, proceeding to St. John, N.B., where a similar position awaits him, his duties to begin on [illegible] of September. St. John is a city [illegible] population, and its Y.M.C.A. men [illegible] is about double that of Kingston, the present figure being 688. In going to New Brunswick Mr. Williams is not entering upon strange territory. Part of his boyhood was spent there, his father having been four years pastor of the Congregational church at Sheffield—the oldest church of any denomination in the Province. Mrs. Williams, who has been summering at Stony Lake, and is now in Peterborough, will come on to Kingston early next week, and after a few days accompany her husband eastward.

A Thrilling Adventure.

The Port Hope Guide, of Saturday, contains the following:—Major Hughes, W. H. Reid, and G. W. Jones, Newtonville, and Moses Cowan and Wm. Freeborne were camping on Sugar Island, Rice Lake, opposite Gore's Landing. On Thursday evening, the Major took a boat and went up to Bewdley for some supplies. Not returning before dark, large fires were kept up all night by his comrades in camp, but no appearance of the Major. After waiting until nine o'clock yesterday morning, the party broke up camp and went to Bewdley. There they ascertained that Mr. Hughes had left for camp about eight o'clock, on Thursday night. Mr. Jones and company then made search, employing sixteen or seventeen men, who scoured the lake until a late hour last night, without success. Saturday morning, the Major's boat was found bid among the reeds, one oar gone, but none of the supplies taken. The party then concluded that the man was drowned. Mr. Jones then went to the telegraph office to apprise Mr. Hughes' family, when he found a message from Mr. Hughes from Keene, saying that he was alive and would be in Port Hope on the one o'clock train Saturday.

—The arbitrators between the townships and the town in relation to the outfall sewer are in session in the council chamber this afternoon. Dr. Bryce, secretary of Provincial Board of Health, is present.

—A bicycle party, consisting of Messrs. J. Lenty, Geo. Lafferty and Nelson Tait, of Cobourg, wheeled out to Peterborough on Sunday morning. They report having had a pleasant run, although it was rather a lengthy one for one day.

—There will be a meeting of the Cricket Club in Mr. R. B. Rogers' office this evening at a quarter to eight sharp, and it is necessary that all members, and especially officers of the club, will be on hand, as most important business is to be considered.

—An impostor has been working the Oddfellows' lodges in a number of American cities. He gave his name as Col. Alnit, and is well known in Windsor, where he lived a pretty gay life. He is now serving four months for obtaining money under false pretences.

—General Booth, of the Salvation Army, on his proposed tour in Canada this fall, will arrive in Peterborough on Oct. 18th. The local corps are already making preparations for the event. The drill shed or the new market building will probably be engaged for the evening meeting.

—The cemetery at Hiawatha, commonly called "Hatrick's Point," was robbed of the chains which were strung around the marbel posts around the graves of those interred in the burying grounds. Some fifty in number being at rest at this point. Horses and cattle are making a pasture field of the spot.

—Mr. N. W. Speer, carpenter, town, has returned home from Roseneath, where he has been engaged in erecting a handsome dwelling for Drs. Lapp and Darling. The structure is a three storey red brick one, and is surmounted by a handsome tower, the whole costing between three and four thousand dollars. First class material was used in its construction, and a first class job was done by Mr. Speer.

—The Dickson Company has upwards of ten million feet of lumber, at Harwood, ready for shipment as soon as sold. We are informed, says the Cobourg Post, that the company intend to dispose of the stock within the next few weeks, and then it will be shipped immediately after the deal is closed. Our informant stated that it was fully expected that the lumber would be sold to a party in Albany, and that it would go by way of Oswego.

—A jolly camping party composed of Mr. Jack Carveth, captain; Mr. T. Connal, first mate; and Messrs. Jack Smith, Charley Rose and —— Logan, embarked Saturday on the steam yacht, "Water Lily," for a fortnight's cruise and camp on Rice Lake. They were well provisioned for the voyage and two or three members of the party have been taking special lessons in arithmetic in order to do full justice to the fish stories that will need to be told.

—The eleventh annual excursion of L. O. L. No. 46, under the management of Archie Reynolds, Frazerville, will be held at Jubilee Point, Friday, Sept. 14th. It is anticipated that it will cap any previous outing given by Lodge No. 46, which has always been most successful in any of its undertakings. The Peterborough brethren intend taking in the trip. This trip is a most delightful one and there is no reason why there should not be a large gathering.

—The steamer City of Peterborough will run, on Labour Day, 3rd Sept., an excursion under the auspices of the Knights of Labour from Harwood, Gore's Landing, and intermediate landing stages along the route to Peterborough, arriving at that port in ample time to witness the monster celebration of all Labour societies between Toronto and Belleville. This is considered one of the largest gatherings of labour societies ever held in Ontario. The fares on the various steamers plying the waters on the various waterways in and about the town, as well as the railways, have been exceptionally reduced. The steamers leave at four o'clock, giving ample time for sightseers, and the railways per time table.

THIS IS THE OPENING DAY.

The Town Schools Resume Work After the Long Vacation—The Collegiate Institute—The Large Attendance—The Public and Separate Schools.

To-day marks the end of the long vacation when teachers and pupils, after a two months rest, resume the labours of a new term. All the schools showed a full attendance of both teachers and pupils.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

The opening session of this, the highest educational institution of the town, was full of encouragement and hope for another successful term. The full staff of teachers was present,—Messrs. C. Fessenden, Principal, mathematics and science; J. A. Fife, mathematics and science; John Jaffries, English; W. J. Drope, commercial work, history and geography; Miss Marty, French and German; H. R. H. Kenner, classics; Sergt.-Major Rundle, calesthenics and drill. The initial attendance of 184 was larger than of any preceding term, especially in the higher forms, the number in the three highest being 110, giving 74 in the two divisions of the first form, of whom 53 were from the Entrance class. This total is sure to be largely increased so that the total attendance when the school becomes thoroughly organized for the term will be considerably over 200. This morning was devoted to seeing what was to be done and this afternoon to deciding how it is to be done, that is in the difficult work of preparing a time table.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The public schools re-opened this morning with a large attendance. The Inspector and Principals rapidly advanced the promoted pupils to their respective grades, specified books to be purchased, assigned lessons and dismissed for the day.

On entering the south school the eyes of both teachers and pupils lit up with pleasure. During the holidays the Improvement Committe, of which Mr. Peter Hamilton is chairman, had the walls and woodwork beautifully tinted and painted, the blackboards repaired and the floors oiled. This school is now one of the best in the province.

The new Kindergarten was opened in the basement of the Episcopal mission school, at the corner of Sherbrooke and Rubidge streets. The room has been attractively fitted up. It has been decided by the Board of Education to send all pupils in the South Ward, between the ages of five and seven years, who have made little or no advancement in the regular school work, to the Kindergarten, and to charge each pupil for supplies the sum of 15 cents a month The same rate will be charged for admission to the Central Kindergarten. This sum is considerably less than the law allows but to make it possible for all pupils of the proper age to attend, the Board will henceforth charge a minimum rate.

To-morrow the various divisions will be all properly graded, and the term's work begun in earnest.

THE SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

At the Murray street school, Mr. Wm. Burke, principal and staff of three teachers: Misses Dennaird, O'Connell and Ryan, were greeted with unusually large classes on the first day. The roll showed the following attendance in the different forms: Form No. 1, 60 pupils; No. 2, 63 pupils; No. 3, 43 pupils, and No. 4, 39 pupils.

At the Lake street school, which will be in charge of the Sisters of St. Joseph, the pupils turned out in large numbers. No. 1 showed an attendance of 60; No. 2, 47; No. 3, 53.

At the convent school the classes showed unusual strength for the openining day. No. 1 form showed 83 on roll; No. 2, 50; No. 3, 47; and No. 4, 38.

The pupils of the Murray street school after receiving their lessons and instructions for the beginning of school to-morrow were dismissed and Mr. Burke, accompanied by Dr. Brennan, chairman of the Separate School Board, and Rev. Father Casey, visited the Lake street and Convent schools, where everything was found in first-class order for a successful season's work. The schools have been repaired during the vacation, the black boards in the Murray street school have repaired and everything relating to the comfort of scholars and teachers has been attended to.

The total number in attendance at the three schools this morning was close on 300.

THREE MONTHS IN GAOL.

O'Rourke, the Watch Thief, Receives a Light Sentence.

This afternoon Police Magistrate Dumble passed sentence on young Jas. O'Rourke, who was arrested last week, charged with the larceny of a watch from Mr. James Russell. The prisoner is a bright, intelligent looking youth, aged 17 years, and while in the cells expressed sincere contrition for the offence committed. He hails from Toronto, where he had been employed by Mr. R. Burger, 92½ George street. His father is dead, and his widowed mother resides in Buffalo, where he has a brother attending St. Mary's Institute. The boy states that at the expiration of his term of three months he will leave for Buffalo to live with his mother, who, he said, was the best friend he had. The magistrate in sentencing him gave him a few words of advice as to his course through life.

AN OKLAHOMA WEDDING.

Nuptials of Miss Mina Menzies and Mr. Geo. Hepburn Laing.

A Kingfisher (O. T.) paper contains the following notice of the marriage of Miss Mina Menzies, fourth daughter of Mr. Thomas Menzies, formerly of Peterborough, which will be read with interest by the many friends in town.

On the afternoon of August 22nd, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Geo. H. Laing formerly of Kingfisher, but now of Enid, was united in marriage by Rev. J. C. Sefton, pastor of the Presbyterian church, to Miss Mina Menzies, who was deservedly popular. Mr. Laing is a rising young barrister and has occupied several important public positions. He now has a successful law practice in Enid, whither he and his fair bride went on the evening train at the conclusion of the wedding festivities.

What Customers Say of Hop Tea

SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1894.

MESSRS. MASON & CO.

We like your Hop Tea very much better than any other Tea we ever used before and find it much cheaper than the 40 cent Black Tea, as I use only a little over half the usual quantity.

Will you please send before dinner 5 pounds of the same Tea for which I have enclosed $2.50. I think that is the price you told me it would be by taking five pounds.

Parents, Attention!

Mothers, who are anxious to send their children to school decently dressed, need no longer offer the excuse that they can't afford to buy them decent clothing.

FOR THE GIRLS—I can sell you durable and appropriate Dress Goods at 5c. per yard—just the thing to make up neatly for School Dresses. Also Apron Muslin and other Apron Material for 5c. per yard.

FOR THE BOYS—I can sell you a splendid Navy Blue Serge, double width, winter weight, for 25c. per yard, just the thing to make up into Suits. Also good Black Hose, 5c. per pair, for the children.

You never had a better opportunity to get cheap material for your children than now at

MISS RUDKINS,

Crystal Block, Opposite "Examiner" Office.

Away Ahead!

Never before have we been in a better position to say, "We always lead; we never follow," than we are at the present time. We have already passed into stock 15 cases of new goods and many of the lines are being picked up rapidly.

DRESS GOODS.

We are showing now a larger range of new fall dress goods than you will find with any store in town a month later, and we give you our guarantee that the prices are right. All we want is to have you call and see them. From the manufacturers to you direct is our way of doing business. 10c. a yard up to $2.50.

JACKETS AND CAPES.

We are now showing new Jackets and Capes, and expect another large consignment in a few days.

A Complete Change

Has taken place in the styles and lengths of these goods since orders were placed in the spring. Our buying direct from the manufacturer instead of from agents, and visiting the markets in June and July secures for us the newest styles. Don't fail to see our stock before you buy.

RIBBONS AND HANDKERCHIEFS.

New Goods bought at Job prices, to hand. 100 pieces of Silk Ribbon, 20 different shades, No. 9 width at 5c. a yard. 50 doz. Lawn Handkerchiefs, worth 10 to 15c. clearing prices 8c.

LACES AND LACE COLLARETTES.

New Collarettes the latest out. New Valenciennes laces in narrow and medium width, scarce goods. New silk laces in cream, white and black.

FANCY LINENS.

Pillow shams, table covers, doylees, and napkins. Beautifully embroidered, New Styles. Real Linen Lace Quilts with Bolster Shams to match, the latest novelty, worth a look if you cannot afford to buy.

MEN'S NEW NECKTIES AND SUITINGS.

We have passed into stock our whole purchase of new Neckwear and Suitings, in the newest styles and at the lowest prices.

BRAIDS AND TRIMMINGS.

All our new braids are now in stock and a few novelties in gimps with others to follow shortly.

MILLINERY.

We have been fortunate in getting early delivery of all our new Trimmings and anyone wanting Hats or Bonnets, can have the latest styles with us now.

One Thing Does It!

We are often asked, How is it that you are always doing business when others are crying hard times and advertising Fake Sales, etc., to boom up their trade? Our only reply is: We give the people what we advertise. We sell for cash, therefore cheaper than Credit Houses. Our motto is Small Profits and Quick Returns.

The Result is our trade is increasing every month.

You are invited to call any time you are down town to see our new goods as they are being opened up.

Samples sent by mail and orders by mail promptly filled.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Rev. Mr. Pickford, curate of St. John's mission, took the morning service, at St. John's church yesterday.

Miss Ferguson, of Scotland, will speak this evening, at the close of the meeting of St. Paul's Society of Christian Endeavour.

Mr. Russell, of Millbrook, at the Murray street Baptist church yesterday preached two forcible and eloquent sermons before good congregations.

The Park street mission junior B.Y.P.U. will hold a first class entertainment at the mission, on next Thursday evening. A first class entertainment will be provided.

R. E. Spence, of Manitoba, preached a missionary sermon in the Mark street church yesterday morning on the subject "Joshua and Caleb" before a large congregation.

Rev. A. MacWilliams, after an absence of several weeks, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church yesterday both morning and evening, preaching practical and earnest sermons.

At St. Luke's church yesterday morning Rev. Jas. H. Talbot, of Oshawa, occupied the pulpit. The reverend gentleman preached an eloquent and logical sermon, which was appreciated by the large congregation present.

Rev. T. S. McKee, of Fraserville, conducted the morning service at the George street Methodist church yesterday, preaching a very able and forcible sermon. The service in the evening was taken by Rev. R. E. Spence, of Manitoba, who delivered a convincing and earnest address.

At the different masses in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday prayers were offered up for the repose of the soul of the Hon. Christopher Finlay Fraser. The reverend gentleman made a feeling reference to the life and labours of the deceased, stating he was stricken down with illness while battling for the rights and liberties of his faith in the Provincial Legislature.

CHARLOTTE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

The services yesterday were conducted by the pastor; large congregations filled the church. The lesson was the 1st chapter of the 1st Epistle of St. Peter. The preacher selected his text from the same chapter, 24th verse: "For all flesh is as grass and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth and the flower thereof falleth away." The subject was opened out in a practical way, expounded clearly and logically and illustrated by anectode and word painting of mind and eye, bringing before his hearers the uncertainty of life, closing with exhortation and admonition to prepare for the life to come. The choir was as usual in full strength and Messrs. Davis and Shaw sang a fine piece entitled, "There is Hope Beyond." The evening services were an inspiration to the congregation. The pastor read the 107th Psalm for the lesson, selecting the second verse as follows:—"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so." The preacher handled his subject in such a manner that to appreciate it in the fullest sense it would be necessary to hear it. The sermon was full of good counsel, bearing on the closest relations in life. He urged his hearers to speak words of encouragement to each other, to do kind acts, so as to cement the bonds of love and friendship here and not wait till our opportunities were past and then strew flowers on their graves. The speaker pointed out the blessings in connection with the works of charity and love. Miss A. Fawcett sang in fine voice, "Rest for the Weary."

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still puts her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

POLICE COURT.

Monday, Aug. 20th.

There was a fair sized docket at the police court this morning.

LACROSSE.

The Granites of Peterborough journeyed to Port Hope Saturday, where they played a very friendly game with a team composed of the II Ontarios and Beaver lacrosse clubs of Port Hope. When the boys lined up on the field it was noticed that Messrs. Tutton and Crowhurst, who played against the senior Bellevilles last Monday, were pitted against the Granites, who were decidedly the lightest team. However, the Granites need not be discouraged at the result of the game. They made a plucky fight and played a remarkably neat game, the score at the end standing 3 to 2 in favour of Port Hope. Every member of the Granites played well, Messrs. G. Bell and Ed. Sawer doing excellent work, "Eddie" scoring the two goals for the Granites, while Monorief in goal was a star. The members of the Port Hope team are a gentlemanly lot of players and the Granites are loud in their praise of the treatment received at their hands. The return match will be played here at an early date.

BASEBALL.

The Orono baseball club was to have played here Saturday, but the game has been postponed until Monday, Sept. 3rd, Labour Day.

In referring to the recent Peterborough-Orono match the News says: The Peterborough boys are a very gentlemanly lot of young fellows, and we trust they will visit our town when they are in better shape to play ball."

FOOTBALL.

The members of the Lock Works football club turned out on the P. A. A. A. grounds Saturday afternoon with the intention of playing the town team, but the latter failed to show up. Sides were chosen and some excellent practice was indulged in.

SATURDAY'S MARKET.

There was a good market Saturday morning, grain moving steadily. Wheat is selling 56 to 58c; oats, 26 to 28c; old, 30c; peas, 56 to 58c; mummies, 58 to 60c; rye, none in; barley, 40 to 45c; hay, timothy, $8.00; mixed, $7.00 to $7.50; straw, $3.00. The market in vegetables was large. Tomatoes selling at 30c. per peck; potatoes, 50 to 60c per bag; apples, 40 to 50c per bag; butter, 18 to 20c. per lb.; eggs, 9 to 10c. per doz.; chickens, 40 to 50c. per pair; ducks, 50 to 60c. per pair; plums, blue and red, 10c. per quart. There was a large variety of fruit and vegetables, especially apples. lamb, 9 and 10c.; mutton, 8 and 9c.; the live stock market is looking up, quite a number of hogs being weighed, selling from $4.75 to $5 per cwt. The scales have been thoroughly overhauled and renovated, new timbers having been placed in and new trackways for loading hogs on wagons, making everything very complete. These improvements have been made under the direction of the chairman of the market committee, Mr. McElwain.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A BAD WRECK

—of the constitution may follow in the track of a disordered system, due to impure blood or inactive liver. Don't run the risk! The proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery take all the chances. They make a straightforward offer to return your money if their remedy fails to benefit or cure in all disorders and affections due to impure blood or inactive liver. The germs of disease circulate through the blood; the liver is the filter which permits the germs to enter or not. The liver active, and the blood pure, and you escape disease.

When you're run down, debilitated, weak, and your weight below a healthy standard, you regain health, strength, and wholesome flesh, by using the "Discovery." It builds up the body faster than nauseating Cod liver oils or emulsions.

THE MAKERS of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if they can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

FISH-CULTURE.

How Low-Lying Waste Lands May be Utilized to Great Profit.

The possibilities of fish-culture and the turning to the best account of the large areas of water which now contribute little or nothing to the national wealth are far from being generally appreciated. The Dominion Government has done something, though not nearly as much as might have been accomplished, towards re-stocking the depleted rivers and streams with the best varieties of good fish. But very few private individuals have devoted any attention to utilizing the ponds and creeks upon their property in this way. Many farmers might profitably turn to account the low lying lands along water-courses which are now often allowed to lie waste, by devoting them to pisciculture and raising such varieties of food fish as can best thrive under local conditions.

In these days of intense competition the old method of depending entirely upon one or two staple crops for the year's income and neglecting all smaller sources of profit or food supply must be abandoned by the agriculturist who hopes to maintain his position. In Europe the farmer in order to live finds it necessary to turn to profitable account every foot of the soil, and fish-culture is an important item. There are some varieties of fish, notably the carp, which thrive in shallow, warm muddy pools where most of our native Canadian fish would not exist. On the European continent the thrifty agriculturist having a swamp or creek upon his land would with comparatively little labor convert his low-lying waste acres into a fish-pond, stock it with carp and so provide an important addition to the food resources of the family and possibly an increase of its marketable output.

In view of the need of developing all our resources and finding new sources of profit for the farmer and land owner, the Natural History department of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition have taken a judicious and practical step in deciding to make a specialty of fish and fish-culture exhibits at the exhibition, which opens on September 3rd. There will accordingly be a very large and comprehensive collection of live fish of the most important food varieties as well as many preserved specimens duly arranged and classified. The interest and practical value of this display will be not a little increased by the showing of two artificial fish incubators forwarded by the Dominion Fisheries Department which will be shown in operation. This will afford an idea of the process by which the natural productiveness of our waters is being restored by placing in suitable localities swarms of young salmon and white fish.

Those who contemplate trying fish-culture on their own account can get many useful suggestions as to the best methods of stocking ponds and streams and the particular varieties of fish most likely to flourish. Both from a scientific and practical point of view this feature of the Industrial is one of much interest and utility.

MRS. HALLIDAY BIT HIM.

Sheriff Beecher's Hand Badly Swollen and Amputation is Feared.

MONTICELLO, N.Y., Aug. 25.—Sheriff Harrison Beecher, who for a time had charge of Lizzie Halliday, the triple murderess, is suffering severe pain from a swollen hand, the result of a bite from that notorious prisoner on June 27. As the sheriff was taking the woman from the court room after sentence had been pronounced, she turned upon him with tigerish ferocity and planted her teeth in his hand. Anticipating an attack of this nature, the sheriff had provided himself with gloves, which he wore at the time. The teeth entered the glove and produced a slight abrasion of the skin, but nothing was thought of it at the time. Three or four weeks ago the scratch began to itch and burn. A few nights ago the sheriff was awakened by a severe pain in the injured member. Since that time he has suffered acutely, and now the swelling is extending toward the elbow. Should the arm continue to swell, it is thought it will have to be amputated.

ANTI-LORDS DEMONSTRATION.

The National League Holds an Indignation Meeting in Hyde Park.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The Nationalists' demonstration against the Lords was held in Hyde Park yesterday. The demonstration had been much advertised and was expected to be an imposing affair, but it was a fiasco. Hardly 10,000 persons were present. William O'Brien, Dr. Tanner and Thomas Curran, all Irish M. P's, delivered the principal speeches. They elicited little enthusiasm. Wm. O'Brien warned the Government that the continuation of the Irish support would depend on its fidelity to the crusade against the Lords and their policy of blocking the way to reform.

While the Conservative journals treat the demonstration as a fizzle, the Daily News contends that it was successful and estimates the number of persons who gathered round the platforms at 16,000. The News adds that the procession was small because most persons walked to the park independently of the organizations.

Hay Crops in Three Countries.

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y., Aug. 27.—Special reports covering all the sections of the United States, Canada and Europe on the hay crop, collected for the crop report number of the Hay Trade Journal, show a shortage as compared with an average crop of 9 per cent., with 3 per cent. of the old hay remaining in the hands of farmers and dealers. The only section of the United States showing increased acreage is Ohio and Michigan. The crop in Europe is abundant. Prices at the seaboard markets of the United States vary from $9 to $17 a ton, with a liberal supply arriving.

Disastrous Cyclones in Europe.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—A terribly disastrous cyclone swept along the shore of the Sea of Azov, working immense damage. In some instances entire villages were swept into the sea. Many steamers were sunk or driven ashore and it is reported that at least 1,000 persons perished.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—The towns of Schwank and Waltersbuck, in the Vogelburg Mountains, in Hesse, were wrecked by a very heavy wind storm and water spouts. The towns were flooded and trees were snapped off or torn up by the roots.

Floods in India.

CALCUTTA, Aug. 27.—A lake formed early in this year in the landslip near Gohna, in Bengal, burst its banks on Saturday. The catastrophe had been predicted since spring and men had watched constantly for the first sign of the break. The inhabitants of the valley had prepared to move quickly and when warned on Friday were able to get to the hills within a few hours. Several villages were ruined by the flood, but there was little or no loss of life.

The Fruit Business in the West.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 27.—The enormous fruit business handled by the Union Pacific this year is without parallel in the history of the traffic. Shipments over the Wyoming division now average nine or ten trains a day and the officials think the rush will continue at least a month. One hundred and sixty-seven special trains of green fruit have already passed over the line to the eastern market.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

Sick Headache and Constipation are promptly cured by Burdock Pills. Easy to take, sure in effect.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

:o:

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc, in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

DEPUTIES AND HOBOES

Buffalo Authorities Have a Tussle With Rybadowski's Army.

MANY INDUSTRIALS INJURED

Nine of Them So Severely Hurt as to Necessitate Being Taken to the Hospital—Sixty-five Convicted as Tramps and Sentenced.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—Sheriff Taggart's posse of 25 men assisted by 15 policemen put to flight Count Rybadowskitrs' army of 250 hoboes yesterday after a pitched battle in which 25 of the hoboes and two deputy sheriffs were injured. Nine hoboes were so badly hurt that it was necessary to take them to the hospital. The count and 150 of his followers have been placed under arrest, the count being held for assault in the second degree for which he can receive five years imprisonment. The list of injured is as follows:

Albert Vogel, aged 33, of Illinois, scalp wound; Joseph Cavert, Buffalo, scalp wound; Thomas Mankoski, Chicago, very bad wound on head; John Mennicoski, South Bend, Ind., scalp wound; Fred M. Eugus, Chicago, scalp wound; Stanislaus Caperlo, Chicago, scalp wound and shot in arm; Walent Wojcichowski, Cleveland, scalp wound; Henry Lusser, Chicago, scalp wound; Samuel Rosen, Chicago, left leg filled with buckshot, also scalp wound; Levi Spencer, deputy sheriff, scalp ploughed by bullet; George Taylor, deputy sheriff, bad scalp wound.

A score of others had their heads cut open by policemen's clubs and were treated by the ambulance physicians who did not deem it necessary to take them to the hospital. The count himself was badly cut under the eye by the fist of a deputy sheriff.

The battle occurred about 5 o'clock in the evening. Sheriff Taggart had notified the Count to move on, as the three days allowed him had expired. The Count sent back word that he would "spit on Sheriff Taggart's notice" and would remain as long as he pleased. Sheriff Taggart swore in twenty-five deputies, put himself at their head and set out to disperse the army. He arrived at the camp and placed the Count and his lieutenants under arrest and started with them for Justice Foster's court, half a mile away, where they were to be tried. The army, numbering 250 men, fell in behind the prisoners. When they arrived at the court house the Count was permitted to speak to some of his followers. He addressed them in Polish, and before the sheriff could interfere the crowd had closed in around the Count and he was beyond the reach of the sheriff.

The army formed a hollow square around the Count and swinging their clubs around their heads defied the sheriff to take him. With only thirty men the sheriff was nonplussed for a moment. It was outside the city limits and the police stationed a hundred feet away could not legally interfere. Sheriff Taggart called to one of his deputies and told him to arrest the Count. As the deputy approached the lines a Pole struck him and the deputy knocked him senseless.

"Come on" cried Police Captain Killeen to his mounted men who were itching for fight and fifteen of them dashed at the commonwealers with the deputies at their horses' heels. The police used their clubs, the deputies their revolvers and clubs and the Count's champions both clubs and revolvers.

In fifteen minutes the fight was over and the twenty-five Coxeyites with broken heads were groaning on the ground. Rosen of Chicago shot Deputy Sheriff Spencer, the bullet ploughing through Spencer's scalp. Deputy John O'Brien, a well-known newspaper man, who was armed with a shot gun, turned it on Rosen and the contents lodged in his leg. His injuries are the most serious.

Sheriff Taggart arrested sixty-five of the Coxeyites; all were convicted as tramps and sentenced each to thirty days in the penitentiary. The police have arrested as many more who will be tried to-day.

The Count was badly handled and bruised. He will be held for the grand jury.

Urging the Defeat of Populists.

CHICAGO, Aug. 25.—A Denver, Col., special says: One hundred and fifty business men of Denver, comprising smelter managers, bankers and wholesale merchants have issued an address to the business men of Colorado. The address urges them to join in a movement to regain the confidence of eastern financial circles by securing the defeat of Gov. Waite and the Populist party in the coming state election.

Will Try a Larger Snake.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 25.—Professor Charles Beyer, who allowed himself to be bitten by a rattlesnake last Monday to test his theory of protective inoculation, has fully recovered from his first bite. He will probably submit next week to a second bite from an older and more venomous snake. His medical friends have no confidence in his theory, and have warned him against making the experiment.

The Jura-Simplon Tunnel.

BERNE, Aug. 25.—The plans for a Jura-Simplon railway tunnel through the Simplon have been approved by the Swiss Federal Council and will now be submitted to the Italian government. The cost of the work is estimated at 75,000,000 francs.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affection, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—ulcers and tumors form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation, characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

EX-MEMBER of PARLIAMENT

REUBEN E. TRUAX

Hon. Reuben E. Truax, one of Canada's ablest thinkers and statesmen, a man so highly esteemed by the people of his district that he was honored with a seat in Parliament, kindly furnishes us for publication the following statement, which will be most welcome to the public, inasmuch as it is one in which all will place implicit confidence. Mr. Truax says:

"I have been for about ten years very much troubled with Indigestion and Dyspepsia, have tried a great many different kinds of patent medicines, and have been treated by a number of physicians and found no benefit from them. I was recommended to try the Great South American Nervine Tonic. I obtained a bottle, and I must say I found very great relief, and have since taken two more bottles, and now feel that I am entirely free from Indigestion, and would strongly recommend all my fellow-sufferers from the disease to give South American Nervine an immediate trial. It will cure you.

"REUBEN E. TRUAX,
"Walkerton, Ont."

It has lately been discovered that certain Nerve Centres, located near the base of the brain, control and supply the stomach with the necessary nerve force to properly digest the food. When these Nerve Centres are in any way deranged the supply of nerve force is at once diminished, and as a result the food taken into the stomach is only partially digested, and Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia soon make their appearance.

South American Nervine is so prepared that it acts directly on the nerves. It will absolutely cure every case of Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and is an absolute specific for all nervous diseases and ailments. It usually gives relief in one day.

Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle-aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon; if you do, you may neglect the only remedy which will restore you to health. South American Nervine is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use this great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.

Dr. W. Washburn, of New Richmond, Indiana, writes: "I have used South American Nervine in my family and prescribed it in my practice. It is a most excellent remedy."

A CASE IN ASSURANCE.

Suit Brought Against the Great West Life by a Hamilton Man.

HAMILTON, Aug. 25.—Walker and Phillips on behalf of David Blackley have issued a writ of summons against the Great West Life Assurance Company of Winnipeg. The suit is an interesting one and will be closely followed by insurance men.

The action is for $10,000, the amount of a policy held by Mr. Blackley on the life of the late John Taylor. The policy was issued only a year ago and at that time Mr. Taylor was considered a good risk, but in January last the company claimed that untrue statements had been made in application and they notify the parties that the policy was cancelled.

The company insisted on a full yearly premium being paid, which was resisted. Mr. Blackley being willing to pay only for the time actually insured. The Company sued and gained their point. Three months ago Mr. Taylor died suddenly, and the present action will determine whether the policy was in force at the date of his death, Mr. Blackley contending that the company on its own motion cannot cancel the policy.

Bradstreet's Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Bradstreet's says: "Serious industrial disturbances in New England, drought in central and far western states curtailing nearly all staple crops, and a disposition in all lines to continue to buy for near-by wants only, fail to influence general trade throughout the country, the trend of which is toward further improvement. Slight improvements are reported only in petroleum and shoes at Philadelphia and in cheaper grades of footwear and in the securities market at Boston. Neither Buffalo or Pittsburg find trade features to report other than that merchants anticipate a revival of demand in the fall. Exports of wheat, both coasts, this week (six days) equal 2,182,100 bushels, against 2,979,000 bushels last week. Business failures in the United States reported this week number 251, against 234 last week."

SHOT BY A CRAZY POLE.

Attempted Murder of a Buffalo Tailor by a Former Employe.

BUFFALO, Aug. 25.—An attempt at another murder was made yesterday. Shortly before noon a Pole known as Carl walked into the merchant tailoring establishment of Alois J. Mehltretter, 367 Broadway, and sneaking up behind the proprietor fired three shots into his back. Mehltretter fell to the floor and the Pole fled, but was captured soon afterward. The wounded man was removed to the Fitch hospital where two of the bullets were extracted. The surgeons fear that the third one has penetrated the lungs and may result fatally.

The Pole was once in Mehltretter's employ, but for several months has been an inmate of the insane asylum from which he was released last week as cured. Mehltretter knows of no reason for the assault except that he and Carl quarrelled some time ago over a girl they were both acquainted with, but says the affair was not serious enough to furnish a sufficient motive for the shooting. He believes the Pole to have been insane again.

BRITISH CONSUL IMPRISONED.

The Nicaraguans Commit an Extraordinary Outrage—Satisfaction Wanted.

COLON, Aug. 25.—A schooner has arrived here with 70 refugees from Bluefields, Mosquito territory. They say that the Nicaraguans have imprisoned eight American citizens and several British subjects, including the British Vice-Consul. More Nicaraguan troops are arriving at Bluefields, and that 2,000 troops are due there.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—The Government has received a despatch confirming the report that the consul at Bluefields, Mr. Hatch, has been arrested and imprisoned by Nicaraguans. The Standard, commenting, says: "Despite the fact that the offence is of the gravest nature, the idea of Nicaragua defying Great Britain, also the way in which Mr. Hatch informed the officers of his departure, suggest the comic opera. We may be confident that the United States will not hesitate to support a demand for satisfaction for this outrage."

Suicide of a Champion Runner.

BAYONNE, N. J., Aug. 25.—Willie D. Day, the champion runner of the world committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself from a tree near the club house of the New Jersey athletic club at Bergen point. The act was a complete surprise to his relatives and friends. Day was arrested Tuesday on a complaint made by the Manhattan Laundry company of Jersey City, for whom Day had acted as a collector. The complaint stated Day had collected $112 for which he had failed to account. Day told his friends the company owed him money, and it was not true he embezzled the amount. He said the complaint was a put-up job. His relations are of the opinion that he must have brooded over the accusation, and becoming discouraged, decided to end his life. Day's parents, who are well-to do, live at Bergen point. Day held the five-mile championship and also the three mile championship of the world for running.

Fire in Oshawa.

CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters—He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

SAVED BY A BOY.

A Passenger Train in New York State Narrowly Escapes a Terrible Accident.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Aug. 27.—A Syracuse and Binghampton passenger train had a narrow escape from destruction yesterday.

The train was running at a high rate of speed about 2 miles north of Chenango bridge when the engineer saw a bow on the track wildly waving a handkerchief and the train was quickly brought to a stop. It was then learned that the bridge a short distance ahead was burning and the boy's prompt action had probably saved the lives of many passengers.

While riding his bicycle, Willis Norton, aged 12 years, of Kattleville, had discovered and tried to extinguish the flames but his efforts proved fruitless. Learning that the passenger train was almost due the lad remounted his wheel and flew away to avert the impending danger. The bridge which spans a deep chasm was located just around a sharp curve and was entirely destroyed. The passengers were loud in their praise of the boy's bravery and a purse of $25 was quickly made up and presented to the young hero. A wrecking train sent from the city repaired the damage to the structure.

SERIOUS TROLLEY ACCIDENT.

A Car Containing Eighty Passengers Capsizes Over an Embankment.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 27.—A serious trolley car accident occurred last evening on the Suburban Traction Company's line between Orange and Eagle Rock, in which fifty persons were more or less seriously injured.

The car, which contained about eighty people, while descending a steep grade, became unmanageable and dashed into a curve at a terrific rate of speed breaking the flange of one forward wheel. The car left the track and capsized down a slight embankment. Order was finally restored and the injured were removed in ambulances to the Memorial hospital. The following are the names of the more seriously injured:

John Lloyd, aged 4 years, arm crushed completely off at the elbow; amputation necessary. Mrs. Frank Davis, of Bloomfield, arm broken and head injured. Willie Coyle, aged 6 years, of Orange, three ribs broken; feared he will die. It is stated that the breaks on the car failed to work and the motorman losing his head did not turn on the reverse current which would have stopped the car.

Texas Cotton Crop Destroyed.

DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 27.—News received from the head of the cotton region of Dallas County states that half of the cotton crop has been killed by boll worms and if the showers continue the entire crop is likely to be destroyed. The plant has grown so large and rank that the sun cannot penetrate its foliage and the worm flourishes in the shade.

The English Wheat Crop.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The English wheat crop, although of the smallest acreage, promised until three weeks ago to give the greatest yield per acre on record. It has rained almost continuously since and the deluge of the past three days has almost ruined the crop. Even oats are flat on the earth and the demand for American grain is sure to be even greater than usual.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT

Resume of the Speech From the Throne at Prorogation.

THE SESSION A FRUITFUL ONE

Standing of the Ministry With Respect to the Agitation Against the House of Lords—Progress Made by the Colonial Party in the Commons.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Queen Victoria prorogued Parliament on Saturday. The Queen, in her speech to the House of Lords, was glad they shared in the general joy which had been displayed in welcome to the birth of an heir to the throne in the third generation, an event unprecedented in the history of England. The dispute that had arisen with France in regard to African questions was regretted and it was hoped that friendly negotiations now pending would be settled at once.

The steps necessary to put into effect the award of the fisheries arbitration in the Behring Sea had been taken. Regret was expressed at the war between Japan and China. England would preserve a strict neutrality and would adhere to the commercial treaty recently made with Japan.

Relating to the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa, satisfaction was expressed that the proceedings were of a character calculated to strengthen the union of the colonies concerned, both among themselves and with the Mother County. The increased burden of taxation was absolutely indispensable for the security of the Empire. It was hoped the burden would not fall upon the less wealthy classes.

Certain social and administrative difficulties in Ireland still existed and engaged the attention of the Government.

The Work of the Session.

Nobody is more thankful than the ministers that the end of the legislative session has come. They are now hurrying off to Scotland and the continent for a rest after the exceptional weariness of the last week. The impartial must admit, however, that the session has been fruitful of good, despite the action of the House of Lords. Sir Wm. Harcourt's budget alone embodied enough reform to occupy the time of a session while the bills concerning parish councils and equalization of London rates which were also enacted are thorough and useful liberal measures. Yet everybody is in bad temper and blames the Ministers for the discontent. Many members of the majority of the Commons will refuse to address their constituents in the fall campaign. Such refusals have seldom if ever been given before, for whatever the discontent in Parliament may have been, the Ministerialists have not allowed it to interfere with their party duties.

The Question of the Lords.

The reason of the Ministry for not declaring its policy against the House of Lords is simply that it has none. The Cabinet is divided on the question. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, Henry Fowler, Secretary for India, Lord Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, and Arthur Ackland, are anxious to abolish the Lords' veto power. Lord Kimberly, of the Foreign Office, Postmaster-General Arnold Morley, Lord Herschal, the Lord Chancellor and the Marquis of Ripon, Colonial Secretary, prefer a less radical policy; Lord Rosebery, Sir William Harcourt and Mr. Asquith, the leaders in the Cabinet, simply sit on the fence and invite the rest to join them there. They wish to drop the question for the present, and they undoubtedly have cogent reasons for ignoring the issue. Some of these reasons are purely tactical. All three Ministers are reported to have said privately that it would be impossible to deal drastically with the Lords before a measure for the payment of members should be enacted by the Commons or at least provision should be made to pay election expenses from the public funds.

Many Liberals of the middle class are anxious for a compromise programme. They regret the increasing political divergence of rich and poor and are opposed to the proposed surrender to the extreme elements in the party.

The Colonial Party.

The party recently formed in the House of Commons and called the colonial party has on several occasions demonstrated its influence when affairs of colonial import were being discussed. Taking the party as a whole they are well posted on the resources and geography of every colony of the British empire. In the Queen's speech pointed reference was made to several matters affecting the colonies. Not the least of these was the complimentary reference to the labors of the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa and the recognition by her Majesty's advisers of the great importance of the questions there discussed, matters of moment not only to the colonies themselves but also to the Mother Country. The colonial party now has 27 members, and several have privately expressed themselves as well pleased with the progress they are making.

The War in the Orient.

The British manufacturers of armament and ammunition resent greatly stringent enforcement of the Foreign Enlistment Act in view of the Chinese-Japanese war. It seems that both China and Japan are ordering warships and ammunition from firms in the United Kingdom and that each is laying information at the Foreign Office against the other.

George Nathaniel Curzon's new book on "Problems of the far East" is receiving much attention from the newspapers as it bears directly upon many questions involved in the present war. Curiously enough, it is praised as highly by the Liberals as by the Tories. The Speaker commends Mr. Curzon's argument that of all civilized nations, England has the best opportunity of profiting from China's future because England has ample capital to lend and the English language is already growing a medium of communication between the Chinese of different provinces. The Speaker expresses further his agreement with Mr. Curzeon: "The English are notably successful in conducting governments in behalf of native races. Mr. Curzon argues rightly that the British policy is not to conquer China but to strengthen her against Russia, to gain her confidence, when she asks for assistance to give it freely. Already the Customs service is in the hands of the English. May not the English at China's request undertake the rest of the work of governing?"

A NOVELTY
—IN—DRESS GOODS
—AT—
TURNBULL'S

(From the New York Dry Goods Economist.)

"Jasper is a novelty in dress goods. It is of foreign production, popular character and reasonable price. Retailers are showing their opinion of its merits by their eager purchases, and shoppers in want of a dressy and useful gown will voice the correctness of the retailers' preparation.

Its appearance combines both a crepe and a fancy figure and embraces two figures in the same design. The material composing this fabric is entirely fine worsted yarn. The two colours found in the fabric are distinct and separate; one colour is confined entirely to the warp threads and the other colour is found only in the filling threads.

As the filling threads supply one colour and the warp threads the other colour to the fabric, so one set of threads produces one effect and the other set of threads produces the second effect in the design.

The crepe effect is caused entirely by bringing some of the warp threads on the surface and the figured effect is produced by bringing some of the filling threads on the surface. As the warp threads are of a different colour from the filling threads, the crepe effect and the figured effect are consequently of two different colours.

The crepe effect is formed by certain warp threads being raised at the proper places in the pattern for five or six picks of the loom, when that number of filling threads are thrown in under these raised warp threads. The wrap threads that have been raised are next made to work in a regular weaver for four picks, in which one pick of warp is bound in with one pick of filling.

The variation of the motion of the warp threads does two things. When they are raised for five or six picks they produce threads lying on the surface of the cloth like stitches from a needle, and the large number of these covering the surface of the fabric gives the crepe effect. When these warp threads are made to work in a regular weave the fabric is built up, the loose stitches producing the crepe effect are bound in and good weaving material is insured.

The figured effect is produced in a contrary method from the crepe effect. As the warp threads are raised and the filling threads thrown under them to produce the crepe, so the warp threads are depressed and the filling thrown in under them to produce the figured effect.

In the crepe the colour of the wrap threads only shows and in the figure the colour of the filling threads only shows. There is in each a contrast of pattern and of colour. The Jacquard motion of the loom produces both effects and contrasts with unerring accuracy, guided by the pattern which the manufacturer has designed.

There is no dyeing to be done to the fabric, for the coloured threads that form it give its color. After being woven, it is finished in the manner regularly employed with such goods. Its construction and material insure its giving every satisfaction to the wearer. Its pattern is popular and safe. Its colour gives two tones without being an iridescent and its crepe effect is a complement to this order of weave without actually being a crepe.

NEWS FROM THE ORIENT

Subjects of the Mikado Keen for Pushing the War.

URGING AN ATTACK ON PEKIN

Six Thousand of Their Forces Landed at Chemulpo — The Japanese Legation at London Receive No Word of the Fight at Ping-Yang.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Despatches from Yokohama say that the Japanese war is at a white-heat and that the people are demanding a quick, hard blow at the heart of China. Everybody there is eager to see all Japan's land forces concentrated and marched against Pekin. Central News advices from Shanghai state that Gen. Yulai, the military governor of the province of Shing-King, is supposed to have been appointed high commissioner of the north and governor-general to assist the viceroy.

Li Yuna, formerly Chinese resident in Corea, has been given command of the Chinese forces, and will at once proceed to the seat of war.

One hundred more Japanese have left Shanghai for their native country and the United States.

Capt. von Hannekin, formerly aide on the staff of Viceroy Li Hung Chang, has been appointed assistant to Admiral Ting, commander of the Chinese fleet,

Six thousand Japanese troops were landed at Chemulpo on Aug. 22. The Chinese fleet left Port Arthur for Wei-Hai-Wei on Aug. 23.

The despatches received by the Chinese legation up to noon to-day have contained no mention of a Chinese victory at Ping-Yang. At the Japanese legation the officials say the report of such a victory was circulated probably by the Pekin government to facilitate the war loan.

INCIDENTS OF AN OUTING.

An Excursion in Tennessee Attended With Three Fatalities.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 28.—An excursion which ran to Pontotoc, Miss., from Memphis over the Gulf and Chicago railroad, a distance of 80 miles, resulted in three fatalities.

The excursion was given gratis by Joe. Smith, a Pontotoc merchant, who every year holds a re-union of this kind for the negroes. The train was made up mostly of box cars and gondolas fitted with seats and these were crowded.

En route the excursionists were annoyed by the people they passed throwing rocks and firing revolvers. The negroes prepared to retaliate when the excursion returned. One negro, Gus Enloe, threw a rock through a window in the passenger coach hitting a man on the head. He will die. A bystander fired at Enloe and killed him.

Further on the excursionists threw rocks at E. P. Devine, a planter, who was riding horseback. The horse took fright, threw Devine and killed him.

The Hennepin Canal.

PRINCETON, Ill., Aug. 28.—The east end of the Hennepin Canal is now ready for the contractors. The bids will be opened and within a few days contracts will be awarded, with provisions that active work be commenced within ten days. This canal is to form one of the links of the gigantic waterways connecting the Northwestern States with Lake Michigan at Chicago. By the use of this canal, a distance of about 600 miles will be saved to the river craft in shipping from Dubuque, St. Paul or any point on the Mississippi River, north of Rock Island.

Anarchists Moving to the Country.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The anarchists of the London colony are said to be migrating to the Provincial cities where they expect to run less risk of interference from the public. Nearly all the bomb makers have gone already and are supposed to be already at work in their new laboratories. Home Secretary Asquith has sent out a circular warning the chiefs of police throughout the country that they must carefully watch the sales of certain chemicals.

Wheat Crop in the West.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 28.—All the threshers' representatives concur in the statement that the wheat and all the small grain crops are turning out much better than was expected when the harvest commenced. Taken as a whole, the wheat crop of Minnesota and North Dakota, this year is one of the largest ever harvested. That of Minnesota will come fully up to the estimate of 50,000,000 bushels. This is not far from equaling the big crop of 1892.

Cotton Mills Resume Work.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 28.—There were 8,000 people at the Bristol mill gates as a result of the report that the mills would open, but no attempt was made to start the mill. A mass meeting of the striking weavers followed. The Howland, Rotch and New Bedford manufactories started up quietly with no demonstration by the operatives.

The Cholera in Austria.

VIENNA, Aug. 28.—Last week there were 146 new cases of cholera and 70 deaths from the disease in Galicia. In Bukowina, 16 new cases and 15 deaths.

Arrested a Female Spy.

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—The German police have arrested as a spy the wife of the Commissary in Pagny-Sur-Moselle, France, and have locked her up at Metz.

TARIFF BECOMES LAW

President Cleveland Adheres to His Decision Not to Sign It.

WHEREIN HE TAKES OBJECTION

He Writes a Letter Setting Forth His Position With Regard to the Bill—In the Direction of Reform but Not Far-Reaching Enough.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—President Cleveland has written the following letter to Representative Catchings, Miss., in which he set forth his views of the new tariff laws and gives his reasons for not approving the bill:

Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 27, 1894.

Hon. T. C. Catchings.—My Dear Sir:—Since the conversation I had with you and Mr. Clarke, of Alabama, a few days ago in regard to my action upon the tariff bill now before me I have given the subject further and most serious consideration. The result is I am more settled than ever in the determination to allow the bill to become a law without my signature.

When the formation of legislation which it was hoped would embody Democratic ideas of tariff reform was lately entered upon by the congress nothing was further from my anticipation than a result which I could not promptly and enthusiastically endorse. It is therefore with a feeling of the utmost disappointment that I submit to a denial of this privilege.

I do not claim to be better than the masses of my party, nor do I wish to avoid any responsibility which, on account of the passage of this law, I ought to bear as a member of the Democratic organization. Neither will I permit myself to be separated from my party to such an extent as might be implied by my veto of tariff legislation which, though disappointing, is still chargeable to Democratic efforts. But there are propositions in this bill which are not in line with honest tariff reform, and it contains inconsistencies and crudities which ought not to appear in tariff laws or laws of any kind. And yet, notwithstanding all its vicissitudes and all the bad treatment it received at the hands of pretended friends, it presents a vast improvement to existing conditions. It will certainly lighten many tariff burdens that now rest heavily upon the people. It is not only a barrier against the return of mad protection, but it furnishes a vantage ground from which must be waged further aggressive operations against protected monopoly and governmental favoritism.

The trusts and combinations—the communism of self—whose machinations have prevented us from reaching the success we deserved should not be forgotten or forgiven. We shall recover from our astonishment at their exhibition of power and if then the question is forced upon us whether they will submit to the free legislative will of the people's representatives or shall dictate the laws which the people must obey, we will accept and settle that issue as one involving the integrity and safety of American institutions. I love the principles of true democracy because the are founded in patriotism and upon justice and fairness toward all interests. I am proud of my party organization because it is conservatively sturdy and persistent in the enforcement of its principles. Therefore, I do not despair of the efforts made by the House of Representatives to supplement the bill already passed by further legislation and to have engrafted upon it such modifications as will more nearly meet democratic hopes and aspirations.

I cannot be mistaken as to the necessity of free raw materials as the foundation of logical and sensible tariff reform. The extent to which this is recognised in the legislation already secured, is one of its encouraging and redeeming features, but it is vexatious to recall that while free coal and iron ore have been denied us, a recent letter of the Secretary of Treasury discloses the fact that both might have been made free by the annual surrender of only about $700,000 of unnecessary revenue.

It will thus be seen that free raw materials and a just and fearless regulation and reduction of the tariff to meet the changed conditions would carry to every humble home in the land the blessings of increased comforts and cheaper living.

The millions of our countrymen who have fought bravely and well for tariff reform should be exhorted to continue the struggle boldly, challenging to open warfare and constantly guarding against the treachery and half-heartedness in their camp.

Tariff reform will not be settled until it is honestly and fairly settled in the interest and to the benefit of a patient and long suffering people.

Yours truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

In consequence of Mr. Cleveland's decision the tariff has become law without his signature.

THE REVOLT IN NICARAGUA.

Hatch, the Vice-Consul, Was Implicated in a Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Nicaraguan Government sends the following to the Herald from Managua:—Evidence is accumulating to convict the instigators of the recent revolt among the Mosquito Indians. Sederal foreigners are among those who have been arrested for the conspiracy, and the most deeply implicated of all is Hatch, the so-called British vice-consul for the Mosquito coast. He thought his position would screen him from arrest, but Nicaragua had never recognised him officially nor granted him an exequator. His appointment is, therefore, void as far as Nicaragua is concerned, and with his accomplices in sedition, he will be punished to the full extent of the law. British Minister Gosling has wired from Guatamala a protest against the imprisonment of Consular Agent Hatch.

Accidentally Killed by Her Cousin.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Maud Capron, aged 14, daughter of Wm. D. Capron, of this city, while visiting at her uncle's, Henry Dunner, near Scoharie, last Saturday, was accidentally shot by her cousin, a boy about her own age, and died in a few hours.

Commencement of Matches of the Dominion Rifle Association

PRIZES IN THE NURSERY MATCH

Estimated Loss by the Big Fire Amounts to Over $100,000 — Hon. Mr. Daly to Visit the Irrigation Convention at Denver, Col.

OTTAWA, Aug. 28.—The Dominion Rifle Association matches opened on the Rideau rifle range yesterday. A formal meeting of the council was held. The weather was cool, but on the whole pleasant. As far as shooting was concerned the light was bad, and in consequence the scores in the nursery match, which were the first on the programme, was rather poor. The entries were about 400, somewhat larger than last year.

In the Nursery match open to members and associate members of the association who have not at any previous meeting of the D.R.A. won a prize of $5 or upwards, exclusive of team or extra prizes, the score was as follows: $20 prize, Gunner Short, M.G.A., 23 points; $15, Staff Sergt. Wolton, 43, 23; $10, Lieut. H. P. Westmore, 62, 3; $10 Lieut. M. G. Blanchard, R.C.G.A., 23; $10, Corp. E. Hoult, R.C.A., 23; $8, Pte. Moreland, 39th, 23; $7, Sergt. P. Gerson, 13, 23; $6, Gunner J. Loss by the Fire.

The Journal says regarding the fire of Sunday: "The greatest fire Ottawa ever had was the blaze in Booth's piling grounds between Cedar street bridge and the Parry Sound crossing. It covered a greater area, destroyed more lumber and, with the possible exception of the destruction of Booth's big mill a few months ago, did more damage than any other fire that Ottawa has ever seen. In length the fire covered fully a quarter of a mile. It was over one thousand feet wide and destroyed a thousand piles of lumber. In addition to this the Cedar street school, a dozen railway cars, three small dwelling houses, all the railway tracks and platforms throughout the yard, went up in smoke. The loss, it is expected, will reach fully $70,000."

The Free Press says: "Fifty acres of lumber piles, a dozen freight cars, three miles of yard track, the Cedar street brick schoolhouse and outbuildings, four small dwelling houses on Balsam street, and the Cedar street bridge nearly destroyed, altogether foot up a loss variously estimated by insurance agents and lumbermen at between $100,000 and $110,000.

Mr. Daly to Visit Denver.

Hon. Thos. Daly, who is now on a visit to Banff hot springs in the Northwest, will, after leaving there, visit the irrigation convention which opens in Denver on September 3. He will be accompanied by Mr. Pierce, superintendent of mines.

The remains of the late Robert Blackburn arrived in the city by special train. The funeral took place yesterday. Nothing could have better demonstrated the esteem in which the late Mr. Blackburn was held by all who knew him than the exceedingly large number of sorrowing friends that attended the funeral. The funeral cortege was unusually large.

MOTHER MANDELBAUM'S DEATH.

Doubt Still Exists as to the Demise of This Highly Notorious Woman.

HAMILTON, Aug. 28.—In reference to the contents of the press despatch from Columbus, Ohio, which says the death of Mrs. Mandelbaum, the notorious New York fence, is not believed by police authorities in that city, there is no doubt whatever in the minds of the citizens of Hamilton as to the woman's death. Mrs. Mandelbaum, after her departure from New York, lived here for nine or ten years and her death occurred at her late residence on Victoria avenue this summer of diabetes. Her death is recorded in the city clerk's office and can be attested to by James White, a reputable physician who attended Mrs. Mandelbaum throughout her illness, and dozens of citizens. She led a quiet life but was well-known by hundreds of citizens. The Columbus despatch is looked upon as pure fiction by the people of this city.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—There is no foundation for the Columbus, Ohio, story to effect that "Mother" Mandelbaum, the notorious receiver of stolen goods, is still alive.

South Norfolk Conservatives.

SIMCOE, Ont., Aug. 28.—A convention of Liberal-Conservative electors of the South Riding of Norfolk was held in the town hall at Vittoria yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the House of Commons. Wm. Morgan, ex-M.P.P., nominated the present representative, Col. David Tisdale. There being no further nominations offered, Col. Tisdale was declared the candidate of the convention.

Sawmill Burned in Durham.

DURHAM, Ont., Aug. 28.—Last evening fire burst out in Kechnie's saw mill. It rapidly spread to adjoining piles of lumber. The evening being perfectly calm greatly assisted the citizens in confining the fire to the lumber yard. Nearly all of this year's sawing was saved as it was on a separate siding and between two streams of water. Loss is estimated at from $15,000 to $20,000; no insurance; cause supposed to be incendiary.

Don't buy a blood-purifier because it is "cheap." The best—the Superior Medicine—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is, in the end, the cheapest blood-purifier on the market. The ingredients of which it is composed are the most expensive and medicinally efficacious that can be obtained.

CO-OPERATIVE EXPERIMENTS IN AGRICULTURE.

Valuable Reports on Winter Wheat—The Result of Careful Experiments.

Thirteen hundred and forty farmers throughout Ontario are at present conducting important and systematic experiments in agriculture. No less than 3996 packages of grains, seeds, tubers and fertilisers were sent out from the Agricultural College to these experimenters within the past year. It is, however, not so much the great extent of the work that gives the results their true value, and causes them to be appreciated, but rather the careful selection of the experiments, the regular system underlying the work, and the hearty co-operation of the experimenters. The results of ten properly conducted experiments are of much more value than those of one hundred experiments, which lack care and system. Many of the best farmers of Ontario are now carrying on these tests, the material for the experiments being distributed annually through the medium of the Agricultural Experimental Union, which is practically an association of the ex-students of the Agricultural College. Not only is this material sent to the members of the Union, but also to many other interested and progressive farmers throughout Ontario who have desired to join in the work and have written for the necessary outfit.

In the autumn of 1893 nine valuable varieties of winter wheat were selected from seventy kinds tested at the Experimental Station. These were divided into two sets, with five varieties in each set, the Dawson's Golden Chaff being used in every instance for the sake of comparison. Each applicant chose the set he desired, and the five varieties were then sent to his address. Each plot was 1-160 of an acre in size, and the seed was sown at the rate of 1½ bushels per acre. One hundred and fifty seven experimenters with winter wheat have already been heard from this season. Of this number, eighty one favoured us with satisfactory reports of carefully conducted experiments, sixty-one furnished partial reports, and fifteen wrote of failure or unreliable results. The eighty-one satisfactory reports came from twenty-six counties, thirteen of which were situated east and thirteen west of the City of Guelph. The names of the different experimenters and the detailed results of the test will be printed in the annual report of the Experimental Union for 1894, which is published as an appendix to the Agricultural College report. The nine varieties were grown upon the experimental plots at the Station in exact accord with the instructions sent out over Ontario. As the Dawson's Golden Chaff was sent to every experimenter, it is possible to obtain a very reliable comparison of all the kinds distributed. The following table gives the average amount of straw and of grain per acre, of the varieties grown on eighty-one Ontario farms :—

Name of Variety.	Straw per acre (tons.)	Grain per acre.(bus.60 lbs
Dawson's Golden Chaff	1.84	35.7
Jones' Winter Fife	2.02	32.5
Early Genesee Giant	1.88	31.7
Early Red Clawson	1.66	31.5
Surprise	1.73	31.4
American Bronze	1.83	31.2
Golden Drop	1.90	31.1
Early White Leader	1.80	29.2
Bulgarian	1.93	28.8

As the reports of the partial and the unreliable experiments have been discarded, and only the satisfactory ones used for the above table, this summary should be of great value, and one well worthy the careful attention of the farmers of Ontario. The conclusions drawn and the remarks made by many of the experimenters indicate much thought, accuracy and good judgment.

The following facts have been obtained from the eighty one reports under consideration :

1. The Dawson's Golden Chaff gave the largest yield of grain per acre among the nine varieties tested over Ontario in 1894, as well as among the eleven varieties tested in 1893.

2. The Dawson's Golden Chaff was decidedly the most popular variety with the experimenters in both 1894 and 1893.

3. The American Bronze, Dawson's Golden Chaff, and Early Genesee Giant possessed the strongest, and the Bulgarian the weakest straw.

4. The Dawson's Golden Chaff and Surprise were the least, and the Early Genesee Giant and American Bronze were the most affected by rust.

5. The Dawson's Golden Chaff and Early Red Clawson were the first to mature.

6. The Dawson's Golden Chaff and Early Red Clawson produced the largest quantity of grain per hundred pounds of straw.

7. The counties of Norfolk, Middlesex, Huron, Lambton, Bruce, Simcoe and Kent furnished fifty out of the eighty-one best reports received.

8. The average yield of the nine varieties of winter wheat tested over Ontario was 31.5 bushels per acre and the average of the same varieties grown on similar sized plots at the Experiment Station was 39.5 bushels per acre.

9. The general behaviour of the varieties tested over Ontario was quite similar to that of the same varieties grown at the Experiment Station.

10. Among the 158 experimenters who reported the results of their tests with winter wheat, only five speak of wishing to discontinue the co-operative experimental work and much interest is manifested throughout.

For more detailed particulars regarding these nine varieties, as well as those of seventy-one others which have been tested at the Experiment Station, the reader is referred to the bulletin on Winter Wheat, which is now being printed by the Department of Agriculture, Toronto.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEEDS.

The Experimental Union has furnished sufficient money for the distribution of two thousand five hundred packages of winter wheat over Ontario this year. These will supply five hundred experimenters with five varieties each. The following varieties have been chosen and are divided into two sets as indicated below :

SET I.	SET II.
Dawson's Golden Chaff,	Dawson's Golden Chaff,
Early Red Clawson,	Early Genesee Giant,
Jones' Winter Fife,	Early White Leader,
Surprise,	Early Ripe,
American Bronze.	Pride of Genesee.

The seed will be sent out by mail free to all applicants, and the produce of the plots will, of course, be the property of the experimenters ; and in return we will hope to receive full reports of carefully conducted tests. The grains will be forwarded in the order in which the applications are received until the limited supply of some of the varieties is exhausted. The "instruction sheets" and "blank forms" necessary for the work will be sent at the time the grains are forwarded. Those who wish to join in the work the coming year may choose either of the sets mentioned above. To make the results of the most value to both the experimenters and the "Union" the five varieties should be sown in every instance.

Young ladies' race—1 Miss M. Guthrie, 2 Miss J. Ambrose.

Boy's boot race—1 Herbert McMillan, necktie pin ; 2 Fred Kennedy, pocket mirror.

Vaulting with pole, 17 and under—Marvin Kennedy and Alex. Huston, equal, magnolia tablet and purse.

CONSOLATION RACES.

Boys, 12 and under—1 Herbert Peters, kaleidoscope ; 2 Bert Long, toy pistol and caps.

Girls, 13 and under—1 Maud McLaurin, pair of pansy pins ; 2 Eveline Long, curling tongs ; 3 Annie Peters, bottle of perfume.

Boys 17 and under,—1 Alex. Long, handkerchief ; 2 Wilbert McMillan, collar button.

Girls 17 and under,—1 Annie Guthrie, fan.

Best looking young lady and gentleman,—Miss Edith Sisson, string of beads, and Mr. A. Ovens, pair of sleeve holders.

At four o'clock the boat left Idyl Wild and proceeded to Jubilee Point, where a stop was made to give all an opportunity of taking tea, after which a start was made for home, which was reached after a pleasant sail. All were well pleased with the trip, with the officers of the boat, the boat itself, and Coldsprings sustained its reputation of having the picnic of the season.

THE DOCTOR ADVISED THE USE OF LACTATED FOOD.

A Mother Says: "I Cannot Speak of it too Highly."

BABY ROBERTSON.

Mrs. W. W. Robertson, of 70 Elliott Row, St. John, N.B., writes as follows: "Enclosed please find photo of my baby, John A. Robertson, aged twelve months, weight 29 pounds. He has twelve teeth, and is now in the best of health. He was very ill when two months old, and Dr. Walker advised me to feed him with Lactated Food. I have used over three dozen packages, and would not be without it if it cost as much again. I cannot speak of it too highly, and I intend to continue its use. My baby weighed seven and a half pounds when he was born."

Lactated Food is life to the infant at all seasons of the year; it is a guard and shield from all infantile complaints and sicknesses. Try it, dear mothers, it will certainly save your babies, and make them robust, healthy and happy.

My feet were so badly swollen that I could not wear my shoes. I got Yellow Oil, and to my astonishment it gave instant relief, and two bottles completely cured me. Mrs. W. G. McKay, Berwick Ont.

Consumption—How Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 89 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

Said She Was Past All Help

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH.

The Interesting Story of a Follower of Don Carlos.

A man who was famous in the politics and intrigue of Western Europe many years ago died, poor, friendless and almost unnoticed, in Paris two weeks ago. He was Gen. Juan Jose Sempe, the adjutant and chief executive of the Spanish pretender, Don Carlos.

Sempe was a rich lawyer when he met Don Carlos in Pau. He became interested, then hypnotized by the cause of the pretender. As he sat in the hotel one afternoon at a wedding breakfast a messenger brought a dispatch to him. He read it, walked out, put on his hat, and for five years was not seen again by his nearest friends. The dispatch was from Don Carlos, who, as soon as Sempe reached him, handed him a thousand 1,000-franc notes, saying:

"Deposit this money in the bank. It is to be used in beginning the war. Then come back to me and we will cross the Spanish border."

Sempe obeyed. He disguised Don Carlos, and tried to get him into Spain unobserved, but they both were detained by Spanish soldiers. The commander of the soldiers did not recognize Don Carlos, but was convinced that he was an important prisoner. Sempe put on Don Carlos' disguise during the night and escaped. Once outside the camp, he let the soldiers know of his whereabouts, and they, supposing that the more important of the prisoners had got away, gave chase, leaving Don Carlos in Sempe's clothes to wander off at his leisure. Sempe was caught, but Don Carlos reached France in safety. Sempe was abused and half starved in captivity, but he bore his sufferings without a murmur, and subsequently he entered the Carlist war without much hope of anything save showing his faithfulness to his friend, the pretender.

He left Spain at the close of the war without a penny of his former fortune. He could not practice law in his native land and in Paris there was no professional way open to him. He and his wife lived in two rooms with only the money which he earned as a copyist to support them. Eventually he got a clerkship in a bank with a salary of $350 a year.

As clerk he worked uncomplainingly, without appeal to the powerful persons who were once his friends, year in and year out, until his wife died. After her death he told an acquaintance that he had seen enough of life, and had no heart for more of it. He then sank steadily to his death.

In his room after his death the officials found only 40 cents in money, a package of letters from Don Carlos, a manuscript of memoirs of the Carlist war, and a few pieces of old, plain furniture. On the first page of the memoirs were the words: "Faithful unto death."—New York Sun.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an-have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as a stable adjacent was burned in a mysterious manner last spring.

This Week's Band Concert.

The Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society will hold their annual fall show in the market building, on Thursday evening, Aug. 30th. As this society maintains the Court House Park, which is a credit to the town and the pride of the citizens, an opportunity will be afforded the public of showing their appreciation of the society's endeavours to keep this beautiful spot in the present beautiful condition. The band has decided to dispense with its Friday evening concert in the park, in order to allow the public an opportunity of assisting those who are instrumental in providing them with a suitable resort to listen to the weekly band concerts, and also to repair to to gain rest after the turmoils of the day. This exhibition is virtually the transformation of the Court House Park to the market building, with considerable attractions and improvements. A successful exhibition, Thursday evening, is all that is necessary to convince the directors that their labours and efforts to maintain the park are appreciated.

Peterborough to the Fore.

Peterborough has had several successful demonstrations this summer but that to be held on Labour Day—Monday next—gives promise, if we may judge from present indications, of being the premier one of the lot. Both in attractivenes and extent of programme it leads, and rarely, if ever, have the pleasure-loving public of the Midland district had so meritorious a "bill of fare" placed within their reach. Nearly every department of the field of sport has a place on the programme and the committee who have the celebration in hand certainly deserve well at the hands of the public for the enterprise and pluck they have exhibited. Briefly the day's doings will comprise: Labour parade in the morning, lacrosse match—Peterborough vs. Millbrook, baseball match—Peterborough vs. Orono, athletic sports, horse races, bicycle races, trapeze, slack wire, and high tight rope performance by the famous La Belle Bros., Sergt.-Major Rundle's school corps in fancy drill and his well trained class of young ladies in calisthenic exercises, the whole to conclude by a grand promenade concert in the skating rink. The programme for the latter is an excellent one and will include humorous and and characteristic specialties by Messrs. Simons and Connors, favourites with the Peterborough citizens, and a delightful programme by the 57th Battalion band. After the concert, to fill the cup of pleasure to overflowing, as it were, a "hop" will be held in the rink, for which the Fire Brigade band orchestra will furnish music. Special rates on railway and steamboat lines.

ATTEMPTED TO STEAL A RIDE.

A Twelve-Year Old Youth's Narrow Escape From Death—A Warning to Other Boys.

Richard Simpson, who resides with his parents at the corner of Park and Chamberlen streets, narrowly escaped death last evening, between four and five o'clock. A train from Lakefield was backing up to the station, and, as is customary, it versed the speed before coming to the semaphore. It is a practice indulged in by a large number of boys living in the vicinity of the semaphore to board the train at this point and enjoy a ride as far as the station. Last evening, Richard Simpson, aged 12 years, attempted to steal a ride while the train was on the move. He decided to climb on the smoker but was driven off by Conductor Haskell. He then tried the rear coach, but not being tall enough to successfully board the train, the consequence was he fell under the car, striking his head on the oil box, with the result that it tore up his scalp to the extent of four inches. He was also considerably bruised. He was conveyed to his home and Dr. Clarke summoned, and under his skilful treatment, it is expected, the youth will be able to be around in a few days. A citizen, who witnessed the accident, stated he never expected to see the boy alive. This should be a warning to the youth of the town, and it is to be hoped that the dangerous practice of stealing rides on moving trains will cease. The railway authorities wish to warn parents and guardians that in future all youths found stealing rides on trains, loitering and loafing around the station and railway property will be severely dealt with. It is getting to be a common practice among the youths of the town to gather around the railway station, making themselves generally obnoxious to the passengers. In future all children found around the station or railway property, unless accompanied by their parents or guardians, will be brought before the magistrate and severely punished.

SUCCUMBED TO HIS INJURIES.

Mr. John Hunter, of Otonabee, Dies Suddenly This Morning from Injuries Received in an Accident last Week.

Mr. John Hunter, of lot 20, con. 11, Otonabee, son of Mr. Wm. Hunter, died very suddenly this morning. On Thursday of last week he was engaged in bringing a colt from Keene to his home in order to break it in. The colt was being led at the rear of the buggy, the slack rope being thrown loosely in the bottom of the vehicle. The colt became unruly, darting back, while the horse he was driving plunged forward, with the result that Mr. Hunter's foot became entangled in the rope and he was dragged over the back of the seat, fracturing one of his legs. Dr. Shaw, of Keene, attended to the injured limb. Mr. Hunter also complained of pains in his back, but nothing serious was expected. This morning Mr. Hunter succumbed to his injuries. His death was a shock to his relatives and friends, as it was expected that he would be able to be around in a few weeks. The deceased was twenty-nine years of age and unmarried. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock from lot 20, con. 11, Otonabee, to the Little Lake cemetery.

THE OUTFALL SEWER OUTING.

Dr. Bryce Views the River at Low Water.

Yesterday afternoon the arbitration between the town and township of North Monaghan held its sixth or seventh sitting in the council chamber. There were present the two arbitrators for town and township respectively, Messrs. Wm. Langford and Wm. Collins, and the referee Mr. H. Calcutt, as well as several members of the municipal councils of the three townships interested in opposing the emptying of the outfall sewer into the river at the foot of Lock street. Mr. E. B. Edwards appeared for the town and Mr. Geo. Edmison for the townships. Dr. Bryce, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, was present and gave evidence, chiefly as to the correctness of the report of the Board of 1892, permitting the town to empty sewage into the river on certain conditions.

While Dr. Bryce was in town, the representatives of the three townships thought it would be a good idea to show Dr. Bryce the river at low water, since he he saw it a high water in April 16th, 1892, so that he would have personal knowledge of the situation and see the area of pasture land that would, as the townships claim, receive deleterious deposits of sewerage during high water. Accordingly the steamer City of Peterborough was chartered by Mr. Johnston for a trip down the river and this morning the steamer left the wharf, having on board Dr. Bryce, Town Engineer Belcher, Councillor Best, chairman of the Sewerage Committee, Wm. Collins, arbitrator for the township of North Monaghan, Reeve Anderson and Councillor Deyell and Mr. Dawson Kennedy, Otonabee, and Mr. R. Nethercutt, of Bridgeport, Connecticut, an old Otonabee boy, who is visiting in this district. At the locks others came on board and steaming down the river, a halt was made at Crawford's Grove, where was taken aboard, viz: Mr. Reeve Foster, and Councillors T. M. Hunter, M. J. Johnston, J. McIntosh, G. W. Bennet, township clerk, J. M. Davidson, sanitary inspector, and Mr. John Harper. The party went down stream particularly noting the outfall site at the foot of Lock street, and Dr. Bryce noted and was particularly impressed with the extreme fitness of the soil on the North Monaghan side and near the locks for the purpose of the sewerage farm mode of disposal of sewage. During the way down to Wallace's and on the return journey Dr. Bryce was treated as an inexhaustible tank of information on sewerage. At any rate, he was pumped most industriously, and showed no signs of exhaustion. Members of the township deputations would pin him against a stanchion, corner him in a deck chair or waylay him in a companion way, and ply innumerable questions and voluble objections to his patient answers. The tenor of his remarks was to show that sewerage had not the extensive powers of pollution popularly ascribed to it, that exposure to water and sunlight was fatal to disease germs, and that the deposit of sediment on the shores of the river was innocuous, decomposition setting in and the ammonia and other chemical constituents being converted through growth into plants. The danger of sewage being entangled in ice had, according to Dr. Bryce, been over-rated; the tendency of water is to exclude all foreign particles before congelation. On the return trip the party landed and inspected the Howden property at the Locks as to its suitability for a sewage farm. Dr. Bryce, of course, reserves judgment. He proceeds from here to Ottawa on official business.

The arbitrators meet again to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

AN AFTERNOON WEDDING.

Nuptials of Miss Vira Begy, of St. Catharines, and Mr. W. F. Cloney, of Montreal.

A very pretty but quiet event took place at St. Peter's cathedral at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the marriage of Mr. F. W. Cloney, of Montreal, general passenger agent of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, to Miss Vira Begy, one of St. Catharines' most popular young ladies. The ceremony was performed by Ven. Archdeacon Casey. The handsome bride was becomingly attired in white brocade silk and white hat, carrying in her hand a bouquet of white flowers. She was assisted throughout the ceremony by Miss Eva V. Tivey, of Ashburnham, who looked charming in a costume of robin blue silk and a cream hat. She carried in her hand a bouquet of white and scarlet flowers. Mr. M. P. Connolly, of Quebec, assisted the groom. The happy couple left by the 11.40 C. P. R. express via Montreal on an extended trip through the Southern States, followed by the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends in Peterborough.

Growth of "Christian Endeavor."

Christian Endeavor has had a marvelous growth in its fourteen years. It has passed the "big boy" period, and is far on the way to matured manhood. Its progress is indicated in the following statistics:

MEMBERSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

	Societies	Members
In 1881	1	7
In 1882	7	200
In 1883	56	3,500
In 1884	144	6,500
In 1885	253	10,500
In 1886	500	22,000
In 1887	2,314	140,000
In 1888	4,879	310,000
In 1889	7,672	485,000
In 1890	11,682	680,000
In 1891	16,274	1,038,000
In 1892	21,030	1,370,000
In 1893	25,324	1,577,000
In 1894 (on record Jan. 1)	28,741	1,794,000

To this may be justly added kindred denominational organizations of young people that have sprung from the Christian Endeavor idea. The most notable of these is the Epworth League of the Methodist churches, with nearly a million members.

The Christian Endeavor movement has reached most of the Protestant churches. The pastor's study has widened, and the world is welcoming the Christian Endeavor Society. President Clark, in a recent tour of the world, found a Christian Endeavor welcome and a Mizpah benediction in every land.

The Count of Paris Seriously Ill.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, August 28, 1894.

The Farmers' Market is practically unchanged. New wheat outside is being freely offered at 52 1-2c, which buyers think, under present circumstances, too much.

Wheat was dull in Chicago, closing 1-4c to 3-8c lower. Corn was firm, the close being only 1-8c lower. Oats were dull, closing 1-4c to 3-4c on the day's trading.

The London stocks were buoyant. Gilt-edged stocks made a further rise on cheap money. American opened dull on realizations and bearish articles in the financial press, but a complete recovery later was assisted by the expected shortness of stocks settlement beginning to day.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 2.40; quotations were nominal. Lambs ranging from 57 to 100 pounds sold at $1.50 to 3.50.

At East Liberty the sheep supply was light; market active and shade better. Lambs $2.20 to $4; veal calves $6 to 6.25 for heavy and thin calves $2.50 to $4.

What Customers Say of Hop Tea

SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1894.

MESSRS. MASON & CO.

We like your Hop Tea very much better than any other Tea we ever used before and find it much cheaper than the 40 cent Black Tea, as I use only a little over half the usual quantity.

Will you please send before dinner 5 pounds of the same Tea for which I have enclosed $2.50. I think that is the price you told me it would be by taking five pounds.

Parents, Attention!

Mothers, who are anxious to send their children to school decently dressed, need no longer offer the excuse that they can't afford to buy them decent clothing.

FOR THE GIRLS—I can sell you durable and appropriate Dress Goods at 5c. per yard—just the thing to make up neatly for School Dresses. Also Apron Muslin and other Apron Material for 5c. per yard.

FOR THE BOYS—I can sell you a splendid Navy Blue Serge, double width, winter weight, for 25c. per yard, just the thing to make up into Suits. Also good Black Hose, 5c. per pair, for the children.

You never had a better opportunity to get cheap material for your children than now at

MISS RUDKINS,

Crystal Block, Opposite "Examiner" Office.

Away Ahead!

Never before have we been in a better position to say, "We always lead; we never follow," than we are at the present time. We have already passed into stock 15 cases of new goods and many of the lines are being picked up rapidly.

DRESS GOODS.

We are showing now a larger range of new fall dress goods than you will find with any store in town a month later, and we give you our guarantee that the prices are right. All we want is to have you call and see them. From the manufacturers to you direct is our way of doing business. 10c. a yard up to $2.50.

JACKETS AND CAPES.

We are now showing new Jackets and Capes, and expect another large consignment in a few days.

A Complete Change

Has taken place in the styles and lengths of these goods since orders were placed in the spring. Our buying direct from the manufacturer instead of from agents, and visiting the markets in June and July secures for us the newest styles. Don't fail to see our stock before you buy.

RIBBONS AND HANDKERCHIEFS.

New Goods bought at Job prices, to hand. 100 pieces of Silk Ribbon, 30 different shades, No. 9 width at 5c. a yard. 50 doz. Lawn Handkerchiefs, worth 10 to 15c. clearing prices 8c.

LACES AND LACE COLLARETTES.

New Collarettes the latest out. New Valenciennes laces in narrow and medium width, scarce goods. New silk laces in cream, white and black.

FANCY LINENS.

Pillow shams, table covers, doylees, and napkins. Beautifully embroidered, New Styles. Real Linen Lace Quilts with Bolster Shams to match, the latest novelty, worth a look if you cannot afford to buy.

MEN'S NEW NECKTIES AND SUITINGS.

We have passed into stock our whole purchase of new Neckwear and Suitings, in the newest styles and at the lowest prices.

BRAIDS AND TRIMMINGS.

All our new braids are now in stock and a few novelties in gimps with others to follow shortly.

MILLINERY.

We have been fortunate in getting early delivery of all our new Trimmings and anyone wanting Hats or Bonnets, can have the latest styles with us now.

One Thing Does It!

We are often asked, How is it that you are always doing business when others are crying hard times and advertising Fake Sales, etc., to boom up their trade? Our only reply is: We give the people what we advertise. We sell for cash, therefore cheaper than Credit Houses. Our motto is Small Profits and Quick Returns.

The Result is our trade is increasing every month.

You are invited to call any time you are down town to see our new goods as they are being opened up.

Samples sent by mail and orders by mail promptly filled.

PETERBOROUGH THE GREAT!

The ambition of every town is to appear as big as possible. Cities and towns all join in the chorus of local patriotism, and everything is done which can attract or serve as an impetus to greater usefulness.

"Peterborough, the Plate Glass City," is enjoying her full share of popularity just now. The town is big, its business interests are strong and nothing can interfere with her imperial position as "The Hub of Ontario."

We have a large line of LADIES OUTING GOODS which have been marked down to clear during Vacation Time.

In August weather we flee to the country, the lakes or the seaside; but to enjoy it all to the utmost, the right kind of clothes are essential.

Come in—we'll be glad to show you just what you want—for "dog days" or for cooler breezes—at BUILDING SALE PRICES.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

CRICKET.

There was no meeting of the cricket club last evening, on account of the members not being able to secure the hall.

The return cricket match between Millbrook and Peterborough will be played on the P.A.A.A. grounds next Monday.

LACROSSE.

In referring to the lacrosse match at Port Hope, on Saturday, between the Granites, of Peterborough, and a junior team of that town, the Times says:—"The contending teams were both junior ones, but no senior ones could have given a nicer or cleaner exhibition than did the opponents of Saturday afternoon. The game was fast from beginning to end and the result of the match was doubtful, until the expiration of time. That Peterborough was defeated is nothing to their discredit, but, on the contrary they played a good, plucky and gentlemanly game and had, if anything the disadvantage of playing a heavier team than themselves in the Beavers." The Guide in its report says: "The spectators were delighted with the game and said they never saw a better contested one. The Granites are a good junior team and a credit to Peterborough and although defeated they put in a good time."

The judiciary of the Canadian Lacrosse Association met, on Saturday last, at Brampton, and arranged the semi-finals to be played off in all the districts, with the exception of those in which the following teams played during the season: Orillia, Beaverton, Markham, Uxbridge and Peterborough. The championships of these districts, the Globe says, remain in doubt.

BASEBALL.

The Executive of the C.A.B.A. yesterday decided upon the dates of the championship games between Cobourg and Guelph as follows:—

Cobourg at Guelph—September 8.
Guelph at Cobourg—September 12.
Guelph and Cobourgh at Toronto—September 17 (if necessary).

C. Maddocks was appointed referee.

To succeed C. LeBrun, of Peterborough, resigned, Dr. Fairbanks, of Cobourg, was made a member of council.

A DOURO HUSBAND'S EXPERIENCE

In Bringing Harmony to His Home—He Suffers the Loss of Two Suits of Clothes.

A reporter while out strolling last evening heard of an experience which happened to a resident of Douro township which is too good to be kept a secret.

It appears that the gentleman in question has been constantly receiving scoldings from his better half for not purchasing for himself a suit of summer clothes, and appearing like other men. In order to quiet her unbridled tongue, and also to spring a surprise upon her and restore harmony in the home, he decided to purchase an outfit. About seven o'clock in evening he started for home and when nearing Indian River the thought came into his mind that it would be an excellent idea to don the new suit and drive up to the house, where his wife was sure to meet him. Accordingly he stripped himself of his worn-out and shabby suit, which he threw into the river close at hand. What was his surprise when he turned to seek his new outfit to find that the parcel had disappeared. A thousand thoughts flitted through his mind as he stood up in the waggon in his abbreviated garb. After serious reflection he decided to drive on home and tell his wife his experience. As he neared the gate of his farm his faithful dog set up a dismal howl, which sent a shudder through the occupant of the waggon. On through the gate he drove towards the house, and his wife hearing the rumble of the wheels knew it was her husband, whom she was waiting for to return. She dropped her milk pan and ran to meet him with a kiss, a practice she had kept up ever since they were made one. The poor wife paused before her husband, and the next instant she was in a swoon at his feet. When the hired man came upon the scene the husband was assisting the wife into the house where the story was soon told. What was the surprise of the husband when going out to the stable early Sunday morning to find the parcel containing his new suit lying on the tongue of the new waggon, just between the two front wheels, and partly under the waggon box, where it had fallen from the seat on the way home.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

CHARGED WITH STEALING COWS

York County Constable Thompson Arrested in Peterborough on Charges of Stealing from York Township Farmers.

Toronto World.

"A couple of weeks ago Robert Pender, of the second concession of East York, had a cow stolen. A few weeks previous Fred Piper of the same concession also reported one stolen. Pender made a search on Wednesday, and found his cow at R. Drury's place, St. Clair avenue, near Toronto Junction. Drury said he had bought it from County Constable Thompson. Hearing of the above circumstance, Frank Lawrence of North Toronto, thought he would make a search in the same direction for a cow he lost about a year ago. The animal was traced to Drury's, and afterwards found near Lambton Mills. Last week Constable Thompson went away on his wedding trip to Peterborough, and upon information obtained the Chief of Police was wired, and Thompson arrested charged with stealing the cows. He was brought back, and his case will come up before Squire Paxton, J.P., at Bracondale on Thursday next. Drury will also be up on a charge of receiving stolen property."

Chief Rossel was interviewed to-day and stated that he did not make the arrest. Last Friday morning a constable appeared at police headquarters and got the warrant backed for the prisoner's arrest. The chief knows nothing more of the matter.

CRISTOPHER FINLAY FRASER.

He lieth dead! the silver-tongued and true,
Within the funeral room,
And sorrow sobs the darkened chamber through
In sadness and in gloom.

For in the night a splendid Some One came
In silence—all alone,
To softly touch the sleeper's lips, and claim
The hero for his own.

And hand in hand the high and holy ground
They gained before the dawn;
We missed him in the morning when we found
A good, great man was gone.

True, in the silent room with grief and dole
We saw his body lie;
But oh! the fiery, true and gallant soul
Had fled to realms on high.

And left, to grace his nation and his age,
A bright, undying name;
'Tis writ forever on his country's page
In capitals of flame.

He lieth dead, in silence deep reposed,
Devoid of thought or will;
The voice is silent and the eyes are closed,
The faithful heart is still!

To-night alone upon the golden street
That angel feet have trod,
The brave and deathless dead shall surely meet
His mother and his God!

RANGE AND RIFLE.

Peterborough Marksmen at the Dominion Rifle Association Meet.

Unfavourable weather and bad ammunition caused low scores in the shooting, at the Dominion Rifle Association meet, at Ottawa, yesterday.

In the Hamilton Powder Company match, open to members and associate members of the association, Private C. Curtis, of the 57th Battalion, won a prize of $6 by a score of 32.

In the MacDougall Cup match, which was protested on account of the competitors using last year's ammunition, Private Blade, of the 57th Battalion, scored 41, winning a prize of $4.00.

WELL BALANCED—the mind of the woman who knows the best medicine for her aches, pains and weakness, is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a remedy which corrects and cures the distressing derangements and diseases peculiar to women, builds up and strengthens her system when she's weak, run-down and overworked. For an invigorating, restorative tonic, especially adapted to woman's needs—the "Favorite Prescription" is so positive in its effect that it is guaranteed. If it ever fails to benefit or cure, in cases for which it's advised, you have your money back.

What else can be "just as good" for you?

For bearing-down sensations, ulceration, inflammation, everything known as "female complaint," this is a remedy that's safe, certain, and proved.

Take it for the prompt relief it imparts.

THE MICROPHONE.

The Wonders of a Curious Modern Electrical Instrument.

One of the most curious instruments which the development of electrical science has brought into being is the microphone. It embraces within itself almost the whole principle of the modern telephone, and with it may be performed a series of experiments which aside from being interesting, are wonderfully significant of what we may expect from its development in the near future. By its aid the footsteps of a fly walking on the stand on which it is placed are clearly heard, and give the sensation of a horse's tread; and even a fly's scream, especially at the moment of death, is easily audible. The rustling of a feather or a piece of dress goods on the board of the instrument, and completely inaudible under ordinary circumstances, are distinctly heard in the microphone. The ticking of a watch is rendered very loud at quite a distance from the receiver. A musical box placed in connection with the instrument transmits so much sound as to render it impossible to distinguish individual notes. A current of air blown sharply on the instrument sounds like a distant trickle of water. And the rumbling of a carriage outside the house is transformed into a very intense crackling noise, not unlike the sound of the burning of pine logs.

The instrument in appearance assumes various shapes, inasmuch as the very simplicity of its principle admits of its being made of various substances and in almost any form. All that is necessary for its simple working is in having what is known, technically, as "loose contact"—that is, an electric circuit whose continuity at some point is capable of being varied. As an instance, then, three nails make one of the best of microphones. Two of the nails are laid on a board parallel to each other, and say one-half inch apart. The other nail is laid across the first two, the latter being meantime connected to a battery cell and a telephone receiver. If a fly, for instance, be confined in a small box, and the latter placed on the board on which the nails are laid, the slightest vibration caused by the movements of its feet will render the unstable contact of the nails still more unsteady, and by thus altering the force or amount of the electricity which passes, will reproduce in the telephone receiver an exact but much magnified facsimile of what is taking place in the box.

A Shakespeare Dinner.

We had been studying Shakespeare all winter, meeting one evening in the week, and securing all the bright and shining literary lights that could be coaxed, bribed, or driven to let us read the great master by the aid of their superior illumination.

Each lady member was alternately hostess, but by the time that the honor fell to my lot there was no one left among the literary lions who could even "roar you as gently as any sucking dove."

All such resources for supplementing my deficiencies in the charming art of entertaining were exhausted. Recalling the remark of a noted caterer that "if you invite people to eat, they always accept with pleasure," I determined to ask all our little club to a dinner, and request them to come in costume—Shakespearian, of course.

Women like to "dress up," and enjoy taxing their ingenuity, so I knew that I could count upon them; and as all the men were married except one—who was a natural dandy—I relied upon wifely influence. Besides which, we had all come to know one another well enough to dare to wear whatever we pleased, and depend upon home talent for our effects of costume.

On the evening named our guests all appeared in gala attire and in high good humor. Our worthy doctor's rotund proportions were little exaggerated to represent Falstaff; Lady Macbeth was magnificent in a trailing robe of black and a diadem of gilt paper, a toy dagger at her belt. Malvolio came in "cross-gartered hose," Katherine the Shrew looked very fierce—when she could remember not to smile—and Ophelia appeared bewitchingly mad with straw and poppies in her hair, which she insisted in wearing in a Psyche knot.

Our dandy, as Hamlet, looked like an undertaker or a hired "mute" at an English funeral, and Othello like a plain unheroic mulatto, his face stained with walnut juice and wearing a wig of tightly curled horse hair.

My husband was gorgeous as Cardinal Wolsey, in a cassock of the material known as "turkey red." His tonsure had been the work of Time. Lastly, I appeared as as Portia in my husband's old college gown and mortar board."

The scrofulous taint which may have, been in your blood for years, may be thoroughly expelled by giving Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial.

If you are suffering from La Grippe, Templeton's "Pink Powder" will give you immediate relief. For sale by all druggists.

The Bicycle Did It.

The Globe has already mentioned the excellent work done by the telegraph companies in getting the returns of last Tuesday's elections. The following note in regard to the matter, received by Mr. Easson, manager of the press department of the G. N. W. Telegraph Company, is, however, interesting as showing the utility of the bicycle in gathering such returns. The note is from the St. Thomas agent of the G. N. W. Company. He writes: "In collecting the returns of East and West Elgin this time we beat all previous records by over two hours, having West Elgin complete by 7 p. m., and East Elgin at 8 p. m. In order to do this and avoid the previous long delay in gathering, at points within a radius of from three to nine miles of St. Thomas to points where we had no office, I employed six bicyclists, who were out and started from each point for St. Thomas directly after the ballots were counted. Of course all this service costs something, but the promptitude with which the returns were received justified the expense."—Toronto Globe.

The Man Out of Work.

To those overtaken by adversity my advice is, be temperate, keep in good spirits and do not under any circumstances despair. Be sure to go to bed early, as a person overtaken by misfortune requires more rest than at any other time. Be sure to eat solid food and plenty of it, as it is necessary to keep up strength. Look forward, and never look backward, and remember the world was created for all human beings alike, and that it is capable of providing you a good living, which will surely be obtainable by working in the right direction. The biggest fortunes have grown from small beginnings, as does the oak grow from a small acorn. Industry, perseverance and pluck will cause a man, however great the misfortune which may have overtaken him, to rise, phenix-like from the ashes and snatch victory out of defeat.—Millionaire Henry Clews.

Napoleon's Mental Cupboard.

Napoleon used to explain the clearness of his mind, and his faculty of being able at will to prolong his work to extreme limits, by saying that the various subjects were arranged in his dead, as though in a cupboard. "When I want to interrupt one piece of work," he used to say, "I close the drawer in which it is and I open another. The two pieces of business never get mixed up together, and never trouble or tire me. When I want to go to sleep I close up all the drawers, and then I am ready to go off to sleep."—Memoirs of Napoleon.

A Great Feat at Billiards.

John Roberts, the great billiard player of all time, has added another to his long list of wonderful achievements, scoring an all-round break of 1,017 in an exhibition game against Diggle at Glasgow. A few months ago such a performance would have caused quite a sensation in the billiard world, but the public have grown accustomed to the great doings of Roberts, and seem to think there is no limit to his powers. This is the second time in his career that he has made over a thousand off the balls, spot-stroke barred, and comes next to his record break of 1,392 at Manchester, when, as in the present instance, his opponent was Diggle.—London Daily News.

The British Museum.

The average number of students in the reading room of the British museum is six hundred and fifty-one each day. The attendance in the library and sculpture gallery has been less this year than usual, but the number of visitors to the museum shows an increase of fifty thousand over last year.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 300 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

Sole Agent for the celebrated Karn Organ.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

THE CANADIAN CONFEDERATION.

AN AMERICAN PAPER'S REVIEW OF OUR 27 YEARS AS A NATION.

How It Thinks We Inculcate Love of Country—Brief History of How the Scattered Provinces Were United—Canada's Present Peace and Unity.

Of all the holidays observed in Canada none is so sacredly, so patriotically kept as the First of July—Dominion Day. Just 27 years ago Canada entered upon her career as a confederated dominion, and each year sees the anniversary celebrated with increasing enthusiasm from Halifax on the Atlantic to Victoria on the Pacific, while even in London, Eng., and where there are Canadian clubs in this country, the Dominion Day banquet has become a settled event.

As a holiday, Dominion Day has steadily superceded the Queen's Birthday (May 24th), the latter being given up mostly to horse-racing and initial games of lacrosse. The anniversary of confederation is celebrated with festivities of a different character, festivities in which patriotic orations and patriotic songs are given a very prominent part. No man can doubt the patriotism of the Canadian people. Their love for Canada is a thousand times tenderer than their passionless affection for England's Queen and the great Empire of which young Canada forms so important a part, and this sentiment is implanted in the heart of the youth of the Dominion by public exercises held in commemoration of the national existence. The children enter with zest into the spirit of these occasions, and the addresses, songs and recitations are such as to fire their young hearts with an intelligent patriotism. "The Hoisting of the Flag" is an inspiring feature of the Dominion Day exercises as practiced in the Ontario public schools, particularly so when it is accompanied by military processions, booming cannon, stirring music from brass bands and national songs from thousands of children's voices trained to sing "My Own Canadian Home" or "The Maple Leaf Forever" in shrill and simple unison. From what period Canadian national sentiment dates is rather uncertain. Agnes Maule Machar, one of the younger poets of the Dominion, fixes it in the 17th century, prior to Maisonneuve's time, when the French and the Huron Indians contested so desperately and savagely the possession of the "Thousand acres of snow" at Mont Royal. In Miss Machar's poem, "Thermopylae," is struck the keynote of, at least, French-Canadian patriotism:

"—While a new Canada has risen, through toils of centuries fled.
Gone are the dusky savage hordes that threatened then its life.
Over the long, sharp contest of fratricidal strife:
And though St. George's cross waves now for that of St. Denis,
And the green maple leaf is twined with the white fleur de lis,
We are the heirs of the brave hearts that erst that standard bore,
And brought the light of faith and hope to a wide, savage shore.
Each noble memory is ours, to keep undimmed and bright;
Each gallant deed to emulate in a yet nobler fight!
A fairer Canada is ours than that young Daulac knew,
And wider realms are ours to hold than Champlain wandered through."

The sentiment, however, which animates the English-speaking Canadian is not one of rejoicing over the bloody corses on a battlefield. It is, rather, one of intense pride and satisfaction with the happy consummation of confederation and with the present status of the Dominion as the brightest colonial gem in the British diadem. The Canadian people, as a whole, are bound firmly together in an ambitious desire for a greater nationality; and there are few of them but will agree with the Rev. Dr. Grant, principal of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., when he wrote a dozen years ago in Picturesque Canada: "What then is our destiny? Whatever God wills. The only point clear as sunlight to us as a people are, that Canada is free, and that we dare not break up the unity of the Grandest Empire the world has ever known."

And there it is in a nutshell. There is Ontario's best reason for her patriotic devotion to the Dominion and Canadian institutions. No blood was spilled in accomplishing confederation, and the national life of Canada is dated by many from that first day of July, 1867, when the British North America Act went into force, uniting in one dominion the provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

The idea of British North American federation had been considered by British statesmen long years before the "Fathers of Confederation," as Sir George Cartier, Sir John A. Macdonald, the Hon George Brown and others have been called, were heard of in public affairs. The New England colonists were hopeful in the early days of their independent life that Canada would join their union, and they even included in their constitution an article authorizing her administration. Continuing the same desire, a bill was introduced in Congress on the very eve of Canadian confederation, providing for the admission of British North America as four separate States, their several public debts to be assumed by the Federal Government at Washington, D. C. But another destiny was already mapped out, another ideal had taken possession of the Canadian mind. Chief Justice Sewell of Quebec submitted to the Duke of Kent a plan of federation as early as 1814. Ten years later the Legislative Council of Upper Canada passed a resolution favoring "the union of the four Provinces of British North America under a vice-royalty, with a face-simile of that great and glorious fabric, the best monument of human wisdom, the British Constitution." The seed was sown but the harvest was delayed for 40 years. Even then it needed the pressure of necessity to bring it to full fruition.

Prof. Goldwin Smith was not far wrong when he said that "the real father of Confederation (about which there has always been a good deal of political contention) was Deadlock." Lord Durham's mission of peace and reconciliation between the two Canadian Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada was not successful. There was constant and perilous friction between the French and English members of the Legislative Assembly, and parliamentary government finally was brought to a standstill. "Each Province remained," in the words of Lord Monck, the Governor-General at the time, "in a fragmentary and isolated condition, comparatively powerless for mutual aid and incapable of undertaking its proper share of Imperial responsibility." Out of this condition of things arose two movements. One having its origin in the Maritime Provinces, aimed at a legislative union of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and a conference of the three legislatures was called to meet at Charlottetown, P. E. I., in the fall of 1864, to promote such a confederacy. The other was the greater movement for a parliamentary union of the whole of British North America—the consolidation into one State of a country reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific, "combining within its limits all the elements of greatness, providing for the security of its component parts, and contributing to the strength and stability of the Empire."

This was the dream that had filled the mind of Sir John A. Macdonald and some of his political associates, and the conference at Charlottetown seemed to open up a way for its immediate realization. So, as one of the Maritime delegates afterwards expressed it, "the Canadians descended upon us at Charlottetown, and before they were three days among us we forgot our own scheme and thought only about theirs." The grander hope of Confederation, in fact, obliterated the narrow scheme of tri-provincial union, and a month later the Charlottetown conference was succeeded by the Quebec conference, where, in the presence of numerous representatives of political parties from each of the four Provinces, Confederation took definited. This was a step, however, which must be sanctioned by the people, and the battle had to be fought over again at the polling-booths. The two Canadas under the zealous leadership of Sir John Macdonald and Sir George Cartier, gladly assented, but the Maritime Provinces looked upon the scheme as too ambitious, too big and far less safe than a simple union among themselves. New Brunswick finally yielded to the persuasiveness of its federal leader, now Lieutenant-Governor, Sir Leonard Tilley, and Nova Scotia, after a stubborn defence succumbed to the advocacy of Dr., now Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner to England. Thus was Confederation secured and July 1, 1867, became the natal day of the Dominion of Canada. Three years later the Hudson's Bay territories in the Northwest were purchased and the Province of Manitoba was organized and brought within the federation in 1870. British Columbia was added in 1871, and Prince Edward Island on July 1, 1873.

Newfoundland stands alone in the shadow of the Dominion, but those who follow her affairs closely believe that the day is not far distant when the little sea-girt Province will be knocking for admittance. Since confederation, Great Britain has not once offered to interfere in Canadian national affairs. Instead, a voice has been given to the Dominion in various foreign affairs, and a disposition has been shown to consult representative Canadians upon various matters touching the weal of the Empire, which never would have been possible with representatives of disintegrated and unimportant provinces. Confederation was a long step forward in Canadian progress toward self-government in all things. Lord Durham, in his first report on British North America, said: "If these important and extensive colonies should speak with one voice, if it were felt that every error of our colonial policy must cause a common suffering and a common discontent throughout the whole wide extent of British America, these complaints would never be provoked." Events have completely verified the prediction. Since 1867 that extensive and important group of colonies have spoken with one voice, the voice of the Dominion of Canada, and Great Britain has ruled that as regards foreign relations where the interests of England and Canada are identical, the two countries are one, and entitled to equal consideration.

Dominion Day is Canada's Fourth of July, although the causes for celebration are diametrically different—the one country celebrating the unity and the other the dismemberment of the British Empire on this continent. In every city, town and hamlet in the broad Dominion the Union Jack was unfurled, and strong, self-reliant young Canada on the anniversary exulted in her possession of untrammeled institutions, free government and a healthy, happy people. Problems, no doubt, have yet to be faced. The strain of world wide competition, the high tariff pressure, the demand for markets, the need for more sturdy workers in the country's development—are some of the difficulties which confront the Dominion; but Canada is well able to grapple with them now, for she has established for herself a name among nations for enterprise and the possession of the other national virtues which go to make up a progressive and prosperous nationality.—Buffalo Express.

CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters—He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

Dyspepsia causes Dizziness, Headache Constipation, Variable Appetite, Rising and Souring of Food, Palpitation of the Heart, Distress after Eating. Burdock Blood Bitters is guaranteed to cure Dyspepsia if faithfully used according to directions.

Riot Among Polish Tenants.

WARSAW, Aug. 28.—Count Lyszkeewics, whose estates are near Krottingen, in the Government of Wilna, has been on bad terms with his tenants for several months. Several tenants refused to pay rent. On Saturday the Count seized thirty head of their cattle as security. The peasants were intensely excited by the appearance of the count's officers and let the cattle go only after having been driven with clubs from the sheds. One hundred of them armed with old muskets, scythes and pitchforks marched to the Count's castle. They demanded the cattle back. Some twenty servants and foremen ordered them to leave the neighborhood. In the fight which followed, four of the Count's employes and six or seven of the peasants were killed and many others were wounded.

Britannia's Engagements Off.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—In consequence of the capsizing in Portland Roads of the Britannia's dingey, through which two of the crew were drowned, the Prince of Wales has cancelled all of the cutter's engagements on the western coast. The bodies of the drowned sailors have not been recovered. The Central News is authority for the statement that the Britannia will land her guests at Torrsquay and proceed to Cowes, where she will go out of commission unless the Vigilant compels her to contest for the Cape May cup on Sept. 9. Capt. Carter, of the Britannia, is deeply grieved by the loss of Mate Simons, one of the two men who were drowned in Portland Roads, who, the captain declares, was his most useful officer.

Wrestling Championship of the World.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 28.—Mackinerney of America and Cannon of England met here last evening in a wrestling match for 100 pounds a side and the championship of the world. The first bout, Greco-Roman was won by Cannon in seven minutes. The second, catch-as-catch-can, was won by Mackinerney in 13 minutes. Cannon had the choice of style in the third bout and decided on Greco-Roman. He won the fall in about 3 minutes, thus getting back the championship of the world. About 5,000 men saw the match.

Dropped Dead Before the Queen.

ROME, Aug. 28.—Queen Margaret went to the Gressoney valley, in the Province of Turin, several days ago to visit the Baron and Baronness Precoz. On Saturday her host gave in her honor an excursion into the Alps. During the ascent he dropped dead before the Queen's eyes. She was nearly overcome and became hysterical several times before reaching home. She still suffers from extreme nervousness. The king was summoned to her early yesterday morning. An examination of Baron Precoz's body showed he died from heart disease.

Sentenced for Insulting a Royal Official.

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—A social democratic miner named Lodz was convicted in the Essen Criminal Court to-day of having insulted a royal official and was sentenced to two weeks' imprisonment. As soon as the sentence was pronounced he drew a revolver. The judges fled and he fired two shots at them but without hitting them. Then he turned to kill himself. He was overpowered by court officials before he could do more. Nobody was injured.

Mahdists Preparing for an Attack.

CAIRO, Aug. 28.—It is reported here that the Mahdists are concentrating their forces to attack Kassala and wrest it from the Italians who recently occupied it. The provinces of the Eastern Soudan, Berber and Dongola have been stripped of Mahdist troops. The Mahdist rendezvous is Omdurman.

THE LABOR COMMISSION.

George M. Pullman Gives Evidence—Why the Town Was Built.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Edward F. Ingalls, cashier and manager of the Pullman Loan and Savings Bank was the first witness to testify before the National Commission yesterday.

George M. Pullman took the stand in the afternoon. He stated the Pullman Palace Car Co. was organized July 31, 1867, with a capital of $1,000,000. The town of Pullman was established in 1880.

Commissioner Wright conducted the examination of Mr. Pullman. He asked the president of the Palace Car Company to tell in his own way the objects of the company and why the town was built.

"The plan was," said Mr. Pullman reading from a typewritten manuscript, "to establish a community for workingmen which would enable them to live in harmonious relations with the company. The relations of the Pullman Co. are, however, simply those of a landlord in regard to its employes, which it treats as tenants. The basis of profit was 6 per cent. per annum, which at that time was a fair profit on the investment. The cost of establishment, the streets and improvements, was of course considered in making this calculation. This does not include the cost of the plant.

"The Pullman Co.," Mr. Pullman stated, "did not sell property within the limits of the town of Pullman because the company did not wish objectionable characters to establish themselves in the town. There were in consequence no saloons or houses of ill-repute in Pullman, as there might otherwise have been."

THE ANTI-LORDS AGITATION.

Comments of London Papers on the Meeting in Hyde Park.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Westminster Gazette fairly voices the Government's opinion when it says that the demonstration in Hyde park on Sunday afternoon of the National League for the Abolition of the House of Lords was a "damp political squid."

The Westminster Gazette adds: "The feeling against the Lords in all centres of Liberalism is as strong as ever; but the moment is inopportune."

The Conservatives are delighted with the feebleness of the Radical first gun and are making much of the fact that some of the banners carried in the procession bore obscene mottoes. The speech of Mr. O'Brien was as much an attack upon the Government as upon the House of Lords.

Dr. Charles K. D. Tanner, M. P. for the Middle Division of Cork, and anti-Parnellite, emphasized his remarks by waving a shillelah which he had brought with him. While flourishing this stick above his head Mr. Tanner asserted that the Lords composed "a house of bastards." "Not all of them," he explained, "and to those who are not bastards I apologize."

A Prominent Man Accidentally Killed.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Hon. A. B. Abbott, ex member of the assembly and a prominent citizen of Glen Fall, accidentally shot himself while cleaning a gun preparatory to going hunting with his son. The charge blew off the top of his head.

Chautauqua's Twenty-First Anniversary.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Yesterday marked the close of the assembly season for 1894, this being the 21st year of Chautauqua's existence.

Kidnapped a Young Girl.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 28.—Musquah village, in St. John county, is excited over the kidnapping of the fifteen year old daughter of a respectable farmer named Crawford. The man drove up to the house in a carriage while the parents were out and induced the young girl to go with him.

Railroad Strike in Nova Scotia.

SHELBURNE, N. S. Aug. 28.—The Southern railway men are all on strike since Saturday. They say they receive no pay. If no money is forthcoming soon trouble may be expected.

INQUEST AT ST. BARBE.

The Jury Divided in Opinion as to Whether a Murder Was Committed.

MONTREAL, Aug. 28.—A special from Ste. Barbe, Que., says: The reports of Dr. Johnston and Dr. St. Onge, given to the jury at the inquest on Friday last when the press was first excluded, have been made known.

Dr. St. Otra, who saw Myer on the morning after his death, reports that some of the wounds on his face were made by some sharp instrument, but were not of a sufficient nature to cause the man's death, and had he been attended to as soon as they were received, Myer would now be alive.

But, being insensible, the constant rubbing of the spokes of the wheel caused his death. Dr. Johnston, who made the autopsy three days after the tragedy, reports that the man died from the sulky wounds, as the other wounds, which are supposed to have been made by a knife, had been left so long that is was impossible to discern as to whether they had been made by a knife or the bolt or spokes. The jury were of the unanimous opinion that Myer had been murdered, but after the doctors' report one or two wavered somewhat. The inquest adjourned to see if there was any other evidence to be got, or that all should come to one verdict on the case."

A Woman Attacked by a Peddler.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Aug. 28.—A Polish peddler, named Jacobson, aged 16, entered the house of C. W. Parker, druggist, and met Mrs. Parker in the kitchen. She told him she did not want to buy anything. He thereupon grabbed a large carving knife and made a rush at her. The woman fought bravely and finally succeeded in wrenching the knife from him. She threw the knife down and ordered the Pole out of the house, but seeing her unarmed he again made a rush at her. Her screams brought some neighbors to the house and Jacobson fled. Acting from a description Mrs. Parker was able to give, the police a few hours later succeeded in capturing the man.

Lumber Shipments Under the New Tariff.

HAMILTON, Aug. 28.—The schooner Wave Crest is loading lumber for Oswego, N. Y., at the Grand Trunk dock. To-day the regulation admitting lumber free of duty comes into force and large shipments will be made during the balance of the season. All goods shipped previous to the day of enforcement of the amended tariff and kept in bond awaiting the free regulation are subject to the old duty according to the new law and it is said some shipments made in this way will be exported again and then brought back in order to escape the old tariff.

Barn and Contents Burned.

WELLESLEY, Ont., Aug. 28.—Yesterday morning David Hergott's barn, scarcely a mile east of this place, was observed to be on fire and was with all this year's crop, outbuildings, several hundred bushels threshed grain, one horse and three calves completely burned to the ground. Loss upwards of $3,000, insured for $2,300.

The fire started on the top of the straw stack by a spark likely to have been carried there by some surrounding bush fire, the house not being far from the barn was in danger for a time but fortunately the wind which had then blown from the east changed and spared the house.

After Forty Years Pastorate.

ELMIRA, N. Y. Aug. 28.—After a pastorate of forty years Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, brother of the late Henry Ward Beecher, has retired from the active duties as pastor of the Park church. Mr. Beecher's new assistant, Rev. Samuel Eastman, and his wife, Annie F. Eastman, of Rochester, will succeed to the pastorate, although Mr. Beecher will remain the head of the church which he founded and fostered, as long as he lives.

Boodling in Lansing, Mich.

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 28.—A boodle sensation is brewing here in connection with Lansing's new $125,000 city hall, and the arrest of some of the city aldermen it is said will occur to-day. Affidavits were sworn to that a prominent alderman agreed for $1,000 to get through the common council a certain architect's plan for the new city hall, worth $7,500 to the architect. The disclosures are the result of the work of a citizens' committee.

Somnambulist Sprague's Narrow Escape.

LONDON, Ont., Aug. 28.—Last night William Sprague, porter of the Welsh House, got up in his sleep and walked out of his bed-room window on the third floor and landed on a shed at the back, rolling from there to the ground. The whole distance of Sprague's fall must have been forty or fifty feet and while he received some pretty severe injuries, his escape from death was a narrow one.

Fire Caused by Lightning.

CARP, Ont., Aug. 28.—Last night at six o'clock the great barns of Adam Hodgins, reeve of Huntley, were struck by lightning and together with all the outbuildings in the block, were entirely destroyed. Mr. Hodgins and others in the barn at the time were stunned by the electric shock. The stables and barns were full.

Coxeyites Sentenced to Penitentiary.

BUFFALO, Aug. 28.—Count Rybakowski and fourteen members of his staff were tried yesterday in a local justice's court and convicted of being tramps. The Count was sentenced to six months in the penitentiary and the others three months each. The Countess is still at large. There are now seventy-six members of the Count's late army serving sentences here.

Freight Car Burned on the Road.

STRATFORD, Aug 28.—A through car of freight consisting of general merchandise from Boston to Chicago in bond took fire when near Tavistock, and there being no means at hand for extinguishing the flames the car was detached from the train and allowed to burn, resulting in total loss of car and contents.

The Seattle Mine Horror.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 28.—The coroner's jury investigating the disaster in the Franklin coal mine Friday, in which 37 men were killed, has returned a verdict finding that the fire was started by parties unknown. It is believed the persons who fired the mine also perished.

A NOVELTY
—IN—DRESS GOODS
—AT—
TURNBULL'S

(From the New York Dry Goods Economist.)

"Jasper is a novelty in dress goods. It is of foreign production, popular character and reasonable price. Retailers are showing their opinion of its merits by their eager purchases, and shoppers in want of a dressy and useful gown will voice the correctness of the retailers' preparation.

Its appearance combines both a crepe and a fancy figure and embraces two figures in the same design. The material composing this fabric is entirely fine worsted yarn. The two colours found in the fabric are distinct and separate; one colour is confined entirely to the warp threads and the other colour is found only in the filling threads.

As the filling threads supply one colour and the warp threads the other colour to the fabric, so one set of threads produces one effect and the other set of threads produces the second effect in the design.

The crepe effect is caused entirely by bringing some of the warp threads on the surface and the figured effect is produced by bringing some of the filling threads on the surface. As the warp threads are of a different colour from the filling threads, the crepe effect and the figured effect are consequently of two different colours.

The crepe effect is formed by certain warp threads being raised at the proper places in the pattern for five or six picks of the loom, when that number of filling threads are thrown in under these raised warp threads. The warp threads that have been raised are next made to work in a regular weaver for four picks, in which one pick of warp is bound in with one pick of filling.

The variation of the motion of the warp threads does two things. When they are raised for five or six picks they produce threads lying on the surface of the cloth like stitches from a needle, and the large number of these covering the surface of the fabric gives the crepe effect. When these warp threads are made to work in a regular weave the fabric is built up, the loose stitches producing the crepe effect are bound in and good weaving material is insured.

The figured effect is produced in a contrary method from the crepe effect. As the warp threads are raised and the filling threads thrown under them to produce the crepe, so the warp threads are depressed and the filling thrown in under them to produce the figured effect.

In the crepe the colour of the wrap threads only shows and in the figure the colour of the filling threads only shows. There is in each a contrast of pattern and of colour. The Jacquard motion of the loom produces both effects and contrasts with unerring accuracy, guided by the pattern which the manufacturer has designed.

There is no dyeing to be done to the fabric, for the coloured threads that form it give its color. After being woven, it is finished in the manner regularly employed with such goods. Its construction and material insure its giving every satisfaction to the wearer. Its pattern is popular and safe. Its colour gives two tones without being an iridescent and its crepe effect is a complement to this order of weave without actually being a crepe.

Political Rumors Say Elections Will be Held Next March.

SIR THOMAS GALT RESIGNS

His Resignation Leaves Open the Chief Justiceship of the Court of Common Pleas—Decline in Immigration—The Lumber Shipping Trade.

OTTAWA, Aug. 29.—The latest political rumor here is that Parliament will meet early in December and that the general election will come off in March next.

Chief Justice Sir Thomas Galt.

Sir Thomas Galt, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, has resigned. While the resignation has been expected for some time there has been nothing definite about it since Judge Galt applied for six months' leave of absence last April. A long leave of absence like this generally means a resignation, but the Department of Justice would say nothing definite beyond the fact that there was no reason for his resignation beyond his age.

Sir Thomas Galt was born in London, Eng., 12th of August, 1815, and is therefore 79 years old. He was the son of Mr. John Galt, a name well known in literature, and his brother was the late Sir Alexander Dilloch Galt, High Commissioner from Canada to the court of St. James. Sir Thomas emigrated to Canada at the age of 18, and after six years spent in the employ of the Canada Company he entered the office of the late Chief Justice Draper, and was called to the bar of Upper Canada in 1840 and entered immediately upon the practice of his profession. From the very outset he gave evidence of great ability. In 1858 he was created a Q.C., and in Easter term, 1869, he was elevated to the bench as puisne judge of the Court of Common Pleas. On the 7th of November, 1887, he was appointed chief justice of the Common Pleas.

The resignation has been received here within the last few days and there has been no meeting of Council to accept it. This is pretty sure to be done, however, and Sir Thomas will be entitled to $4,000 a year superannuation. The salary of the office is $6,000 from the federal government. Mr. Ritchie, Q.C., of Toronto, is regarded as a likely candidate for the position.

Lumber Shipping Trade.

Fortunate circumstances have made the lumber shipping trade in Ottawa this season very satisfactory, despite the world-wide depression there has been in matters commercial. At the opening of the season the unusually low freight rates offered by Atlantic freighters induced the English dealers to purchase large quantities of deals. This kept the shipping fairly brisk all summer, and just as this market was failing somewhat, the free lumber clause of the American tariff bill has had the effect of increasing the trade in ordinary plank and boards sufficiently to take the place of the English trade.

Little or No Immigration.

Mr. J. C. Coleman, secretary of the High Commissioner's officer, London, arrived on the Parisian a few days ago to make a tour of Canada in order to gain information useful to intending settlers. He is expected here in a couple of days on his way to the Northwest and British Columbia after looking over the Lake St. John region. Mr. L. Fortier, chief of the Immigration Bureau, reports that there is practically no immigration this year and that for the first time in the history of the United States the tide is flowing to Europe instead of from it. He says that Dr. Brisson secretary of the French-Canadian Expatriation Society, was here a few days ago and reported that so far this year 270 Canadians, heads of families, had been induced to return to Canada.

At the Rifle Ranges.

There was a goodly attendance of spectators on the Rideau range witnessing the firing in the Minister of Militia match. The scores made were very good. In this match there is $100, presented by Hon. J. C. Patterson with $750 added by the D. R. A., together with the challenge cup presented by Sir A. P. Caron.

Livery Stables Burned.

GANANOQUE, Ont. Aug. 29.—The buildings leased by Hiram Atkinson from Wm. Gray, used as a horse livery, in this town, was destroyed by fire yesterday. Owing to the contents being so inflammable, and the structure wood, it was quickly consumed. All the horses were got out safely. The livery owner, Hiram Atkinson, was severely injured by being crushed against the wall of the stable by a horse backing against him. Cutters and robes stored away were all consumed. Insurance on building, held by Gray, is only $200, which does not cover loss. Atkinson's insurance on contents, $2,000. How the fire originated is unknown, some parties asserting that they saw smoke a few yards outside of the building before it caught inside.

Severe Drought in Essex.

WINDSOR, Aug. 29.—The present drought in Essex county surpasses the memory of even the "oldest inhabitant." Farmers are drawing water for miles and at McGregor, a station at the junction of the Michigan Central and Lake Erie and Detroit River Railroads, 12 miles from here, women beg water from the locomotive tanks. Many fences have been destroyed through grass fires.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF

How the Application of the New Law Affects Canadian Products.

COMPARED WITH M'KINLEY BILL

Buffalo Produce Merchants Fear the Competition of Canadian Farmers—Lumber and Barley—Effect of the Changes in the Stock Schedule.

BUFFALO, Aug. 29.—While it is yet too early to say definitely the effect of the tariff bill on the local markets, a reporter, who visited the produce wholesale district, reports that many of the dealers "cussed" the new tariff bill and said that it would let in Canadian truck and ruin many farmers hereabouts. They all agreed that the cost of eggs, apples and potatoes would be less.

"The new tariff opens the way for the importation of eggs, apples and potatoes and other stuff from Canada," said Mr. C. L. Potter, of the firm of Potter & Williams. "As it is now, very little produce is brought over from Canada. We expect to see the market glutted with Canadian produce. Eggs, apples and potatoes will be cheaper, but the American farmers will be the sufferers. They can't compete with the Canadian farmers."

The tariff reduces the duty on butter from 6 to 4 cents a pound; cheese, ditto; eggs from 5 to 3 cents a dozen, and like commodities proportionately.

In other departments relating largely to Canadian importations, leading business men were interviewed. A synopsis of the interviews are given.

Hard lumber.—John N. Scatcherd, a prominent dealer in hard woods, said he did not expect any change in the condition of that business under the new tariff.

"After the tariff had been passed" said he "we tried to make prices with the Canadian dealers on the basis of the new tariff, but we found a disposition on the part of the Canadian lumbermen to add to their prices the $2 taken off by the tariff which does not enable us to get lumber any cheaper than before. Whenever we have made prices on lumber in Canada we have made it the same delivered in Buffalo as the price of lumber brought from Ohio, Pennsylvania or the west and delivered here by the producer. The Canadian, therefore, pays the tariff. Now he seems disposed to take advantage of the reduction of the tariff.

Pine lumber.—Mr. Montgomery, of the firm of Holland, Graves & Montgomery, said the business would not be materially affected by the tariff. American capital controls the great lumber territory around the Georgian bay. As soon as business picked up Mr. Montgomery thought the condition of the market here would be excellent. He thought it was a mistake, however, to admit dressed lumber free, as this would result in the removal of the mills at Ogdensburg, Oswego and Burlington to Canada in due time.

Barley.—Hon. John B. Manning, who is a high authority on the subject, said of the effect of the change in the barley schedule: "Under the McKinley bill a duty of 30 cents a bushel specific was imposed on barley. The present law makes it 30 per cent. ad valorem. The present price of Canadian barley in Canada is 40 to 45 cents a bushel. The duty therefore will amount to from 12 to 13½ cents a bushel, a difference in favor of the lower duty of 16½ cents a bushel.

"Strange as it may seem, the rate under the McKinley bill was a detriment to the growers of barley in this state. The high duty prevented the importation of Canadian barley to any extent. Previous to the passage of the McKinley tariff bill, when the importation of Canadian barley amounted to 10,000,000 bushels a year, instead of it being an injury to the interests of growers of barley in this State, it had the opposite effect. State barley grown in the counties of Erie, Niagara and Orleans on the average is nearly as good in quality as Canadian barley and sold within three to five cents as much per bushel, but when the prohibitory duty was placed on the barley and little or no Canadian barley was imported, the brewers of this State said there was not sufficient good barley grown in this State to supply their wants and decided to use substitutes for the better grades of barley malt and confined their purchases to malt made from western barley.

Stock.—The changes in the stock schedule are calculated to increase the volume of handlings Buffalo. In the fall heavy entries are made here for sheep from Canada. Under the McKinley bill the duty was $1.50 per head for sheep and 75 cents a head for lambs. The new tariff makes it 20 per cent. advalorem on all stock and cattle, which is quite a reduction. The duty on horses was $30 a head when the valuation was $150 and 20 per cent. advalorem when the valuation was higher. Now it is 20 per cent. advalorem on all. Sheep and horses were the principal stock importations received here from Canada.

A great quantity of staves and other lumber is waiting just across the border for the law to go into effect. The custom house officers expect a rush of business as soon as they are ready to receive it under the new law.

Colonel Hayes Pardoned.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Col. Wm. B. Hayes, who on March 3, 1893, was sentenced to eight years in Sing Sing for perjury, has been pardoned by Governor Flower. In addition to perjury, Hayes was twice charged with bigamy, once by Lois Fuller the actress and serpentine dancer, who alleged in 1892 that she had been united to the man under a common law contract. The woman in the second instance was Mrs. Anna Keating, of Rochester.

Poaching by American Sealers.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The St. James' Gazette gives prominence to a letter written by an Anglo-Canadian alleging serious poaching upon the part of American sealers in Hudson Bay and in the Mackenzie river. The writer says: "Brother Jonathan is an exceedingly smart practitioner. While inviting the powers to adhere to the Behring Sea award, he is poaching on his own account."

WICKS TAKES THE BOX

He Gives Evidence Before the National Labor Commission.

SOME OF PULLMAN'S METHODS

His Evidence Gives an Interesting Insight Into the Manner in Which the Company Dealt by its Employes—Trades Unions Were Not Recognized.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—At yesterday's session of the National Labor Commission, Vice-President Wicks of the Pullman Co. took the stand. He was cross-examined by Chairman Wright.

"Can you tell me the average profit on a Pullman Car?"

"That depends on the state of business. We have to go into the field with other companies. Sometimes the profit is 2 per cent, sometimes 5 and sometimes 10 per cent."

Mr. Wicks said the company lost $51,000 in trying to give its men work. During this time the men contributed labor worth $60,000. He thought perhaps, as it has turned out, the better business policy of the company would have been to grant the demands of the men, but there was a principle involved that he did not think could be ignored. If the demands had been granted there might have been trouble in future years.

"Do you not think it would have been a good business policy for the Pullman company to have sold its employes homes?"

"I don't think it would have been wise to sell lots to employes indiscriminately. Evil influences would almost certainly have crept in when the company lost control of the land."

The witness ascribed the world's fair as one of the causes of the strike. He said: "The men were making very good wages during the fair year, as we let them do as much overtime as they pleased. I suppose they found it very hard after the prosperous times of the exposition year to come down to bed-rock prices."

"Has the Pullman company ever increased wages voluntarily?"

"It has in the case of some of the shopmen."

"But not as regards any large body of men?"

"No, sir."

"Don't you think it would be a good plan to increase the wages of the men in prosperous years—in other words, to regulate the wages by the amount of business done by the employers?"

"No, I do not think that plan would work well. It would have a tendency to slip shod business methods. We go into the market for our men just as we do for materials. It is all regulated by the law of supply and demand."

Mr. Wicks thought if the men at Pullman had been let alone by outsiders they would have gone back to work. He, however, gave Vice President Howard, of the A.R.U., credit for having advised the Pullman employes not to strike. No orders for eviction had been given out yet, although the employes owe the company $100,000 for back rents.

"Was a reduction in wages made every time a contract was taken at a loss by the company?"

"No, sir, I do not think this is true."

"Why were not rents reduced when wages were cut?"

"The question of rents was an entirely different one from the question of wages. Only about one-third of the employes lived in Pullman. We could not have reduced any rents for the majority who lived outside."

"The rents were not based on panic conditions, were they?"

"They were not."

"Then why, when the panic conditions came, would it not have been advisable to charge lower rates?"

"There is no connection between the Pullman Car Works and the town of Pullman. The men don't have to live in Pullman unless they wish. They can move out without prejudice on the part of the company."

Mr. Wicks said the company, as a matter of fact, did all the repairing although the lease provided that the tenant should do it.

"Don't you think that making them sign an agreement to do this, whether you enforce it or not, is very unjust."

"I'm not prepared to offer my opinion on that."

"You don't recognize that there are any questions in regard to wages that can be properly arbitrated."

"I do not. I think all companies know what wages they can afford to pay."

"What is your policy as to unions," asked Mr. Kernan.

"We don't recognize the men as unions, but as individuals."

"Do you think the men would have a fair chance with the company coming before it one at a time?"

"If they are not able to plead their own cause it is their own misfortune."

"You don't think then that the men have any right to organize for redress of grievances?"

"No, sir; if they don't want to work at the wages we offer they have the privilege of going somewhere else."

Mr. Wicks stated that a few years ago Mr. Pullman's salary was only $10,000 a year as president of the company. He declined to state what it now is, or what that of the general officers is. None of these had been reduced during the strike."

Count of Paris' Condition Critical.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—Inquiries made at Stowe House, the residence of the Count of Paris, show that the condition of the head of the House of Orleans is very critical. He has great difficulty in taking food and is suffering much pain. All the members of the family are present at the bedside.

Crimes Committed Through Drink.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—During a drunken frenzy, James Foley, aged 40, kicked and beat his mother, Honora Foley, to death. The murderer was arrested. In a drunken brawl Joseph Rodriguez, a sailor, was kicked to death.

THE TRADE AND LABOUR CONGRESS.

Toronto Evening News.

Nothing can be much more encouraging than the intelligence with which the labour assemblies meet and discuss in public the various principles affecting their order. Whatever drawbacks they may labour under in their deliberations they nevertheless compare favourably with any other assembly whether secular or religious. That some things are crude and imperfect goes without saying; but the same remark applies to our various parliament and conventions. And yet the public is vastly indebted for many reforms that labour organization have already effected.

He would be a very rash man who would say that the wealth of the world is equitably distributed, that each man receives his fair share of the blessings he should enjoy. This subject, of course, must occupy a prominent place in the programme of the Congress. The speakers will doubtless call attention to the extraordinary system whereby we distribute the natural gifts, the special heritage of the country. Instead of religiously reserving these things for the equal enjoyment of all, we put them up recklessly for the grab game of the speculator and the monopolist.

Then, again they will doubtless call prominent attention to the reckless manner in which we now disregard the immense power we place in the hands of the owners of the land in business centres, whereby they can compel labour to pay tribute, not for service or product, but for the occupation of land. All this immense wealth thus misappropriated, reaping without sowing, can be obtained only by the spoliation and impoverishment of the labourer. It is incumbent on this congress to call particular attention to this overwhelming fact, and its important bearing on the condition of the labouring classes.

Closely connected with this is our unjust method of imposing taxes. Wherever labour is assembled there taxes are concentrated, wherever labour exerts its beneficient effort to convert the raw material into the products that are to augment the wealth and prosperity of the country, there we will pile up the taxation, as though industry were a fire to be quenched, or a nuisance to be abated. When we see how this discourages the use of capital in the employment of labour, how it leads to the enforced idleness of many who are anxious to work, and how it thus crowds down wages, then we can appreciate the important place it should occupy in the discussion of the congress. Labour should make a strong effort to have this abuse corrected.

Is it not amazing how the people of this country discriminate with such terrible injustice against the wage earning classes? The working man is the forgotten man, and especially the working women. Not only must he compete against all sorts of labour-saving machinery, not only must he be subjected to the pressure of enormous ground rents and the extortions of land speculation, but he must actually be taxed to bring emigrants to compete in his own market. Where the employer is protected to the tune of 25 or 50 per cent. the labourer must bear the full brunt of an unrestricted flood of foreign emigration. Against this discrimination there should be the most emphatic protest. The man without a dollar in his pocket must compete against the world, while the millionaires must be shielded from foreign competitions. This must end. Capital must receive no special favours.

"Affliction sore long time she bore
Physicians were in vain."
At last one day, a friend did say,
"You'd soon be well again"

if you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus, and kindred weaknesses. As a nervine it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is now well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of curing in every case, or money paid for it returned.

ONTARIO CROPS.

The Yield of Autumn Wheat Declared to be First Class—Oats a Fair Crop —Plenty of Apples.

TORONTO, August 28.—The Department of Agriculture's quarterly report of the crop conditions in Ontario was issued yesterday. Regarding autumn wheat the report says: "All things considered, this is probably the most successful crop of the present season. The grain filled fairly well, and harvesting was completed in favourable weather. As to both yield per acre and quality of grain, the crop may be called first-class. The harvesting began July 1 in the southwest, and ended about August 1, in the north and north-east. There were 29,503 acres ploughed up."

Spring wheat—Reports are quite varied. The little that is grown in the western half suffered very severely from drought, whereas excessive rains in the east have in some cases done much damage and encouraged rust. Taking the province over, the crop may be set down as being limited in quantity and light in weight.

Barley—The acreage is greater than in 1893, and the yield per acre below the average. There will be available only a limited quantity of plump bright barley for export. The yield is practically all of the six-rowed variety.

Oats.—From all parts come reports of only a fair yield per acre. The eastern crop is somewhat better than the western. The grain is a little light. While some damage has resulted from rust and excessive early rains on low lands, the greatest drawback has been from drought. The great increase in acreage is noteworthy.

Peas.—The yield will probably be less than for some years past.

Beans.—If rain falls a fair yield may be harvested. If the drought continues there will be but a very limited crop.

Hay and clover.—The yields per acre of the past three years were as follows: 1891, 0.94; 1892, 1.74; 1893, 1.79 tons per acre. That of the present year is 1.30 tons per acre. The larger portion of the present crop is timothy and native grasses. There is less clover than usual in the first cutting. On the whole, the quality is reported very good, as good harvesting weather prevailed over all parts except in a few eastern sections.

Corn.—Reports from the great corn-growing counties of Essex and Kent are to the effect that much replanting had to be done owing to wet weather, and that the prolonged drought had been telling on the plant. Several correspondents in that section look for only a half yield, although others are more hopeful, should the remainder of the season be favourable. Much will depend upon the weather of the next few weeks.

Potatoes—Heavy rains at the time of planting, June frosts, bugs and drought have combined to make the yield of potatoes small in Western Ontario, both as regards the size of the tubers and quantity per acre. Some correspondents report only half a crop. In the eastern portion of the province the reports are much more favorable in some localities, the yield being most encouraging.

Fruit—Apples, notwithstanding the profusion of blossoms, will not be a heavy crop. Autumn and winter apples are dropping off in large numbers and the earlier sorts are only moderate in yield. Plums are in fair condition in the Niagara district, where they get special attention, but other sections report much injury from curculio. Pears will give a fair yield taking the province over. Peaches are fair to good, early sorts especially yielding largely. Cherries are plentiful. Grapes will hardly be up to their average, owing to early summer frosts, although in some sections there is promise of an abundant yield.

Pastures and live stock.—The most favourable reports concerning pastures come from St. Lawrence and Ottawa counties, but even there the fields are becoming dry. In the remainder of the province, but more particularly in the western groups, serious alarm is felt as to the extent of the drought. Several correspondents state that the milk flow has fallen off one-third. Pastures hardly derive the name, they are so brown, and some correspondents say that the aftermath will be almost nothing unless early rain comes.

Notwithstanding these drawbacks, live stock are reported in a healthy condition generally, although rather thin. There will likely be an abundance of fodder for winter feeding should pastures pick up. Butter has been scarce in some districts, but cheese factories have been largely patronized. Judging by the returns, our farmers are giving closer attention to dairying than ever before.

You can never have a really good complexion until the impurity is cleansed from your blood. What you need is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is absolutely free from all harmful ingredients, and therefore, perfectly safe.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

ST. PAUL'S C. E.

The consecration meeting of the above society was well attended on Monday night not only by the members, but by many who had come to hear Miss Ferguson give an address on "Thibet." After the regular service, many Endeavourers from the other societies came in, filling the Bible class room to its utmost capacity.

Miss Ferguson is an earnest, trusting, faith-filled follower of Christ; she speaks in a pleasing conversational style, impressing all with her earnestness and singleness of purpose. She intends going with sister in a short time to this "great closed land" as it has been called. Missionaries have tried to work there, but heretofore could hardly find admittance. Only this summer has the way been opened for the entrance of foreigners and that to only one trading point.

Thibet is in Central Asia, between China, India and Turkestan. It is very mountainous, and extremely cold, especially in the north. There is a population of about six millions, who know nothing about the true God. They are Bhuddists and are, according to their light, one of the most religious people in the world. One out of every six of the people is a priest. She described the habits and dress of the people in a very interesting manner, enlightening all present as to the condition of this dark portion of heathendom. Her remarks on consecration, at the beginning of her address, were helpful to all present, and will no doubt bear fruit in the lives of her hearers. The meeting closed with singing of "God be with you," and prayer by Rev. E. F. Torrance.

The following words based on the latter part of chapter 17, St. Luke's gospel we take from "Parish Church Work," a monthly published by St. Luke's, of Ashburnham:

"GRATITTDE."

"Ten lepers were healed—nine went their way, the tenth was grateful and returned to give thanks to God. The nine were Jews, God's own peple, the tenth a Samaritan, a heretic, an outcast. How vile a sin is ingratitude. We feel it when manifested towards ourselves. How often are we not guilty of this offence towards God! It is an easy matter to see it in the lives of others, but not so easy to note it in our own. Let us then meditate on these things: First, we none of us wish to die. We cling to life. Are we then thankful to God for the gift of life? Secondly, we are compassed about with dangers of many kinds. Are we thankful for our escape from these? Thirdly, we are surrounded with a world of beauty; our daily needs are all supplied; we have almost all comfortable homes. Are we thankful for these things? In short, do we really thank God for creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life? And lastly, for spiritual blessings, the revelation of Jesus Christ, of pardon, restoration, and eternal life. Are we thankful for these things? Or do we, like the nine cleansed lepers, go comfortably on our way without a thought or word of thanks? Let us study this Samaritan, who returned to glorify God, and to give thanks for His mercies. Gratitude is a self-rewarding virtue. The grateful spirit is a source of joy, and in a sense, "it is the source of religion in the soul." The grateful spirit alone believes, because it alone acknowledges the source of its life and being, the author and foundation head. The grateful spirit alone finds out God; to it alone He reveals Himself, and with the grateful one out of the ten, it falls down before Him, giving Him thanks."

ST. ANDREW'S C. E.

The consecration meeting was well attended and especially interesting. Mr. W. S. Johnston occupied the chair. Mr. Albert Hamilton gave an address on the topic "The joy of a Christian life," showing that the Christian's experience in life is the most enjoyable one. Rev. A. MacWilliams also gave a fine and helpful address on the same topic.

We were pleased to have a former member with us again, Mr. Ridgeway, who has been engaged in mission work in Montreal, but who is now going to reside in Springfield, Mass. He gave us an interesting address. Altogether it was a very profitable meeting.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

Council meeting next Monday evening.

Miss L. M. Scott left Saturday evening for Toronto, where she has a position as teacher in one of the public schools.

The high and public schools opened on Monday with a large attendance. There will not be a full attendance, however, for several weeks.

The Norwood football team has challenged the Havelock team to play a match for a prize of $15 on Monday, Sept. 3rd—Labour Day.

Last week a fire started in the long grass on the hill behind Mr. J. Walker's house. When seen it was making rapid progress towards a stable and a few minutes later would have been unmanageable. As it was no damage was done.

We hear that Mr. P. W. Reynolds has purchased the Mullin's block of stores on Colborne street, also Mr. Mullin's cottage at Stony lake.

Almost all of our villagers who have been camping at Stony lake have returned home.

Bush fires have been raging during the past week along the Stony lake road. One short piece of road was burnt out, but a passage was made around it. A large amount of wood was destroyed.

The Hastings junior lacrosse team played a match with the Norwood juniors Friday evening last, which resulted in a victory for the visitors by 2 goals to 0.

EX-REGISTRAR M'DOUGALL DEAD.

He Was Prominent in Political Circles and a Well-Known Publisher.

BERLIN, Ont., Aug. 29.—Mr. D. McDougall, ex-registrar of the county died at his residence here last evening at the age of 70 years.

Dougall McDougall was born in the city of Glasgow, Scotland, and was of Highland Scotch parentage. His father came to Canada with a large family of thirteen sons and two daughters. He settled first at Chateugay in Quebec and afterwards removed to Toronto where he engaged in business. Young McDougall received his education in Toronto schools of that time but by the death of his father he was thrown on his own resources. He obtained a situation in the leading publishing house of Rowsell & Thompson where he acquired a thorough knowledge of the publishing business. He then went into journalism on his own account as the editor and publisher of a family newspaper, the Canadian Family Herald.

He also became an active Reform politician, and along with the late Peter Perry, father of the ex-registrar of Ontario, he was largely instrumental in getting up influential deputations and petitions to Lord Elgin in support of the rebellion losses bill. When William Lyon Mackenzie returned from exile and was besieged by an angry mob at Mr. John MacIntosh's house in Toronto he was one of those who assisted the old Liberal leader and some of his relatives in effecting their escape through the crowd of rioters on Yonge street.

Mr. MacDougall was all his life a liberal journalist and possessed the confidence and esteem of the leading men of his party. He was remarkably well informed, being a ready and popular speaker as well as a vigorous and incisive newspaper writer. He contributed to the Globe in its earlier years, was editorially connected with the Hamilton Journal and Express, and also with the Hamilton Banner and was editor and joint owner of the Hastings Chronicle, published at Belleville, and subsequently editor of the Kent Advertiser, published at Chatham.

In 1858 he removed to Berlin where he became proprietor and editor of the Berlin Telegraph and German Canadian, the latter being the first German liberal newspaper published in Canada. In 1859 Mr. MacDougall materially assisted Mr. Wm. Gillespie, editor of the Hamilton Spectator, in establishing the Canadian Press Association. In 1863 he was elected President of the Association and was afterwards made an honorary life member.

He filled the office of registrar of Waterloo until about three years ago when he resigned. His resignation was due to an investigation into the management of the office and to the official returns of fees received by the incumbent.

STUBBORN MISS SIEMANOWSKI.

A Female Industrial Who is Giving Jail Authorities Much Trouble.

BUFFALO, Aug. 29.—One member of Count Rybakowski's army has won a victory over the authorities. The pretty 19-year old "Historian" of the army, Alice Siemanowski.

Since her commitment to the Erie county penitentiary on the charge of being a tramp, she has done nothing but cry all day and sob most of the night. She absolutely refused to touch a morsel of food and has eaten nothing since Saturday, when she was constrained to sip a little soup.

Equally determined as her resolution not to eat, is her refusal to work. She went into the shop on Monday but refused to put her hand to a piece of work. She will answer no questions and now the district attorney is at work endeavoring to secure her release as the penitentiary physician fears she will become insane, and the authorities now say there was no reason why she should have been arrested.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Toronto's Greatest Attraction.

The new cyclorama, "Jerusalem on the Day of Crucifixion," is drawing large numbers of visitors daily, who all express themselves as highly pleased with the magnificent and instructive view. Everybody going to Toronto should avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing "Jerusalem" at the Cyclorama. Open daily from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Lectures given every hour. Prices of admission—Adults, 25c.; children under 15 years, 15c. Next south-west corner Front and York streets.

An Interesting Lecture.

A good sized audience assembled in the Sunday school room of the Charlotte street Methodist church last evening to listen to the lecture of Mr. A. W. Beall, M. A., on "Things Japanese," under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary. Mrs. J. W. Taylor, President of the Auxiliary, occupied the chair and the lecture throughout was interesting. The speaker appeared in Japanese costume, which added greatly to the literary treat provided. During the evening Mr. Beall exhibited a large collection of Japanese fine art articles and curios to those present.

To-day's Market.

The market to-day was well supplied and prices moderate. Grain is commencing to move more lively. Oats are selling from 26 to 28c per bushel, old 30 to 32c per bushel, in good demand. This is the only change in grain. Hay and straw are also looked for, the former selling at $8 per ton, and the latter at $3 per load. Quite a large number of hogs are being weighed this week for Messrs. Matthews and Carton, town, and also some, as well cattle, shipped to Montreal market, for Messrs. Watts and Fitzgerald. It would certainly be to the advantage of town buyers to attend Wednesday's market, as it is now being well supplied—in fact, to-day it was being bountifully supplied with fruits and vegetables.

The Late F. W. H. Poynter.

Mr. Frank W. H. Poynter, assistant bookkeeper at the Auburn Mills, died at his residence, 187 Water street, Monday morning from an attack of typhoid fever, aged 29 years. Deceased, who was born in England, acted as editor of the Morning Times when it resumed publication about a year ago, after which he accepted a position as bookkeeper with Mr. C.B. Routley. He was shortly afterwards engaged by the Auburn Company as assistant bookkeeper, a position he occupied until his death. The deceased married Miss Cressy Waters, of Toronto, while occupying a position as bookkeeper and draughtsman in that city. The late Mr. Poynter's parents reside in England, but a brother of the deceased lives in the Northwest. The funeral will take place this afternoon to the Little Lake cemetery.

Peterborough to the Fore.

Peterborough has had several successful demonstrations this summer but that to be held on Labour Day—Monday next—gives promise, if we may judge from present indications, of being the premier one of the lot. Both in attractiveness and extent of programme it leads, and rarely, if ever, have the pleasure-loving public of the Midland district had so meritorious a "bill of fare" placed within their reach. Nearly every department of the field of sport has a place on the programme and the committee who have the celebration in hand certainly deserve well at the hands of the public for the enterprise and pluck they have exhibited. Briefly the day's doings will comprise: Labour parade in the morning, lacrosse match—Peterborough vs. Millbrook, baseball match—Peterborough vs. Orono, athletic sports, horse races, bicycle races, trapeze, slack wire, and high tight rope performance by the famous La Belle Bros., Sergt.-Major Rundle's school corps in fancy drill and his well trained class of young ladies in calisthenic exercises, the whole to conclude by a grand promenade concert in the skating rink. The programme for the latter is an excellent one and will include humorous and and characteristic specialties by Messrs. Simons and Connors, favourites with the Peterborough citizens, and a delightful programme by the 57th Battalion band. After the concert, to fill the cup of pleasure to overflowing, as it were, a "hop" will be held in the rink, for which the Fire Brigade band orchestra will furnish music. Special rates on railway and steamboat lines.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—There was a fair market this morning.

—Duck shooting will be legal sport on Saturday.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—Division Court will be held at Lakefield, on Wednesday, Sept. 5th.

—At the police court this morning a drunk was fined $2 by the magistrate.

—The gun club will hold their regular weekly shoot to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—Judge Chisholm was tendered a banquet by his friends, in Port Hope, last evening.

—A new Oddfellows' journal to be known as the "Triple Link" has just been issued at Ottawa.

—The Salvation Army intend holding a harvest festival, on Saturday and Monday, Sept. 1st and 3rd.

—The water is so low in the river that the steamer City of Peterborough was unable to make her regular trip on Monday.

Unlike other preparations Phenyo-Caffein not only relieves but is guaranteed to cure any form of headache or neuralgia.

—A number of the local sports are getting their flyers in readiness for the races on Labour Day and also during the exhibition.

—A Belleville woman, who keeps a small grocery, was convicted, Tuesday morning, of selling cigarettes to boys, and was fined $10 and costs.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What-Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale a Lynch's Drug Store.

—The cool weather of the past few days has had the effect of decreasing the population of the islands and summer resorts at our back lakes.

—The Loyal True Blues will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening of next week, their regular meeting night, Monday, being a holiday.

—A new paper of the Saturday variety has been started in Toronto. It is called the "Earth." Toronto should be satisfied now—it always wanted the earth.

—In some parts of the country dogs are used to drag around little milk carts. In connection with this beverage there is little harm in rushing the growler.

—Judging from the appearance of the maple leaves, which are taking on their autumnal tints, "the melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year."

—The Dickson company's saw mill in Ashburnham is in operation again, after being closed down for the past few weeks to permit of repairs being made to the raceway.

—Messrs. H. Neil, Capt. R. Tivey, and C. James, will leave to-morrow on a duck shooting expedition at Sugar Island, at the mouth of the Keene river. Alex Patterson will join the party later on.

—Mr. John Craig and his staff of men have completed the excavations at the corner of Hunter and Water streets, and the stonemasons are now busily engaged with the foundation work of the proposed block.

—The close season for lawyers ends on Aug. 31st—the long vacation. There seems to be no truth in the rumour that the lawyers are getting their hands in by practicing on the pockets of a spare suit of old clothes.

—The proposed excursion of the local lodge of the Ancient Order of Foresters to Cobourg on the 13th has been cancelled. The committee in charge has been unable to secure the proper railway accommodation for that date.

—The town council of Wiarton has passed a resolution to regulate the headgear of the ladies, the object being to alleviate the sufferings of those unfortunates, who happen to get behind large hats at public entertainments.

—Messrs. E. E. Cline, of Pine Grove cheese factory, and R. H. Little, weighed, boxed and stored 120 cheese in 51 minutes a few days ago. Any other team that think they can beat this record are invited to try as soon as they like.

—A despatch to the Kingston Whig from Tweed says: "The Electric Light Company of Peterborough is arranging to have an electric light plant established here. Our citizens seem to be taking a lively interest in the scheme."

—A meeting of the members of No. 2 Company, 57th Batt., was held last night in the armoury. The question of holding an excursion by the company was discussed, and a committee composed of the non-coms of the company was appointed to consider the matter.

—Chief Rossel wishes to inform parents and children that there are a good many pupils not attending school, and to warn both that the Truant Law will be enforced, and that parents who neglect to see that their children attend school will be prosecuted, and, if convicted, fined.

—A runaway occurred on Hunter street this afternoon. A horse belonging to Mr. A. Fawcett, Ashburnham, which was tied in front of Mitchell's barber shop, became frightened at some object and started on the run. The animal ran into the yards of the Morgan House before being stopped. The top of the buggy was smashed, but no other damage resulted.

—The arbitrators of the town and townships respectively in the outfall sewer case, with Mr. H. Calcutt as referee, met in the council chamber yesterday. It is understood that an award was made which recommended that the town be permitted to begin the construction of the sewer, with the proposed river outfall. The costs of the arbitration are said to amount to $90.

—"Peterborough is said to have nearly 12,000 population, and will undoubtedly be the next city incoporated in Ontario. The citizens do not yearn for the honour. In fact they are rather against it, believing that it does not conduce to the prosperity of the town experiencing it. On what ground this notion rests it might be hard to say."—Kingston News. The citizens of Peterborough are not in favour of the town being incorporated as a city. They have always believed it is better to be a first-class town than a one-horse city. The News should look at Belleville and even the Limestone city as examples of places that "yearned for the honour."

KELLS & CO'S. REMODELLED ESTABLISHMENT.

How One of the Most Commodious, Best Lighted and Best Stocked Dry Goods Shops in Town.

The workmen have about completed the work of enlargement, improvent and renovation of Messrs. R. H. Kells & Co's dry goods store, George street. A large addition has been made to the floor space of the shop by removing the millinery rooms to the second floor, and the removal of the stairs and hall-way on the northern side. The floor space is now 24 ft. 8 inches in width and 80 feet in depth, making the largest floor area of any single shop in town. New counters and shelving have been supplied in the newly included space, and conveniences of the most modern and elegant style provided. The shop front has been completely remodelled making the entrance more modern and convenient. The lighting of the shop is a particular feature of commendation. Light proceeds through the large double plate glass windows in the front and the large plate glass windows that have been placed in the rear make the shop bright and cheerful. In the rear on this floor is a roomy and convenient office, containing the safe, the desk of the cashier, and the terminus of the cash railway. The wood work of the floor has been re-painted and re-varnished, and the walls and ceilings have been finely papered in decorative designs of warm tints. A new stairway ascends by an easy flight of steps to the second floor, whose front, 50 feet by 25 feet in width, is devoted to the business of

THE MILLINERY AND MANTLE DEPARTMENT

This room is beautifully painted and ornamented, and is well lighted by three large windows. In the rear is the fitting room and the work rooms of the Millinery and Dressmaking Departments. The addition of a Dressmaking Department is a new feature of Messrs. Kells & Co's business, made possible by the additional space the renovation of the shop has provided. This department in in charge of Miss Mercier, a dressmaker of large experience, whose services in the past have given the greatest satisfaction to her large circle of lady customers, and the access to the fine stock of dress goods, which are a special feature of the business of Messrs. Kells & Co., will be a distinct advantage. The departments on this floor are finely carpeted and fitted up. This floor contains elegantly appointed toilet rooms with marble fittings and the latest improved style of exposed sanitary plumbing.

The third floor is devoted to the reserve stock of the business.

The entire improvements have been in charge of the Toronto Real Estate Investment Company and have been done with the usual thoroughness that marks its work. The paper hanging, painting and graining have been done in the usual artistic style by Messrs. H. W. Watson & Son. Mr. Adam Hall did the plumbing.

Messrs. Kells & Co. can now boast of one of the most commodious, convenient, best appointed and complete dry goods premises in town, which will greatly increase the large business which their straightforward methods and splendidly selected stock have brought them in the past.

Though the business has been carried on in as extensive a manner as possible during the improvements, the full benefit of the latter will be felt from this out. The new stock of directly imported goods, unusually large in view of the increased accommodation, is arriving daily and everything will in a few days be opened out and the public will have access to the advantages to be derived from directly imported stock, selected with the greatest care and offered at the most reasonable prices.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Bell, Lakefield, is in town to-day.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

VOTERS' LIST, 1894

MUNICIPALITY OF THE VILLAGE of ASHBURNHAM.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT I have transmitted or delivered to the persons mentioned in the fifth and sixth sections of "The Voters' List Act," the copies required by said sections to be so transmitted or delivered, of the lists made pursuant of said Act, of all persons appearing by the last revised Assessment Roll of the said Municipality to be entitled to vote in the said Municipality, at elections for members of the Legislative Assembly, and at Municipal Elections; and that said list was first posted up at my office, at Ashburnham, on the 25th day of August, 1894, and remains there for inspection. Electors are called upon to examine the said list, and if any omissions or any other errors are found therein, to take immediate proceedings to have the said errors corrected, according to law.

Dated at Ashburnham, this 29th day of August, 1894.

SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1894.

MESSRS. MASON & CO.

We like your Hop Tea very much better than any other Tea we ever used before and find it much cheaper than the 40 cent Black Tea, as I use only a little over half the usual quantity.

Will you please send before dinner 5 pounds of the same Tea for which I have enclosed $2.50. I think that is the price you told me it would be by taking five pounds.

PETERBOROUGH THE GREAT!

The ambition of every town is to appear as big as possible. Cities and towns all join in the chorus of local patriotism, and everything is done which can attract or serve as an impetus to greater usefulness.

"Peterborough, the Plate Glass City," is enjoying her full share of popularity just now. The town is big, its business interests are strong and nothing can interfere with her imperial position as "The Hub of Ontario."

We have a large line of LADIES OUTING GOODS which have been marked down to clear during Vacation Time.

In August weather we flee to the country, the lakes or the seaside; but to enjoy it all to the utmost, the right kind of clothes are essential.

Come in—we'll be glad to show you just what you want—for "dog days" or for cooler breezes—at BUILDING SALE PRICES.

KEEP ON BUYING

Bad Cigars for a cent or two less than you can buy good ones. They last a good long time when you take them home, and besides you get a chance to heap epithets of not a flattering character upon "that fellow that sold me them Cigars."

WE SAY

It's better to have a good Cigar once in a while than stale tobacco leaves twice in a while.

FOR SALE BY

GEO. W. RUBIDGE.

HON. MR. FRASER'S SUCCESSOR.

The Morning Times has the following: Several applications have been made for the position, or perhaps it would be better to say positions, made vacant by the death of Hon. C. F. Fraser, and there is some curiosity to know whether a politician will be appointed to the vacancy or whether it will be filled by promotion. Mr. Fraser's position was a dual one. He was inspector of registry offices and guardian of the provincial forests. Now that he is dead it is likely that the offices will be split up again. In this connection the Toronto News of Monday, contains the following:

It will not be surprising if Mr. Stratton, of West Peterborough, is shelved in the office, vacated by Mr. Fraser's death, in order to provide a seat for Mr. Fraser's successor in the portfolio of Public Works."

Mr. Stratton's valuable services to the party are certainly deserving of some recognition and the Ontario Government would greatly increase its popularity, not only in the West Riding of Peterborough, but throughout the Midland district, if a hard-working, efficient, faithful and honest public servant, such as Mr. Stratton is, were appointed to the vacant position. Mr. Stratton possesses the necessary qualifications and in addition to this, has the people of this district—to a man almost—at his back.

[With reference to the above, we are authorized to state that Mr. Stratton is not an applicant for the position of Inspector of Registry offices, made vacant by the death of Hon. C. F. Fraser. In connection herewith it may be added that, while the complimentary remarks of the Times must be agreeable to a citizen occupying a public and representative position, yet it would savour of ingratitude to ignore so recent and flattering an expression of confidence as made by the electors of the West Riding by resigning the trust thus conferred. Mr. Stratton's ambition is not in the direction of a Government office. His aim is to serve his native riding to the best of his ability, and he thinks that he can best accomplish this end by remaining in the position in which the overwhelming voice of the electorate has placed him.

THE HORTICULTRAL EXHIBITION.

The Duty of the Public to Extend it a Liberal Patronage.

The public are reminded that the annual exhibition of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society takes place on Thursday, August 30th, afternoon and evening. This is a most important event. The existence and working of this society are so largely in the interest of the public enjoyment, that all efforts on the part of the public to strengthen its hands are sure to return to the public. By as much as the public assists the society, by so much is the society strengthened in its work of cultivating the puolic taste and contributing to the public enjoyment. The existenee of Court House Park in its present condition of beauty, which challenges the admiration of all visitors to the town even from large cities, is due to the efforts of the society, and its wise expenditure of the generous—but none too generous—grant of the town council. The annual exhibits of the society are intended to show what the society has accomplished in the developement of public interest and of public taste in the culture of fruits and flowers and the fine arts; and the liberal patronage of the public will be an encouragement which will inspire the society to greater efforts than the energetic efforts that have marked its past history. The exhibit in the market building on Thursday will be a most excellent one and will be a revelation to visitors of the advance, especially locally, of the refining art of floriculture. This year the fine arts department will be especially interesting, Mr. D. A. Shaw, who has shown himself to be an artist in oils, having decided to be a liberal exhibitor. Let the public remember the date and also recall the obligations under which it is to the society and there must be a large attendance at the exhibition on Thursday afternoon and evening.

A QUERY.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Would the general public not be interested in knowing from the Chief of Police how he came to bring four of those whose licenses were withheld under the town bylaw, before the magistrate for a violation of the License Act, and leave Mr. Croft who was equally guilty, quite alone? It certainly calls for explanation. When charged by Inspector Cochrane Mr. Croft promptly pleads guilty. Why is this? Was the chief actuated by zeal for the enforcement of the law? If so, why did his zeal stop at the most conspicuous offender?

Yours truly.

CITIZEN.

Fine Oak

At Clegg's, a splendid line of fine polished oak; bedroom suites, newest designs and best workmanship, and prices fully twenty-five per cent. lower than a year ago. All the cheaper lines in stock also. In parlour suites, etc., we show a larger assortment than ever offered in Peterborough before, at all prices and all our own manufacture; no factory work in this line. Clegg's upholstered goods are known almost from Halifax to Vancouver. Though more than twenty years in business, we have never yet re-upholstered one of our own parlour suites. A. CLEGG, 427 George street.

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at about manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

FOREST FIRES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

The Whole Country is Ablaze in Some Places.

Bush fires are raging in the back country. Bush, swamp and field are burning and nothing but a heavy rain can prevent a serious catastrophe. The Midland district seems to be the fire centre and much damage is reported. The is no wind blowing and the smoke masses and hangs over the country like a pall.

In the vicinity of Rice Lake, the smoke is blinding and it hangs over the lake like a heavy cloud. Between St. Catharines and Niagara Falls, a despatch says, the country is ablaze, and in the vicinity of Stratford everything is falling a prey to the flames.

A report from Mitchell says: "The country is in an awful condition for want of water. Fires are raging in all directions, and we are without butter, milk or water."

In the county of Leeds, the fire has spread over hundreds of miles of thickly wooded country, and is rushing towards the township of Bedford.

In the county of Peterborough, forest fires are raging, and the outlook is rather serious. It was reported yesterday evening that the forest fires had spread in the vicinity of Stony Lake, and broken out on some islands. This report was verified by a telephone message, received by Mr. A. L. Davis, from Mr. D. Breeze, Young's Point, that fire had broken out on his island. Mr. Davis and a number of men left last night for the scene of the blaze.

Mr. J. D. Tully, druggist, states: Having sold Phenyo-Caffain pills for some time I believe them to be a thoroughly reliable article to cure the most extreme cases of headache or neuralgia.

BEAUTIFUL SLEEP

—is an expression used for sound sleep. Nothing is so gratifying to the nerves, heart, and head, as perfect sleep — a companion of good digestion and a healthy liver. A tired digestion fails to assimilate, or take care of, the food we eat. Something bracing or invigorating is needed for the liver, stomach, and intestines.

This is where you will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do the most good. They are tiny, sugar-coated pills, scarcely larger than mustard seed, made of concentrated botanical extracts. These "Pellets" are easily dissolved in the stomach and absorbed into the blood, stimulating a flow of bile from the liver, and arousing to activity all the glandular secretions. Thus they act in nature's own way.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded, in all Bilious Attacks, in Sick Headache, Constipation, Dizziness, and Indigestion.

It cures Catarrh in the Head — perfectly and permanently — Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

OVER THREE HUNDRED FEET HIGH.

The Magnificent Waterfall in Labrador First Described a Short Time Ago.

For many years vague reports of a great waterfall in Labrador near the headwaters of the Grand River had led men to explore the interior plateau of that region, but no satisfactory account has been given of the appearance of the falls until the recent publication of the results of an exploration undertaken by Henry G. Bryant, of Philadelphia. The object of this expedition, says the New York Evening Sun, was expressly to verify the reports as to the height and location of this natural wonder. On Sept. 2 last year Mr. Bryant's party reached the cataract. "Standing at the rocky brink of the chasm," he has written, "a wild and tumultuous scene lay before us, a scene possessing elements of sublimity and with details not to be apprehended in the first moments of wondering contemplation. Far up streams one beheld the surging, fleecy waters and tempestuous billows dashing high their crests of foam, forced onward toward the steep rock whence they took their wild leap into the pond below." Conversation amid the road and reverberations was impossible. It seems that a mile above the falls the river is a noble stream, 400 yards wide, already sweeping along with accelerated velocity. The walls draw nearer to one another as three successive rapids are passed, down which the volume of water rushes, now gathering in great billows, till, with an arrowy flight, the whole vast volume shoots out into the air.

The sheer fall is 316 feet, at the head of which inclines a chute with a further vertical height of 32 feet, making the total descent from the head of the chute to the surface of the water in the chasm 348 feet. The Grand Falls are thus nearly twice as high as Niagara and are inferior to that cataract only in volume of water. In respect of its power to awaken human emotion, however, it may well be questioned whether the Grand Falls is not the greater of the two. At least there can be little doubt that such is the case where the Grand Falls are seen amid the wild nakedness of nature, as Niagara itself was seen by its earlier white visitors. In approaching the scene Mr. Bryant's party were able to hear the roar at a distance of twenty miles.

The Bryant party set out for Rigolet, in Hamilton inlet, July 28, and, as we have seen, arrived at the falls after an arduous journey, not wholly free from perils, on Sept. 2. A scientific question of some interest presents itself in connection with the present aspect of the cataract. The appearance of the sides of the gorge below the falls and the zigzag line of the river suggest that the falls have receded from the edge of the plateau to their present position, a distance of twenty-five miles. What length of time has been required for the process of cutting out this gorge? A similar question for Niagara has engaged the serious attention of competent observers. For the greater part of the distance channeled by Niagara the material has been a comparatively soft shale rock, supporting a stratum of limestone. The escarpment of the Grand River Falls is of gneissic rock. If its canon also has been cut out, conjecture is lost in the immensity of time that should have been required.

An Egyptian Custom.

More than 1,000 years ago Herodotus observed a remarkable custom in Egypt, says Prof. Drummond. At a certain season of the year the Egyptians went into the desert, cut off branches from the wild palm, and, bringing them back to their gardens, waved them over the flowers of the date palm. Why they performed this ceremony they did not know, but they knew that if they neglected it the date crop would be poor or wholly lost.

Herodotus offers the quaint explanation that along with these branches there came from the desert certain flies possessed of a "vivific virtue," which somehow lent an exuberant fertility to the dates. But the true rationale to the incantation is now explained. Palm trees, like human beings, are male and female. The garden plants, the date bearers, were females, the desert plants were males, and the waving of the branches over the females meant the transference of the fertilizing pollen from the one to the other.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

TRADE UNIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Over a Million Members in 599 Bodies—Their Incomes and Expenditures.

One of the leading features of the Labor Gazette of London for May is a brief summary of the statistics of trade unions for the year 1893, given pending the issue of fuller details in the report of the chief labor correspondent, now in the press. The reports of 599 separate unions have been dealt with, 482 of which are registered and 117 not registered, while 105 have branches numbering in all 7,208, making up an aggregate of 1,287,367 members. The total income of all these societies dealt with was about $8,900,000, and the expenditure about $75,000 less; 298 societies, with a membership of 745,648, paid unemployed benefit to the amount of nearly $2,000,000; 308 societies, with 1,103,641 members, paid in dispute benefit $2,300,000; 193 unions, with 585,389 members, paid in sick allowances over $1,000,000, and 88 unions paid as accident benefit to disabled members $89,000. For the purpose of comparing 1892 with the previous year only 381 unions are available, that being the number supplying returns for both years. The increase of membership on these 381 unions during 1892 was 32,161, or a little over 3 per cent upon the membership of 1891. The total income of the 381 societies showed, however, an increase of 21.8 per cent. There was also a very considerable rise in expenditure, amounting, in fact, to nearly 44 per cent upon the outlay of 1891. The chief share of this increase was due to heavy demands upon the unemployed and dispute benefits, which in 1892 absorbed $1,900,000 more than in 1891.

Particulars are also given with regard to co-operative farming in England and Scotland in 1893 and 1892. Forty-seven societies have made returns, showing that a total of 4,692 acres was being farmed in 1893, an increase of 121½ over 1892. The capital employed in 1893 was $450,000, an increase of $29,000 over 1892; and the net loss sustained amounted to $2,190, as compared with $3,410 in 1892.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Beany's Recovery was only Temporary — A Pleasant Disappointment — She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST
About Pianos!
—:o:—
It Is An Actual Fact
That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.
1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.
2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.
3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

WHY SHOULD WE TAKE EXERCISE.

Ten reasons for the necessity of muscular activity.

1. Any man who does not take time for exercise will probably have to take time to be ill.

2. Body and mind are both gifts, and for the proper use of them our Maker will hold us responsible.

3. Exercise gradually increases the physical powers, and gives more strength to resist sickness.

4. Exercise will do for your body what intellectual training will do for your mind—educate and strengthen it.

5. Plato called a man lame because he exercised the mind while the body was allowed to suffer.

6. A sound body lies at the foundation of all that goes to make life a success. Exercise will help to give it.

7. Exercise will help a young man to lead a chaste life.

8. Varied, light and brisk exercise, next to sleep, will rest the tired brain better than anything else.

9. Metal will rust if not used, and the body will become diseased if not exercised.

10. A man "too busy" to take care of his health is like a workman too busy to sharpen his tools.

The Oldest Mathematical Book.

The oldest mathematical book in the world, which dates some 4,000 years back, and was written in Egypt, contains a rule for squaring the circle. The rule given is to shorten the diameter by a ninth, and on the line so obtained to construct a square; and this, though far from being exact, is near enough for most practical purposes. Since then the amateur squarer of the circle has been a thorn in the side of the professional mathematician. Learned societies, at last, in pure self-defence, made a rule that all solutions of the problem sent to them should, without examination, be consigned to the flames. In the last century a Frenchman named Mathulus was so sure he had succeeded in squaring the circle that he offered a reward of $1,000 to anyone who proved his solution erroneous. It was shown to be erroneous if not to his own satisfaction, at least to that of the courts, and he had to pay the money. Mathematicians have long been convinced that the solution was impossible; but it is only a few years since they were able to demonstrate this. A German professor named Landmann published in 1882 a demonstration, which was accepted by the scientific world as satisfactory; so that would-be squarers of the circle may now rest from their labors, seeing that it has been mathematically proved that the thing can not be done.—Engineers' Gazette.

An Adventure in a Chimney.

A man named John Quinn, a laborer, has had a peculiar mishap at Newcastle-on-Tyne. On Saturday at midnight he endeavored, by descending the chimney, to obtain a sleeping place in a blacksmith's shop where he worked. When half-way down he stuck fast and was unable to move. Early next morning a boy heard his cries and called a policeman. The chimney had to be demolished before the man could be extricated.—Westminster Gazette.

EX-MEMBER of PARLIAMENT

REUBEN E. TRUAX

Hon. Reuben E. Truax, one of Canada's ablest thinkers and statesmen, a man so highly esteemed by the people of his district that he was honored with a seat in Parliament, kindly furnishes us for publication the following statement, which will be most welcome to the public, inasmuch as it is one in which all will place implicit confidence. Mr. Truax says:

"I have been for about ten years very much troubled with Indigestion and Dyspepsia, have tried a great many different kinds of patent medicines, and have been treated by a number of physicians and found no benefit from them. I was recommended to try the Great South American Nervine Tonic. I obtained a bottle, and I must say I found very great relief, and have since taken two more bottles, and now feel that I am entirely free from Indigestion, and would strongly recommend all my fellow-sufferers from the disease to give South American Nervine an immediate trial. It will cure you.

"REUBEN E. TRUAX,
"Walkerton, Ont."

It has lately been discovered that certain Nerve Centres, located near the base of the brain, control and supply the stomach with the necessary nerve force to properly digest the food. When these Nerve Centres are in any way deranged the supply of nerve force is at once diminished, and as a result the food taken into the stomach is only partially digested, and Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia soon make their appearance.

South American Nervine is so prepared that it acts directly on the nerves. It will absolutely cure every case of Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and is an absolute specific for all nervous diseases and ailments. It usually gives relief in one day.

Its powers to build up the whole system are wonderful in the extreme. It cures the old, the young, and the middle-aged. It is a great friend to the aged and infirm. Do not neglect to use this precious boon; if you do, you may neglect the only remedy which will restore you to health. South American Nervine is perfectly safe, and very pleasant to the taste. Delicate ladies, do not fail to use this great cure, because it will put the bloom of freshness and beauty upon your lips and in your cheeks, and quickly drive away your disabilities and weaknesses.

Dr. W. Washburn, of New Richmond, Indiana, writes: "I have used South American Nervine in my family and prescribed it in my practice. It is a most excellent remedy."

FUNCTIONS OF A PRESIDENT.

The Various Things the Chief Executive of France May Do.

M. Paul Deschanel, deputy of the Eure et-Loir in the French chamber, and an eminent constitutional lawyer, has sent a statement to the Figaro defining the duties of the president of the republic. The president, he says, chooses his ministers and presides over them. He participates in the framing of laws. He has the right of issuing a message to the people and the right of veto, but this right is less absolute than that enjoyed by the President of the United States, who enforces it so frequently and with such success, because in the United States at the second deliberation a majority of two-thirds is necessary, whereas in France a bare majority suffices. He can adjourn the chambers for a month twice in one session. He can, with the approval of the senate, dissolve the chamber of deputies. This right becomes even a duty when a chamber without a majority is unable to impart life to a government. But this dissolution is of benefit only in such cases where the premier, as in England, calls on the country to vote for a more or less definite programme, and the electors can clearly distinguish between the partisans and opponents of the cabinet. This has never happened in France, where they vote in the dark, and where, by a strange paradox, the influence of the administration is often exerted in favor of the opposition. Finally, the president has the right to conclude treaties and effect political alliances independently of the chambers.

It is, therefore, a constitutional heresy to consider the presidency of a republic as an inert wheel or to regard the president as resembling a constitutional monarch. An elected chief can never be, like an hereditary prince, the impassive arbiter of parties. Such an idea is contrary to the letter and spirit of the constitution.

Between 1879 and 1893 it is easy to understand how, while there existed a powerful monarchical opposition to the chamber, the president of the republic remained simply the personification of the republic. But to-day, since the appearance on the scene of a socialist party and since the weakening of the radical party and the practically total extinction of dynastic parties, it is clear that such a policy would be an anachronism.

The Vegetarian Creed.

One of the causes which have led people to reject the doctrine of vegetarianism is the idea that it is inspired by pietism, religious convictions and monastic mortification. But this is a grave error, for the rational vegetarianism of to-day is entirely scientific and dictated by the sole desire to follow a system conforming to the laws of nature. It has science on its side, and only the force of habit is opposed to it. The muscles become soft, the size diminishes, humanity degenerates and is kept in working order only by sedatives and tonics. The numerous maladies of the stomach and the intestines, from simple catarrh to the most serious diseases of the organs, are often due to our appetite for meat and other stimulants. Vegetarianism, we are told by Dr. Bonnejoy, does not consist solely in vegetable food, but is based on three dietetic axioms: (1) The general rebuilding power lies in cereals, seeds, vegetables, tubers, fruits, eggs, milk, and their derivatives; (2) the food, the air, and, in general, everything that is introduced into the body should show absolute purity, freshness and entire absence of falsifications, mixture and adulterations, even in the smallest quantities; (3) it is necessary, as far as may be possible, for each one to manufacture his food and drinks at home, in order to reach the desired results.

These are the principle dogmas of the vegetarians. Man is not intended to eat. His jaw is made to grind grains and fruits. His hands are made to gather them. The Darwinian theory does not permit us for an instant to doubt the frugivorous nature of man.

Four classes of substances are necessary for the maintenance of life; the albuminoids, the carbohydrates, the fats, the minerals. Now, meat contains but three of these, while the vegetables contain all four. Vegetable food is also necessary for our intellectual life, for, as Moleschott has said, without phosphorus there is no thought. The phosphorus contained in vegetable food is almost double the quantity contained in animal food. Those who believe that meat gives the rose color to the cheeks and lips must be shown their error, as the amount of iron oxide contained in the vegetables is much greater than that found in meat.—Dr. Neuville, in Review of Reviews.

CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters—He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

WILL CURE YOU

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"Delay is dangerous. Neglected kidney troubles result in Bad Blood, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most dangerous of all, Brights Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy."

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

On Labour Day at the Driving Park the Junior Peterborough's will cross sticks with the Senior Millbrooks. Peterborough's second team has had almost a clear record this season, having been defeated only once—by the Millbrook team, and a big effort will be made by the boys to win on Monday. Both teams play very good lacrosse, and the match will be well worth witnessing.

CRICKET.

The following eleven will play against Millbrook on Monday, Labour Day:—Messrs. R. B. Rogers, Allison, Leefe, D. Rogers, Goldsmith, Stocker, Wonham, Parker, Drope, Burnham and Halliday.

Lindsay defeated Millbrook at cricket, yesterday, in Lindsay.

BASEBALL.

Ambrose & Winslows brewery nine of Port Hope will in all probability play the wine clerks of this town next Friday.

On Labour Day it is expected that Auburn will play the Orono nine in the morning and the Peterboroughs in the afternoon on the Driving Park.

MILLBROOK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

The picnic which took place in Medd's grove last Thursday, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavour was a grand success. The weather was all that could be desired, and at about 3 o'clock people began to assemble at the beautiful grove in which swings had been fixed and benches arranged for the comfort of those present. After tea had been served the programme commenced, which consisted of singing and short speeches, principal among which was the report of the delegate to the international convention at Cleveland. The gathering broke up at dusk, every one going home well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

A traction engine owned by Geo. Colten and run by James Paul went through the bridge at the foot of the school hill Friday afternoon. Paul was afraid to cross the iron bridge on King street and attempted to cross the wooden one at the foot of the school hill, which is by far the weaker. When the engine was half way across the hind wheels went through, making a terrible crash. After a few hours hard work it was raised and went on its journey.

Edward Chambers, the young man who was accidentally shot at Rice Lake two or three weeks ago, was brought home last Saturday. He is still very low.

Mr. John Crocker, proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, has purchased the Queen's Hotel from Mr. Geo. Thorn, and will move to his new house on the first of September. The late proprietor was Mr. Roddy, who was compelled to move out, owing to the sale of the property. Mr. Crocker was not granted a license for the Dominion Hotel on the grounds that the village had not the necessary population to have four hotels. As this will only leave three hotels, Mr. Crocker expects to get a license for the Queens.

The St. Thomas church excursion to the back lakes, last Thursday, was a grand success.

KEENE.

(From Our O wn Corespondent.)

A meeting of the executive committee of Otonabee S. S. Association was held at Keene on Friday last, and arrangements have been made with a view to still further improve Sunday school work in this township. A visiting committee has been appointed, whose members will officially visit the different schools, give any possible assistance, and report their visit in writing. This visiting is to be done as soon as possible, and a third series of Normal and Institute meetings has been arranged for the beginning of October. Meetings will be held at every school in the township, and members of the normal class of instructors will conduct discussions on the topics "The Life of Christ" and "The Lesson Study." It is hoped all S. S. workers and scholars will study these subjects in the meantime that the discussions may be lively and profitable. Miss L. Kennedy has been appointed primary secretary, and this branch of the work is to be fully organized for more systematic work in the near future.

THE BABCOCK TEST DISCUSSED.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—In an issue of your paper of a recent date, I saw a long article setting forth the excellence of the Babcock milk tester and trying to show that paying for milk sent to cheese factories by the butter fat, according to this tester's showing, is the only legitimate or honest way of paying for it, and calling the paying by the standard, as is the general way, a pooling system. Now, sir, to me this appears to be like the drumming of an agent who takes this way of getting cheap advertising of the article he has for sale or of some green gosling who has gone to a dairy school for a month or two and has come back a sage, who thinks the world should run after him. I have never been to a dairy school, but I have my eyes open and have seen the Babcock tester used, and have heard what men of apparent sense have said of it. These men say there are difficulties in the way of paying by this test for milk sent to cheese factories. Perhaps these difficulties may be: First, getting a fair sample of the milk sent; second, the throwing of too much responsibility on the cheesemaker, and third, the facts set forth in the following experiment in feeding milch cows:—

'Hoard's Dairyman,' of June 23, records the facts of an interesting experiment conducted in Schoharie County, N.Y. Four cows were treated to find out whether fat fed influenced fat of milk. Before the experiment commenced, cow No. 1 weighed 1,189 pounds, and made fourteen pounds of butter per week. Cow No. 2 weighed 1,130 pounds, and made twelve pounds of butter in a week. Cow No. 3 weighed 1,168 pounds, and gave eight and a half pounds in seven days. Cow No. 4 weighed 1,000 pounds, and gave thirteen pounds one ounce butter in seven days. On an average 25 pounds of milk were required to make one pound of butter. The previous feeding was, per day, 40 pounds ensilage and twelve pounds of a mixture of wheat, bran, cotton-seed meal and corn-meal. The skim milk was also fed back to the cows. When the experiment began one-quarter of a pound of tallow was shaved and mixed with the ration twice a day, increased to two pounds per day in two weeks. The following is the result:—Cow No. 1 made twenty pounds of butter in seven days; cow No. 2 gave seventeen and a half pounds; No. 3, sixteen pounds fourteen ounces; and No. 4, seventeen pounds and one ounce in seven days. Just eighteen and a quarter pounds of milk was necessary to produce one pound of butter. The quality was so near like that made before the experiment, that no difference could be detected by customers who regularly received the butter.

By the facts set forth in this experiment it will be seen that instead of disposing of a cow which gives a large flow of milk though poor in butter fat it will be to the interest of patrons of cheese factories to get cows that will give the largest flow of milk and feed food that will increase this flow to the greatest extent and at the same time give tallow to bring the milk up to four or four and a half per cent of butter fat, and let me see the amateur or professor with his Babcock Tester that can detect the fraud. Now sir, this is not only countenancing fraud but places it at a premium.

A Jealous Man's Crime.

HOBOKEN, N.Y., Aug. 29.—Paul Gans, fourth engineer on the steamship New York, of the American line, murdered Clara Ahrens in the apartment which both occupied on the third floor of 107 Hudson street. Gans fired four bullets into the head of the unfortunate woman. Jealousy is said to have led to the crime.

Ex-Consul Howells Dead.

JEFFERSON, Ohio, Aug. 29.—W. C. Howells died yesterday of paralysis, aged 88 years. In 1874 President Grant appointed him as United States consul to Quebec, where he served four years. He was also consul at Toronto for five years. He served in the Ohio State Senate in 1864 5. W. D. Howells, the novelist, is his son.

Smallpox Riots in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 29.—Chief Health officer Curtis was attacked by a mob of women while moving a small-pox patient yesterday and badly hurt. Fifty policemen arrived five minutes later and after a pitched battle dispersed the mob. Over 100 officers now patrol the riotous district.

Fatal Ending to a Feud.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 29.—A tragedy was enacted in Blackville during which Solomon Brown and John Gribben, a dispensary constable, were killed. The double killing was the result of an old feud between Gribben and the Brown family.

The Dutch Defeated Through Treachery

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 29.—Additional particulars concerning the defeat of the Dutch expedition sent out to punish the Rajah of Lombok island have been received. It appears that the Rajah's troops treacherously surprised and attacked the Dutch soldiers, killing 164 of the latter. Among these were fourteen officers, including the commander, Gen. Von Ham.

Lumber Burned in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Aug. 29.—Last night a fire broke out in T. Moore's lumber yard, corner Mignonne and St. Catherine streets, and before the firemen had it under control it has destroyed a great portion of the material. The damage is estimated at about $10,000.

The Body Identified.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Aug. 29.—The body of the man who went over the cliff on Sunday has been identified as that of Oscar Edwards, of Muncy, Pa. It is now thought to be a case of suicide.

Eight Years for Forgery.

EDINBURGH, Aug. 29.—Ernest Hassberger, the Dundee jute merchant, who pleaded guilty to forgeries aggregating 112,000 pounds, was sentenced to eight years imprisonment yesterday.

Mutinous Cossacks Arrested.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 29.—A regiment of Cossacks at Terek became mutinous, whereupon the loyal troops surrounded them and made thirty of the leaders prisoners. The ringleader of the mutiny was knonted to death.

A Terrific Hurricane.

BRESLAU, Aug. 29.—The hurricane which swept over the Laurahutte almost destroyed the town. Many houses were blown down and a number of others was struck by lightning and burned. Six persons were killed.

ADVANCING ON PEKIN.

Japan Lands Her Troops at Taku—One of These Chinese Victories.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Morning Post prints this despatch from Shanghai:

"The Japanese are reported to be landing northward off Taku preparatory to marching on Pekin. Another report is that the Japanese have disembarked 20,000 troops on the Ya-Lu-Kiang, which runs along the boundary between China and Corea. They are said to have twenty-eight warships there and to plan an attack on the Chinese from the rear."

The Times correspondent in Shanghai says: "The Chinese troops, who have been joined by 5,000 Coreans, have rolled back the Japanese with heavy loss to Kai-Song, forty miles north of Seoul. The advance of the Chinese continues. They are helped everywhere by the Coreans."

The Times correspondent cites no trustworthy authority for this report. Apparently he got it from the source which has supplied him with previous stories of Chinese victories of which neither the Chinese nor Japanese legations have been informed.

Shocking Triple Tragedy.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Aug. 29.—On the morning of August 24th a triple tragedy came to light by the discovery of the remains of a negro man and two negro women in a cabin near Shell Mound. An inquest was held, and the testimony indicated that several negroes on the plantation, who had fled the country, had done the work. Some white men in the community entered on a further enquiry. They found a child of one of the murdered woman, whose evidence leaves little doubt that one of the employes of the plantation, a white man, first killed the man and then murdered the two women in order to prevent them from testifying concerning the crime. The white man is supposed to have left the country.

A Rainmaker Suicides.

DENVER, Aug. 29.—Last Friday about noon-time at the Hotel Hope in this city the dead body of a man who had registered as "Mr. Thomas, of Denver," was found in his room. A half filled bottle of morphine indicated the cause of his death. Every clue that might have given any intimation as to his identity had been carefully destroyed. Yesterday, however, a letter from F. J. Stanton, of Cheyenne, giving a description of the man and enumerating several articles of wearing apparel, which were found among the deceased man's effects leads the coroner to believe that the suicide was Frank Melbourne, the rain-maker.

The Bluefields Trouble.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Herald's special from Managua, Nicaragua, says: "The prisoners from Bluefields have arrived here. Among them are British Consular Agent Hatch, two other Englishmen, two Americans, Messrs. Lampton and Millbank, Vice-Chief Patterson, Mr. Taylor, editor of the Bluefields Messenger, and seven other British subjects. They were all released on parole. News has just been received here of a quarrel between Gen. Lacayo and Cabezas, in Greytown, in which Lacayo was wounded in the leg.

The French Defeated in the Soudan.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—A despatch from St. Louis, capital of the French possessions in Senegambia, to the Journal Des Debats says: The Touarega recently surprised the French, and after three days fighting pursued them to Timbuctoo, where another fight took place resulting, as before, in favor of the Touaregs. The French sortied from Timbuctoo, but were overwhelmed by numbers and forced to retire. In the latter fight three companies of the French soldiers were completely cut to pieces.

Fatally Assaulted the Nightwatchman.

BUFFALO, Aug. 29.—George Pierce fractured the skull of Thomas Oswald with a stone yesterday because Oswald, who was nightwatchman in a brewery, declined to open a keg of beer for Pierce and a companion who wanted free drinks. Oswald will die.

Cholera Spreading in Austria Silesia.

VIENNA, Aug. 29.—Of the seventy-four districts of Galicia, thirty are infected with cholera. The disease is spreading rapidly in Austria Silicia where it was introduced by Galician regiments attending the manœuvres.

Explosion in a Cartridge Factory.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Aug. 29.—An explosion occurred in the shot and shell department of the Union Metallic Cartridge Company's factory yesterday, in which three persons were injured, but none fatally.

Italian Students Arrested.

ROME, Aug. 29.—The police have arrested many students and anarchist agitators for conspiring to start a revolution. All the students arrested are supposed to be militant anarchists.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, August 29, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Outside prices are unchanged, but weak; old wheat is quoted at 54c and new at 52c to 52 1-2c. On the street 300 bushels sold at 54c to 55c. Oats were unchanged at 28 1-2c to 30c. Flour is nominal at $2.60 to $2.65 for straight roller.

Wheat declined in Chicago on lower cables, the close being 1-4c to 1 2c for cash and 5 8c lower for December. Corn also went down on more encouraging crop reports, the loss for the day being 1c for cash and 1-4c for May. Oats followed suit, the close being 1-8c to 1 2c lower.

The attention of London brokers was confined to the settlement. Money was easy. There was a further material rise in South American stocks. American railway stocks closed at the lowest price. Silver was firm at a decline. Monday's rise was due to a special order for the colonies.

At East Liberty, sheep receipts were blank. About 9 cars on sale; market steady for good. Extra, $3.20 to $3.50; good, $2.20 to $2.50; fair, $1.50 to $1.75; common, 50c to $1.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 1,095. Market, strong and higher. Natives, $2.25; mixed, $2.50 to $2.65; stockers, $1.25 to $1.50.

President Cleveland's letter to Mr. Catchings and the final enactment of the tariff law without the Executive signature were accepted on the New York stock market as the closing of the tariff episode. On this basis prices advanced on the "point" of tariff settlement, recent speculative buyers taking in leisurely fashion what they could of profits. This realization was very evenly distributed, declines being restricted or emphasized simply according to the volume of long stock outstanding in any quarter.

ARMS FOR THE MILITIA

Comparison Between the Martini-Metford and Martini-Henri.

HERBERT FAVORS THE FORMER

The Major-General Addresses the Military Rifle League on the Relative Efficiency of the Two Weapons—Practical Result of the Recent Tests.

OTTAWA, Aug. 30.—The annual meeting of the Canadian Military Rifle League was held in the Russell House last night. Lieut.-Col. Anderson, president of the league, occupied the chair and beside him sat Major-General Herbert, Col. Panet, Deputy Minister of Militia; and Lieut.-Col. Lake, Quartermaster-General; and Capt. Streatfield, A.D.C.

The chairman spoke of the work done during the season and thought that the league had good reason to congratulate itself on the results obtained. Capt. Sutherland, of the 43rd, the secretary of the league, read his report. He said that the entries were the same as last year. Major Hodgins, of the G.G.F.G., the treasurer, read his report, which showed a balance on hand after all indebtedness was paid of $37, compared with $35 of a surplus last year. Both reports were adopted.

Major-General Herbert was then asked by the chairman to present the prizes. He was assisted by Col. Panet. After the prizes were presented the General addressed the meeting. While he congratulated the winners, he would like to say a few words on behalf of those who were unfortunate in not getting a prize. There were examples among them this year to show what perseverance accomplished. The important thing was to have the force armed with a good rifle, the best that could be got. He did not see why an obsolete arm should be the official arm of the militia. He said last year that every man in the militia would have an opportunity of deciding for himself what arm was the best to be used in the Dominion by placing a certain number of arms at their disposal and giving them free ammunition. All that he desired was not done, but that was no fault of the department. For himself he saw no difficulty for the militia to issue arms throughout the Dominion, so that next year there might be a competition with the Martini-Metford just the same as was now done with the Martini-Henri.

Many statements were made against the Martini-Metford, which were wholly unfounded. For instance it was said that a contractor had farmed off these rifles at a big price to the government. That was not true. The general opinion of those who tested the Martini-Metford was that it was a superior arm. He had tests carried on during the summer so as to find out the superiority of the Martini-Metford over the Martini-Henri. In the first place he had a squad of six men firing 500 yards with the Martini-Henri. They made 55 per cent. Under exactly the same circumstances, and at the same time, 63 per cent. was made with the Martini-Metford. In rapid firing, the same squad made 31 per cent. with the Martini-Henri and 44 per cent. with the Martini-Metford. Again, both weapons were placed in the hands of recruits—men who had never held a rifle. They used the Martini Metford first. Well, the result was that 30 per cent. was made with the Martini-Henri, and 56 per cent. with the Martini-Metford. In rapid firing the Martini-Metford was in this case 8 per cent. better than the Martini-Henri. As to weight the Metford was only one-half pound more.

Those who had been circulating reports against the Metford arm had not the efficiency of the force in view. He always regretted that at meetings of this kind they had not the benefit of the presence of the mounted corps. That was not to be wondered at when they considered the arm which they had. He trusted soon to see the dragoons and hussars with new carbines, and then they could take their place in the ranges. He denied that any of the Martini-Metfords were returned to England as being deficient. As to the conversion of the Snider into the Martini-Metford, he did not think it was at all practicable.

Col. Panet and Lieut.-Col. Lake also addressed the meeting.

The following officers were then elected: President, Lieut.-Col. W. P. Anderson, retired list; Vice-President, Major Mason, of 13th Batt., Hamilton; 2nd Vice-President, Major Ibbotson, Royal Scots, Montreal; Secretary, Capt. Sutherland, 43rd Batt., Ottawa; Treasurer, Major Hodgins, G.G. F.G., Ottawa.

The members of the executive committee are the same as last year in all the provinces, all being re-elected.

Parliament to Meet in January.

OTTAWA, Aug. 30.—George Taylor, M.P., who was here yesterday, says that Parliament will meet early in January.

The Vice-Regal Party at Yarmouth.

YARMOUTH, N.S., Aug. 30.—Yarmouth's reception to Lord and Lady Aberdeen surpasses in elaboration and enthusiasm that accorded them by any other city in the maritime provinces. The town is decorated with flags. An address of welcome was presented by the town, and the Governor-General was taken for a twelve-mile drive around the country. Lady Aberdeen addressed an enthusiastic gathering of ladies of Yarmouth, and organized a branch of the Women's National Council. Lady Aberdeen held a reception at the Grand hotel which was largely attended, many Americans being among those present.

DUTCH LOSS IN LOMBOK

Their Forces Suffered Severely Under the Fire of the Natives.

FIVE OFFICERS WERE KILLED

General Vetter Was Surprised by the Native Warriors in the Night—Reinforcements Leave Java in the Hope of Retrieving the Disaster.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 30.—The Official Journal publishes a despatch regarding the disaster to the Dutch forces operating against the Rajah of the Island of Lombok, near Java.

The despatch says Gen. Vetter, the commander of the expedition, was surprised at 11 o'clock at night near Tjakra Negara. The firing was continuous until morning, and the Dutch, in this engagement, lost 14 killed and 85 wounded. As the water supply of the column failed and foraging was impossible, the Dutch troops were compelled to retreat towards Mataram, the capital of the Island. During the retreat the Dutch lost heavily, being continually harassed by the natives, and at one place in the route they found barricades had been raised. These obstructions were so stoutly defended by the native warriors that the troops were unable to force another passage and were compelled to make a long detour and in so doing they lost more men.

The Dutch succeeded in reaching Ampenan on August 27, with a total of casualties far in excess of the number at first reported. The killed included 4 officers and 63 men; there were 12 officers and 153 men wounded and 6 officers and 148 men missing. In addition the Vetter column lost four field guns.

It now appears that two other columns of Dutch troops operating upon the same island have sustained heavy losses and endured much suffering. These are the columns commanded by Colonels Van Pabst and Bylevelt. These columns have been operating separately and have also succeeded in reaching Ampenan. Their losses are not stated, but they are admitted to be heavy. Col. Van Pabst was among the officers killed.

Five steamers carrying troops and field guns left from Batavia, Java, for Lombok to-day, and every effort will be made to retrieve the disaster to the Dutch arms.

The news of the disaster has caused great excitement throughout Holland, and it is believed the whole truth is not known and that when the losses of the Van Pabst and Bylevelt commands are added to those sustained by the Vetter column, the loss in killed and wounded and missing will be over 500 men.

The government is being urged to despatch the strongest reinforcements possible to Lombok. The governor-general of the Dutch Indies, Gen. Van der Wijck, has summoned a council of the naval and military commanders, who are determining upon the decisive measures to be taken in order to wipe out the defeats of the Dutch troops.

THE WAR IN THE ORIENT.

Foreigners Fear an Attack by Native Troops—The Japs Badly Beaten.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says: "There is an uneasy feeling in Tien-Tsin owing to the attitude of the native troops. Foreigners are arming themselves as they fear an attack."

SHANGHAI, Aug. 30.—The native press has received confirmation of the reports of the battle fought between the Chinese and Japanese troops on August 18. According to them 5,000 Chinese troops of all armies attacked the Japanese forces which had been detailed to guard the Ping-Yang passes in the northwest of Corea and eventually succeeded in driving the Japanese from the positions which they held. A large number of Coreans flocked to the Chinese standard, begging for arms and asking for permission to form the advance guard of the Chinese force moving against the Japanese.

BRITISH BYE-ELECTIONS.

A Conservative and a Labor Candidate Defeated by Liberals.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Elections were held in Leicester to fill the parliamentary vacancies left by the retirement of Sir James Whitehead and James A. Picton, Liberals, who were returned without opposition in 1892.

Walter Hazell, Liberal, defeated Joseph Burgess, Labor, by a vote of 7,184 to 4,402. Henry Broadhurst, Liberal, defeated Mr. Rolleston, Conservative, by a vote of 9,964 to 6,967.

Celebrated Clarke Wallace's Return.

MONTREAL, Aug. 30.—A reception was tendered here last night by the Montreal Orangemen to Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, most worshipful master of the grand lodge of British North America, on the occasion of his return from the triennial council. The most worshipful master was presented with an address of congratulation on behalf of the Montreal Orangemen, and in responding reviewed the work of the triennial council and the progress made by Orangeism in Canada of recent years. He declared that the Orange association was hostile to no race or creed, and while it demanded the fullest liberty was willing to concede the same right to every citizen. The association, however, would oppose to the end any attempt to disrupt the British Empire. The most worshipful master was given a most hearty welcome by the large gathering.

Praying for Recovery of the Count.

PARIS, Aug. 30.—The Parisian Royalists are greatly alarmed at the reports of the condition of the Count of Paris and are sending messages of sympathy to Stowe House and offering up prayers for the recovery of the head of the House of Bourbon.

ROME, Aug. 30.—The Pope has sent his blessing to the Count.

Grain Dealers Jubilant.

WINDSOR, Ont., Aug. 30.—The grain warehouses in Essex county have been full of grain for months past, the decrease in eastern values having compelled dealers to hold their stock. As the tariff bill materially lowers the duty on grain, the dealers are now made jubilant, and they will promptly begin large shipments to the American markets.

FOREIGN VIEWS OF IT

British Wool Brokers Satisfied With the American Tariff.

GERMANY NOT WELL PLEASED

Cuban Customs Officials Will Apply the Maximum to American Imports—The New Tariff Expected to Cause a Serious Injury to the Sugar Industry.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The Central News correspondent in Madrid says: "In consequence of the new American tariff the Government customs officials in Cuba will apply the maximum to all imports from the United States. The officials expect serious injury to the Cuban sugar industry as well as to the Cuban treasury from the higher tariff on American imports."

The Morning Post says: "There is a fair prospect that the tariff will benefit the American and English people. Still it is rash to build up hopes of an immediate revival of international commerce. The real check to business with the States was the confusion of the American currency and the unsettled condition of public affairs. The circumstances under which the new Act was passed do not promise a permanent improvement therein."

The Daily News says: "The tariff is at best a compromise and stop-gap, giving some expression to the national condemnation of extreme protection as pronounced at the last presidential election. Business must benefit by ending the uncertainty which has long affected commerce in and with the United States."

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says: "The United States tariff has given much umbrage in Germany. The effect of the sugar duty will be rather to induce bounty-giving in the countries that raise sugar than to abolish bounties."

A representative of the house of Windler & Company, the largest wool brokers engaged in the American trade in London, in an interview expressed the opinion that the American bill would undoubtedly benefit the English market, which is now feverish and uncertain. The wool broking firm of Jacob & Company concur in the views of Windler & Company, adding that recent sales of 2,000 bales have been made to American buyers.

Bluefields Prisoners Will be Banished.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A special from Managua, Nicaragua, says: The government of Nicaragua has decided to banish British Vice-Consul Hatch and nine other Bluefields prisoners. Messrs. Lampton and Wiltebank, American citizens, will also be banished, and the edict has been issued. Patterson, Ingraham, Tyler and Brewarigg will be kept as state prisoners. United States Minister Baker entered a protest on behalf of the American prisoners, against these proceedings, on the ground that it is contrary to treaty and to the constitution and laws of Nicaragua, that these men should be sentenced without trial and without being allowed to make any defence. The correspondent hears that the government feels disposed to ask for Minister Baker's recall.

Shocking Double Tragedy.

BENHAM, Tex., Aug. 30.—The bodies of Mrs. Rose Martin and Edward McNitt were found lying on the floor of Mrs. Martin's room. Their throats were cut and their bodies covered with blood. A blood-stained razor lay on the floor and a bloody axe on a chair. The circumstances indicate that McNitt murdered the woman and then killed himself. Mrs. Martins had promised to marry McNitt, but had discarded him on account of his dissipated habits.

A Brave Messenger Rewarded.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 30.—The Wells-Fargo Express Company has presented to Messenger A. M. Chapman a diamond-studded watch and chain, worth $500, for fidelity and courage displayed when highwaymen held up the 'Frisco train at Red Fork, I. T., in July last.

Schooner Given Up for Lost.

MANITOWOC, Wis., Aug. 30. — The schooner Restless, which sailed from this place for Pine Lake, Mich., 17 days ago, has been given up as lost as nothing has been heard of her. It is supposed the crew of three men perished.

Immense Shipment of Peaches.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Aug. 30.—Never since 1870 has there been so large a shipment of peaches from this port as on Tuesday night. Over 40,000 packages were shipped out by boat and express.

All But the Postoffice Destroyed.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 30.—The town of Elliston, on the Northern Pacific railroad, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The only building left is the postoffice. Loss, $100,000.

The Decrease in C.P.R. Earnings.

MONTREAL, Aug. 30.—Vice-President Shaughnessy, of the Canadian Pacific, in explanation of the decrease in the Canadian Pacific earnings for the past six months, aggregating nearly a million dollars, says that while the result is very bad it is not to be wondered at considering the marked depression in business. He believes, however, that the worst is past and that business will now shortly improve.

Stouffville Burglars Sentenced.

TORONTO, Aug. 30.—The Forsyth brothers appeared before Judge McDougall on a charge of burglarizing the residence of H. E. A. Reid, at Stouffville, in March last. Daniel was given five years in the penitentiary on this charge and two years more for the other offences charged against him. George got six months, Hiram Williams, the receiver, one year, and Anson Forsyth four months in jail.

An Old Man's Fall.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug. 30.—Thomas Higgins, aged 70, met with a serious and probably a fatal accident yesterday. After lowering some barrels of flour from the the third story of Aulds Bros. warehouse, he started to slide down a rope, when the staple holding the rope gave way and he fell to the ground floor.

Don't buy a blood-purifier because it is "cheap." The best—the Superior Medicine—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is, in the end, the cheapest blood-purifier on the market. The ingredients of which it is composed are the most expensive and medicinally efficacious that can be obtained.

Canada first.

"HON. EDWARD BLAKE was once an enthusiastic admirer of Kansas and was one of the ablest emigration agents that State could have in Canada. The hon. gentleman will be glad to hear that many of those whom he induced to brave sunstroke and sorrow in that superheated region have had strength enough to reach the productive lands of Manitoba, where cyclones and simoon cannot reach them, and where a fine, bracing climate makes men hardy, lusty and strong." This quotation from the Empire is reproduced in a criticism by the Winnipeg Nor'-Wester, and is followed by this wholesome lecture: "We suppose it is one of the duties of an organ, especially of the official and subsidised class, to slander opponents and misrepresent facts; but how any man in his senses can see party advantage in such methods passes our comprehension. The Nor'-Wester is impatient to have these great plains of ours brought under settlement as soon as possible, but if we can get immigrants only by misrepresenting the condition of our neighbours or rejoicing in their misfortunes they may remain unsettled for ever. Nor can we see what point is to be served by reviving that old falsehood about Mr. Blake. He never had any occasion to be an enthusiastic admirer of Kansas, and was never its agent in Canada or elsewhere. We can hardly conceive it possible that in these enlightened days there are Canadian Conservatives who can find either satisfaction or amusement in such wretched stuff as this."

PLAIN LANGUAGE.

A Prominent Patron Scores the Federal Fiscal Policy.

At a picnic of the Patrons of Welland and Monk held at Port Colborne on Tuesday, there was a large attendance and some straight talk. J. Lockie Wilson, Grand Trustee, of Glengarry, one of the speakers, stated that the farmers were showing they were alive. In the Ottawa Cabinet of sixteen there were eleven lawyers and no farmers. Doctors, lawyers, manufacturers, lumbermen, combine for their interests. We, he said, must do the same. We want tariff for revenue only, and that on luxuries. Coal oil on the other side was 6 cents; why pay 15 to make a few coal oil millionaires? Massey, Gurney, and many others, have been made millionaires by us. The manufacturers are granted free raw material; we, as farmers, demand the same. I have always voted Conservative, but this is changed now. The cities have doubled in population, but there are fewer farmers and farmers' sons now than fifteen years ago. There is one law for the rich and another for the poor. The poor stay in goal; the rich contractors and Government supporters, Connolly and McGreevy, are discharged when prison air does not agree with them. The speaker severely scored the Curran bridge scandal, the uselessness of the Senate, the expense of the Cabinet and the Government House at Ottawa, all piling up heavy amounts squandered, the greater portion of which is paid by the taxes on farmers. Mr. Wilson closed a magnificent speech by urging the Patrons to drop both Reform and Conservative, and vote Patron.

CHANDOS.

Council Meeting.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The Chandos council met at Hale's school house on Saturday, Aug. 18th. By-law No. 5, setting the municipal rate for the year, passed its several readings and was signed and sealed. By-law No. 6, granting the petition of trustees for the levying and collecting of the several amounts required in the different sections for school purposes for the year, passed its several readings and was signed and sealed An order was drawn on the treasurer for $10 in favour of Chas. Prouty for services as auditor. John Young was allowed to do three years statute labour for lot 5, con. 10, on the line leading to said lot. Alex. Trotter was authorised to make arrangements with Fred Garrett and Stephen Scott in reference to their doing their statute labour on the concession line from their own places to main road. The council adjourned to meet again at No. 7 school house on the last Saturday in Sept. next.

An Old Ryhme Reset.

"Affliction sore long time she bore
Physicians were in vain."
At last one day, a friend did say,
"You'd soon be well again"

if you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus, and kindred weaknesses. As a nervine it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is now well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of curing in every case, or money paid for it returned.

LASHWADE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. Emmerson, our new minister, held his week night meeting, in Foster's school house, on Tuesday evening. These meetings are being well attended.

Our Reeve and Mr. McGill have finished laying out the government money on the roads, and Mr. Prouty expects to finish Saturday. It was much needed, as the roads were badly washed by the heavy rains. Mr. J. B. McWilliams went over the roads and paid off the men, Thursday.

The schools re-opened, Monday, 20th of August. The teachers have all returned and seemed to have enjoyed their vacation. Miss Hales has been engaged at Foster's for the remainder of the year, and is stopping with her sister, Mrs. J. Snelgrove.

Bush fires are raging in this neighbourhood and much damage has been done, and they will continue to spread if we do not have some rain, as everything is very dry. People should be more careful about starting fires in such a dry time.

There is a great scarcity of water and horses and cattle are suffering.

The cheese factories report a great falling off in the milk.

The post office authorities have made arrangements so that the mail man will now make his rounds on Wednesday and Saturday, instead of Tuesday and Saturday. This neighbourhood finds the mail twice per week a great convenience.

Mr. J. C. Brown, Public School Inspector, has been paying our schools a visit this week. He delivered an interesting lecture at Huff's school house on Friday evening, touching briefly on farming and explaining his new system of naming the letters. There was a good attendance and the speaker was tendered a vote of thanks for his interesting address. At the close of the meeting Mr. Prouty asked subscriptions for the purpose of getting some fish to stock Loon Lake. We understand enough was raised to secure twenty bass and twenty salmon.

Mr. Norman Woodlock lost a valuable horse on Sunday last as the result of a kick received while playing in the field with other horses. The animal's leg was broken and he had to be shot.

Judging from appearances, we may expect a number of weddings along the east road in the near future,

Mrs. John Newberry, accompanied by her brother, Mr. John McFadden, left last week for Manitoba. Her many friends in this locality wish her success in her new home.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Council Meeting.

From our own Correspondent.

The North Monaghan council met at the town hall on Aug. 27th. There were present Mr. Jos. Forster, reeve, and Councillors Hunter, McIntosh, Waterman, and Johnston. The minutes of the meeting of Aug. 7th were read and confirmed. The following accounts were presented:—County treasurer, interest on overdue county rate, 1883, $17.23; W. Collins, putting on gate and making entrance to gravel pit, $1.50; Peterborough EXAMINER, to contract, printing half yearly account, Jno. Patton, 30 loads gravel, W. Goodfellow, $3; Mrs. Dr. Greer, 25 loads gravel, J. Brown, $1.75; J. Lillico, work, filling gravel, etc., $7. On motion the accounts of the county treasurer, Peterborough EXAMINER, Jno. Patton, J. Lillico, and Mrs. Dr. Greer, were referred to the finance committee. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Johnston, that Mr. Collins' account be paid and order issued—Carried. Communications were received as follows: From E. Pearse, county treasurer, asking for the sum of $1443.97 for county purposes for 1894.—Received. From Isaac Payne, asking for $100 for school section, No. 1.—Received. From G. May, asking for $200 for school section No. 2.—Received. From John McIntosh, asking for $200 for school section No. 3.—Received. From Joseph Madill, asking for $146 for school section No. 4.—Received. From John Corkery, asking for $27 for Separate school, Peterborough.—Received. From A. Dawson, clerk of South Monaghan, enclosing a resolution of the council of that municipality, condemning the emptying of the proposed sewerage system of Peterborough in the Otonabee river, and appointing the Reeve and councillor Fisher a committee to look after the interests of the township of South Monaghan in regard to the matter.—Received. Bylaws Nos. 408 and 409 levying rates for the respective schools of the township, and a rate of 2½ mills on the dollar for county purposes and 1½ mills on the dollar for township purposes were given their several readings and passed. Moved by Mr. McIntosh, seconded by Mr. Hunter, that the clerk be and is hereby authorized to strike the necessary rate on each of the school sections to raise the required amounts as enumerated in the schedule of Bylaw No. 408.—Carried. The council adjourned to meet at the call of the reeve.

CAVANVILLE.

(From a Correspondent.)

Mr. Thos. Newton, of Cavanville was shot on Tuesday evening by a revolver in the hands of a small boy. Mr. Newton was leaving the store of Mr. McGill's when the boy fired the shot, with the intention he said of shooting the bullet into the air. The ball struck Mr. Newton in the shoulder blade. Dr. Blairton of Bethany, was called in but was unable to locate the bullet, and the wounded man is getting along nicely although suffering great pain.

SOME HISTORIC CONUNDRUMS.

Who Was the Man in the Iron Mask?—Who Wrote the "Junius" Letters.

There are some historic mysteries that excite increasing interest the more the attempts to solve them are baffled, says the Philadelphia Record. The last word has not yet been spoken in regard to the authorship of the celebrated "Letters of Junius." Notwithstanding the concurrence of Macaulay, Sir James Mackintosh, De Quincey and other eminent critics in fixing "Junius" upon Sir Philip Francis, the claim of Francis has been well-nigh abandoned in recent years. Aside from certain facts and dates that go to overthrow the claim of Francis, his identity with "Junius" can be maintained only at the complete sacrifice of his character; and Francis was by no means a bad man. Another historic riddle which for nearly 200 years has defeated the guesses of the curious is the Man in the Iron Mask, who was imprisoned for so many years in the Bastile. The Duke of Monmouth; Fouquet, ex-minister of Louis XIV., and Count Er'colo Antonio Matthioli, the Italian traitor and spy; Oldenburgh, the poison mixer, and several other personages have in turn worn the mask of iron in various accounts and traditions. But the latest and apparently a successful attempt to discover the secret has been made by Emile Bargaud and Bazieres in a work entitled "Le Masque de Fer, a Revelation of the Cipher Correspondence of Louis XIV." The authors fell upon their discovery in a curious way when editing the correspondence of the famous Marshal Catinat. The marshal had preserved only his papers relating to the campaign of 1686, but among these were accidentally saved two letters in cipher, dated July 8 and 9, 1691. Bazieres found the key to the cipher, and found also, to his great surprise, that it solved the mystery of the Iron Mask.

Louis XIV., at the period in question, was at war with half of Europe, and Marshal Catinat, in command of the French, confronted Prince Eugene in Northern Italy. After several successes of Catinat, Louis set his heart on the capture of Cuneo, in Savoy, and gave orders for its immediate investment. The siege operations were intrusted to a veteran campaigner, Lieutanant-General Vivien Labbe, Seignieur de Bulonde. Instead of taking the fortress, Bulonde was completely routed out by Eugene, and retreated with the loss of his artillery and munitions of war. This disaster in the midst of a career of victory deeply incensed Louis, who attributed it to the cowardly conduct of his general. In the cipher letters Louvois, the Minister of War, tells Marshal Catinat that the King is greatly offended at the behaviour of Bulonde in abandoning the seige of Cuneo, and orders that he be arrested and conveyed to the neighboring citadel of Pignerol. Minute orders were given at the same time concerning the treatment of the distinguished prisoner. He was to be locked in a cell of the citadel at night, but to be permitted to promenade the walls by day. Should this be the true solution of the mystery, it explains the command of Louis XIV. to provide a prisoner by day with a mask. The correctness of the key to the cipher of the year 1691 is established by the later discovery of a letter (not in cipher) of Louvois to Catinat on the same subject and corresponding with the cipher despatch. Whether these revelations agree with the subsequent career of Bulonde remains to be determined. The Mask, whoever he may have been, was removed to the Bastile in 1698. The authors describe him from the accounts of contemporary observers as a man of fine presence, with white hair. Although closely guarded, he was treated with great respect, and sat at table with the governor of the prison. All this better fits Bulonde than little Matthioil, who has been regarded by some investigators as the wearer of the Iron Mask. For the rest, the mask was not of iron, but of black velvet, and was designed merely to prevent his recognition. Voltaire who first spoke of the "Man in the Iron Mask," says he was an eminent personage. Was that personage Count Fivien Labbe Bulonde? The evidence point strongly in his direction.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, August 30, 1894.

Monday will be a public holiday in Canada and the United States and the markets between now and Tuesday will be a trifle quiet.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Outside prices of grain are unchanged, new wheat being held at 52 to 52 1-2. On the street 200 bushels brought 54 to 55. Oats are a trifle firmer, 200 bushels selling on the street at 29 to 30. In milling products there is but one change. For bran $13.50 is being offered.

Wheat was dull in Chicago and closed 3-8c lower. Some mild raiding in corn kept prices down, the closing being 1-4c lower. Oats were weak and 1-4 to 1-2c lower.

At East Liberty, Pa., sheep receipts were light. Extra, $3.20 to $3.50; good, $3.20 to $3.50; fair, $1.50 to $1.70; lambs, $2 to $3.80.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 1,565. There was no material change in prices. The tone, however, was strong, the advance being well maintained on the better grades, but the common sold slowly.

In the New York markets long stock and short stock, both from purely speculative sources, pressed for a sale in almost equal quantities. No explanation is necessary for this re-action except the perfectly familiar Wall street maxim that the final accomplishment of any favorable move will be over discounted in advance and followed by a sharp decline in prices.

Buoyancy continues in the London stock markets. The public are buying all securities but the Americans, purchase of which is chiefly confined to English and continental professional dealers. South American stocks are having quite a boom and the general appearance of the stock markets suggests a continued improvement.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

An Ashburnham Wedding.

A quiet wedding took place last evening, when Rev. C. B. Kenrick, of St. John's church, united in marriage Mr. John Neild, a highly respected resident of Ashburnham, to Miss M. Baker, of Peterborough. Both parties are well known in town and vicinity. They will take up their residence in Ashburnham.

A Japanese Professor and Preacher.

Professor Satoh, of the Imperial University, Japan, will preach in the George street Methodist church on Sunday evening next, and will lecture in the church on Monday evening. Silver collection at the door. Prof. Satoh is a delegate from Japan to the Methodist General Conference. He was present at the annual confetence here in June, and spoke, making a very favourable impression. His address on Monday night will be worth hearing, as at present public interest centres very largely in Japan and the east.

Change of Business.

Messrs. M. A. and E. H. Turner have bought out the Peterborough Music Co., 404 George street, and intend carrying on the same business on a larger scale. In addition to dealing in the best grade of pianos, organs, and musical goods of all kinds, they will keep a full supply of stationery, school books, fancy goods, etc., which they offer on the most advantageous terms. The new firm also retain the sole agency for the Raymond Sewing Machine. 2d

Special to the Examiner.

The following despatch was received at an early hour this afternoon:

PEMBROKE, August 30th.

The Sons of England demonstration held here yesterday was a great success. The hotels were taxed to their utmost to provide for the large influx of visitors. The special attractions were unusually good, but the celebrated LaBelle Bros. in their difficult trapeze, high tight rope and slack wire performances easily headed the list. They drew immense crowds and proved the life and soul of the special attractions.

The committee who have in charge the celebration on Labour Day—Monday next—have engaged the LaBelle Bros., mentioned above, and those whose who attend the demonstration will have an opportunity of seeing these celebrated artists in their daring feats.

Smoke Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco, 5, 10 and 20c Plugs. Made only by D. Ritchie & Co., the only organized "Union" Plug Tobacco Factory in Canada.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Duck hunting parties are already being formed.

—There was no police court session this morning.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—A Rugby football team will be organized in Port Hope, this fall.

—The shooting at Rice Lake this season is very good, the ducks being plentiful.

—The sale or barter of partridge, woodcock or snipe is further prohibited until 1897.

—The Oddfellows of Cobourg decorated the graves of their deceased brethren yesterday.

—The Wm. English Canoe Company shipped two of their first class canoes to the United States to-day.

—On Saturday last Mr. Geo. Hogg, of Harwood, caught eighteen maskinonge in a few hours on Rice Lake.

—Two Kingston young ladies have applied for positions as conductors on the electric railway of that city.

—A by-law to raise $25,000 for sewerage purposes will be submitted to the ratepayers of Lindsay, at an early date.

—The city council of Belleville has a large number of men employed in the construction of a granolithic pavement.

—Geo. Fullerton, of Belleville, supplied Indians with fire water and was sentenced to four months in the Central Prison.

Excellent; the very best; sure to do it, etc., is the report of those who use Phenyo-Caffain for headache, neuralgia or pain.

—Boys are spending their leisure time gathering hickory and butter nuts. The butter nut crop is very large this season.

—A meeting of mechanics will shortly be held at Kingston for the purpose of selecting a candidate for the mayor's chair for 1895.

—The tender of the engine on a east bound C. P. R. train, jumped the track this morning, at the station, but no damage resulted.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What-Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale a Lynch's Drug Store.

—In an account of the opening of the schools in Barrie, the Gazette says: "Miss Burke and Miss Sherin, of Peterborough, are the two new teachers engaged by the Board."

—Counterfeit five and ten cent pieces are at present being circulated throughout Ontario. The counterfeit is heavier than the genuine coin and resembles alumnium more than silver.

—Mr. E. J. Hartley and party left this morning on a duck shooting expedition at Rice Lake. No doubt the boys will have quite an assortment of the feathered creatures on their return as they are crack shots.

—Elaborate preparations are being made at the Salvation Army barracks in the way of decorations for the three days harvest festival on Sept. 1st, 2nd and 3rd. Workmen are busily engaged in decorating the interior with evergreens, flags and bunting.

—During the past summer one of the chief bases of supply for bait for the would-be catcher of the gamey bass, has been Hamilton's creek, flowing through the town. The craw-fish have been hunted so industriously and perseveringly, hardly a stone being left unturned, that now the doomed crustacean is as scarce as his distant relative.

THE HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

In Full Bloom in the Market Building—The Exhibits Fine and the Show Promises to be a Success.

Extensive preparations have been going on all day in the market building, for the fall exhibition of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society. On visiting the hall, to-day, one would be pleasantly surprised at the extent, elegance and variety of the numerous exhibits in plants, flowers, fruits, vegetables, fine arts, ladies' work, etc. In the department of plants and flowers the exhibit is a splendid one and is larger in variety and extent than any previous year, and the collections of fruits and vegetables occupy a very prominent part among the exhibits. The fine arts exhibits and the ladies' and children's handiwork are worth both special admiration and mention. More detailed reference will be made to them in to-morrow's issue. In fact the exhibits in all these classes are larger than at any previous exhibition, and taken altogether are well worth seeing, and the exhibition promises to be an unusual success. It is to be hoped that the success will be largely in the matter of attendance of the public, at whose hands the society deserves so well. The society exists solely in the interests of the public, and it is no more than fair that their efforts should be met with practical appreciation. Apart from this the display in the hall is worthy of admiration. The public is heartily invited to be present to-night. Admission, only 10 cents.

RANGE AND RIFLE.

The Result of the Shoot at the D. R. A. Meet Yesterday.

At yesterday's shoot of the Dominion Rifle Association meet at Ottawa, Lieut. Matthews of the 57th Battalion, carried off a prize of $5 by a score of 68 points, Capt. Dennistoun, $4 for 67 points, and Pte. Blade, $4 for 66 points in their shooting in the Henshaw match.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Military Rifle League at the Russell House, Ottawa, yesterday, the trophies won in this year's competitions were presented to the winning teams. In the Martini series, battalion teams, of ten men, the 57th Battalion's first team made the highest score, 3,406, being 16 points ahead of the 45th Battalion, Lindsay. In the Snider series the 57th Battalion team of ten men were fifth in the list, with a score of 3,016, the highest score being 3,340 by the 1st team of the 13th Battalion, Hamilton.

A VALUABLE TESTIMONIAL.

From a Plutocrat Patron in New York to the Good Qualities of the Wm. English Canoes.

About a month ago the William English Canoe Company supplied Mr. Edwin Gould, of New York, brother of George Gould, the owner of the much beaten Vigilant, with a finely finished cedar canoe. Yesterday the company received the following autograph letter which speaks for itself:

NEW YORK, Aug. 28th, 1894.

Wm. English Canoe Company:

DEAR SIRS,—The canoe and lady's paddle came to hand all right. I have used your canoes for the past ten years and find them very serviceable and seaworthy. The present one I am using on my yacht.

Very truly yours,
EDWIN GOULD.

PERSONAL.

Mr. C. J. Leonard, of Toronto, is in town to-day.

Mrs. M. Giroux is in Hastings, on a visit to friends.

Miss Lynch, of Peterborough, is visiting the Misses Tracy, Hastings.—Star.

Mr. Bradley Mowry, of Gravenhurst, Ont., is visiting his brother, Mr. John Mowry.

Mr. W. Kelly, of Chicago, and Miss M. E. Kelly, town, are visiting friends in Havelock.

Sir Richard Cartwright passed through town to-day on his way home from Western Ontario.

Mr. Chas. Matthew, Peterborough, the Watchman says, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Mrs. M. Cooper, Albert street, has returned to town, after a pleasant visit with friends in Hamilton.

Mr. R. W. Muncaster left this morning for Charleston, S.C., after a three months visit amongst friends.

Miss Morrow, of Peterborough, and Mrs. Walsh, of Stratford were in Lindsay on Monday.—Watchman.

Mr. Chas. W. Kempt, a former druggist of this town, with his wife and son, are visiting in Peterborough.

Miss Butler of the Golden Lion, is at present in Toronto attending the openings, the guest of Dr. Fisher.

Miss Minnie Young, Yeomans street, Belleville, left yesterday to visit friends in Peterborough and Toronto.

Mr. M. A. Hawley, of Peterborough, our former townsman, was in Campbellford several days of last week.—Herald.

Miss Jessie Minorgau leaves to-morrow on a trip to friends and relatives in England. She will be absent several months.

Miss Hattie Wilson of Toronto, is spending a few days in town on her way home from the lower provinces. She is the guest of Mrs. W. Scott, Gilmour street.

Mr. J. L. Hughes, wife and family have returned from Sturgeon Point, where they have been holidaying. They have had a pleasant time and greatly enjoyed their visit to this summer resort. Their many friends are glad to welcome them home again.

Mr. S. Adams, of the G. T. R., formerly of the Lindsay and Port Hope branch is now with the popular Conductor Haskill on the Lakefield suburban. His friends are pleased to see him back to town again as he is an old Peterborough railroad favourite.

Mr. John Fulton left on Tuesday evening for Medford, Wis., where he intends residing in the future. From the large number of young people of both sexes who were at the station to see him off, it is quite evident that Mr. Fulton will be greatly missed by his associates.

Mr. W. H. Morrey, who has been for some time engaged in compiling a general directory of Peterborough, has completed his work in town, and that portion of the work is now in press. He is now doing Ashburnham. The new directory will be placed in the hands of subscribers in about a month. Any person wishing changes made, can have their wishes met by dropping a card to Mr. Morrey, Morgan House.

Mr. F. P. Duffy, of Cobourg, who has been acting as editor of the Catholic Register, since the published retirement of Father Teefy, and who had acted for some time previously as associate editor, was in Peterborough, the beginning of the week, on his way home to Cobourg, where he will spend a short time before resuming his theological studies at, probably, the American College in Rome. Mr. Duffy has studied at St. Michael's College, Toronto, and St. Francois Xavier College, New York, in both of which places his mental equipment is looked upon as brilliant. It is probable that Mr. Duffy will occasionally contribute to the columns of the Register. With this week's issue Mr. J. C. Walsh succeeds to the editorship.

AN IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE.

Mr. Alfred Dawson, of Bailliesboro Succeeds Mr. W. J. Hall, in the Grocery and Provision Business.

Mr. Alfred Dawson, of Bailliesboro, has purchased the grocery and provision business conducted by Mr. W. J. Hall for the past year or so, 355 George street, in the old Rush Bros. stand. The details of the transfer are now receiving attention and to-morrow Mr. Dawson will enter into full possession and open business. There are many reasons why Mr. Dawson should succeed well. The business stand is an excellent one, Mr. Dawson has the necessary business qualifications produced by an experience in mercantile matters of about a dozen years, his enterprise, integrity and square modes of business dealing having won for him a good reputation in the field he has lately occupied. He will be a valuable addition to our citizenship, being possessed of all the qualifications of a good citizen. He was township clerk for South Monaghan for ten or twelve years, and in this as well as every other position in life he occupied, has given satisfactory service. He intends conducting his new business here on the lines, at present, chiefly, of groceries and provisions, flour, feed, etc., and will keep in supply the choicest articles in these several lines the market can produce. Mr. Dawson and his establishment are heartily commended to the patronage of the people of the town, and there is every reason to believe that his becoming a business man and a citizen of Peterborough will be of mutual advantage—to himself and the public. During Mr. Hall's tenure of the business he has by his excellent business methods acquired by a long period of operation in the commission line, worked up a good trade, which in the matter of prestige, will be a distinct advantage to his successor. Mr. Hall will remain in town, and it is expected that he will find before long an outlet for his business activity in another enterprise, which will particularly interest the farming community.

STEWARTS—OTONABEE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Cleveland Convention Report.—Miss L. Kennedy, Mr. A. Ovens and Mr. H. P. Kennedy gave a report of the great C. E. convention at Cleveland to a large audience in the new hall here on Tuesday evening, August 27. The addresses were very interesting and at the close a hearty vote of thanks was given to the speakers of the evening. An adjournment was then made to the basement of the hall where refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade were served by the ladies in their usual excellent style. A very pleasant time was spent and a good sum was realized towards paying expenses in connection with the new hall.

Normal and Institute S. S. Meeting.—On Friday evening, Oct. 5, at half past seven there is to be a Sunday school institute meeting here, when two very interesting subjects, "The life of Christ" and "The Lesson Study," will be considered. It is hoped there will be a large attendance and that all will come prepared to take some part in the discussion.

LACROSSE.

The Grafters are making arrangements with the Lindsay juniors for a game in that town, on Labour Day.

The junior Peterboroughs are getting in good practice for their match with Millbrook, on Labour Day, and a first class and keenly contested game may be expected. The Peterboroughs intend wiping out the defeat they sustained at the hands of Millbrook in the beginning of the season.

CRICKET.

Mr. J. Houldsworth, who has for the past season been the efficient pro. of the local cricket club, leaves for his home in England on Friday. Mr. Houldsworth during his residence in town has proven himself to be a thorough gentleman. On the crease he has shown himself to be a first-class groundsman, a good reliable batter and an effective bowler. During the season the cricket club has made marked progress under his instruction, and he is without doubt the best of the many first-class pros. that have been engaged by the cricket club during the past few years.

You Won't Mind the Rain

Rainproof Serge

One of the newest novelties in Dress Goods. Does not differ in any respect from ordinary Serge, except that it is RAINPROOF.

Ladies are delighted with this new weave of goods, and it promises to receive a great deal of preference. Our ranges in BLACK and NAVY are decidedly stylish as well as serviceable. You needn't mind the rainy season with a dress of this new material.

In reference to our New Fall Dress Stuffs, we wish to impress the fact that they are our own direct importations, and, to a large extent, the designs are exclusive, and are not shown by other stores.

MILLBROOK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

One afternoon, this week, while business was so slack that it sagged down in the middle, and one of our rising young druggist was amusing himself, by catching flies and putting them on a sheet of "tanglefoot" paper, which serves as an advertisement, a smart looking, fashionably dressed, young woman briskly entered the store. The young man, after casting a deprecating glance at his reflection in the show case, hastened to place the counter between himself and his prospective customer.

"Have you any concentrated solution of chloride of sodium?" she asked in flutetones.

The clerk's jaw dropped so low that the diamond on his shirt-front was entirely hidden from the interrogative gaze of her azure eyes. Plainly, he did not "tumble" to so much technicality.

"No, Miss," he rather gasped than articulated. She bowed sweetly, and immediately took her departure, a smile, half scornful, wholly triumphant, illuminating her classic features, while the mystified clerk took down his "drug dictionary" to enlighten himself on the sodium business. A few minutes later, she entered another drug store, and in just one minute and thirty seconds, the presiding clerk was studying up sodium, while the smart looking young woman was making a B-line for the third drug store, smiling audibly at something that seemed to tickle her immensely.

She entered this store with an air of perfect confidence, and studiously avoiding the proprietor, walked back to the blushing clerk. Assuming a look of the most guileless innocence, she again enquired sweetly:

'Do you keep the concentrated solution of chloride of sodium in stock? I have been to every drug store in town and can't find any."

The blush on the clerk's face grew so vivid that it cast a red sheen upon the bottles on the opposite shelves. The proprietor noticing his confusion, enquired what she had asked for. "I don't know," stammered the confused clerk, "some Latin thing."

"I asked for the concentrated solution of chloride of sodium," said the smart young woman, almost bubbling over with suppressed merriment.

The proprietor scratched his bump of reflection a second; then he "tumbled to her racket" so suddenly and violently that a bottle of unguentum hydrargyri iodidi rubri fell from the shelf behind him with a dull, sickening thud.

"We do not keep it in stock," he said, with a voice so frigid that the mercury immediately ducked its head down to zero, "but you can easily make it when you reach home by simply mixing common salt and common water together until the salt is dissolved."

She gave him a look that would stop a Chinese procession as she proudly swept out of the store. As a matter of fact she had only been amusing herself at the drug clerks' expense, and was as mad as a wet hen at been caught at it. The druggist who caught her has laughed so much in his sleeve since that it is getting quite baggy at the elbow.

A THREATENED TRAGEDY.

And how it Was Most Happily Averted This Morning.

Early this morning an EXAMINER reporter, with a keen eye open for passing events, noticed a tall, rough clad man come sauntering across the Hunter street bridge and the man strode over to a point on the bank of the Dickson Company's raceway on the Peterborough side of the bridge and looked about him in an apparently hesitating manner, nervous and undecided, but deeply anxious, it seemed.

The reporter watched him with increasing interest. There at his very feet lay the sluggish raceway, six or seven feet deep. The tall man gazed at it very intently. Who could tell what was passing through his troubled mind? Was he

"Sick of life's history,
Glad of death's mystery?"

Had he been reading Bob Ingersoll's justification of suicide?

The man suddenly pulled off his coat. How the reporter's veins did begin to throb, to be sure! Laying the coat on the sward, he walked with a quickened pace to the very verge of the bank.

An Ashburnham resident who stood beside the reporter muttered: "Heavens!" and shut his eyes, waiting for the splash. It presently came.

It was the splash of the fisherman's bait as he heaved his throw line into the river. By this time, it is safe to say, that man has hooked a dozen members of the finny tribe.

DR. ANDREW GRANT & CO.,
Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

* * * * * * * * *

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

Three Chatham Men Missing.

CHATHAM, Ont., Aug. 30.—Anxiety is felt here for the safety of three well known citizens of Chatham who left here about three weeks ago on a canoeing trip on the Georgian Bay. The party consisted of D. M. Christie, barrister, George F. Rispin, C.P.R. ticket clerk, and Arthur Northwood, modern language master in the Ottawa Collegiate Institute. Mr. Lewis, partner of Mr. Christie, received a letter dated the 16th, in which they stated they would reach North Bay about the 20th and telegraph from that point, but no word has been received and it is feared some accident has befallen them.

Youthful Burglars Sentenced.

HAMILTON, Aug. 30.—Albert Rabitoy and George Easter, who were convicted on charges of breaking into several city stores and stealing goods therefrom, were each sentenced by Magistrate Jelfs to two years and six months in Penetangnishene Reformatory. A strong ministerial, social, and business deputation pleaded for the prisoners, but in view of the great increase of crime among young boys, the Magistrate decided that the best interests of society was being served by giving them a a severe sentence.

Not That Kind.

Scott's Emulsion does not debilitate the stomach as other cough medicines do; but on the contrary, it improves digestion and strengthens the stomach. Its effects are immediate and pronounced.

Mr. J. D. Tully, druggist, states: Having sold Phenyo-Caffain pills for some time I believe them to be a thoroughly reliable article to cure the most extreme cases of headache or neuralgia.

Fine Oak

At Clegg's, a splendid line of fine polished oak; bedroom suites, newest designs and best workmanship, and prices fully twenty-five per cent. lower than a year ago. All the cheaper lines in stock also. In parlour suites, etc., we show a larger assortment than ever offered in Peterborough before, at all prices and all our own manufacture; no factory work in this line. Clegg's upholstered goods are known almost from Halifax to Vancouver. Though more than twenty years in business, we have never yet re-upholstered one of our own parlour suites. A. CHILDREN WHO SUFFER from scrofulous, skin or scalp diseases, ought to be given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for purifying the blood. For children who are puny, pale or weak, the "Discovery" is a tonic which builds up both flesh and strength. What is said of it for children applies equally to adults. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, and other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system.

For all diseases caused by a torpid liver or impure blood, as Dyspepsia and Biliousness, if it doesn't benefit or cure in every case, the money is returned.

EFFECTS OF WEATHER AND WIND.

The Mental Faculties Regulated to Some Extent by Atmospheric Changes.

A writer in the American Journal of Psychology for this year discusses the subject from the view of common experience and presents some facts that are interesting as well as leading in their directness. He says; "The head of a factory employing three thousand workmen said: 'We reckon that a disagreeable day yields about 10 per cent. less work than a delightful day, and we thus have to count this as a factor in our profit and loss account.' Accidents are more numerous in factories on bad days. A railroad man never proposes changes to his superior if the weather is not propitious. Fair days make men accessible and generous, and open to consider new problems favorably. Some say that opinions reached in best weather states are safest to invest on." Other facts are mentioned in the psychical and physiological relation, as "Weather often affects logic, and many men's most syllogystic conclusions are varied by heat and cold. * * * The knee jerk seems proved to have another factor. It is not strange if the eye, e. g., which wants the normal stimulus in long, dark weather, causes other changes."

Temperament is a fundamental factor in sensitiveness to atmospheric changes, that type of it called the mental being the more intensely affected, while the bilious type may exhibit by comparison the more capricious or morbid impressions, says the Phrenological Journal. The mental manifestations, as a rule, however, depend upon the organism primarily. If the culture is good, i. e., the faculties have been trained to coordinate, harmonious action, and the elements that contribute to serenity and self control have been well developed, weather conditions will but operate like other parts of the environment, and self-training will show adaptation and self-repression. The "nervous," excitable, irascible person is he who has not learned to control feeling and expression and it is he who finds fault with his surroundings and imputes uncanny conduct to them. That there are functional states of the body that predispose one to mental depression or exhilaration we are ready to admit. A torpid liver, a chronic catarrh, a rheumatic joint, and even an old corn may render one susceptible to weather changes, the physical ailment producing a nerve reaction that is keenly felt at the spinal centers and may test the spirit. Mind, however, is superior to matter, or rather constituted for superiority. Fairly organized, carefully developed and trained, it will exhibit that superiority by its pose and calmness in circumstances that are disagreeable or painful to the physical sense.

Some Points About Pins.

Thorns were originally used in fastening garments together. Pins did not immediately succeed thorns as fasteners, but different appliances were used, such as hooks, buckles and laces. It was the latter half of the fifteenth century before pins were used in Great Britain. When first manufactured in England the iron wire, of the proper length, was filed to a point, and the other extremity twisted into a head. This was a slow process, and four or five hundred pins was a good day's work for an expert hand. The United States has the credit of inventing the first machine for making pins. This was in 1824. The inventor was one Lemuel Wellman Wright. Many remarkable improvements have followed, and the machines of the present day send off, as if by magic, whole streams of pins, and these fall so nicely adjusted for the papers pricked for them that two small girls can put up several thousand papers in a day.

A Mean Trick.

"Did your chaperon get you engaged this summer?"

"Yes, but while I was temporarily disengaged she married the man herself."

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism.

A Minister Over a Century Old.

There died in Trikhala, in Thessaly, recently, a Greek priest, aged 120, according to the records. In this long period he had never left the village in which he was born. He ascribed his long life and vigor to the simple way in which he lived. Until a few years ago he slept summer and winter in the open air, drank no wine or alcoholic liquors, except at communion, and smoked no tobacco. For a short time he used snuff, but gave it up, as it did not agree with him. Meat he seldom ate in the course of the year. His nourishment consisted chiefly of fruit, nuts, vegetables and bread.

He always rose from his simple bed—which was invariably turned towards the east—before the sun was up, and only priestly duties could induce him to break his habit of retiring at 9 o'clock. His face at the time of his death was comparatively free from wrinkles; he heard without any difficulty and read without glasses. The only evidence of advanced age was loss of memory of recent events. He was able to remember everything that had happened in his early days, but his recollection of new things became so poor that he often forgot whether or not he had eaten. The result was—strange as it may seem—that he often, in the belief that he was following out his system of regularity as to meals, ate two meals close together or fasted entirely. On this account his stomach became disordered and indirectly brought about his death.

Throughout his life, it is said, he was never sick and never used medicine. He died easily, his last words being: "Now, let Thy servant depart in peace, O Lord!"

He had acted as priest in Trikhala for 99 years.—Empire.

A Misleading Sign.

The sign in this city said simply: "Umbrellas Recovered."

Old Wayback, when he was "seein' the sights," discovered that sign. He hesitated for a moment and then went in. Said he:

"Say, I want yew to recover my umbrella."

"All right," replied the workman, "where is it?"

Old Wayback looked at him in astonishment and drawled out:

"Ef I knew that I'd recover her myself."—Printer's Ink.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 300 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

AFTER 20 LONG YEARS.

FEELINGS OF MEN RELEASED FROM LONG IMPRISONMENT.

Everything New to Them—Gathered Flowers Like Children—Wonder Expressed at the Sight of Cows and Poultry—One of the Men a Canadian.

"Are those geese or ducks?"

That was a question asked by a man 40 years old in Lansing, Kan., last Sunday. It was Arthur Winner. Winner and McNutt were the two most famous prisoners in the Kansas penitentiary. These men were liberated on Sunday, after an incarceration extending over twenty years.

At 5 o'clock on Sunday morning Warden Chase unlocked the cells. He took Winner and McNutt to the prison barber shop, and after they were shaved gave them two Government suits, which did not fit at all. Winner, who worked in the prison shoe shop, had brought two pairs of patent-leather shoes. The men put these on. With the highly-japanned and stylishly-pointed foot-gear and the ridiculously-cheap and awkward clothes, they, in company with ex-Senator O. H. Bentley of this city, stepped outside the great stone walls.

For twenty years they had seen neither tree, shrub, bird, flower, grass nor domestic animal. Two of Warden Chase's daughters met them just outside the door and presented them with two beautiful flowers. Several trustees approached them, beaming, and presented them with bouquets as they went down the path.

Tears were in both men's eyes.

"See!" cried Winner, the most demonstrative of the two. "There is a town. There was no town here when I went in."

"That is Lansing," said Mr. Bentley.

"Let's not go there," said Winner. "I want to go over to those woods."

McNutt agreed, and they went over to a thicket by the roadside. The two came across a cow.

"Is that a cow?" said Winner, hesitatingly. "Don't go on. Let me look at at."

And he circled around the animal, much as a man examines a lion at Barnum's.

Then he approached her timorously, and laid his hand on her back. "This," he said "is the only cow I have seen in twenty years."

A little later they met a flock of geese. "Look, said Winner, again. "Tell me, I really do not know, are those geese or ducks?"

He was told they were geese and he tried to pet them.

"Winner," said McNutt, a moment later, "what is that scent? Do you smell it?"

"Yes. It must come from those flowers."

Both men descended upon an elderberry bush and stripped it of its blossoms. They were like two children. They picked every flower they saw and carried it with them.

"See here," said Winner, "here is a good old milkweed. How green and beautiful it is." And he plucked it and added it to his armful of variegated vegetation.

When they reached Kansas City they both began to piece things that they had read about in the newspapers.

McNutt could not distinguish between a cable car and an electric car. He insisted on trying both, and finally got it into his head which was which.

In the evening they went to a park and saw an ice toboggan slide in action. Neither had read about this in the papers, and both were greatly excited over it. They also insisted on stopping and examining every high building.

"In these 20 years, said McNutt, reflectively, "the world has moved along a century."

McNutt's case is the sadder. Winner's folks are wealthy, among the most wealthy in Kansas City, and he went at once to their palatial home, where he was received with open arms, McNutt has no one to whom to go. His old mother still lives in Nova Scotia and is very poor. His wife is married to another man and lives somewhere in Missouri. Winner was 19 when he went to the penitentiary and McNutt 20 years of age. McNutt has secured a job of decorating in Leavenworth and will open a shop there.

Winner will go back to the penitentiary as general manager of the Burr Company's shoe business there, that company having the convict contract of the Lansing prison.

The young men began to serve their sentence on June 10, 1874, just 20 years ago. McNutt's wife secured a divorce and a few years later married again. She is now in Clay County, Mo., and has a family of growing children.

Nothing was done for five years in behalf of the young men. Then efforts for a pardon were made. Ex-Senator Bently finally secured their release. Both were good prisoners, neither having received a demerit mark in the 20 years.—Wichita Eagle.

The United States Senate Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The last act in the great legislative spectacle that has attracted the attention of the whole country for the last nine months was performed in the Senate chamber yesterday. Although there were only two hours assigned to it there were no less than three recesses taken in that time as a resource against weariness and dreariness of the occasion, and then the Vice-President made his farewell speech and declared the Senate adjourned without day.

Geronimo to be Released.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29—A Washington special says: That famous old Indian, Chief Geronimo, and his little band of warriors, who have been kept in prison at Mount Vernon barracks, Ala., since they were captured by the army, some years ago, are to be released and allowed to gradually return to their home in New Mexico, the scene of their worst depredations.

WORE MEN'S CLOTHES

HISTORICAL INSTANCES OF WOMEN DISGUISED AS MEN.

Romantic Stories Recalled by a British War Office Incident—Colonel Barnaby's Female Colonel — Mary Ann Talbot's Career—She Sailed Under Three Flags.

The recent attempt made by the naval officers to hush up what would have furnished material for a scandal of unusual dimensions has apparently been successful. The real state of affairs was known only to a few. This was that in more than one vessel of war females dressed in male attire had been acting as officers' private servants. Rumor even went so far as to say that some of these girls were highly connected. The affair revives the recollections of many cases of women in breeches.

It is said that 150 women disguised as men were discovered in the United States Army of the Potomac.

The list of strange impostures would of itself fill pages. The narrative of their conception and fulfillment would occupy several volumes. Some of them have been quite purposeless; some of them have been daring and well effected, but the shrewdest and most daring of all have been criminal in design and too often successful.

The late Colonel Burnaby told of the discovery of a woman who served as a soldier in the ranks of the army of Don Carlos in 1874. She wore the uniform and lived and fought just as the other soldiers, but a priest in whose parish she had lived identified her. Don Carlos removed her to the nurses' quarters, but she begged to be sent back to the ranks. He laughed. "Not to the regiment of men, but when I form a battalion of women you shall be colonel."

In Australia not so many years ago there was a woman who traveled under the alias of Edward de Lacy Evans. For years she was a miner at Bendigo. She is stated to have been married as a man three times. Her true sex was discovered upon her reception into Kew Lunatic Asylum. She eventually recovered her reason and returned to the outer world.

The career of Mary Ann Talbot contains a still further flavor of romance. She was the reputed daughter of the Earl of Talbot, and at 14 years she fell into the hands of a certain Captain Bowen, of the Royal Navy. The captain, being ordered to San Domingo, took her with him, disguised as a page boy. When Captain Bowen was killed in action Mary Ann changed her flag and entered the French Navy. She then entered the American merchant marine. She quickly—of course still in male disguise—became a favorite with the captain of the vessel, and he took her home with him. His niece fell in love with the pretty sailor boy, as she considered him, and proposed marriage herself. The proposal Mary Ann deemed it prudent to accept, and it was arranged that the marriage should be celebrated on the sailor's return from the next voyage. It is hardly necessary to say that this gay deceiver had no intention whatever of going back. Landing in England, Mary Ann was arrested as a deserter from the British Navy, and to escape further service she confessed her sex. The story of her adventures spread abroad and created a considerable sensation at the time. The then Duke of York procured for her a pension and she received numerous and handsome presents from him and others.

It is strikingly noticeable that many of these Amazons were fatally attractive to their own sex. As we have seen, Mary Ann Talbot unwittingly captivated the heart of the American captain's niece, while "Edward de Lacy Evans," who married three wives, must also have been a very pretty fellow.—London Truth.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters —He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

A TORONTO TRAVELLER KILLED.

Run Over by His Waggon on the Road Near Newcastle, Ont.

NEWCASTLE, Ont., Aug. 30.—A fatal accident occurred north of here on the hill going into Orono, in which Jacob D. Spence, 42 Park road, Toronto, traveller for the Bryce Publishing Company, lost his life.

While driving down the hill with his load of eleven trunks, a valise on his seat slipped forward and to save it he made a grasp, but in so doing lost his balance and control of the team and fell among their heels, the waggon passing over his body, breaking his left arm above the elbow and causing internal injuries of a serious nature. Dr. Rutherford of Orono was summoned and, with the assistance of Mr. Hall, conveyed him to the Windsor hotel here.

He was quite sensible along the road till about half a mile from town when he said, "I will never reach Newcastle alive." and gradually sank, and when in front of the hotel, while Doctors Rutherford and Farncombe of Newcastle were using restoratives, he breathed his last.

Deceased was married on August 1 to Miss Reid, daughter of the late John Reid of Orangeville.

FEELING THE GREAT DROUGHT.

The Western Part of the Province Suffers Extremely From Lack of Rain.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—It is over two months since any considerable rain fell in this district. There is hardly a spear of green grass to be seen and a great number of maple trees are turning sere and yellow, as in the late October weather. Live stock of all kinds have gone behind and there will be very little fat cattle this fall.

The greatest injury has been to the cheese trade in this part of Ontario. A great number of the cheese factories in this district have been closed down or are being run on half time, owing to the large shrinkage in the milk supply.

Reports from all sections of this district indicate that an epidemic of brush and grass fires is prevailing out along the concessions. In Moss township a great many fires were under way in the bush and fields, licking up everything before them. About a mile from Hensall serious fires were raging in the weeds and fields there, and the farmers had given themselves up to fighting the flames, and as a result of these surrounding fires the city is enveloped in a dense cloud of smoke, totally obscuring the sun.

On Trial for Shooting a Serenader.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug. 30.—The trial of James McNeil, charged with shooting and killing young McMullen, began before H. J. Palmer, stipendiary magistrate. Three witnesses were examined, and went to show that the deceased and Taylor, who was with him the night of the shooting, had annoyed the prisoner very much. McNeil says he did not mean to kill the deceased, but fired at his legs, and says if he had "only crippled instead of killing him he would be happy, but it's done now and cannot be helped." McNeill is 75 years of age, strongly built and although quite grey does not look old. Court adjourned till to-day when evidence for the defence will be taken. Great interest is manifested in the case.

She is a Public Benefactor.

Once more a woman has covered herself with glory. She has invented a household angel. This one is a regular little loom. It will darn any hole up to two and a half inches one way and five the other. There is a flat wooden piece that is inserted in the stocking under the space needing darning. Then the loom shuts on over it. The holes should be first surrounded as in darning by hand. A needle threaded with the darning cotton or yarn starts at one corner of the space to be attended to and the warp is put on to the little loom with this. There are two sets of teeth, just as in a silk or cotton loom, which are worked by a simple little thumb lever, and the needle thrusts the width of the darn under one set of the threads of the warp. The lever is then threaded down and the alternate set of threads is lifted for the needle to be passed under again. It is done in no time. Anybody can handle it, and, really, it is more fun than knitting, while it is so smooth that the men folks can't object to it with any sense or say darns hurt their feet.—New York World.

Long Chains Popular Again.

The fancy for wearing jewelry is growing apace, and long watch chains are becoming popular again. If the lovely jeweled ones are beyond the limit of price, then the old-fashioned gold ones which have been in oblivion for years may be brought out for duty. It is not at all necessary that there should be a watch at the end of the chain, for the utility element is a minor consideration. A brooch fastens it at the neck, and it may be festooned lower down and lose itself in the trimming of the dress, suggesting a dainty little watch tucked away in the folds.

Plot to Kill the King of Greece.

ROME, Aug. 30.—A journal, Bressia, says that an anarchist plot to kill the king of Greece was revealed recently by an informer of the Milan police. The man designated by the informer was arrested in Milan and was found to be in possession of letters proving that he intended to stab the king.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

How We Forged

Our way to the front, is largely due to close buying, close application, and an appreciative class of customers. Our whole hobby has been to excel in selling Groceries, Provisions, etc., which we know to be the best, the purest, and the cleanest, for the smallest margin of profit. We cannot afford to mistake anything. We never do. If you are so prejudiced that you're willing to go on paying too much, no argument need be wasted, but if you are open to conviction and a fair judge of values, a sample order will prove to you how true our contention is.

We are especially pleased to know that our past six months business has been the most satisfactory, as well as the largest in Peterborough.

OUR SPECIALS for the next week will consist chiefly in Sugars for Preserving, Vinegars and Spices for Pickling, and Teas. Come early—better late than ever—but come, sure.

CRIMES OF ABBE BRUNEAU.

Guilty of Arson, Innumerable Pilferings and Twice a Murderer.

LAVAL, Aug. 30.—The execution of Abbe Bruneau, convicted of murder, robbery and arson, took place this morning. Thousands of people assembled here to witness the execution.

Story of Bruneau's Crimes.

Abbe Bruneau, former vicar of the Church of Entrammes, was convicted at the Mayenne Assize Court at Laval on July 8 last of murder, robbery and arson.

Bruneau was a tall, angular, sallow-complexioned man, about 30 years of age, of sanctimonious mien, who at one time passed as one of the most devout ornaments of the church. He began his career at Vouvre, where, while pursuing his ecclesiastical studies under the tuition of Abbe Beaudon, he was suspected of robbing the latter of 1,400 fr. Subsequently he was turned out of the elementary seminary of Mayenne for robbing his fellow students. He was nevertheless admitted to the higher seminary at Laval, ordained a priest, and appointed vicar of Astille. Although his only source of revenue (his salary) only amounted to 1,200 fr. a year, Bruneau spent money freely. He donned civilian's dress and made frequent nocturnal visits to Laval, where he patronized all the houses of ill-fame.

One night he robbed the cure of Astille of 500 fr., and broke a pane of glass (from the inside, as was afterwards proved) to make believe that the presbytery had been entered by burglars. "Luckily," said the unsuspecting cure to his vicar next morning, "the thieves did not find the bulk of my savings, which is hidden in the drawer of my prayer desk." Six months later burglars, presumably, paid another visit to the presbytery, and this time the contents of the drawer in the prayer desk vanished. On another occasion, while driving with the cure, Bruneau picked his pocket. Yet no one in his parish appears to have suspected the priest, and such was the esteem in which he was held that a nun confided 16,000 fr. to him to be used for charitable purposes.

At Astille he insured his effects for 4,500 francs. A fortnight later a fire broke out at the presbytery, during the absence of the cure, and while it was in progress the latter's drawers were again ransacked. The vicar received the insurance money, and took out another policy for a higher amount. A month later another fire broke out at the presbytery in five different places. This time suspicion was aroused, and somebody, whom there was afterward reason to believe was Bruneau, denounced the unfortunate cure to the ecclesiastical authorities, in consequence of which the cure was disgraced and transferred to another parish, while his rascally vicar was sent to help the Abbe Fricot at Entrammes. He had hardly been installed when the vestry was broken into one day during the absence of the cure and his servant, and a considerable sum stolen. Certain circumstances led the cure to suspect his vicar, and he confided his suspicions to the servant, while begging her to say nothing about it.

On January 2 last Bruneau, who had spent the day at Laval, returned home the worse of liquor at six in the evening. Half an hour later the cure, who had been sitting in the room with him, disappeared. Bruneau had stunned him and thrown him down the well. But the icy water revived the old man, and he hung on to a stone in the well and screamed for help, whereupon Bruneau returned, and, after heaving logs of wood at his victim, held him under the water with a pole till he was dead. Bruneau afterwards sacked the presbytery from top to bottom, but was never suspected of the crime.

On the 6th of the following month it was discovered that a widow named Bourdais, who kept a florist's shop at Laval, had been brutally murdered and the place ransacked. On the previous evening Bruneau, in civilian's dress, had been observed entering the shop. This, added to the fact that he endeavoured to change a forty-franc piece—a coin very rare in France—at the Laval railway station, and that among the property stolen were several forty-franc pieces, led the police to make enquiries, with the result that the whole series of crimes above enumerated were traced to the scandalous priest.

Mr. Dillon's Significant Remarks.

DUBLIN, Aug. 30.—John Dillon, M.P., speaking here, said there would not be the slightest use in re-debating the evicted tenants' bill next session unless the Irish should utilize the interval in such a way as to convince the landlords that their best policy would be to pass the bill. Unless the Government plainly declared its policy in regard to the House of Lords the Irish party would have to reconsider their position.

Domestic Troubles of a Composer.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—Edward Solomon, the composer, formerly the husband of Lillian Russell, was arraigned in the Bow street police court charged with refusing to support his wife, who is acting under the name of Kate Everley, and to whom he was married in 1889. The hearing was adjourned pending proceedings with a view of effecting a legal separation of the contestants.

British Garrison Leaves Cyprus.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—The British garrison has been temporarily withdrawn from the Island of Cyprus. This action has no political significance, nevertheless commercial circles there have been thrown into a panic, and the Christians resident upon the island are also greatly agitated over the report, to which they give credence, that Cyprus is to be restored to Turkey.

Three Lives Lost in a Fire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—In a fire in a tenement house at 226 Rivington street yesterday three men lost their lives and a fourth, a fireman, was fatally injured. A dozen families were driven out panic-stricken and $17,000 damage was done. The house was occupied almost solely by sweat shops.

Anything but a Canadian.

BUFFALO, Aug. 30.—Wm. Joy, a bricklayer from Toronto, Ont., came here three weeks ago and secured employment. As he did not come under contract, Inspector De Barry could do nothing legally, but he hates Canadians so intensely that he sought out the contractor and procured Joy's discharge.

A Colored Cornetist's Sudden Death.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Aug. 30.—George Freeman, of Topeka, Kas., leader of the colored band with Primrose and West minstrels, dropped dead here of heart disease at the head of his musicians while parading in the street. He was the first colored cornetist in the country.

Valuable Racer Dead.

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 30.—Pamlico, one of the greatest race stallions on the Grand Circuit, died suddenly at Charter Oak park yesterday. Pamlico was valued at $30,000.

THE LABOR COMMISSION

Witnesses Testify to the Tampering With Railroad Switches.

HOWARD IS HARD ON PULLMAN

The Vice-President of the A. R. U. Admits Using Some Strong Langu :e—The Commission Adjourns t leet in Washington on the 26th of September.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Charles Stewart Wade, in the legal employ of the Rock Island road, but at the time of the strike a reporter for a Chicago morning newspaper, was the first witness called by the Labor Commission yesterday.

Mr. Wade carefully examined switches which had been tampered with and declared from a previous knowledge of railroading that none but railroad employes could have so manipulated the complicated system, which was an interlocking one. Mr. Wade testified he asked a man, who was inciting a mob to violence, his employment, and was told he was vice-president of the Carpenters' Union. In several instances he saw cars overturned and witnessed acts of violence. The police often stood idly by and watched these things without interfering, showing evident sympathy with the strikers.

During the strike Mr. Wade was made a captain of deputies. As such he and his men made numerous arrests of men engaged in rioting. Some of these he recognized as railroad men. Numerous instances were related of disturbances in which union men were beaten by strikers. On one man a policeman's club and a pair of brass knuckles were found. This man said he kept these "to tackle scabs' heads with."

W. F. Guyon, a reporter for the United Press during the strike, told what he saw of the destruction of railroad property. He did not think railroad employes were engaged in this work. He claimed to have been asked by either Debs or Howard to help them to apprehend rioters. He had often heard the two heads of the A. R. U. counsel against strikes.

Vice-President George W. Howard of the American Railway Union was recalled in rebuttal. In regard to the meeting at Blue Island, at which it was alleged by witnesses that he used abusive language in regard to George M. Pullman and counselled violence, Mr. Howard admitted that he applied an obscene epithet to Mr. Pullman but said it was one in common use among railroad men. He also testified that he said he thought Pullman such a mean man that he ought to be hanged, but he did not mean by this to counsel violence. He simply wanted to show his contempt for the man's methods.

As quoted by himself, Mr. Howard's exact language was "That old —— ought to be hung." He told the crowd on that occasion to beware of railroad sleuths who tried to break up lodges by arraying the Catholics in them against the Protestants and he hoped if anybody caught any of these sleuths at their work they would "Tap them on the head with the round end of a rolling pin." Howard declared the General Managers' Association during the strike sought only to crush the A.R.U.

After listening to several witnesses the commission adjourned to meet in Washington, September 26. It will at that time hear any parties who may desire to be heard relative to the facts involved and it may, after a careful examination of the testimony which has been offered at this hearing, conclude to call further witnesses to supplement any testimony which has been given on either side.

Denied Admittance to the Church.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 31.—Father Gleason, priest of St. Bridget's church, refused a local lodge of Oddfellows admittance to the church in which the funeral rites were being celebrated over the remains of Richard Waltou, a Catholic who by special dispensation had been allowed to join the order. The priest's reasons were that the Oddfellow's order was a secret organization under the ban of the church. On this ground also he refused to permit the floral offering sent by the lodge to repose on the coffin in the sanctuary.

Suicide of a Swindler.

BERGEN, N.Y., Aug. 31.—E. H. Parmelee, who on Thursday was charged with fraudulently transacting pension business, committed suicide yesterday by throwing himself in front of the St. Louis express.

Pickle Committed for Trial.

COLBORNE, Aug. 31.—John Wesley Hyatt, alias Pickle, appeared before Magistrates Hicks and Brintnell here yesterday upon a charge of indecent assault upon a five-year-old child of John Usher, of the Township of Haldimand. Upon evidence being taken the magistrates committed the accused for trial and Constable Smith took the prisoner to Cobourg jail on the evening train.

Hotel Stables Burned.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont. Aug. 31.—A fire broke out last night in the stables of the Dominion Hotel. Some 15 or 20 tons of hay were destroyed and $1,500 or $2,000 damage done to the buildings and utensils. Mrs. Cameron, who resides in and owns the hotel, met with a serious accident during the excitement. In hurrying to give assistance she fell and fractured one of her legs.

Decides Not to be a Martyr.

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—Norman Murray, who refused to pay his fine for disturbing the St. Jean Baptiste procession and who was sent down to jail yesterday afternoon, has been released, having paid his fine.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

The Times Comments on Canada's Action Respecting the Cable.

SAILORS FIRED ON BY NATIVES

A Scouting Party From a Man-of-War Attacked in West Africa — Carnegie Writes on American Labor Conditions—Complaint of Exhibitors at Chicago.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Times this morning says: "The Canadian Government lost no time in giving effect to the resolution of the Ottawa conference as to the Pacific cable. Amongst the estimates submitted is one by Siemens, fixing the capital outlay for the establishment of the line at £2,000,000. This is a practical proposal showing that the question has entered a stage in which the Governments concerned must decide what part they will take. The interests are not wholly financial. The main consideration is rather public utility. The nation laying the first Pacific cable and putting the first good line of steamships on the Pacific may reasonably expect to hold a commanding position on the ocean. In the efforts which the British colonies are making to secure this for Great Britain they simply are obeying the dictates of their own advantage."

Carnegie on American Labor.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Andrew Carnegie has an article in the September Contemporary Review concerning labor in America. He says that a workingman can live for less in America if he choose than in Great Britain provided that he will live as frugally. Consequently Mr. Carnegie thinks the argument that wages must be higher in America is fallacious. A pound judiciously expended in America on the necessaries of life would afford the workingman's family more comforts than the same amount spent here. The American workingman's position was like that of the old Scotchwoman who, when asked if she could live on a certain amount, replied that she could live on half of it "but could spend double."

The Scotch Coal Miners Strike.

GLASGOW, Aug. 31.—The result of a ballot taken among the Scotch coal miners on the questions involved in the present strike was announced yesterday. There were 25,490 miners in favor of the proposal of the Miner's Federation to accept sixpence reduction, with guaranteed wages on that basis for two years, and 20,924 were in favor of insisting upon a shilling advance. The mine owners say the balloting does not by any means put an end to the strike, as it will be impossible for them to guarantee even a minimum rate of wages for two years. The owners assert that this cannot be done, as most of their annual contracts have been cancelled by their customers.

Complaints Against the World's Fair.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In a letter addressed to the Times several men who had exhibits at the Chicago fair complain that the medals and other badges of honor awarded them have not been received and that inquiries after information have been ignored by the British commission. It is reported, they say, that the medals have not been even designated.

British Sailors Attacked by Natives.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—The Admiralty has received a cablegram from Bonny, West Africa, stating that a boat belonging to H. M S. Alecto, containing a scouting party, had been fired upon by natives who attacked the boat from the bank of the Bonny river. One of the scouting party was killed and two were seriously wounded.

COMPTE DE PARIS SINKING.

His Death Expected Any Moment—His Last Political Letter.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—The Agence National, a Royalist concern, says that the Count of Paris is failing steadily and his death may occur at any moment. The newspapers quote much from the Count of Paris' last political letter, which he addressed to Baron Lambert. In view of his approaching death they ascribe exceptional importance to the sentiment expressed in it. Part of the letter is: "France is beginning to yearn for a strong government to end scandals and avert dangers arising from the existing regime. Experience proves that she never will find such a government under the republican form. Still the royalists, while reserving the question of principle, must not allow themselves to be accused of systematic obstruction."

Mgr. Satolli to Return to Rome.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A despatch received here from Rome says that the report that Mgr. Satolli will return to Rome at the end of the year is confirmed. The despatch adds that after the return of the Papal delegate from the United States the Vatican will publish the result of his mission, which will show, as already frequently stated, that the Pope is entirely satisfied with the work of Mgr. Satolli, and that his Holiness considers that the Church questions in the United States are almost settled.

The Dutch Defeat at Lombok.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 31.—It appears that the attack upon the Dutch expedition sent to chastise the Rajah of Lombok was planned by one of the old princes who had been incited to do so by the native chiefs. The Dutch commanders are taking steps to stir up the Sasak chiefs against the Balinese. The latter have been reinforced from the land side of Mataram.

Favor a Permanent Arbitration Treaty.

ANTWERP, Aug. 31.—The International Peace Congress passed resolutions yesterday in favor of a permanent arbitration treaty among the European powers. The congress has adopted a resolution instructing the International Bureau to approach the various European governments with a view of putting a stop to the war between China and Japan.

SAVAGE ORGY OF DEATH

Bad Whiskey Among the Chilcat Indians Causes a Wild Scene.

DRANK, DANCED AND FOUGHT

Six of the Indians Murdered and a Large Number Badly Injured—Liquor Was Smuggled Into Chilcat by Whites in Exchange for Furs.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 31.—The city of Topeka, just arrived from Juneau, gives details of a fierce battle among the Chilcat Indians, which resulted in six men being murdered and a large number wounded.

A few days previous to the fight two Canadian sloops from British Columbia arrived at Chilcat laden with a vile quality of liquor. Large quantities were exchanged for furs, etc. Then began a scene of savage orgy. Immense fires were started and several hundred Indians assembled to drink liquor and dance. Toward morning a quarrel arose over a trivial matter, which resulted in the leader of one faction being stabbed to death.

The Indians then divided into two parties and a battle commenced. The two whiskey smugglers, unobserved, slipped away from the scene. No white people knew the incidents of the battle. Settlers living a few miles distant heard yelling, and, surmising the origin of the trouble, dared not venture to the neighborhood until late in the afternoon of the next day.

They beheld a sickening sight. Dead and wounded Indians were lying around the village. Some were frightfully mutilated and others were suffering agonies from their treatment. A small band of survivors, elated with success and thirst for more blood, had gone down the beach threatening to return and annihilate the white settlers in the vicinity. The white people became alarmed and sent to Juneau for assistance.

Just before the Topeka sailed out of the sound, deputy-collector of customs Slater and a posse had arrived on the steamer Wrestler and started for Chilcat to arrest the smugglers, seize the liquor and quiet the Indians.

A CONSTABLE WITH A RECORD.

York County Constable Thompson Committed for Trial on Three Charges.

County Constable William John Thompson, alias Waters, who was arrested at Peterborough while on his wedding trip, charged with stealing cows, buggies, harness, fowl and other portable articles from York farmers, the Toronto World says, appears to be a man with a record.

At his preliminary hearing yesterday before Squire Paxton, J.P., a large number of people were present, many of whom claim to have been swindled by the man.

He was committed for trial on three charges, viz., stealing a cow in November, 1893, from the stable of Frank Lawrence, lot 15, concession 1, West York, which he sold to Henry Coles, who in turn sold it to Abel Coles, stealing a buggy from John William Snider, lot 21, concession 3, West York, on June 18, 1894; stealing a cow from Fred Piper, Davisville.

He was remanded until Saturday next on the charge of stealing ducks from Mrs. Hanna.

A great deal of sympathy is expressed for the innocent young girl to whom Thompson was married. She was a Miss Brown, and has only been a short time out from England, and has no friends or relatives in this country. The couple were married by the Rev. Mr. Thompson, at the Junction, and they left for Peterborough. Next day Thompson was arrested at Peterborough by County Constable Moynihan, who followed him on his wedding trip.

She is still in Peterborough, Thompson having told her after his arrest that he had to go to Toronto to give evidence on a case. She refuses to believe the reports of her husband's perfidy.

It is now said Thompson has a wife and family in England. He is a man about 45 years of age.

A LEMON PIE SOCIAL.

Epworth League of Charlotte Street Church Hold a Successful Entertainment.

A successful social and entertainment under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Charlotte street Methodist church, was held in the Sunday school room last evening and was in every way a success. There was a good gathering present. The popular pastor of the church, Rev. J. J. Rae, ably filled the place of chairman, and presented the following excellent programme:

Address	Chairman
Selection	Mr. E. Hall
Duet	Messrs. Steers and Squires
Vocal Solo	Mr. S. Corbin
Instrumental duet	Messrs. Roadhouse and Corbin
Vocal Solo	Mr. W. Squires
Recitation	Rev. Mr. Rae
Vocal solo	Mr. J. Steers
Instrumental Solo	Mr. Smith

During the evening the ladies of the League provided excellent refreshments in the shape of lemonade, cake and lemon pie, which was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Charlotte street Epworth League are to be congratulated upon the successful and enjoyable entertainment provided last evening.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case. my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

THE AMERICAN REVISED TARIFF.

How it Affects Canada Beneficially—McKinleyism Killed.

BUFFALO, August 29.—Dealers here "canned" the new tariff bill yesterday, and said that it would let in Canadian truck and would ruin many farmers hereabouts. They all agreed the cost of eggs, apples and potatoes would be less. "The new tariff opens up the importation of eggs, apples and potatoes and other stuff from Canada," said Mr. C. L. Potter, of the firm of Potter & Williams. "As it is now, very little produce is brought over from Canada. We expect to see the markets glutted with Canadian produce. Eggs, apples and potatoes will be cheaper, but the American farmers will be the sufferers. They can't compete with the Canadian farmers."

But there will be a more direct benefit as well. Many articles that Canada produces will be admitted free to the American market hereafter, or at a less duty than now imposed.

For instance, forest products are now free, and coal is admitted at 40c. a ton, as against 75c. before the change. Of the former Canada last year sent nearly $14,000,000 worth to the States and of the latter over $2,750,000.

THESE AFFECT CANADA.

Other important items in the tariff law as they affect Canada may be thus summarised:

Plain brick and tile are to be taxed 25 per cent. hereafter, cement at 8c. per 100 lbs., lime 5c. per 100 lbs., plaster of Paris $1 per ton, iron ore 40c. per ton, lead ore 1c. lb., mica 20 per cent., casks and barrels 20 per cent., live animals 20 per cent. (breeding animals free), barley 30 per cent. butter and cheese 4c. per lb., beans 20 per cent., eggs 3c. cents per dozen, hay $2 per ton, honey 10c. per gallon, hops 8c. per lb., onions, 20c. per bush., potatoes 15c. per bush., green apples 20 per cent., meats 20 per cent., poultry 2c. per lb., tanned leather 10 per cent.

ITEMS ON THE FREE LIST.

Cider, copper ore, raw hides, ice, fresh milk, gold, silver and nickle ore and nickle matte, nursery stock, wool.

A NEW ENGLAND VIEW.

BOSTON, Aug 29.—McKinleyism died last night and a new day with new conditions, commercially, has dawned for the United States and Canada. That trade between this section of the country and the Canadian Dominion will be increased enormously is conceded by every student of the new tariff. Fish and lumber will feel the effects of the changes most, and the advantage in both lines is on the side of Canada. The consensus of opinion among commission merchants here is that all wood manufacturers in Canada will be greatly benefitted by the new tariff. Potatoes will come here in larger quantities than ever, and with the duty off lobsters that Canadian industry will be greatly improved.

ADVANTAGE TO LUMBERMEN.

Barclay, Clements & Co. do a large commission business with Canada. Mr. Barclay thinks that the new tariff will be a benefit both to New England and to the Dominion, and may in time lead to reciprosity.

Unnecessary.

A certain good looking but cranky sort of a fellow in an office where there are a great many visitors to take in the curiosities and see the wheels go round, was bothered by questioners, and as a gentle hint he labeled the things about him, for instance, "This is a chair," "This is a paste pot," "This is a pair of scissors," "This is a desk," and so on until every article was its own catalogue. Then about his neck he hung a placard bearing the words, "This is a man, a plain man," as if to emphasize people away from him. The plan worked nicely, and as curious visitors would pass his place, they would read a sign or two, laugh appreciatively, and say nothing. One day, though, he was knocked out and all of his labels were taken down. A verdant couple from the extremely rural districts were doing the sights as usual, and when they came to him the woman was very much interested, and went along reading each sign, and trying to see where the curiosity was. He paid not the slightest attention, and when she came to him she read the card attached, and then took a good long look at him.

"Well," she said to her escort as she moved away, "I guess it wan't hardly necessary fer him to put a sign on himself sayin' that he was a plain man; anybody could see that by jest lookin' at him."

If you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus, and kindred weaknesses. As a nervine it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is now well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of curing in every case, or money paid for it returned.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

Mr. Angers Chances for a Supreme Court Judgeship—Boring for Petroleum.

OTTAWA, Aug. 31.—The Journal says: "Justice Fournier, of the Supreme Court, who is at his summer residence at Berthier, Que., is far from well, but whether or not he will resign to make room for Mr. Angers is another thing. Those who pretend to know, says he will not. Mr. George Duval, clerk of the Supreme Court, who is now on his holidays, is on a visit to Justice Fournier. This has given rise to the story that Mr. Duval has been commissioned by the Dominion Government to interview Judge Fournier in the matter. There is nothing particular in Mr. Duval's visit to Justice Fournier as they have been warm personal friends for many years before either of them were connected with the Supreme Court. In the event of Fournier's not making way for Mr. Angers it is said that Sir L. N. Casanit of the Superior Court of Quebec will likely do so.

Dr. A. R. C. Selwyn, director of the Geological Survey, who has returned from his trip to Athabasca Landing, N.W.T., where he went as the representative of the Dominion Government to superintend the beginning of a boring for petroleum, says that boring is located about 70 miles north of Edmonton. When he had left 60 feet had been bored and prospects for oil were very good, although it was expected that over 1,000 feet of boring would be required. The Dominion Government is paying $7,000 for boring the well. Dr. Selwyn brought home with him samples of the Ladoga wheat that has been distributed so extensively to the Northwest from the experimental farm. The samples of wheat he brought were cut at Sturgeon river, north of Edmonton, Alberta, on the 16th of August, the most northern wheat-growing district in Canada.

FARM AND HOME STATISTICS.

Result of the Investigation in the U. S. Made Known in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The census office have made public the principal results of the investigation of farm and home proprietorship which was made in all of the states and territories.

This is the first investigation of the kind ever conducted for this or any other country. Of the 12,090,152 families in the whole country, 46.80 per cent. own their farms and homes, and 52.20 per cent. hire, and of the families owning their farms and homes, 27.97 per cent. have incumbrances thereon, and 72.03 per cent. no incumbrances. Among 100 families on the average, 52 hire their farms and homes, 25 own free of incumbrance and 13 own subject to incumbrance.

The number of resident owners of land in the United States is 6,066,461 plus such a number of land owners as may be living in tenant families. The farm families number 4,767,179 of which 65.92 per cent. own their own farms and 34.8 per cent. hire, while of the owning families 28.23 per cent. have incumberances upon their farms and 71.78 per cent. have none. Among 100 farm families, on the average 34 hire their farms, 47 own free of incumbrance and 19 own subject to incumbrance.

The result for 7,992,973 home families are that 36.96 per cent. own their own homes and 63.10 per cent. hire them; while of the owning families 27.76 per cent. own their homes subject to incumbrance and 72.30 per cent. free. One hundred home families on the average contain 63 that hire their homes, 27 that own free of incumbrance, and 10 that own subject to incumberance.

Jacob D. Spence's Heroism.

TORONTO, Aug. 31.—Jacob D. Spence, whose untimely death occurred near Newcastle on Wednesday, took an active part in the Northwest rebellion. He was in No. 1 Company of the Queen's Own Rifles, under command of the late Capt. Brown, and was one of the heroes of the fierce battle at Cut Knife Creek. During that engagement he fought very bravely, and and at great personal risk rescued a wounded comrade from in front of the enemy's lines. On his return to Toronto the Oddfellows, of which he was a member, presented him with an address, commending him for his bravery during the rebellion.

Hood's Cured After Others Failed

Scrofula in the Neck—Bunches All Gone Now.

Sangerville, Maine.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I feel that I cannot say enough in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. For five years I have been troubled with scrofula in my neck and throat. Several kinds of medicines which I tried did not do me any good, and when I commenced to take Hood's Sarsaparilla there were large bunches on my neck so sore that I could not bear the slightest touch. When I had taken one bottle of this medicine, the soreness had gone, and before I had finished the second the bunches had entirely disappeared." BLANCHE ATWOOD, Sangerville, Maine.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

ALARM IN TIEN-TSIN.

Foreign Inhabitants Fear Trouble and Ask Their Governments for Protection.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A despatch from Shanghai says that notwithstanding the Imperial warnings against assaults upon foreigners an uneasy feeling is growing at Tien-Tsin owing to the fact that numbers of young and undisciplined recruits are arriving there. The foreign residents are arming and combining for mutual defence. In response to their invitations, France, Germany, Great Britain, Russia and the United States are each sending a warship to Tien-Tsin.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Regarding the China-Japan trouble Naoeyman Rashiguchi, the Japanese consul said to-day: "We are becoming very anxious over the situation as we know from the movements of the troops and squadron during the last month that an important battle has probably been fought by this time."

Relative to the despatch that Japan had bought 200,000 needle guns in Vienna, the Consul said he thought the story had little or no foundation. Of the war despatches from Shanghai he said that little reliance could be put upon them.

SUBMITTING TO THE INEVITABLE.

Hawaiian Natives Gradually Recognizing the New Order of Things.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—The steamer Mariposa has arrived bringing the following letter from the United Press correspondent at Honolulu, dated August 28.

"This harbor is without a warship for the first time in nineteen months. This has not caused the least uneasiness or apprehension of disorder. A difficulty created recently by a refusal to take the required oath by most of the native jurymen was soon removed by large numbers of competent natives volunteering to serve in their places. Registration is actively progressing at all election districts except in Honolulu. Large numbers of natives are taking the oath throughout the islands."

Romance in Diplomatic Circles.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—A romance involving the present American charge d'affairs at Pekin at likely to culminate in the United States having a new Minister to China. When ex-Secretary of State Foster and his wife made a tour around the world they were accompanied by Martha Orr, of Evansville, who has for some time been engaged to Charles Denby, jun., who has been secretary of the legation ever since his father became American Minister nine years ago. Mr. Denby was surprised at seeing Miss Orr, as he did not know she was within 8,000 miles of the oriental capital. Mr. Denby is ambitious to succed his father, who is anxious to retire shortly. The young man is proficient in the Chinese languages, both of the court and of the people, and is exceedingly popular at the palace and in official circles. Mrs. Cleveland has enlisted her sympathies with the project to make Miss Orr the wife of the Minister to China, and it is likely this consummation will be reached.

Paid Well for His Match.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 31.—Louis Potter, a rich old banker of Bowling Green, has just secured a wife at an outlay of $10,000 to the friend who arranged the match and a suitable settlement on the bride. Mr. Potter is 84 years old and is a great-grandfather. He was one of the pioneers of Warren county and during his long life had amassed a fortune. About twelve years ago he celebrated his golden wedding and his wife lived until two years ago. He has provided well for his children, having started them in life with a small fortune each. A few days ago he disposed of his remaining estate by deeding it to his heirs, and entered into a marriage contract with Mrs Mary S. McLellan, 50 years old, whom he married last night.

Customs Receipts at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The result of the heavy withdrawals of goods from United States custom houses is shown in the increased receipts from customs duties received at the Treasury, they amounting yesterday to $1,413,000, double the receipts of Wednesday. Internal revenue receipts for the fiscal year to date have reached $54,000,000, against $26,000,000 for the corresponding period last year. The Treasury statement for August will make the most favorable showing for many months. The receipts will probably be more than $10,000,000 in excess of expenditures.

Another Mafia Outrage.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J., Aug. 31.—Anadilo Spine, an Italian, was lodged in jail last evening charged with the murder of Anothony Prisco, an Italian padrone, and a member of Tammany Hall, who was found dead on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad near Franklin Park, on the morning of April 26 last. There is evidence that Prisco was the victim of the Mafia.

Governor of a State on Trial.

DENVER, Aug. 31.—The novel spectacle of the governor of the State on trial for conspiracy brought a large crowd to the federal building yesterday. The governor conducted his own case and had several tilts with the district attorney. The court took recess until this morning.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, billousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism.

Herbert Will Not be Recalled.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 31.—It is stated authoritatively that the War Office will not call upon Major-General Herbert to vacate the command of the Canadian militia, nor will he forfeit the right to the command of the battalion of the Grenadier Guards by remaining in Ottawa. The report recently published, while justified by the facts of the case at that period, does not hold good now, in view of the determination on the part of the authorities herewith given.

Pleuro-Pneumonia in Nova Scotia.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 31.—The report which has reached here of an attack of pleuro-pneumonia in the herds on the model farm at Nappan, near Amherst, N.S., is creating acrid comment on this side of the water against the Canadian government, owing mainly to the repeated protests of the latter that the disease did not exist in Canadian cattle in any portion of the Dominion.

Richelieu Navigation Co's. Earnings.

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—The gross earnings of the Richelieu Navigation Company from the opening of navigation to August 25 were $462,270.68, against $365,094.51 for the same period of last year, a surplus of $97,176.17 for this year. The net earnings for July, after deducting all expenses were $30,929.33. Up to August 24, the steamer Quebec topped the list with earnings of $73,031.31, against $55,369.73 for the same time last year. No less than $31,973.54 were received from pilgrimage excursions.

Crusade Against Gambling.

MONTREAL, Aug. 31.—The Quebec government intends to commence an active crusade against gambling in Montreal which has lately been on the increase and has become a public nuisance. Instructions have been issued to the provincial police to take prompt action against the gamblers.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, August 31, 1894.

Brantford cheese market reported 12 factories boarded 1,710 boxes of August cheese. Sales, 755 boxes at 10 7-16c and 625 boxes at 10 1 2c. Next market September 13.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 565. Market active and strong. Southwestern mixed, $2.15; natives, $2 to $2.60; lambs, $2.85 to $3.50.

At East Liberty, Pa., the sheep supply was fair. Extras, $3.20 to $3.50; good, $2.80 to $2.60; yearlings, $1.50 to $3.20; lambs, $3 to $3.80; veal calves, $5 to $5.50.

Wheat was dull and featureless in Chicago, but scored an advance of 1-8 to 5-8c. Corn advanced 1-4 to 1-2c on reports of further damage to the crops. Oats were firm and 1-2c higher.

There were about 500 head of butchers' cattle, 150 calves, 1,200 mutton critters, 60 store hogs and 40 young pigs offered at the east end abattoir, Montreal. The butchers were out in considerable numbers, but sales were slow and prices very unsatisfactory to the drovers and still tending downwards. The best butchers' cattle sold at about 3½c per pound. Calves were more plentiful and slightly lower in price, ranging from $2.50 to $9 each.

The United States agricultural department has issued a bulletin advising the farmers to use wheat for feed. It points out that both being about the same price wheat for feed is preferable, because it is 7 per cent. heavier than corn, is equally good for fattening and is better for growing animals.

The London stock markets were active. Americans opened dull but closed strong at the best, Louisville leading. The feature was a further big rise in Brazils. It is believed that cheap money will continue for a long period.

Foreign buying on a very considerable scale governed the New York stock market. Over night the local speculators seemed to have convinced themselves that all the stock markets actual support was gone, and at the start in the morning there was a vigorous concerted attack on prices.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Friday, Aug. 31. — At this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer again indicated 48 degrees above zero, although only a slight shower during the night. As the temperature has changed we will be more subject to rain.—THOMAS TELFORD.

INDIGESTION.

Madill's Dyspepsia Powders will give sure and quick relief for Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any of its forms.

Change of Business.

Messrs. M. A. and E. H. Turner have bought out the Peterborough Music Co., 404 George street, and intend carrying on the same business on a larger scale. In addition to dealing in the best grade of pianos, organs, and musical goods of all kinds, they will keep a full supply of stationery, school books, fancy goods, etc., which they offer on the most advantageous terms. The new firm also retain the sole agency for the Raymond Sewing Machine. 2d

A Slight Break Discovered.

The water has again been turned off the Rogers' raceway, a slight leakage having been discovered near the bulkhead of the new flumes. It appears that after the water had been turned on, it had worked its way through the small embankment at the head of the flume floor. If the water had been in the flume at the time, the weight would have held the flooring down. The water will not be turned into the raceway until the beginning of next week.

A Drum Corps to be Formed.

A number of young men in town, principally members of the 57th Batt. bugle and drum band, have organized a drum corps under the direction of Mr. Robert Beech, the clever drummer of the 57th Battalion Band. The young gentlemen composing this corps have decided to purchase a number of first-class drums, and have opened up a subscription list, and intend making a canvas of the town. It is to be hoped that the young men will receive all possible encouragement from the public, as it is the intention of the corps to practice steadily during the fall and winter months, and it is expected that next year Peterborough will possess one of the finest drum corps in the province. Give the boys the necessary support.

A New Business Departure.

As announced in another column, Mr. M. T. Ostrom, wholesale fruit dealer, has disposed of his business to a new firm,—M. T. Ostrom & Co. The key note of the new firm is cash. On and after Sept. 1st the new firm will do business on a strictly-for-cash basis, which will be of direct advantage to customers. The company buys direct from the fruit growers of the Niagara and other districts, and their agents there do the packing. This arrangement gives a double advantage. Fruit is bought at the lowest possible cash figure and is carefully packed, promptly shipped and delivered in first class order. The best of fruits at the lowest prices is the outcome of the cash system. Orders by telephone promptly filled and collections made on delivery of goods.

Chances for Scholars To-morrow.

Boys and girls, remember that on Saturday we promise to give the first 100 of our country customers buying one dollar's worth of school books or school supplies, a present of a nice, easy-writing fountain pen. As this is all we have left of these pens, we will give the first 100 of our town customers buying one dollar's worth or upwards of school supplies a present of a handy, free-working automatic pencil. Scholars, say it quick! They all say that we have the largest and most attractive selection of scribblers, and the finest exercise books with the best and most paper in them. They take the palm. We have everything required for school, no delays in ordering. A. H. STRATTON & Co., Peterborough Bookstore.

A Child's Narrow Escape.

Last Saturday evening, the Norwood Register says, the year-and-a-half-old daughter of James Gardner of the 9th line, Dummer, had a very narrow escape from being drowned. The little one was playing around the pump when a portion of the covering of the well gave way and the child went down with it into the well. Fortunately at a distance of about twelve feet, and before the water was reached, the boards stuck between the pump log and the curbing, and standing upon this with a hand uplifted waiting for assistance the child was discovered by the mother a moment or two after the accident. As no other person was at home at the time the mother ran over to Mr. Sedgwick's, procured assistance, and the little one was soon rescued from its perilous position.

—City Lodge, No. 404, L. O. G. T., met last night in regular session. There was one candidate initiated and several proposed. Next Thursday evening, a debate will take place, the subject of which is, "Resolved that country life is preferable to town life." It is the intention of the City Lodge to give a series of literary and musical entertainments during the coming winter.

—We regret to learn, says the Register, that Rev. Father Conway, pastor of St. Paul's church, Norwood, met with a mishap a few days ago which has caused him considerable suffering and a great deal of trouble. It seems that while out driving he was stung on the ball of the eye by a small insect. He consulted a local physician and also a Peterborough medical man who advised him to consult a specialist in Toronto. He left for the city last week. We have not yet learned the result, but hope that the occurrence will not result in any serious injury to the optic.

Close at Hand

Is the day when the Trades and Labour organisations of Peterborough will celebrate their first statutory holiday—Monday next. A consultation of the large posters and programmes will reveal the fact that for the afternoon the committee place before the public the best programme of horse races, athletic sports and special features of the season, while in the evening the band will render a programme of choicest music in the skating rink and at which our well known favourites, Simons and Connors, assisted by Harry LaBelle, will give pleasure seekers a luxury in the shape of a characteristic and side-splitting pantomime, consisting of clown tambling, dancing and other mirth-provoking features too numerous to mention. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., has kindly consented to present the prizes at the skating rink.

LACROSSE.

The judicial committee of the C.L.A. met Wednesday in the Rossin House and awarded Peterborough the championship of the Northern District. Peterborough and Orillia are pitted against each other, for the semi-final, first playing at Orillia on September 5th, and at Peterborough on September 12th. Now comes the tug of war. It behooves the members of the Peterborough team to turn out to practice night and morning in order to win the two games from Orillia. If the boys wish to win let them turn out every morning and put in an hours' practice on the P.A.A.A. grounds, both in running and stick handling. The old Peterborough's carried out this practice in years gone by, and were afterwards victorious on the field. Start this evening with steady combined practice, and keep it up until the contest and victories are assured. It is requested also that as many as possible turn out on Monday morning (Labour Day) for a few hours practice.

OBJECTED TO THE FLAG.

The Carrying of the Union Jack by Toronto Pythians Excites Comment.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—In the Knights of Pythias parade on Tuesday the Toronto division of the uniform rank carried a British flag, and this has been one of the principal topics of comment among the Pythians from this side of the line. Major-General Carnahan, commander-in-chief of the uniform rank is a staunch supporter of the action of the Canadians. He says there is not a division in the order more loyal to its interests or which takes a more active part in its affairs.

This is the fourth consecutive encampment which this particular Toronto division has attended. General Carnahan says it was perfectly proper for them to carry the Union Jack, and he holds it would have been just as proper for the Canadians to have objected when at the encampment in Toronto in 1886 all the divisions carried the Stars and Stripes.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

What Customers Say of Hop Tea

SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1894.

MESSRS. MASON & Co.

We like your Hop Tea very much better than any other Tea we ever used before and find it much cheaper than the 40 cent Black Tea, as I use only a little over half the usual quantity.

Will you please send before dinner 5 pounds of the same Tea for which I have enclosed $2.50. I think that is the price you told me it would be by taking five pounds.

THE BLYTHE FLOURING MILLS.

In Running Order Again Under the Management of Mr. W. H. Meldrum —First Class Mills in Every Respect —Present Orders One Month in Excess of Output—A Description of the Mills.

Yesterday afternoon an EXAMINER reporter visited the large flour mills of Mr. W. H. Meldrum and was kindly shown through them by the genial and energetic proprietor. A reversible elevator running from the top to the bottom of the mill was taken and a visit made to the top floor. Here is situated four scalpers taking the break stock from the break rolls and separating the middlings out of the stock flour. There are also eleven flour dressers, one wheat screen and magnetic separator, and heads of all elevators and shafts driving them on this floor.

On the second top floor, known as the dresser floor, is situated ten flour dressers and the different wheat bins start from this floor also. One wheat bin feeds a separator and cleaning machinery, the other being for clean wheat and feeds the rolls. Both bins runs through three floors.

On the third were noticed four Girard air belt purifiers, four Whitmore air belt purifiers, two bran and two short dusters, two mill exhausts and four cyclone dust collectors for collecting dust from wheat cleaning machinery. This is called the purifier floor.

On the fourth floor may be seen ten double set 9x30 Gresey rolls, one large warehouse separator, three of Howe's horizontal scourers for cleaning wheat. Here may also be found the call bells and whistling tubes which extend all over the premises. The wheel house is also on the same floor. The basement of the mills has a cement floor. The shafting from the water wheel transmitting power is carried by a fourteen inch double belt to the machinery on the upper floors. This together with spouting from rolls, feet of elevators and cockle machine with shafting, belts and pulleys transmitting power to the different machines through the mill, takes up this floor.

A fire proof door leads from flour mill into elevator, where is noticed five cylinder cockle machines for cleaning wheat in connection with the cleaning machinery upstairs. The power for the elevator and chopper is furnished from a 40 inch turbine wheel in the rear of the mill. The power is also taken from this for switching cars to back of mill; the contrivance for this work is similar to a gigger in a saw mill, and can carry cars both ways. There is a switch and two double tracks in the rear of the mill. The grain is here unloaded from the car by means of a power shovel. Guerney's car scales are used for weighing cars, which are run on to a track scale, and if tare is properly marked on car, the weight and quantity of grain can be told by means of this track scale. The grain elevator takes the wheat from the car, after being unloaded, up through the different floors, to the top of the elevator, where the 20 elevator bins are situated. The packing is also done on this floor, and a space is here partitioned off for the mill offices.

The flour store house was next visited, on the street floor, in dimensions 50x200. The barrels come direct from packers to the car, where they are loaded. The dynamo for furnishing light for both flour and woollen mills, is situated in this department, the power being furnished by a 40-inch turbine water wheel.

In the second floor above the packing floor is what is known as the packing house, where is situated two packers. Six bins run from the top floor down through to a large flour storing room. The different flats in this building are the basement, street floor and attic. The elevator, flour mill and packing house is also separated by a fire proof door.

A visit was also made the elevator used for loading feed in bulk on cars, situated on the top floor of packing house. Grain is fed in at the bottom, carried up to the top and thrown with force into the car, carrying it out to both ends without shovelling. In the attic of the elevator the wheat is then discharged into several bins.

On the street floor of elevator the grain is taken from farmers' wagons to the weigh hopper. It is also the intention of Mr. Meldrum to put in a generator, transmitting thirty-horse power, from the mill to his storehouse on Simcoe street, where a motor will be placed for the purpose of running elevator and chopper. Mr. Meldrum expects to do the bulk of his farmer's trade in the line of oats, peas and other coarse grains, at the store house.

The machinery of the mill is all of a modern pattern, and runs with but very little noise and jarring. The mill under Mr. Meldrum's management started operations on Aug. 22nd, and at the present time the capacity is 200 barrels a day. A number of machines have not been connected as yet, but when business calls for it, these will be added, increasing, if necessary the capacity to 300 barrels. The mill is running night and day at present filling the orders, which are one month in excess of the output. It will take fully one month to fill orders in hand. Mr. Meldrum has a good staff of men employed in the mill, and two delivery wagons are kept busy supplying the local orders.

Under Mr. Meldrum's management the Blythe Mills give promise of not only being one of the finest mills in the province, but of turning out first-class flour, and of winning a name on the markets.

Don't buy a blood-purifier because it is "cheap." The best—the Superior Medicine—Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is, in the end, the cheapest blood-purifier on the market. The ingredients of which it is composed are the most expensive and medicinally efficacious that can be obtained.

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

CAVAN.

The Late Mrs. Andrew Meharry.

On Thursday, August 30th, Mrs. Andrew Meharry, an old and highly respected resident of Cavan, passed away to her rest at the advanced age of 85 years. The death took place on the old homestead, where Mrs. Meharry spent the last 40 years of her life. The deceased lady was a native of County Cavan, Ireland, and came to Canada about forty years ago. About eleven years ago her husband, Mr. Andrew Meharry, died. Mrs. Meharry was a member of the Methodist church and was very highly respected in the neighbourhood where she passed so many years of her life. The infirmities of old age rather than any defined disease was the cause of her demise. She leaves behind her six daughters and two sons, one of the former having died some time ago. The surviving daughters are Mrs. Isabel a Hooten, Cavan; Mrs. Jane Russell, Millbrook; Miss Margaret Meharry, Muskoka; and Misses Mary and Eliza Meharry, residing on the old homstead. The sons are Mr. Robert Meharry, town, and Mr. Henry Meharry, Auburn. The funeral takes place from the late residence, lot 21, con. 13, Cavan, on Sunday, Sept. 2nd, at one o'clock, the interment taking place in the cemetery on the ninth line of Cavan.

HEALTHY EXERCISE—fresh air and proper food, help to keep a woman in good condition. It's insufficient for some, weakened or borne down as they are by the ailments and irregularities peculiar to their sex.

They're easily helped, though; there's a remedy in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—that will build up and cure every enfeebled woman. It's the prescription of a physician; has been tested in thousands of cases, and never found wanting.

The only risk that's taken is that of the manufacturers who promise to refund the money if no benefit is experienced.

This "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble. Dizziness, fainting spells, and nervous disorders, such as sleeplessness, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, depend upon the irregularities and displacements of the special structures, the "Prescription" cures by regulating and correcting these functions and organic changes.

Milking Cows in France.

As has been said many times before, the operation of milking is one which cannot be too carefully or too cleanly performed. No violence should be offered to the cattle nor rough treatment shown them. Serenity in the animals is indispensable if they are to be satisfactorily milked, and the person selected for the duty should be mild and good tempered. The cow caressed and kindly handled will freely give up her milk. Extreme cleanliness is also requisite for the best results. The cowman should wear cap or other covering to prevent hairs falling into the milk. Milk is a very unstaple liquid; even slight impurities tend to bring about change or to impair its savor. The cowman or milkmaid should carefully wash not only their hands, but also the cow's udder with a sponge and water, tepid in winter, cool, but not cold in summer, and then wipe it with a clean cloth. The milk pail, it need scarcely be added, should be perfectly clean.

The milking should continue until the last drop is drawn from the udder, not only because the portion drawn last is the richest, but because the secretion of milk is promoted by this exhaustion. It is well also to let the first few jets of milk fall upon the ground, as this portion is apt to be bitter and to contain a large proportion of microbes. There are persons observant enough to note the difference in the milk from different teats, and when the milk drawn from a particular teat is of inferior quality, to keep it separate from that drawn from the others This precaution would certainly prove useful in dairies where high class cheeses are made. In the Allgan, in Bavaria, the milker tastes the milk from each teat when he begins milking.

Sometimes a cow will not let herself be milked. The udder should, in such a case, be carefully examined to see whether there is any soreness, which should be looked to at once. The general practice is to milk twice a day. Experience, however, tends to show that three milkings per diem result in a considerably superior yield of milk. In a trial made with one cow during eleven days, it was found that in that period the animal gave twenty-two litres in excess of her usual yield, when milked only twice a day. Moreover, the milk obtained at three daily milkings proved, on analysis, to be nearly one per cent richer in butter. It may be added that the observations of Struckmann, Boedecker and Wicke show that the evening's milk is richer than the morning's, and the latter richer than that obtained in the middle of the day. Greater frequency would not be advantageous, apart from the consideration that the increased expense would not be covered by the result. The digestive and secretive functions of ruminants would be interfered with by such frequency of milking. In effect, the milk secreted during the calm of the night is usually more copious than that elaborated during the day time.—L'Industrie Laitiere, France.

To Make Good Pork Cheaply.

One of the good uses of clover is to make a pasture for pigs by which the cheapest meat may be made and of the best quality. This will also improve the land at the same time. Turn the pigs in such a pasture, but divide it so that a part only may be fed down at one time and a change made, which will afford fresh feed, and economize the feeding and make it go a fourth further at least. In this pasture give the skimmed milk and stir it in half a pound of bran for each pig daily. Add a tablespoonful of salt for each pig in this feed. Continue this until the corn is about ready for cutting; then gather the soft ears and feed these to the pigs. The only food that will count as cost will be the clover and the bran, and the clover will be fully paid for by the manure, as the land will be much enriched by the milk and the bran. Pork may be made in this way for under two cents a pound, not counting the benefit of the land.—Rural World.

The Maister and the Bairns.

[Those not familiar with the Doric will lose the great beauty of this rendering of one of the Gospel episodes.]

The Maister sat in a wee cot hoose
Tae the Jordan's waters near,
An' the fisher fowk crushed and crooded roon'
The Maister's words tae hear.

An' even the bairns frae the near-hame' street
War mixin' in wi' the throng,
Laddies and lassies wi' wee bare feet
Jinkin' the crood amang.

An' ane o' the Twal, at the Maister's side,
Rase up an' cried aloud—
"Come, come, bairns, this is nae place for you,
Rin awa' hame oot the crood."

But the Maister said, as they turned awa',
"Let the wee bairns come tae Me!"
An' He gaithered them roon' Him whar He sat,
An' liftit ane up on His knee.

Ay, He gaithered them roon' Him whar He sat
An' straikit their curly hair,
An' He said tae the won'drin' fisher fowk
That croodit aroon' Him there—

"Ken' nane the weans awa' frae Me,
But raither this lesson learn—
That nane'll win in at heaven's yett
That isna as pure as a bairn!"

An' He that wisna oor kith and kin,
But a Prince o' the Far Awa',
Gaithered the wee anes in His airms,
An' blessed them ane an' a'.

. . . . . .

O Thou Who watchest the ways o' man,
Keep our feet in the heavenly airt,
An' bring us at last tae Thy home abune
As pure as the bairns in be't.

WILLIAM THOMSON.

The Planet Mars.

According to the latest reports from London there is something going on in Mars just now which greatly excites astronomers. So far as laymen may penetrate these mysteries, it seems that some shining specks, quite unlike anything ever seen before, have been discovered, and that the stars are exceptionally favorable to the hypothesis that Marsians are trying to signal to us. The only other conceivable theories are that these specks are the effects of an aurora, or of forest fires on a gigantic scale, but scientists appear actually to regard these as less probable than the first explanation. The mere suggestion of such a thing sends a thrill of fascinated expectancy through the whole academic system of Europe, and men of weight are already reviving the old schemes and propounding new ones by which an effort at sending back an answering signal through space may be made.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 300 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly In Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

Arrangements can be made for reduced rates for excursion parties of 25 to 30 by regular trips. For large excursions, the barge "Chemong" can be engaged.

From Chemong to Bobcaygeon is one of the most charming trips in the country, passing through Chemong and Pigeon Lakes, by the Indian Village and Oak Orchard, and winding among the islands and bays of the Narrows.

A new hotel has recently been erected at Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, in one of the most beautiful spots on our back waters in the midst of the finest fishing grounds; the steamer passing four times each day gives tourists an excellent opportunity to visit Peterborough and Bobcaygeon.

Family tickets and season books, for steamer only, can be procured from the Captain on board, at A. P. Bottom's hardware store, Bobcaygeon, or of the G.T.R. Agent, Peterborough, and at the Peterborough Book store.

ICE SKATING IN SUMMER.

The San Francisco Ice is Real, and So Is the Fun.

Skating on real ice in summer attire, says the San Francisco Call, is rapidly becoming one of the most popular indoor amusements in San Francisco. To native sons and daughters who have never experienced the rigors of an Eastern winter, it is a thrilling novelty. To those who have enjoyed the exhilarating sport in the land of Blizzards and frosts, it is made more enjoyable by the fact that winter dress is unnecessary.

There are only a few of the reasons why the frozen lake in the big Mechanics' Pavilion with nearly 10,000 square feet of polished surface, is visited daily by hundreds who can skate and many who are speedily learning. The sheet of ice is five inches in thickness, 160 feet long, and sixty feet wide. At least 500 persons can skate with comfort at a time, but it was a trifle crowded on the opening night, for no less than 811 glided or struggled over the slippery surface, according to the respective skill of the skate wearers.

"This idea of a big skating rink with natural ice," said W. W. Donaldson, "is not exactly a new one in this country. Right here in this city it has been tried three times, but each attempt failed because the organizers did not master the intricate mechanical appliances. This is the first natural ice skating rink operated in the United States, and the fourth in the world. There is one in Paris, another in Berlin, and a third in Southampton, England.

"How is this natural ice produced? There is no secret about it. The ice is produced by a machine of the ordinary type employed in cold storage work. The difference here is in the manner of freezing. In cold storage it is done in tanks and insulated rooms. Here the ice is frozen three times a day, and the refrigerament used is anhydrous ammonia. This is employed to cool the strong brine. After the bring is cooled it is pumped through a system of pipes 40,000 feet in length, which run through the water that is turned into ice. The cold brine absorbs the heat. The floor beneath is insulated and made up of dead air cells and covered with lead to make it watertight.

"In the placing of the pipes lies the principal secret. The pipes run in three centres from a header at each end of the tank. These headers are six inches in diameter, and the pipe is taken out of each header at six-inch centres. This admits of circulating the brine from both ends at the same time. The return is also taken from both ends and carried back to the brine tank. By this means we have a cooling surface exposed to the outside air. In this way we outwit nature, and our ice surface has an even temperature all over. Through inch pipes leading from the headers the brine is kept in constant motion.

"Of course, after being used several hours the surface of the ice becomes cut up and somewhat rough. That is why we have three sessions daily—morning, noon and night. During the intervals the snow is swept off the ice, and with a hose or orchard sprayer a thin coating of water is spread over the ice to fill up the cuts. In this manner we have a perfectly smooth surface three times a day. The water is frozen at a temperature of about ten degrees above zero, which would be as cold, probably, and as hard as ice frozen in any cold country when the temperature is about zero."

The Most Beautiful Woman.

Which, asks Marmaduke, in the London Graphic, was the most beautiful woman of the century? Was she the celebrated Countess di Castiglione? Some years ago I started the problem, proposing the Countess, as my own favorite, for the distinction, and at the time, most of those who possessed the best qualifications for forming an opinion upon it supported my choice. Anyhow, there died at West Hampstead last week, a lady, who, if she was not the most beautiful of the century, was decidedly, in her youth, one of the most fascinating. This was Mrs. Thistlethwayte, more generally known some forty years ago as Laura Bell. The late Mrs. Thistlethwayte was the original of "The Nun," a picture which is familiar to most by the photographs of it, which are still sold by the thousands every year for scrap book collections.

The youth of Laura Bell was eventful. Calm, however, was restored to her when she married the late Mr. Thistlethwayte, and of late, up to a year or two ago, her house in Grosvenor Square was the rendezvous of many of the celebrities of our day, among them being Mr. Gladstone and Madame Novikoff. Close upon half a century back, so great was the beauty of Mrs. Thistlethwayte that it is recorded that upon one occasion at the opera, the entire house rose simultaneously to look at her as she was leaving it. This is a scene which I have myself, upon more than one occasion, seen partially reproduced. Some 15 years ago, I recollect, some 200 or 300 people in the Row surrounding Mrs. Langtry—then at the height of her reputation as a "professional beauty"—the outer rims of the circle being composed of banks of chairs hurriedly dragged to the spot, and upon which people were standing, so as to be able to obtain a view of her over the heads of the crowd. And the lady was not Mrs. Langtry after all. It did not signify, they thought she was.

First Step in Photography.

"George," she said, as he entered the parlor.

"Yes."

"I am studying photography."

"How nice! And have you taken any pictures yet?" he asked as he sat down on a sofa.

"Oh, no! I have only gotten as far as high lights and——"

She got up and turned down the gas

"Low light!"—Syracuse Post.

The Moon's Influence

Upon the weather is accepted by some as real, by others it is disputed. The moon never attracts corns from the tender aching spot. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the most painful corns in three days. This great remedy makes no sore spots, doesn't go fooling around a man's foot, but gets to business at once, and effects a cure. Don't be imposed upon by substitutes and imitations. ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The private parts are a common itching, which at night, when the skin gets heated, becomes hot. No article in the toilet does away with the inclination to procure relief. Often the sufferer unconsciously scratches the parts until they are sore, bleed and even ulcerate. Moisture is exuded. Poisons are generated which cause this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation, characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

POINTS OF A GOOD DOG.

HOW ANY ONE CAN WISELY CHOOSE HIS OWN CANINE.

What to Pay for Him—Dogs That Make the Best Companions—Points as to Health and Temper—Important Points of Different Breeds.

If you are choosing a dog for a friend and companion be sure to get one of a good breed. Consider beforehand what you want in your dog and whether he will be happy with you. If you live in a city house that has a small yard behind where your dog can get exercise and open air you had best have a fox terrier who is a good ratter. An Irish terrier also is a nice dog for a city house.

For the country you cannot go very far wrong in choosing any one of the dogs mentioned below. Pointers and setters are specially adapted for hunting, but they also make the best kind of pets and all around dogs.

A healthy puppy should have a cold nose, a nice, clean, smooth skin, slightly greasy and a little loose. His eyes must be bright and clear, his gums and tongue a fresh coral pink, and he should seem active and playful. Find out what sort of disposition his mother and father have for a small puppy's temper does not develop early.

It would be just as well for anyone on the lookout for a good dog to cut out this list of the important points and keep it at hand to refer to should a dog be offered him for sale.

The Irish setter should be a deep blood red, little or no white about him, nose deep tan, eyes large and expressive, coat free from curls, tail held straight out and a little lower than the back. The English setter should hold his tail just right, always a straight line with his back. His face long and his legs long. He needs lots of water but can stand a great deal of hard work.

The Gudon, black and tan, is a beautiful dog for a pet. He is not so fast as the Irishman, and has a larger, coarser head. His coat should be a rich glossy black with warm tan markings.

In selecting a setter be careful to avoid pig eyes, curly hair and a badly held tail.

See that a bull terrier's head is flat and wedge shaped, the teeth powerful, nose black, eyes small, black and oblong, upright ears, body deep, hind legs long, feet long. A bulldog whose tail is thin, fine, set low and carried straight is a good fighter and this is a dog who can learn all sorts of tricks.

Examine a fox terrier's coat first. It should be smooth and hard in texture with white predominating; tail rather high, held at right angle to back, head flat, powerful, clean cut jaw. A fox terrier's ears must be V-shape. He is death on cats as is the bull terrier also.

The bulldog ought to be white, brindle, tawn or pied. Fine coat, chest wide, back short, short wrinkled face, turn-up muzzle. Eyes black and round, jaws broad, lower one protruding, thick heels. Short, rather low, tail. He is very gentle and extremely fond of children, if he is a good one. A bad bulldog is a beast no one should own.

The Irish terrier is not pretty, but is very good, and he has beautiful eyes, his nose is black, his color red, tan or gray. Strong small feet, with black nails, long body and straight legs.

St. Bernards are of two sorts, smooth and rough coated. Either kind should have large heads, square and massive. Ears medium, carried close to cheek. Eyes dark, intelligent, generally showing the jaw. Legs straight, large feet, double, or at least single claws. Color, orange, tawny, or red, white collar, chest and tip of tail. White muzzle and white line from neck to poll.

A long body and short legs, with plenty of bone and feather, smooth satin coat, jet black. Feet round and catlike. Ears covered with long silky hair, small and narrow when set onto the head, large and lobe shaped at the end. Long head, dark eyes, broad chest, that is a black spaniel. The water spaniel's ears should measure about 2 inches from point to point. Face perfectly smooth. Curly top knot on top of head, body covered with close curls, small feet, tail straight, smooth tapering, dark liver color, no white. He can be taught to do almost anything.

CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters—He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

FRUITS AND FLOWERS

FINE ART, FANCY WORK.

THE ANNUAL EXHIBIT OF THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The Most Successful of the Series—Excellent Exhibits in Every Department—Especially Brilliant Display of Cut Flowers—A Large Attendance and Successful Exhibition.

The annual exhibition of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society held on Thursday afternoon and evening resulted more successfully than any previous exhibition of the society. The exhibits were excellent as well as large, the competition very keen, and the attendance of visitors was much more encouraging, as evincing an increased degree of interest in the work of the society. The market building proved none too large, for the space at command and was well occupied with the exhibits and the visitors.

The afternoon attendance was not very large, but larger than usual, and all who attended were delighted with the fine display in every department. The evening attendance was large and indicated an increasing interest in the welfare of the special interests promoted by the society. Of course the chief beauty was the floral department which made the hall a variegated blaze of brilliant colours, and filled the air with almost oppressive fragrance. There never was such an extensive exhibition of cut flowers in town before. Eight or ten broad and long tables were literal banks of bloom, being covered with mass after mass of compact flowers, representing scores of varieties and an unusually large number of competitors. The keen competition was the chief feature yesterday. Any person who took a prize required to worthily win it—nothing went by default. Everything shown in the line of flowers had to encounter competition. Not only was the magnificent quality of the floral exhibition worthy of remark, but the great and general taste shown in the arrangement, was equally conspicious. The several bouquets shown gove particular evidence in this direction. One bouquet, made by a lady, the first she had done in eight years, was a marvel of tasteful arrangement, and delicate selection of flowers—a beautiful mosaic of dainty petal, leaf and spray. Amongst the chief exhibitors were Mr. J. H. Cobb, Mrs. B. Cooney, Mr. Macfarlane Wilson, Miss Rubidge, Miss Kingan, Miss M. Kingan, Mr. Percy Hamilton, Miss Mills, Miss Maud Mason. These exhibitors referred to are, of course, amateurs, but the professional florists were well represented by Messrs. Frank Mason, Jordan Bros. and Frank Wise. All had most beautiful and excellent exhibits of hot house flowers as well as cut flowers and collections. In green house flowers there was also considerable amateur competition. The contributions in this line of Mrs. B. Cooney were worthy of special mention. In addition to amateurs and professionals there were displays made by what may be called semi-professionals. Mr. James Head, gardener of the Nicholls Hospital grounds, had a good display of flowers and vegetables. The beauty of the hospital grounds is a subject of comment to all visitors and if Mr. Head could have placed on exhibition his peerless mound of the hydrangea paniculata he would doubtless have scored a win.

Mr. W. H. Foord, caretaker of the cemetery, had on exhibition a splendid vase of cannas—which are his specialty—a dozen varieties, including a splendid new seedling originated by himself, a cross between a President Hardy and a Madam Crozgy, a splendid plot plant that stands well up and withstands sun and wind successfully.

The generally excellent display of flowers is in some sense due to the fact of the date of the exhibition being this year made so early that the great majority of flowers were in the height of bloom and therefore available for exhibition purposes. It is probable in view of this fact that this early date will be adhered to.

In the department of fruit the display was a good one, many excellent samples being shown. Vegetables also made a good showing, an evidence that careful tillage had to a great extent counteracted the effects of dry weather.

The department of ladies' work was not an elaborate one, but the lack in quantity was abundantly made up by the excellent quality, the samples shown being beautiful examples of patient skill and cultured taste.

THE FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT.

This occupied nearly the whole of the northern wall of the hall, and the appearance at a glance was a great contrast to last and other years. Mr. D. A. Shaw, a local artist, who is both a prolific and a capable painter, contributed to this department about a dozen canvasses all of more than usual merit. While the intrinsic excellence of the work was highly creditable, the variety was a striking tribute to the artist's versatility. The subjects were varied and included animals, landscapes, figures, fruits and flowers. The figures included "Psyche," "The Soul's Awakening," "The Courage of Conviction,' all of great merit both in conception and working out. Another noteworthy canvass was "From Dawn to Sunset"; a mother with infant in arms sitting on one side of the fireplace and a bent grandsire on the other side. The ruddy light of the setting sun streaming through the casement is treated very artistically and effectively. The pictures were deservedly the centre of admiration. A striking picture of Mr. Shaw's collection was a portrait of the notorious Piggott who figured so conspicuously and discreditably in the Times newspaper assault upon Charles Stewart Parnell. Mr. Shaw's own work is not the only evidence of his skill. Three of his pupils show very creditable works in oil. Miss May Kelly, daughter of Councillor Kelly, exhibits a well worked out landscape, which bears the red ticket. Mr. Wm. Rose showed a very fairly executed figure, subject "Spring," which also bears the red ticket, and another red ticket exhibited was on an animal head, very nicely painted by Miss L. Baillie. In crayons, Miss L. Davidson took first prize with a well drawn dog, and Miss Ethel Grundy and Miss Lilian V. Cassidy were awarded prizes for oil paintings of flowers. In water colours Mr. A. E. Dumble, brother of Police Magistrate Dumble, who has a decided talent, both in the directions of taste and execution, was easily first with a beautifully painted sea scene. Miss Munson, of Cobourg, was the only other exhibitor with a water colour landscape. Apart, however, from the professional work of Mr. Shaw and Mr. Dumble, the other exhibits, though creditable in themselves, fell far short in number of the artistic capabilities that should distinguish a town of the size of Peterborough.

Of miscellaneous exhibits Mr. Edwin Elcombe had a very complete taxidermic and entomological display, which showed no inconsiderable skill in the mounting and disposal of the specimens in natural attitudes. Mr. Harry Lush had a good entomological collection on show.

Master Normam Lewis and Mr. W. J. McCallum had fine numismatic collections which added much to the interest of the exhibition generally.

During the evening the large number of visitors present were delighted with the music of the Fire Brigade Band.

There was also shown a beautiful ex hibit of of the wonderfully intricate work of the Singer Sewing Machine, exhibited by the local agent, Mr. Haines.

The judges in the different departments, who had such difficult work in deciding amongst the many excellent exhibits, were,—Ladies work, Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson and Mrs. Geo. Dunsford; plants, flowers, vegetables, etc., Messrs. W. H. Manning and W. H. Foord; fine arts, Mr. D. W. Dumble.

Altogether the exhibition was a most successful one, and those of the directors who exerted themselves energetically have reason to be well pleased with the satisfactory outcome of their labours.

How We Forged

Our way to the front, is largely due to close buying, close application, and an appreciative class of customers. Our whole hobby has been to excel in selling Groceries, Provisions, etc., which we know to be the best, the purest, and the cleanest, for the smallest margin of profit. We cannot afford to mistake anything. We never do. If you are so prejudiced that you're willing to go on paying too much, no argument need be wasted, but if you are open to conviction and a fair judge of values, a sample order will prove to you how true our contention is.

We are especially pleased to know that our past six months business has been the most satisfactory, as well as the largest in Peterborough.

OUR SPECIALS for the next week will consist chiefly in Sugars for Preserving, Vinegars and Spices for Pickling, and Teas. Come early—better late than ever—but come, sure.

CLOUDBURST IN TEXAS

The Southern Part of the State Swept by a Deluge.

MANY PERSONS ARE DROWNED

A Whole Settlement Under Water—The Flood Creates Great Havoc to Property—The Southern Pacific Sustains Much Damage Along Its Line.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 1.—News has reached here that a cloudburst flooded the town of Uvalde, the county seat of Uvalde county, eight miles west of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and the town of Dhanis, Medala county, fifty miles west. After the water in Uvalde was three feet deep, the population took refuge on high ground. Three persons were drowned. In Dhanis two children were drowned. The water there was four feet deep. The bridges and approaches of the Southern Pacific road were washed away.

The deluge has wrought great havoc. In addition to one-half of the town of Uvalde being flooded and six people drowned, there is a settlement of seventy-five families a few miles below the town which is believed to be under water to a depth of twenty-five feet, and it is feared many people were drowned. This settlement is in the path of the Leona river, which is still a raging torrent of waters.

Three families of Mexicans living near Uvalde were drowned. Three hundred miles of track of the Southern Pacific Railroad are under water and about forty miles are washed away.

Another heavy rain is falling and further damage is feared.

PAPAL LEGATION IN THE U. S.

It is Stated That Mgr. Satolli's Office Will be a Permanent One.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Statements have been published from time to time in relation to the establishment in this country of a permanent legation representing the Church of Rome in matters ecclesiastic, but official confirmation of them up to this time has never been obtained. Some days ago Pope Leo notified Archbishop Satolli that it was deemed best for the interests of the church that an ambassador of the Holy Father should permanently reside in the United States and that Mgr. Satolli was given to understand that he would be kept as resident apostolic delegate. Up to the present time no information to the contrary has been sent to him from the Vatican.

A representative called at the legation yesterday to enquire concerning the report from Rome that at the end of this year Mgr. Satolli would return to the Vatican at the request of the Pope. After a short consultation with Mgr. Satolli, Dr. Papi, his secretary, made the statement that the delegation had not been advised by the Pope as to the matter, and in view of the fact did not believe the report was true:

Said Dr. Papi: "Whether Mgr. Satolli be recalled or not someone will be maintained here in the office he occupys. This is now a permanent legation which represents Pope Leo in church affairs, the same as the embassy of Italy here represents the political government in diplomatic matters."

State of Trade in the States.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Bradstreet's says: "At all but a few of the cities, from special telegrams, favorable influences are shown to have been at work, resulting in still further improvement in the business situation since the settlement of the tariff question. All western centres covered, except Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit and Omaha, report distinct gains in the volume of business. Total bank clearances this week amounted to $744,000,000, 8.5 per cent. less than last week and 14 per cent. more than in the last week of August, 1893, but nearly 23 per cent. less than in the corresponding week in 1892, two years ago. There are only 192 business failures in the United States reported this week, against 251 last week.

Montreal Express Wrecked.

TROY, Sept. 1.—The night express train from Montreal left the track at Port Kent, near Plattsburg. The accident was caused by the spreading of the rails. The engine and four cars were ditched. Several persons were injured.

Died From Her Injuries.

SARATOGA, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Sarah Newland, the victim of the laboratory fire, died from her burns last evening. She was over 60 years of age. George E. Newland, her husband, is also in a critical condition.

Count of Paris' Condition.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Count of Paris began to sink late yesterday afternoon. The family and household servants were called to his bedside and the last sacrament was administered in their presence. At midnight he was conscious and able to converse with his family. He was very weak, however, and could speak only with great difficulty. The Duc d'Aulale (his uncle), the Duchess de Chartres (his sister-in-law), the Princess Waldemar of Denmark (his niece) and other members of the family are at Stowe House.

PYTHIANS AND ALCOHOL

Strong Movement Inaugurated by the Order Against Liquor.

TO ADOPT DRASTIC MEASURES

The Committee on the State of the Order Will Present a Recommendation That All Members Connected With the Liquor Traffic Be Expelled.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The committee of the Knights of Pythias on the state of the order which determined to prepare a report to the Supreme Lodge recommending that saloon keepers and bar-tenders should hereafter be ineligible for membership, have concluded to go a step further and include in their recommendation that all those who are present members of the order and are engaged in the liquor business shall be expelled. The committee stands 8 to 2 on the temperance question and the majority hope to win over another member against it before the report is completed, thus being able to go before the Supreme Lodge with a 4 to 1 report.

It is expected that a member of the committee from Chicago will hold out from what he considers drastic measures. The decision reached by the majority of the committee is precisely in line with the sentiments set forth in Supreme Chancellor Blackwell's biennial report. The disagreeing member will probably present his views on the temperance question in a minority report.

The committee on state of the order, which gave hearings to those desiring to make arguments for and against translation of the Pythian ritual into German, yesterday voted upon the question and decided to recommend that no lodge should be authorized to use any but the English ritual. Efforts will be made to secure as nearly a unanimous report as possible. This decision is also in accordance with Supreme Chancellor Blackwell's report, and simply means that those lodges which do not choose to adopt English ritual and abandon the German translation must disintegrate.

There is no doubt that the subject will provoke a lively discussion when it comes up for final action by the supreme lodge, but a careful canvass among the representatives justifies the belief that the committee will be sustained. The report on temperance stands even a better chance of adoption.

BIG PAPER MILL FOR CANADA.

American Capitalists to Locate at Kakabeka Falls on the Kaministique River.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Sept. 1.—John Bogart, of New York, consulting engineer of the Cataract Construction Company and Niagara Falls Power Company, have arrived from Canada, accompanied by his friend F. S. Lewis, of Philadelphia, general manager and treasurer of the Pennsylvania and Northwestern railroad.

The visit of Mr. Bogart and Mr. Lewis took them to the Kaministique river which flows into Thunder Bay in Lake Superior, in the Province of Ontario. The object of the visit was to look over the location of the Kakabeka Falls, with the idea of building a large pulp and paper mill, one of the largest, if not the largest, in Canada.

Mr. Bogart found the falls to be 40 feet wide and 125 feet high and suitable to develope a remarkable water power. The region abounds in spruce and other woods.

The parties who are back of this scheme are from Philadelphia, New York, and Bangor, Maine. It is the purpose to build a million dollar mill for the manufacture of paper for shipment to the English market. Among the gentlemen interested are E. V. Douglass, F. Douglass and J. F. Lewis, of Philadelphia; F. J. Clerque, of Bangor, Me.; and A. P. Bollern and John Bogart, of New York. The product of the new mill if built will be exported.

Trade in the Dominion.

TORONTO, Sept. 1.—The lumber, egg and other produce business has been stimulated at Montreal by the settlement of the tariff in the States. Business in other lines is quiet. At Toronto general trade is somewhat improved with wholesale houses, notably among milliners, and business prospects are said to be better. At Halifax there is no improvement in general business and collections are quite slow. Business failures in the Dominion this week number 32 against 30 last week; 50 in the week of August, 1893, corresponding; 33 in the like week two years ago and 17 three years ago. Bank clearings at Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal and Halifax this week aggregated $15,223,000, compared with $18,167,000 last week and with $13,845,000 in the last week of August 1893.

A Missing Man Heard From.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—News has been received from France to the effect that the missing Quebec contractor Jules Montagan, whose death was reported, has been found and is living and in good health. The information sent to Jules Montagan's wife, to R. Father Grenier, of the Oblat order and to Mr. Simon Cognal, insurance agent, had been killed while visiting his mother in France, is evidently unfounded. Consequently the insurance companies and benefit associations who had been requested to pay out the various insurances on Montagan's life will have nothing to pay, at least for the present. They are, however, investigating into the matter to find out how the mistake occurred.

Serious Charge Against a Colored Man.

HAMILTON, Sept. 1.—George E. Brown, a colored man, was arrested by Sergt. Robinson and P. C. Cameron, charged with indecent assault. On his person were found a razor and a great amount of truck, including two prescription blanks with Ald. Dr. McGillivray's printed heading on them. The complainant in the case is Fred. Pownseby, 81 Park street south. He says he came into his house and found Brown in a room with his little daughter. Brown was intoxicated when arrested.

C. P. R. Station Burglarized.

AYR, Sept. 1.—The C.P.R. station was entered by burglars and the safe blown open and about $40 stolen. The night watchman saw two men coming through the principal street and challenged them when they fired at him, he returned the fire and they left.

VIGILANT IN HARD LUCK

She Had Every Chance of Winning From the Satanita.

BUT THE RACE WAS CALLED OFF

On Account of the Light Air They Would Not Have Finished Till Late in the Evening—The Decision Subjected to Unfavorable Comment.

DARTMOUTH, England, Sept. 1.—There was scarcely a breath of wind blowing when the yachts Satanita and Vigilant set out to compete for a prize of $250. The course was a triangular one, forty miles in length, and the weather was regarded as being decidedly in favor of the American boat. At the start the Satanita had slightly the advantage, but the Vigilant soon overtook her, passed and continued to increase the lead to the end.

The regatta committee decided to call the race off when it became apparent that the light air would not enable the Vigilant and Satanita to finish until late in the evening. The contest between the forty-raters was decided at the end of the second. It was certainly a race in the British acceptation of the term as there is no time limit on yachting contests on this side of the ocean. It was Vigilant's weather in the opinion of English experts. A light northeaster barely ruffled the surface of the channel bringing with it a mist that gave the fleet in the offing a spectacular aspect.

There were throngs from all over England to see the Vigilant's first duel with Mr. Clarke's yacht. The contest was for prizes of $250 and $150 under the auspices of the Royal Dart Yacht Club. The course was triangular.

The Satanita held the breeze until she passed Newstone, about a mile from the starting point. The breeze got around to the southward, and the Vigilant widened the gap between herself and the cutter. The wind fell again and the yachts barely had steerage way. The Vigilant was far in the lead. At this point the committee decided to call the race off. It is surmised the decision was somewhat influenced by the fact that the Satanita had no chance to win. In regard to the conflict of 40-raters the committee had a different opinion. It decided that the 40-rater that was ahead at the end of the first round should be declared the winner. The Royal Dart Club has the reputation of being the most unfair yachting organization in England. The decision of their committee caused the Times and Fields representatives here to indulge in very unfavorable comment in regard to Dart Club methods.

CAMPANIA'S OCEAN RECORD.

This Fast Cunard Liner Again Lowers Her Time.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Cunarder Campania, which cleared the bar outside of New York at 1.50 p.m., and passed Sandy Hook lightship at 2.05 p.m. Saturday, August 25, passed Daunt's Rock at 5.34 o'clock yesterday morning, having made the passage in 5 days 10 hours and 47 minutes, beating the record by 1 hour and 20 minutes.

The daily runs of the Campania were 466, 513, 454, 511, 507 and 365 miles. The Campania made the passage in October, 1893, in 5 days 13 hours and 7 minutes, which establishes the record between the bar at New York and Daunt's Rock.

The Campania covered a distance of 2,841 miles at an average rate of speed of 21.51 knots an hour. On her recent westward trip, on which she established a new record, she averaged 21.40 knots an hour. The average of her sister ship the Lucania is considerably better than the best performance of the Campania, being 21.61 knots an hour, but the Lucania on the occasion of making it took a much longer course and thus ruined her chances of breaking the record.

ASKING FOR ANNEXATION.

Inhabitants in Samoa Send a Petition to the German Emperor.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Daily News correspondent in Berlin says: "The last mail from Samoa brings a petition to the Emperor for annexation. Amongst the 63 signers are two Englishmen and one American.

"The German warship Falke has been at Berkuknanlo. The officers visited the fort and the rebels cordially received them. Young Tamasese, son of Germany's former protege, has joined the rebels. The confusion of the government troops is constantly growing.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Standard referring to the advices from Samoa showing that British and German warships had interfered to put an end to the trouble between the natives then points out that no mention is made in the despatches of American participation in the intervention and says: "Possibly the rooted repugnance of Washington statesmen to interference may account for the absence of the stars and stripes. Hawaii furnished President Cleveland with a most troublesome incident of foreign relations and he may well be indisposed to run the risk of another false step."

New York's Political Boss Rule.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Daily Telegraph says in a long leader on the citizens' movement in New York: "We hope that the revolt of the citizens of New York against the rule of political bosses will result in success. Surely the names of Vanderbilt and President Smith among those convening the mass meeting for the 6th are potent enough to conjure with but the honest section of the community attending the meeting must bear in mind that bossism is a hydra-headed monster, and that all the adroitness as well as all the strength of Hercules will be required to destroy one of the greatest of American social evils."

LABOUR DAY.

"What in the world is 'Labour Day,' anyway?" asked a citizen of a lawyer, with whom he was walking down town this morning. He was told that it was a statutory holiday set aside at the last session of the Dominion Parliament. The bill was introduced by Sir John Thompson in compliance with the request of a labour deputation, and passed into law, setting aside the first Monday in September of each year to be known as "Labour Day," and declaring it a legal holiday. The enactment of such a law is, as far as it goes, a proper recognition of the claims of labour to statutory consideration. Governments in the past have been too busy in legislating in the interests of capital to give due and deserving consideration to the rights of labour; but there are signs that labour is approaching the era of equal rights with capital, and this single act is an official recognition of the rights of labour, that is likely to prove more than the thin edge of the wedge. The necessity of labour is a divine provision. The fruit of the Fall was the edict that mankind should earn his bread by the sweat of his brow—which was not intended to mean that one class of men was to thrive by the sweat of the brows of another class. A day's rest—once a week—is also of divine institution. Under proper conditions this might be enough, but in the perennial feud between labour and capital, labour has been so long the under dog in the fight—has been robbed of so many rights, that the doctrine of compensation demands restitution. And an infinitesimal atom of the stolen rights of labour may be considered to come back in the form of a statutory holiday. The men that toil have a moral right to a holiday, and to the enjoyment of recreation and and social intercourse, of which their daily lot deprives them. The social condition of the world to-day is so much out of joint, that the mass of men have to devote so much time to earning the bare necessities of existence—to supplying the wants of the body—that there is no time to improve the mind, to cultivate the social faculty or to gain that recreation which is necessary to maintain the physical man in proper condition. The capitalist, who thrives, waxes fat and enjoys every luxury the heart can crave and money supply, is, figuratively, living on the blood of the working man. Labour creates wealth; capital merely administers the wealth so created, and it is a violence to every sense of justice to elevate the agent at the expense of the principal. A man enters an enterprise with certain peculiar qualifications of mind and conscience which admit of his taking advantage of the legal condition which permits him to appropriate to himself the wealth, that the work of others produces. He becomes a millionaire; and, of the thousands he has, accumulated, what commission has been paid to the labour that created them? Merely a crumb to the loaf—just enough to keep soul and body together—just enough to keep the human money-making machine in profitable working order. Yet the capitalist, who toils only in the direction of maintaining the integrity of the system that permits him to convert the results of the toil of others to his own use, must have his holiday—though he fares sumptuously every day and is clad in purple and fine linen, though his hand shows no mark of work, and his muscles feel not the rack of toil—he must have his month at the seaside. The merchant must have been his holiday, and so must the lawyer, the doctor and the business man and all classes, except the the class that deserves it most, that earns it best, which has no holiday except the single day in the year known as Labour Day. And none begrudges it to them. Is that so? No, it is not so. There are thousands who pose as civilized citizens;—as—heaven, save the mark—Christians, who declare, with an impious arrogance that Labour Day is nonsense and is a weak and foolish concession to incipient socialism, in the worse meaning of that word. The religion or morality based on such conceptions of justice and right would debauch the devil himself. Give labour its rights and there would be no need of statutory holidays or labour legislation—the millennium would be here. Labour Day, as a recognition of the dignity and deserts of labour is a mere drop in the bucket in itself, yet it is a sign of the times, a whisper of hope, a glimmer of the dawn of that day when the golden rule of the Holy Carpenter of Nazareth shall straighten human conditions, so that it will need no law, but the omnipotent law of love, to constrain all men to obey the divine injunction, which is the base and ground work of all practical religion.—"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

Miss Ramey, of Uxbridge, who has been visiting with Mrs. A. A. Smith the last week, returned to her home last Thursday.

Miss Laura Vance, who has been visiting at Lindsay returned home this week.

Mr. Geo. Carveth, of Toronto, who has been holidaying at the home of his parents returned to the city last Wednesday.

Mr. W. G. Wood, of the Bank of Toronto, St. Catharines, who has been spending his holidays under the parental roof, returned to his duties last Wednesday.

Mr. Gerald Deyell, of Souris, Man., after having spent a few weeks with his uncle, R. Deyell, left town on Thursday last for Harriston, where he will in future reside.

Messrs. L. F. Clarry and W. D. Leach, who have been camping at Boyce's Landing for the past two weeks returned home on Wednesday evening, after having an enjoyable time. Messrs. R. Deyell and W. H. Coombe were with the party but returned a few days earlier.

Messrs. L. S. Clarry, Jno. Dawson, Geo. Leach, Ernie Clarry and Charlie Leach have gone to Cow Island and vicinity of Rice Lake to be ready for the duck shooting, which comes in on Saturday. We understand they will be away for a week or two.

Millbrook will be well represented in sports, at Peterborough, on Monday next. The lacrosse boys will cross sticks with the Peterboroughs, and the cricket eleven play the eleven of that town, on the same day.

At last our citizens have awakened to the idea that we must have an electric light system in our village. The lamps, which now adorn our street corners, have been found insufficient to supply the light demanded, especially on these dark nights. We understand the Canadian General Electric Light Co. have the matter in hand and will, in a short time, put in a system second to none in the country. This is an excellent move on the part of our citizens and we hope the work will be commenced at an early date.

MOTHERS.

Always Obtain Grand Results from Lactated Food.

It has Saved Thousands of Infant Lives.

"Ye shall know them by their works." The various brands of infant foods now before the mothers of Canada, are best judged by their works—their results.

The vast majority of prepared foods are faulty in composition, and as a consequence their results are evil.

For years it has been noted that Lactated Food possessed important and necessary elements that other foods lacked. Lactated Food in its composition embraces every element that tends to the babe's growth and development. It is a preventive of summer complaints, and invariably keeps up strength and vitality.

When babies are teething, and when the infant appetite is capricious, it is found that Lactated Food is taken with a relish.

Lactated Food is within every mother's reach, and is so inexpensive that no mother ever had a real excuse for not using it. Lactated Food "saves babies' lives."

Another Voice From Smith.
SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

GREAT

Alteration Sale

NOW GOING ON.

We have had notice from the landlord to vacate our store in three weeks to allow the workmen getting to work on alterations to our premises. We cannot get another store to move the stock into, and we want to dodge the chance of damage to the goods by fairly giving away our Clothing and Suit Goods. Everything out down to cost prices. This Sale will be a record breaker.

Selling Right and Left to Hustle out the Goods.

10 Per Cent. Off all Ordered Clothing during this Sale. This is quite a cut off our already low prices, while fit and workmanship remain the same.

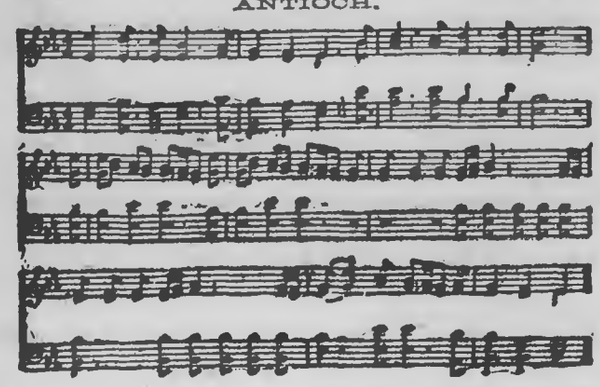
"I AM A NEW MAN."

The Positive Declaration of Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Mimico, Ont.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND SAVES ANOTHER LIFE.

ANTIOCH.



When Heaven sends to earth below
A med'cine, honest, true;
'Tis meet that all the cured should show
Just what this boon can do.

I thank God that in time of pain
And suffering severe,
I was informed how I might gain
New life, and strength and cheer.

My shoulders pain'd each day and hour,
My limbs were weak and frail;
My nervous system lack'd in power,
My cheeks were wan and pale.

In agony I lay each day,
Enough to make one weak,
While suff'ring o'er me held its sway,
I could not rest or sleep.

The doctor failed my case to cure,
Relief I could not gain;
And nostrums labell'd safe and sure,
I swallowed oft in vain.

When clouds of doubt, and dread and fear
Did darkly hover round,
'Twas then I heard those words of cheer—
Paine's Celery Compound.

With faith I used the Compound great,
Its virtues quick did show;
Two bottles dragged me from a state
Of misery and woe.

Then full of hope I still did use
Paine's Celery Compound,
Determined that I should not lose
The strength that I had found.

To-day, in body and in mind
I am renewed quite;
I'm sure that others, too, will find
Results that give delight.

I'd say to every suffering soul,
Use Celery Compound,
And you will quickly reach the goal,
Where health and strength are found.

SITUATION IN BLUEFIELDS.

Investigation to Be Demanded Into the Accusation Against Americans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1. — Secretary Gresham has received a dispatch from Minister Baker at Managua stating that a decree had been issued banishing the Americans and English accused of fomenting the trouble in Bluefields. The decree was authorized by an extraordinary act of the Nicaraguan congress. This message constitutes an official confirmation of the press despatches.

The cablegram stated that the minister had demanded that the accused be given a fair trial. Secretary Gresham will insist that the terms of the decree be held in abeyance pending a fair judicial investigation, and, if necessary, the United States forces will prevent the confiscation of the property of the accused men. Unless the desired examination is promptly commenced Minister Baker will be ordered to peremptorily demand the release of all Americans under arrest.

Anarchists Arrested in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 1.—The last steamer from Barcelona brought nine anarchists to this city. The Spanish Minister here was advised that the anarchists were on board and communicated the news to the Mexican Government, which caused the arrest of the anarchists upon their arrival and their imprisonment in the fortress of San Juan Ulva at Vera Cruz, where they are now under strict guard. The Freemasons of this capital have issued a call to the fraternity in all parts of the republic to co operate in the pursuit of anarchists landing at any Mexican port.

Crookedness in New Orleans Council.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—After indicting eleven members of the city council including its President and the city engineer the term of grand jury expired yesterday and it was discharged by Judge Noise after presenting a report which is a most scathing denunciation of the crookedness rampant in the city hall and explains why several indictments which were expected could not be found owing to inability to get evidence on which a conviction in court would be certain to follow.

An Outrage by Whitecaps.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Sarah Hendershot, keeper of a hotel at Agency Ford, was forcibly taken away from home by twelve whitecappers, and, after being whipped with hickory switches, was warned to leave the town at once and never return under threats of immediate death. She came to St. Joseph and consulted the prosecuting attorney with a view of having her assailants arrested. The whitecappers gave no reason for their act. The woman has borne a good reputation.

Another Revolt in South Africa.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A despatch to the Times from Capetown reports the outbreak of a revolt among the natives in the vicinity of the Portuguese town of Lorenzo Marquese on the north side of Delagoa Bay. Thousands of natives are gathering under the leadership of Moveja. The natives in Lorenzo Marquese have deserted and are joining the rebels.

An Old Ryhme Reset.

"Affliction sore long time she bore
Physicians were in vain.'
At last one day, a friend did say,
"You'd soon be well again"

if you would take, as I did, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is the cure for all the peculiar ailments of women. It is a safe, simple and sure remedy. It banishes those distressing maladies that make woman's life a burden, curing all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammations and ulceration, prolapsus, and kindred weaknesses. As a nervine it cures nervous exhaustion, prostration, debility, relieves mental anxiety and hypochondria and induces refreshing sleep." She took the advice and is now well. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for the delicate derangements and weaknesses of females, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of curing in every case, or money paid for it returned.

ATTACKING PORT ARTHUR.

Japanese Troops to the Number of Four Thousand Bombard the Fort.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—A despatch to the Central News from Shanghai says: "A Che Foo despatch states that Japanese warships convoying a number of transports landed troops at Liau-Tie-Shan on August 30. These troops were marched at once upon Port Arthur, Japanese warships in the meantime bombarding the forts at that place. The object of the Japanese is to destroy the docks and forts at Port Arthur, in order to prevent disabled Chinese vessels from sheltering there for repairs. The fight is still in progress."

A despatch to the Times from Shanghai says: A Tien Tsin despatch from Chinese sources says that fourteen Japanese ships with over 4,000 troops are attacking Port Arthur. The Chinese garrison, numbering 5,000 men, and the Chinese fleet have been ordered to attack the Japanese.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 1.—The British gunboat Redpole has sailed from Che Foo for Port Arthur. Junks arriving at Che Foo from New Chang report that a large number of Japanese are floating in the water at the mouth of the Tai Tung river.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—Russia will send to East Asiatic waters the warship Emperor Nicholas I., armor clad, 8,000 tons, 24 tons, and the Pamiat Azova, armor clad, 6,000 tons, 33 guns. Both are comparatively new and are reckoned among the most powerful vessels of the Russian navy.

Collector of Customs Murdered.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—A dispatch from Ha-Noi, capital of Tonquin, says that last Monday night Chinese attacked the house of M. Chaillet, collector of customs at Monkai, killed him and kidnapped his wife and daughter. Troops were sent out in pursuit of the Chinese but failed to overtake them.

Holocaust on the Canton River.

HONG KONG, Sept. 1.—The news has been received of a terrible fire on the Canton River. A flower boat caught fire, and the flames spread rapidly, until hundreds of these crafts were destroyed, and at least 1,000 natives perished. The flower boats were moored stem and stern in rows, and large number of natives lived upon them. The spread of the conflagration from one boat to another was so rapid that the unfortunate Chinese had no time to cut the boats from their moorings, a strong wind materially helping to increase the fierce fire. Many hundreds of the persons on board the flower boats leaped overboard and were drowned, while several hundred others remained on board the doomed craft, and perished in the flames.

Nothing Strange

Intelligent people, who realize the important part the blood holds in keeping the body in a normal condition, find nothing strange in the number of diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla is able to cure. So many troubles result from impure blood, the best way to treat them is through the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla vitalizes the blood.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

After the Life of Satolli.

New York, Aug. 31.—Sergt. Thompson arrested a man walking along King's Bridge road muttering to himself: "I must kill him! I must kill him!" When questioned at the station house he gave the name of Edward Stolx, said he came from Meadville, Pa., and belongs to a gang of ten men who had drawn lots to see which should assassinate Mgr. Satolli. Stolx said he had drawn the fateful lot and was about to start for Washington to carry out his murderous purpose. He was locked up and will be examined as to his sanity. He was well dressed and had a watch and money.

Passenger Steamship Ashore.

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—The big passenger steamship Northwest, owned by the Northwest Steamship Company, went ashore on Bar Point, Lake Erie, off the mouth of the Detroit river. The accident was due to fog. The steamship had over 300 passengers aboard, among them being Mayor Bishop and Postmaster Baker, of Buffalo, and a number of other Buffalo officials, en route to Detroit on a pleasure trip. The cry arose that the boat had struck a rock and was sinking, and a panic ensued, but no lives were lost. The position of the boat is not specially dangerous. She is one of the largest boats on the lakes, and is valued at $300,000.

Set Free to Escape a Lynching.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 31.—The authorities of Lincoln county arrested John Peyton, his son Flisha, and Milton Gross on the charge of assassinating Albert Keyser on Saturday night. While the prisoners were under guard at the house of Constable Adkins a mob gathered to lynch them and they were freed and ran for their lives in the mountains. Great excitement prevails.

Attempt to Wreck a Grand Trunk Train.

PORTLAND, Maine, Aug. 31.—A deliberate attempt was made to wreck a Grand Trunk train this morning near Fish Point in this city. An eleven-inch shell was found on the track just before the Montreal express arrived. Where the shell came from is a mystery, unless from a fort in the harbor. It is believed to be loaded.

Summer Heat.

This is the season for bowel complaints. Green apples and cucumbers produce them, and Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER cures them. To the troubled stomach it comes like a balm, the wind is assuaged, and the trouble ceases. Every druggist in the land keeps the PAIN-KILLER, and no father should be without it in his family. The Examiner

At Summer Resorts

The "EXAMINER" will be sent to any out of town address during the summer months at regular rates. Orders should be left at the EXAMINER OFFICE before leaving town.

Daily Examiner.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1894.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Peterborough Music Co., 404 George street, are offering bargains in pianos, organs and sewing machines.

Children's bonnets in silk and Muslin all prices and sizes at Miss Melville's, 424 George street. Stamping done.

How is it that Grafton & Co. are doing the clothing business of the town to day? It is their prices.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Saturday, Sept. 1.—At this morning's observation the self-registering thermometer was down to 40 degrees with frost and fog. Rain may be expected to follow.—THOS. TELFORD.

Young Women's Association.

Usual gospel service this evening, beginning at half past eight o'clock. Cordial invitations to all. Regular meeting of the Board of Management will be held on Monday afternoon. The hour is 3.30. A full attendance is requested.

Don't Scold the Boy.

He's a good, lively, all-round boy, and you wouldn't change him if you could. Kicks out a lot of shoes of course. The only thing to do is to get shoes that are hard to "kick out." Get the school shoes at Gough Bros. and you'll save about one pair in four, possibly a little more. All sizes for boys and girls. dw

Death of Mrs. R. P. Cook.

Mrs. Cook, relict of the late R. P. Cook, 200 George street, died suddenly of heart failure, yesterday morning, at the summer residence of her son-in-law, Mr. J. Davidson, on Stony Lake. The remains were brought to Peterborough last night and will be interred in Little Lake Cemetery. Funeral leaves family residence at 4 o'clock p.m. to-morrow (Sunday).

London Life Assurance Company.

Attention is called to an advertisement in another column relating to industrial assurance. The London Life Assurance Company has been twenty years in the business, and their claims are promptly paid, and they have no unsettled claims and no lawsuits. Their agents are all local men—Messrs. Thos. Mahoney, Thos. Thompson and D. E. Hopkins. The office of the company is situated at 172 Hunter street, and is in charge of Mr. H. J. Smith, the assistant superintendent.

A Japanese Professor and Preacher.

Professor Satoh, of the Imperial University, Japan, will preach in the George street Methodist church on Sunday evening next, and will lecture in the church on Monday evening. Silver collection at the door Prof. Satoh is a delegate from Japan to the Methodist General Conference. He was present at the annual confetence here in June, and spoke, making a very favourable impression. His address on Monday night will be worth hearing, as at present public interest centres very largely in Japan and the east.

The Work of Boys.

Yesterday afternoon a number of boys who were over to witness the baseball match in Ashburnham, set fire to some oily waste taken from a car axle box, and threw it among the dry grass covering the bank of Rogers' raceway. In almost an instant the whole bank was in a blaze, the fire spreading to the railway track and igniting the ties, and at one time it was feared that it would reach the wooden bridge connecting the vacant factory on the raceway with the railway switch. Mr. Richard Brennan after a hard fight succeeded in mastering the flames.

Chances for Scholars To-Dap

Boys and girls, remember that on Saturday we promise to give the first 100 of our country customers buying one dollar's worth of school books or school supplies, a present of a nice, easy-writing fountain pen. As this is all we have left of these pens, we will give the first 100 of our town customers buying one dollar's worth or upwards of school supplies a present of a handy, free-working automatic pencil. Scholars, say it quick! They all say that we have the largest and most attractive selection of scribblers, and the finest exercise books with the best and most paper in them. They take the palm. We have everything required for school, no delays in ordering. A. H. STRATTON & Co., Peterborough Bookstore.

Everything is Prepared

For the grand celebration of Labour Day on Monday next, which promises to be meritorious in every respect. The following is the programme of the day's doing: In the morning, grand labour parade at 10 o'clock; at the driving park in the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock, sharp, horse and bicycle races, athletic sports, lacrosse and baseball matches, high tight rope ascension, trapeze, slack wire and acrobatic performances, military drill by school boys, calisthenic exercises by class of young ladies, and matched foot race between L. Lellar of Peterborough, and Geo. Holden of Toronto. Admission to grounds, 25c.; children, 15c. At the skating rink in the evening, commencing at 7.30 sharp—grand promenade concert, presentation by Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., of the prizes won on the grounds in the afternoon; Simons and Connors, Peterborough's favourites, in pantomimic tumbling, dancing, etc., and a good dance at conclusion of concert. Fire Brigade band present all at all events. Entries for races, etc., to be made with the secretary, C. D. McFarlane, at the Labour Hall, George street, during the morning of Monday next, or at the grounds—the former preferred.

During those hard times you cannot afford to pay four profits; buy direct from the manufacturers, Grafton & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Oyster Bisque.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—A regular meeting of the school board will be held on Tuesday evening next.

—Ducks are dead ducks to-day — according to law and the ability of the sportsman.

—Monday being Labour Day, and a legal holiday, there will be no issue of the EXAMINER.

—Mrs. Margaret L. Shepherd and maid, passed through town to-day on their way to Belleville.

—The Toronto street railway has ordered a number of cars that will run thirty-five miles an hour.

A Toronto lady says: I have suffered with terrible headaches for years. One dose of Phenyo-Caffain always cures me.

—Four boys were fined $1.00 each at the police court this morning, for attempting to Americanize Sunday by playing baseball on the Lord's day.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale a Lynch's Drug Store.

—The magnificent display of gladioli made by Mr. J. H. Cobb at the Horticultural exhibition, may be seen—and will be admired when seen—in the show window of the China Hall.

—Attention is directed to the unsightly and dilapidated condition of the old street gas lamps in different parts of the town. Their usefulness has departed and it would now be in order to have them dug up.

—The law now authorizes a two years' term in the penitentiary for anyone who drives a horse to death. Reckless young men who are in the habit of going out with livery rigs should paste this statement in their hats.

—Mr. J. H. Cobb called this morning requesting the EXAMINER to state that the first prize in collection of fruit credited to him in the prize list of the Horticultural Exhibition, and also the second prize on salsify were improperly credited, since he showed no vegetables whatever.

—There was an unusually large market this morning and prices were somewhat the same as on Wednesday. As usual fruit and vegetables occupied considerable space on the square and the prices remained practically unchanged. There was considerable new hay on the square.

—Rev. Mr. Bartlett preached a sermon on Sunday night in King street church, Cobourg, on the subject, "Three Strikes and Out." The church was crowded and here and there could be seen a baseball sport, who doubtless expected to get some pointers from the pulpit. The sermon was thoroughly orthodox, however, although some passing references to the game were made.

—Workmen, while engaged in removing the sign of Mr. W. J. Hall over the store lately taken possession of by Mr. A. Dawson, came across a portion of a sign, erected away back in the fifties. The sign, when erected, old residenters say, read "Canton House," but part of the lettering was gone. Hon. Wm. Harty, now of Kingston, kept a grocery and provision store there, before removing to the Limestone City.

STEAMER COLUMBIAN

Will make a return trip to Bobcaygeon and Sturgeon Point on Tuesday next.

Listen to the School Bell

Keeping time to the bargain bells at Gough Bros., the great college for smart looking suits for school boys of all ages. Gems of best quality are yours, parents, for the coming. It will pay every mother to bring their boys this week to the Wonderful Cheap Men. Our stock of boys' strong suits for school wear is at its fullest. For further information apply to the nearest coupon ticket agent or address A. J. Taylor, Canadian Passenger Agent, Toronto, Ont.

A Labour Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the members of the Moulder's Union, No. 191, Machinists' Union, No. 286, Printers' Union, No. 279, and Tailors' Union, No. 49, is called by the Celebration Committee, for Monday morning, Sept. 3rd, at 9 o'clock, in Labour Hall, George street, sharp. A full attendance is urgently requested. The committee also cordially invite the attendance and co-operation of all workingmen on this occasion.

Big Sale of Fruit To-Day.

This has been a great day for fruit. The local retail dealers have been doing a rushing business all day. Peaches took a drop from $1 and 90c. to 75c. Plums ranged from 65c. a basket to 80c., and peors could be bought as low as 50c. a basket for pickling. By noon to-day Frank Mercer had disposed of about 250 baskets of fruit of various kinds, and M. T. Ostrom & Co. about 450. In addition to this the sales on the market were heavy, and Messrs. Oke & Co., commission merchants, had a big day.

Fine Oak

At Clegg's, a splendid line of fine polished oak; bedroom suites, newest designs and best workmanship, and prices fully twenty-five per cent. lower than a year ago. All the cheaper lines in stock also. In parlour suites, etc., we show a larger assortment than ever offered in Peterborough before, at all prices and all our own manufacture; no factory work in this line. Clegg's upholstered goods are known almost from Halifax to Vancouver. Though more than twenty years in business, we have never yet re-upholstered one of our own parlour suites. A. CLEGG, 427 George street.

A Huge Bear Shot.

"Sunday morning last Master Tommy McGee, who lives on the Bobcaygeon road," the Independent says, "went out to have a look at a back field of green oats, and much to his surprise, discovered a large bear. Thomas is not a boy to be scared, though he had only seen a bear once before in his life. He is a boy who is right on business, and the moment he saw the bear he scented $10 ahead for a bear pelt, besides a fine lot of good bear meat. So he did a quiet sneak, and cautiously avoiding disturbing the bear which was munching away at the oats, and putting a comfortable pressure on its tumtum. Tommy sloped home, and reached for the rifle, and quickly returned excitedly wondering whether the bear had also sloped home. Quickly creeping up he heard the tramp and rustle of the bear in the oats. Then he squatted, and the beating of his heart was like the thumping of a dash churn. But Tom pulled himself together, and the trigger of the rifle to full cock, tilted his hat further back, and wiped his right hand on the north-east corner of the baggy part of his overalls. Suddenly the oats in front of him parted, and the bear was before him and only a few yards distant. In an instant Tom was upright on his feet, the rifle came to his shoulder his eye ran along the glistening barrel, and there was a flash, and a zipping crack. The bear gave a roar, and made one bound. That one spasmodic spring was its last, for it fell to the ground, dead. It was a she bear, in moderate good condition, and weighed 360 lbs." There is a bear possibility of this statement being correct.

LABOUR DAY.

Monday, September 3rd, being the first Monday in the month, is a statutory holiday. In accordance with his promise to the labour deputation, Sir John Thompson last session introduced a bill, which is now law, making the first Monday in September, known as Labour Day, a legal holiday, so that it must be observed by banks and all public institutions. It is to be hoped that the public generally will unite cordially with the representatives of the labour interests in making the first statutary Labour Day in Peterborough a holiday long to be remembered. The excellent programme of amusement in the Driving Park in the afternoon and the concert in the evening should be attended by all who wish to be well entertained and to recognize the claims of labour to encouragement.

CHEMONG PARK ITEMS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Many changes have, during the present week, taken place, at this lovely spot, and many good-byes have been exchanged with those leaving the Hotel and Park, all parting with sincere wishes to meet again next season, and your correspondent witnessing many of those very warm partings, felt a lonely feeling, but could not help thinking of the great satisfaction and pride that must have swelled in Mr. Fobert, when each parting guest shook him by the hand, and all his family, and thanked each one for their kind attention, and assuring Mr. Fobert that not only would they return, but add to their party, so that, although this has been a remarkable good season, yet next year's guests will be doubled. Mr. William Fobert, who has attended to the office, has made many warm friends, as he not only has faithfully attended to their wants there, but has seen to them in every other way when he could and done everything to make them thoroughly enjoy themselves, no matter in what way.

Friday evening a select party from Peterborough arrived at the hotel at 8 p.m., 40 in number, and proceeded to the pavillion, which was very tastefully decorated, and enjoyed a hop. The music was furnished by Mr. Butcher's orchestra, and your correspondent, being a judge of music, must say they are an A1 orchestra and gave beautiful music last night. At 11.30 the party adjourned to the hotel and partook of an excellent supper which was gotten up in the best of style. The dining room looked as though prepared for a wedding supper and everyone enjoyed it, but not only was the air filled with the delightful fragrance of those beautiful pine, but those who passed near the kitchen or dining room could have got a most delightful smell of the supper. Its fragrance was that of duck or other fowl and I could hardly say what else and forgot to enquire, as I was so much attracted by the rich dresses worn by the ladies, and their pretty as well as smiling faces and feit—well I don't know how to express my feelings. I got the names of many there and among them were: Misses Mollie Baker, Lindsay; Ella Cahill, B. Mahoney, J. B. Campbell, Toronto; L. Morgan, Minnie B. Jones, Isa Cooke, Messrs. Joe. Cahill, Geo. Wright, J. E. Jones, Bert King, J. Dickson, R. J. Fife, W.S. Thompson, A. Jobe, F. J. Might, C. D. Macfarlane, E. W. Cox, E. Wasson, T. McWilliams, John Butcher, G. Wholton, R. H. Leary. Dancing was kept up until three this morning when they quietly, after singing Auld Lang Syne, ordered their horses and returned home.

I also got a chance to see the laundress of the hotel, mention of whom is made in your contemporary, who was the victim of some mischievous boys that stirred up the hornet's nest as she was out walking on Sunday, but I wondered how she could feel the sting of one, as she is, oh! such a fat woman, it would be impossible to get near her feelings. Talk of Chemong being healthy! Why, just see her after her hard work in the laundry, she turns the scale at 263 pounds. There is also a report that she is shortly to be married; the man is spoken of as being small, but he must be very plucky to engage in such an undertaking.

I have just seen Mr. Ostrom, he has come in with five lunge and seven bass, all of good size.

On Monday next, the 3rd, the I. O. F., of Lindsay have an excursion—a monster one—to the park, and they will be accompanied by the Citizen's band of that town.

The house has yet a number of guests, and a telegram is to hand to have rooms for seven.

Mr. T. Kelly, who with his family, have returned to town, are greatly missed, as Mr. Kelly could always tell a good story, and was a successful fisherman.

PERSONAL.

Miss Amelia Cahill is visiting friends in Orillia for a few days.

Mr. A. White, district traffic manager of the Grand Trunk, was in town last evening.

Mrs. H. Denne, Sr., left this morning on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Graham, Kingston.

Lieut. N. D. Beck, Peterborough, arrived at the Russell House, Ottawa, Thursday night.—Free Press.

Miss Robinson, of Albert street, has returned home, after spending a few weeks with friends in Rochester.

Mrs. O'Donovan, lady superintendent of the Nicholls Hospital, has returned to town, after holidaying in the west.

Rev. R. K. Nicholls, an Anglican clergyman of New York, who has been in town on a visit to friends, is confined in St. Joseph's Hospital, suffering from a slight attack of fever.

Miss Fanny Robinson, of Albert street, has returned from Rochester, where she has been spending a few weeks' holidays. Her many friends are glad to see her back again looking well.

Rev. Father Dodsworth, the celebrated Redemptorist preacher, who conducted the retreat at St. Peter's Cathedral last week, will preach at 8 and 10:30 o'clock masses to-morrow.

Mr. W.B. Bamford, C.P.R. station agent at Peterborough, has been spending a couple of days with his uncle, Mr. E. L. Palen, Dunbar street, Belleville. He was accompanied by his wife.—Intelligencer.

Rev. J. E. Trotter, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church, has returned from his holidays, greatly improved in health and strength, and will occupy his own pulpit on Sabbath. His many friends are glad to see him looking so well.

Mr G Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs Taylor & Macdonald's or at the Peterborough Bookstore.

The "Sun" Cholera Drops.

The famous cure which has had such a wonderful success. Cramps, colic, diarrhœa and other summer complaints instantly relieved and cured. For sale by James Lynch, druggist, Hunter street.

INDIGESTION.

Madill's Dyspepsia Powders will give sure and quick relief for Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any of its forms.

TORONTO COLLEGE OF MUSIC.

Its Excellent Equipment for its Musical Mission.

The institution founded by Mr. F. H. Torrington, seven years ago, has proved a brilliant success, which may be attributed, without doubt, in a large measure, to the lines upon which its aims has been carried out. The College was opened in 1888, incorporated by government in 1890, and affiliated to the University of Toronto in the same year. Mr. Torrington has surrounded himself with an excellent staff of teachers, the latest addition being in the vocal department. The directorate, with commendable enterprise, have secured the services of Signor Tesseman, a distinguished artist, for many years Principal of Her Majesty's and the Royal Italian Opera Covent Garden, London, Eng., and has also sung in most of the principal opera houses in Italy and on the continent, with such artists as Mlle Tietjens, Patti, Nillson, Trebelli, Marimon, Grisi, Mario, Sims Reeves, in fact all the greatest stars in Europe. Signor Tesseman will devote his time exclusively to the College of Music, teaching voice development according to the pure Italian school of singing and imparting that style and finish which all who study singing should possess. The past year at the College of Music was a most successful one. Among its hundreds of students, several were in attendance from Peterborough and surrounding district, amongst others Miss Louise Yokome, of Peterborough, whose advancement in artistic violin playing speaks well for the College and Herr Klingenfield, her teacher. The new calendar has just reached us and is one of the most complete we have had the pleasure of reviewing. These are sent free upon application and will be found of benefit to musicians and students, as the standard of matters musical from the highest educational standpoint. As the college is the affiliated musical institution of the University of Toronto, many advantages are available for its students in musical matriculation preparation, modern languages and lectures in literature in the University.

THE LONDON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Head Office, London, Ont.

The above company now in its twentieth year since organization is one of the prominent financial institutions of Western Ontario. The company has a subscribed capital of $225,000 and $60,000 is deposited with the Dominion Government as a special protection to its policyholders over and above the protection afforded by its other assets in Canada, amounting together to about half a million dollars invested in first mortgages on real estate and other equally desirable securities.

The company's income in Canada averages at the present time over $500 per day and over a quarter of a million has already been paid to Canadian policyholders or their heirs.

In addition to issuing policies upon all the ordinary plans and upon terms as favourable as afforded by any other company, a special feature of the London Life's business is its Industrial or family insurance. In this branch all the healthy members of a family, male and female, from one year of age and upwards to sixty-five may insure. The premiums are payable weekly at the homes of the members, as small a weekly premium as five cents and upwards being accepted at all ages and policies issued accordingly. Two classes of policies are issued, viz., whole life and twenty year endowments. The former is intended to furnish a fund, out of which, upon the death of the insured, the funeral and other expenses can be defrayed, while the latter in addition to the foregoing also affords an excellent opportunity of saving small sums from week to week, which savings are payable to the insured, if living, at the expiration of the twenty year period.

All claims are paid promptly upon receipt at the head office of the necessary claim papers, the average time elapsing between date of death and issue of cheque in payment of claim, rarely exceeding three days.

The London Life is the only Canadian company issuing this class of policies and having recently opened up a branch office here over No. 172 Hunter street, in charge of Assistant Superintendent H. J. Smith, who previous to coming here was for several years in the company's employ in Toronto, and having appointed a staff of local agents, our citizens are now afforded an opportunity of obtaining insurance in this excellent home company upon terms that will enable everyone to insure, no matter how small their income.

For fuller particulars see the company's illustrated paper, The Monitor, which is furnished free.

Our Autumn BONANZA REDUCTION SALE

A Big Success!

OPENING DAY

Saturday, Aug. 25

Brought us crowds of delighted buyers.

Every promise fulfilled to the latter.

Here will be more of it.

The sale will go on until the stock is cut down.

Come and see what this week's selling will do in saving your money.

Next Bank of Toronto.

You Won't Mind the Rain

Rainproof Serge

One of the newest novelties in Dress Goods. Does not differ in any respect from ordinary Serge, except that it is RAINPROOF.

Ladies are delighted with this new weave of goods, and it promises to receive a great deal of preference. Our ranges in BLACK and NAVY are decidedly stylish as well as serviceable. You needn't mind the rainy season with a dress of this new material.

In reference to our New Fall Dress Stuffs, we wish to impress the fact that they are our own direct importations, and, to a large extent, the designs are exclusive, and are not shown by other stores.

R. H. Kells & Co.

369 GEORGE STREET.

That's Right!

KEEP ON BUYING

Bad Cigars for a cent or two less than you can buy good ones. They last a good long time when you take them home, and besides you get a chance to heap epithets of not a flattering character upon "that fellow that sold me them Cigars."

WE SAY

It's better to have a good Cigar once in a while than stale tobacco leaves twice in a while.

MORAL:—

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Cricket and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

BASEBALL.

Yesterday afternoon the wine clerks nine of Peterborough and the Ambrose & Winslow brewery nine of Port Hope, batted for supremacy on the P.A.A.A. diamond before a fair gathering. Both teams put up a good game, and at times some very sharp play was witnessed. Mr. Wm. Bunton acted as umpire and his decisions gave entire satisfaction. The following is the score:

Peterborough.

LACROSSE.

The Granites have been unable to arrange a match with the junior Lindsays for Monday.

Considerable interest is being aroused in the lacrosse match on the P. A. A. A. grounds on Sept. 12th between Orillia and Peterborough, and indications are that it will gather the biggest crowd of the season. The boys turned out well for practice last night, and they intend fighting hard for victory over their old rivals, the Orillians.

The members of the Junior Peterborough's are requested to be on hand at the Palace Restaurant parlours at 1.30 sharp Monday afternoon.

CRICKET.

Peterborough and Millbrook play cricket here on Monday, the game to commence at 9 o'clock sharp. The following players will comprise the Peterborough eleven:—Montgomery, Allison Leefe, D. Roger, (Capt.) Goldsmith, Stocker, Wonham, Parker, Drope, Burnham, H. Halliday, H. Bell, scorer; V. McGill, umpire.

FOOTBALL.

"Football, the Port Hope Times says, will boom in that town this season. The affable and courteous manager of the Port Hope lacrosse team, Mr. S. W. Patterson, intends taking an interest in the game." That is just where he is needed. A football team needs a heavy "kicker."

A meeting of football enthusiasts was held in the office of Mr. R. B. Rogers last evening, and a Rugby team was organized with the following officers:

President—R. B. Rogers.

1st Vice-President—F. W. Taylor.

Manager and Secretary-Treasurer—E.M. Poussette.

Executive Committee — Messrs. Montgomery, Leefe, Morphet, Drope and R. H. Strickland.

The Collegiate Institute Rugby football club held a meeting on Thursday evening and organized for the coming season. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—C. Fessenden.

President—J. Jeffries.

Captain—W. J. Drope.

Secretary-Treasurer—Harold Lewis.

Committee—Messrs. J. A. McDonald, L. King, S. Adams, W. Davidson and C. Poussette.

It is the intention of the club to commence practice next week, and they intend making a record this season.

THE WHEEL.

Twelve of the heavy weight members of the Peterborough Bicycle Club leave Port Hope Monday morning on the century trip to Kingston. The following schedule shows the number of miles between the different places along the century route and the time allowed for lunch at the different stopping places. BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

Indian Troubles in Idaho.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Sept. 1.—Word reaches here that serious trouble is brewing in Owyhee county with a hundred marauding Indians from the Fort Hall reservation district. Johnson, the game warden of the county, reported that the Indians killed a Chinaman yesterday, and settlers are becoming alarmed.

A Stay for "Bat" Shea.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—"Bat" Shea, who was convicted of murdering Robert Ross at Troy during last spring's elections, and who was to have been electrocuted this week, will probably enjoy life another year. A stay was granted, pending an appeal which has not yet been filed.

Germany's Tariff Grievance.

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—Baron Marshal von Biberstein, Minister of Foreign Affairs, had a prolonged conference yesterday with United States Ambassador Runyon in regard to Germany's grievances growing out of the sugar schedule in the American tariff law.

What do you take medicine for? Because you are sick and want to get well, of course. Then remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

Mr. H. S. McDonald, druggist, says: The sale of Phenyo-Caffain with me is steadily increasing. Customers speak in the highest praise of its efficiency in headache, neuralgia, etc.

Grafton & Co. sell stylish new clothing at lower prices than you can buy this inferior class of goods for.

Hello!

Hear the grocers howl, because we are selling Osk-K-osh Tea at twenty-eight cents a pound, regular price 40c. Yes, we also give 4 pounds for one dollar, less than cost, but we require cash, and new season's tea will soon be here. Stroud Bros., 370 George street.

THE SMALLEST IS THE BEST.

There are a dozen well-known liver pills, but only one so effective that it can be guaranteed to give satisfaction, or the money be refunded. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are smaller, but better than the huge, old-fashioned pill; the medicinal agents are refined and concentrated. Every one suffers, at some time or other, from Constipation, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Biliousness, Bilious and Sick Headaches. You're relieved and cured of these troubles, if you take "P. P. P."

These Pellets are easy to take, and act in a natural way without shocking the system. They're easy to carry, because they are put up in little glass vials. They're the cheapest, because guaranteed to give satisfaction. Remember, that Dr. Pierce's Pellets are pleasant to take, pleasant in action, perfect in effect. Keep this in mind and you solve the problem of good health and good living.

If you're suffering from Catarrh, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy ask you to try their medicine. Then, if you can't be cured, they'll pay you $500 in cash.

AN HOTEL MAN'S STORY.

THE PROPRIETOR OF THE GRAND UNION, TORONTO, RELATES AN INTERESTING EXPERIENCE.

Suffered Intensely From Rheumatism—Six Doctors and Mineral Springs Failed to Help Him—How he Found a Cure—His Wife Also Restored to Health—Advice to Others.

From the Toronto World.

One of the most popular officers at the recent meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, was Rev. L. A. Betts, of Brockville, Grand Chaplain for 1893-94. While on his way to grand lodge, Rev. Mr. Betts spent some time in Toronto, and among other points of interest visited the World office. It seems natural to talk Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any one hailing from the home of that world-famous medicine, and incidentally the conversation with Mr. Betts turned in that direction, when he told the World that he had that day met an old friend whose experience was a most remarkable one. The friend alluded to is Mr. John Soby, for many years the proprietor of one of the leading hotels of Napanee, but now a resident of Toronto and proprietor of one of the Queen City's newest and finest hostelries, the Grand Union Hotel, opposite the Union depot. The World was impressed with the story Mr. Betts told, and determined to interview Mr. Soby, and secure the particulars of his case for publication. Mr. Soby freely gives his testimony to the good done him by Dr. William's Pink Pills. A few years ago rheumatism, with its attendant legion of aches and pains, fastened upon him, and he was forced to retire from business. "For months," said Mr. Soby, "I suffered, and could find no relief from doctors or medicines. The disease was always worse in the spring and fall, and last year I was almost crippled with pain. From my knee to my shoulder shot pains which felt like red hot needles. Then all my limbs would be affected at once. Half a dozen doctors, one after the other, tried to cure me, but did no good. The rheumatism seemed to be getting worse. As I had tried almost everything the doctors could suggest, I thought I would try a little prescribing on my own account and purchased a supply of Pink Pills. The good effects were soon perceptible and I procured a second supply and before these were gone I was cured of a malady six doctors could not put an end to. I have recovered my appetite, never felt better in my life, and I give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills credit for this transformation. My wife, too, is just as warm an advocate as I am. A sufferer for years she has experienced to the full the good of Dr. Williams' invaluable remedy, and recommends it to all women." "From what trouble was your wife suffering?" asked the reporter. "Well, I can't just tell you that," said Mr. Soby. "I do not know and I don't think she did. It's just the same with half the women. They are sick, weak, and dispirited, have no appetite and seem to be fading away. There is no active disease at work, but something is wrong. That was just the way with my wife. She was a martyr to dyspepsia, never in perfect health, and when she saw the change the Pink Pills made in me she tried them. The marvellous improvement was just as marked in her case as in my own, and she says that her whole system is built up, and that the dyspepsia and sick headaches have vanished. She, as well as myself, seems to have regained youth, and I have not the slightest hesitation in pronouncing the remedy one of the most valuable discoveries of the century. Let the doubters call and see me and they will be convinced."

These pills are a positive cure for all troubles arising from a vitiated condition of the blood or a shattered nervous system. Sold by all dealers or by mail, from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. There are numerous imitations and substitutions against which the public is cautioned.

Rev. Mr. Wye's Troubles.

WINDSOR, Aug. 31.—It is reported that Rev. G. W. Wye will not leave Amherstburg to go to London in obedience to the summons of Bishop Baldwin, to appear before him on September 12, and have passed on him the finding of the commission appointed last April to hear evidence in the charge preferred against Wye, alleging that his usefulness in the parish appears to be gone. Mr. Wye intends to ignore the summons and will appeal to the House of Bishops. The notice of appeal has been sent to Bishop Baldwin. In the meantime Mr. Wye intends to hold his place as rector of Amherstburg parish. Mr. Wye's counsel is also preparing papers in a civil action to recover his back salary, which now amounts to nearly $2,000. He claims that the triers were prejudiced against Mr. Wye and that their verdict was decidedly unjust.

You can never have a really good complexion until the impurity is cleansed from your blood. What you need is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is absolutely free from all harmful ingredients, and therefore, perfectly safe.

The Largest Churches.

We find a list of the largest churches in Europe with figures representing their seating capacity, but we have an idea that the figures given indicate the capacity for the standing multitude, as in few cases are there seats provided. We give the list, however, as we find it:

	Seats.
St. Peter's Church, Rome	54,000
Milan Cathedral	37,000
St. Paul's, Rome	32,000
St. Paul's, London	25,000
St. Petronio, Bologna	24,000
Florence Cathedral	24,000
Antwerp Cathedral	24,000
St. Sophia's, Constantinople	23,000
St. John's, Lateran	22,000
Notre Dame, Paris	21,000
Pisa Cathedral	13,000
St. Stephen's, Vienna	12,000
St. Dominic's, Bologna	12,000
St. Peter's, Bologna	11,000
Cathedral of Vienna	11,000
St. Mark's, Venice	7,000
Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London	7,000

The figures opposite Spurgeon's Tabernacle mean the seating capacity.

Brutal Assault on a Bailiff.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 31.—A brutal assault was committed upon the person of George J. Labelle, bailiff of Hull. He was reading an evening paper in his office, when a party entered and without saying a word struck him across the back of the neck with a stick or stone, inflicting a wound several inches long just below the base of the brain. He cried out and attracted the attention of a gentleman who was passing down the street. Bailiff Labelle was removed to a neighboring drug store, where his wound was dressed, seven inches of plaster being required to unite the flesh. He has not the faintest idea who his assailant can possibly have been.

So Should We Live.

So should we live that every hour
May fall as falls the natural flower—
A self-reviving thing of power;

That every thought and every deed
May hold within itself the seed
Of future good and future need.

Esteeming sorrow, whose employ
Is to develop, not destroy,
Far better than a barren joy.

MONCTON MILNES (Lord Houghton).

Lynchers Cheated of a Victim.

ZANESVILLE, O., Aug. 31.—Madison Cheadle, a farmer living in Morgan county, was taken from his home by white caps, beaten almost into insensibility, and then hanged to the limb of a tree. A tramp in a neighboring barn cut him down in time to save his life. The offence charged against Cheadle was theft.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

MRS. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

Nearly in Despair,

and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

NEBRASKA'S SUGAR INDUSTRY.

The Oxnard Company Complains Against the New Tariff.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 1.—It is asserted by interested persons that the new tariff law has destroyed the beet sugar industry in Nebraska, involving several million dollars.

J. G. Hamilton, secretary of the Oxnard Company, with ten branches in this State, says: "Under the new tariff we are practically ruined in Nebraska. We started out five years ago with the intention of building ten sugar factories in Nebraska, and instead of building more may be compelled to abandon those already in operation. Under the operations of the McKinley tariff law we were paying $5 per ton for beets and at this figure the farmers were raising beets at a liberal profit. They were beginning to become enthusiastic over beet culture. Under the new tariff bill we cannot give over $4 per ton for beets delivered at the factory. We shall send out letters at once, making a frank statement of our situation, giving accurate figures representing the loss we will sustain, and have the beet raisers sustain one-half of the loss. In other words, in order to run the factory on the new basis, we shall have to purchase beets at $4 per ton. We are willing, however, to divide the loss. If we cannot induce the farmers to do this we shall quit entirely at the close of the run of the fall of 1895."

The Wellington Bridge Dismissals.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, who is in the city, said: "With regard to recent dismissals I can say very little. The gentlemen dismissed in connection with the Wellington bridge incident were Mr. Parent, Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Maccomaha, the head of the stores, and Mr. Darragh, the head carpenter. Our latest work, the Soulanges canal, from the Cascades to Coteau, is getting on in the most satisfactory way. I do not know who are to succeed the men who have been dismissed. The work of my department is progressing without any difficulty or hitch."

Those Paper Mill Negotiations.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—In regard to the report from Appleton, Wis., yesterday that an English syndicate had purchased all the paper and pulp mills in Wisconsin, prominent and well-informed members of the paper trade in this city declare that they had not heard of any negotiations having been entered into by agents of any syndicate of British capitalists looking for the purchase of the mills, and expressed their belief that no negotiations on a scale so extensive as indicated in the despatch could be carried on without their knowledge.

Caught Fire From the Thresher.

NORVAL, Ont., Sept. 1.—Yesterday the barns and outbuildings owned by James Clark and occupied by John Cunningham were totally destroyed by fire. The fire originated from the threshing machine engine. While the men were threshing the fire started in the straw and the building was almost enveloped in flames before the men got out. Mr. Cunningham had some difficulty in saving some valuable cattle which were stabled underneath the barn. The separator owned by Mr. Wm. Dolson was burned. Mr. Cunningham lost about $1,400, insured for $800.

Counterfeiters in the Toils.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 1.—Chief Wills arrested Edward Ryan, a painter and paperhanger, formerly of Toronto, and Thomas Weaver, a man of general work, employed by Sol White and claiming to come from near Glencoe, on the charge of manufacturing spurious coins. The two men roomed together and in their room were found moulds, plaster of paris, metal, a melting pot and some counterfeit American silver dollars and quarter dollars. The two men were before the police magistrate yesterday and remanded for a week.

A Captured Sealer in Port.

VICTORIA, B.C., Sept. 1.—The sealer Wanderer was brought into port under arrest of H.M.S. Pheasant, having been found with secret guns on board after being previously searched by a United States patrol vessel. The Wanderer brought two deserters from the whaling bark California of San Francisco. These men report the loss of two whaling vessels, one the Hunter and the other unknown. The crew of the Hunter were picked up by the Revenue cutter Bear. It is supposed the crew sustained life by cannibalism.

To Deepen Lake St. Louis.

MONTREAL, Sept. 1.—It is understood that it has been definitely decided to make a channel in Lake St. Louis, starting at Lachine wharf, the depth to be 16 feet, with proportionate width, until deep water is reached. This will enable steamers for points along the lake to avoid the great circuit now necessary. The estimated cost of the work is $300,000. The work will be commenced next October under the supervision of Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals.

A Little Boy Killed.

TORONTO, Sept. 1.—The four year-old son of Farrell O'Reilly, carpenter, was killed yesterday near his father's residence. The little fellow was playing in the road when a load of hay passed. He was pulling at the hay when he fell under one of the wheels, which passed over him. A couple of doctors were called, but the boy died shortly after he was hurt.

Burglarized the Bank.

CLARKSBURG, Sept. 1.—The banking office of Hartman and Wilgress was entered by burglars, who blew open the vault door with dynamite and escaped with a box full of deeds and papers and a large quantity of very valuable silver left in the bank by A. T. Wilgress. The burglar-proof safe was untouched.

MOWBRAY ON ANARCHY

THE FAMOUS ENGLISH ANARCHIST DEFINES ITS MEANING.

How He Considers Murder and Arson—He Would Reorganize Society and Establish a Great Brotherhood on the Basis of Mutual Aid to One Another.

Charles Wilfred Mowbray, the English anarchist, writes:

It has not often happened that the people of the United States have taken exception to an Englishman landing on their shores, but the unusual event has happened at last. I was not aware before the other day that I was such a very dangerous personage. On the contrary, my friends in England have thought me rather mild. The officials of the United States government hold a different view, based on what we call in England funk bred, no doubt, from the fear born of corruption and incapacity. I am here and I shall go away when I like unless force is used to compel my return.

You laugh, no doubt, when I say peace. And you think about the actions of men and women who have been identified with the anarchist movement. But let me tell you that these actions, this violence, have no more to do with anarchism than it had to do with every movement of the past toward progress.

The genuine anarchist looks with sheer horror upon every destruction, every mutilation of a human being, physical or moral. He loathes wars, executions and imprisonments, the grinding down of the workers whole nature is a dreary round of toil, the social and economical slavery of woman, the oppression of children, the crippling and poisoning of human nature by the preventable cruelty and injustice of man to man in every shape and form. Certainly this frame of mind and homicidal outrage cannot stand on the relation of cause and effect. As a communist-anarchist I look upon human societies as essentially natural groups of individuals who have grown into association for the sake of mutually aiding one another in self-production and self-development. Artificially formed empires, constructed and held together by force, I regard as a miserable sham.

The society which I desire and would recognize would be that which would be bound together by real sympathies and common ideas and aims. Where in all the world to-day do we find a society bound by such ties as I have named? In my eyes the true purpose of every such natural society, whether it be a nation or a confederation of nations, a tribe or a village community, is to give every member of it the largest possible opportunities in life.

The object of associating is to increase the opportunities of the individuals. One isolated human being is helpless, a hopeless slave to external nature, whereas the limits of what is possible to human beings in free and rational association are as yet unimagined.

Now I hold a natural society good in proportion as it answers what I believe to be its true purpose, and bad in proportion as it departs from that purpose, and instead of enlarging the lives of the individuals composing it, it crushes and narrows them. For instance, when society recognizes the right of a comparatively few men to the exclusive possession of the soil, and thereby prevent others from enjoying or using it except upon hard and stinting terms. I hold that society, in so far as it recognizes such an arrangement, is bad and fails of its purpose, because such an arrangement, instead of enlarging the opportunities for a full human life for everybody, cruelly curtails them for all workers and many others, and moreover is forced on the sufferers against their will, and not arrived at, as all social arrangements ought to be, by mutual agreement.

Such is my view of human societies in general, and, of course, I endeavor to find out and make clear to myself and to others the main cause why our own existing society is here and now failing so dismally, in many directions, to fulfill its true function. I have arrived at the conclusion that these causes of failure are mainly two. First, the unhappy recognition of authority of man over man as a morally right principle, a thing to be accepted and submitted to, instead of being resisted as essentially evil and wrong. Second, the equally unhappy recognition of the right of property, i.e., the right of individuals who have complied with certain legal formalities to monopolize material things, whether they are using them or need to use them or not, and whether they have produced them or not.

To me this state of public conscience which permits these two principles of authority and of property to hold sway in our social life seems to be the root of our miserably desocialized condition, and, therefore, I am against all institutions and all habits which are based on these principles or tend to keep them up.

CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubters—He Once had Diabetes, but has it no More—Attending to his Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20.—The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice which has always been a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautions as to diet or otherwise that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with diabetes.

HAVE YOU BACK-ACHE

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

WILL CURE YOU

"Backache means the kidneys are in trouble. Dodd's Kidney Pills give prompt relief."

"75 per cent. of disease is first caused by disordered kidneys.

"Might as well try to have a healthy city without sewerage, as good health when the kidneys are clogged, they are the scavengers of the system.

"Delay is dangerous. Neglected kidney troubles result in Bad Blood, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and the most dangerous of all, Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy."

"The above diseases cannot exist where Dodd's Kidney Pills are used."

Sold by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price 50 cents. per box or six for $2.50. Dr. L. A. Smith & Co. Toronto. Write for book called Kidney Talk.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

ROBERT HALL,

385 George Street.

FIFTY-SEVENTH BATTALION TROPHIES.

The Spoils of the Sharpshooters—"The Cups That Cheer But Not Inebriate."

In the show window of Mason & Co's. grocery shop are displayed three beautiful trophies won by the Fifty-Seventh Battalion. The middle and highest silver cup is that now under company competition, awarded annually to the best drilled and best set-up company in the battalion. It was won for the first time by "A" company, Capt. E. F. Mason. Last year it was awarded to "E" company, Captain J. W. Miller. The Deputy Adjutant-General has not made his award for the current year.

This cup is flanked by two smaller cups, the larger of which represents the first prize in the Martini team competition in the Canadian Military Rifle League series, competed for by ten-men teams from the several corps in the country. The first team of the 57th won this event in a canter, and are therefore the owners of this magnificent cup. It is of sterling silver of beautiful design, surmounted by the figure of an officer using a field glass. The cup rests on a circular moulded pedestal of ebony, occupying the middle of a rectangular base of ebony, and on each side of the cup on the base are the figures of riflemen, kneeling and in the Hythe position, in the act of firing.

The smaller cup is the trophy of the 57th Snider team in the same competition, which won sixth place in that series. This cup is a fine one, and has an ebony pedestal and base with the figures of riflemen. These trophies are a great credit to the gallant Fifty-Seventh which won their laurels against keen rivalry, almost every one of the 63 battalions contributing teams to the competition.

TO INSPECT SEWER FARMS.

The Sewerage Committee Appoint a Deputation for that Purpose.

The Sewerage Committee of the town, with Mr. H. Best as chairman, met last evening and discussed the sewerage question.

A committee was appointed consisting of the Mayor, the town engineer, and Mr. Best, chairman of the Sewerage Committee, and Messrs. Hughes and Hall to visit Galt, Berlin and other places possessing sewerage farms, with the object of ascertaining their mode of operation, and the results achieved from their use. The date of the visit to these towns has not yet been fixed, but will probably be soon.

SALVATION ARMY FESTIVAL.

To Begin this Evening—Gorgeous Decorations at the Barracks.

The local corps of the Salvation Army have been busily engaged during the past week in decorating their spacious barracks on Simcoe street for their annual harvest festival, which begins this evening and ends on Monday evening. A visit to the barracks on Friday afternoon showed the results of the week's work in a gorgeous and very prettily-decorated barracks. The walls have been liberally decorated with evergreen wreaths, sheaves of grain and bunting, while from the colonade of pillars extend beautiful streamers, in all the colours of the rainbow. Shelves have been erected on either side of the interior, on which are placed beautiful potted plants. The door at the main entrance has been encircled with a beautiful evergreen arch, and just in front of the raised platform at the rear end of the hall, the soldiers have erected an evergreen arch, which extends almost the whole width of the barracks. Hung in a very prominent position are noticed the portraits of General Booth and wife. This arch is a splendid piece of work. Beneath this arch are placed the stalls containing the products of the garden and field, which will be in charge of the different divisions of the corps. This display is a large and well selected one. It is the intention of the Army to dispose of those products at the close of the festival Monday evening.

How We Forged

Our way to the front, is largely due to close buying, close application, and an appreciative class of customers. Our whole hobby has been to excel in selling Groceries, Provisions, etc., which we know to be the best, the purest, and the cleanest, for the smallest margin of profit. We cannot afford to mistake anything. We never do. If you are so prejudiced that you're willing to go on paying too much, no argument need be wasted, but if you are open to conviction and a fair judge of values, a sample order will prove to you how true our contention is.

We are especially pleased to know that our past six months business has been the most satisfactory, as well as the largest in Peterborough.

OUR SPECIALS for the next week will consist chiefly in Sugars for Preserving, Vinegars and Spices for Pickling, and Teas. Come early—better late than ever—but come, sure.

FIRE'S AWFUL HARVEST

Nearly Four Hundred Lives Were Lost in the Terrible Holocaust.

TWENTY-SIX TOWNS WIPED OUT

Awful Scene of Desolation and Death at Hinckley, Minnesota — Aggregate Property Loss Placed at From Three to Five Million Dollars.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 4.—The latest advices from the scene of the big fire indicate that there will be a total of nearly 400 lives lost. This includes the fatalities at Pokegama, Rutledge, Sandstone and all the area of the country covered by the conflagration. Fully 200 dead were gathered in the cemetery at Hinckley awaiting burial. There were two great heaps of naked and charred bodies in every conceivable distorted attitude. There were 16 known to be dead at Pokegama, 51 at Sandstone village and about 30 more in the outlying country. The fire covered a large area of country, some of it very hard for searching parties to reach. It will take at least a week to ascertain how many are lost and many of them will never be identified. Many families are being cared for at Pine City, Duluth and Superior. At the former place there are about 500 homeless people, and it is estimated that at least 1,000 people will have to be taken care of until they can get a new start in life. The wounded in the hospitals at Pine City were all doing well last evening. It began raining at 9 o'clock in the morning but stopped at noon. It is not believed there is any further danger to be feared from fire in the burned region.

The aggregate loss will run into millions but it is absolutely impossible to give any reliable estimate as so wide an extent of country was devastated. The largest single loss was that of the Frennan Lumber Co., of Hinckley, which is placed at $800,000 by the officials of the company.

The aggregate loss is variously estimated at from three to five millions and this does not include the standing timber destroyed.

The following towns in the north-west have been either totally or partially destroyed by the flames: Pokegama, Hinckley, Sandstone, Mission Creek, Rutledge, Mansfield, and Milaca in Minnesota; Bashaw, Barronnette, Benoit, Cartwright, Fifield, Granite Lake, Grantsburg, Glidden, Marengo, Muscado, Shell Lake, Poplar, Spencer, High Bridge, Ashland Junction, and Washburn in Wisconsin; Ewen and Trout Creek in Michigan.

The anxiety felt for the safety of northern Wisconsin towns was set at rest by the rain in nearly every locality where the fires have been worst.

The Horror at Hinckley.

HINCKLEY, Minn., Sept. 4.—The first good description of the great fire that swept away this thriving village was secured on the arrival of the special. It seemed that forest and peat fires had been raging within a short distance of Hinckley for weeks, but no apprehension had been felt by the inhabitants and no preparations had been made for emergencies. Saturday afternoon the fire approached, fanned by a strong wind; the smoke grew denser as the day advanced and it soon became as dark as night. About 4 o'clock the wind changed and the residents of the doomed town were bearing down upon them. As the alarm rang through the streets the people rushed from their homes and when they caught sight of the red onrushing sea of fire they became panic-stricken.

The fire shot across the town and the people fled in all directions. They ran wherever they thought they could find refuge. A large number ran to a pond some three or four acres in extent and three or four feet deep.

The largest crowd of people rushed to Grindstone river, a shallow stream which it was thought would afford protection from the flames, but the water was too low and all miserably perished. There the relief parties found the bodies lying in the water and trampled by the flying cattle.

Just as the flames were raging fiercest a train arrived over the Eastern Minnesota and 500 people clambered aboard. It was a Godsend to the people, who offered up prayers of thankfulness as the engineer sent the train at a rapid speed away from the burning town and back to safety in Superior.

Another party had rushed for the limited on the St. Paul and Duluth, but as the fire cut off their way in that direction they ran to a shallow pond near by. There they perished. One hundred and five bodies were removed from the pond by the relief committee. East of the village there was a stagnant pool of rain water. Over 100 people sought refuge here, and of these only one man is known to have perished. The immense plant of the Brennan Lumber Co., with saw mills, planing mills, stables and 28,000,000 feet of pine lumber was wiped out in almost less time than it takes to write it. With the stables were consumed 90 head of horses.

The financial loss to this company alone will reach $500,000 on which there is an insurance of about one-half.

A reporter boarded the train out of Pine City for Hinckley yesterday morning. As the train neared Mission Creek the first evidence of the great fire became apparent. The whole country was singed. The telegraph wires were down and the scene was one of desolation. At Mission Creek a small shanty was the only house left standing.

The train proceeded slowly through miles further to Hinckley. The round and coal sheds of the Eastern Minnesota road only remained standing at the station and the walls of the public school in the centre of the village itself. Alongside the railroad track were two score of boxes filled with the bloated and disfigured remains of victims of the fire. The reporter picked his way through the deserted avenues of the village to the cemetery. The rain was pouring down in sheets. At the cemetery a mile and a half from town a half dozen men were digging a trench. A heap of bodies lay on a knoll in the middle of the cemetery. There were 96 naked bodies of men, women and children, scorched, blackened, distorted bowels and brains protruding, hands clutched in their final agonies, hair singed from heads of old, young and middle aged, all in a promiscuous heap. In another corner of the cemetery were 45 more bodies covered with quilts. All were interred late in the afternoon.

A local searching party in the morning found the body of Thomas Dunn, aged 22, late operator at the St. Paul and Duluth station. When the fire started he remained at his post, and it was only when the advancing flames drove him from the station that he left his key. He hurried over to the river and perished there with a number of others. His brother was among the searching party that found his body.

Robert Dowling, baggage agent at the Hinckley station of the St. Paul and Duluth, was going about the street with a badly scorched hand and face. He says that there was a large crowd of people at the station waiting for the Duluth limited, due at 4.20 p.m., when the fire came down upon the town. Dowling started for his home, but could not get near the house. He ran up the track and fortunately got on the limited a mile north of the town.

It is difficult to portray the situation at Hinckley. A few refugees, a half score of searchers, a team or two transporting boxes containing dead bodies, the place where a town had been, that is the picture. It is like looking over the track of a cyclone. A large majority of those lost were Scandinavians.

Reports continue to come in from the vicinity of Skunk Creek of added discoveries of burned victims. Fifty-eight dead were found lying in the streets and in the immediate vicinity of this village. The total in the vicinity will reach fully 400 dead when all the returns are in. Identification is an exceedingly difficult matter, and most of the so-called identifications of dead bodies are mere guesses. It will be fully ten days, perhaps longer, before all the missing are accounted for.

The registration committee is busily engaged trying to locate people and ascertaining the condition and necessities of all applicants for relief, and this means nearly every survivor from the burned districts. J. D. Markham, of Rush City, says that the population of Pokegama aggregated 113 souls last Saturday. Of this number sixteen are known to be burned.

A Town Totally Wiped Out.

MORA, Minn., Sept. 4.—Broad Park, Pokegama station, a new town on the St. Cloud and Hinckley branch of the Great Northern was totally destroyed. The flames burned 300,000 feet of lumber and saw mill, hotel, stores, postoffice, school house and section house. Twenty-five families are homeless. The loss of property is estimated at $30,000. No insurance.

The following are missing: Thomas Raymond, wife and three children; Charles Anderson, wife and three children; Charles Olsen, Oscar Larsson and sister, David Goodsell, Charles Whitney, Mr. Barnes and J. B. Bremen.

The dead are: Fred Molander, wife and three children; Miss Nora Olsen. Several others are seriously injured.

Reports From Other Points.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., Sept. 4.—Navigation is so dangerous on account of the dense pall of smoke from the forest fires that vessels cannot proceed through St. Mary's river except at a great risk.

KANE, Pa., Sept. 4.—A stiff gale from the south-east all day has freshened up the many forest fires burning in the section. Fires along the line of the Pittsburg and Western between Mt. Jewett and Grimsby prevented trains from coming through last night. The roaring of the fire can be heard for a mile. Much valuable timber is being destroyed.

SAELL LAKE, Wis., Sept. 4.—The loss here is $100,000 and at Baronet $50,000, with slight insurance. One life was lost at Baronet. The loss at Granite Lake is $45,000.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 4.—A private message received here states that the inhabitants have abandoned Fifield on account of fire. No particulars can be obtained.

SAMOA WANTS TO BE ANNEXED.

A Petition to Germany Signed by Englishmen and Americans.

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—The last mail from Samoa brings a petition to the Emperor for annexation. Among the 62 signers are two Englishmen and one American. The German warship Falke has been at Berkuknaalo. The officers visited the fort and the rebels cordially received them. Young Tamasese, son of Germany's former protege, has joined the rebels. The confusion of the Government troops is constantly growing. But whatever the policy of the government it is certain that Great Britain will not submit tamely to a surrender of its rights in the protectorate and it is therefore likely that Samoa may soon again be a centre of interest for a civilized world.

Hygenic Congress Opened.

BUDA PESTH, Sept. 4.—Archduke Charles yesterday opened, on behalf of Emperor Francis Joseph, the International Hygenic Congress in the city. The archduke was accompanied by Dr. Werkerl, and all the members of the cabinet and by many courtiers and savants. Redoute buildings was crowded with a brilliant assemblage. In opening the congress the archduke recalled the importance of hygenic questions. In many countries he said instruction in hygene was obligatory in the public schools. Responses to the archduke's address were made by Dr. Leyden on behalf of Germany; Bergeron for France, Erisman for Russia, Billings for the United States and Corfield for the United Kingdom. Debates will be begun in eighteen section of the congress to-day.

Archduke Charles afterwards opened the international exhibition connected with the congress at the Royal Polytechnic Institute.

Mr. Fitzgerald started again at 10¼, Mr. Cluxton raising it to 10 9-16, and Mr. Brenton to 10⅜, naming Keene, Peterborough, Lang and Otonabee Union.

Mr. Hodgson next bid 10⅜ and Mr. Cook 10 13-16. Westwood, Norwood, Oakdale and Ormonde accepted.

Mr. Fitzgerald then started at 10⅜ taking North Smith, Cherry Grove, Warsaw, Ida Mount Pleasant.

Mr. Hodgson's offer of 10⅜ was refused by a number of factories, but Bobcaygeon accepted.

Mr. Wrighton then bid 10 9-16, Mr. Cook 10⅜, taking Blackstock, Manchester, Melrose Abbey, Daisy D. and Fleetwood.

Mr. Cook offered 10⅜ for further selections and Mr. Wrighton 10 9-16 for Fraserville, which refused.

Mr. Cook again bid 10¼, Mr. Wrighton 10 9-16. Mariposa, Fenelon Falls, Cameron, North Verulam and Manilla accepted.

Mr. Cook again started with 10⅜ and Mr. Wrighton with 10 9-16, but no factories accepted the offer.

On motion the board adjourned for two weeks, the remaining factories being allowed the privilege to sell off the board.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

A Disastrous Fire—Mr. Andrew Dobbin's Farm Buildings and Crops Destroyed.

On Saturday evening about 8 o'clock a fire broke out in a stack of peas in the rear of the barn of Mr. Andrew Dobbin, North Monaghan, on the gravel road, about four miles from town. In an inconceivably short time the stack and the barn adjoining were a sheet of flame. Nothing could be done to save the buildings nor the house which was soon on fire. The best that could be done was to remove the furniture in the lower part of the house and a few articles from the upstairs. Apart from these everything in the house and barn fell a prey to the flames. The loss is very large. The barns contained the season's crop from fifty acres, and this year Mr. Dobbin had an unusually good crop. All the season's grain, hay, farming implements, tools, vehicles, a fine young horse, six pigs, about ready for slaughter and over 200 fowls were destroyed. It is estimated that the loss will amount to over $2,000, and there was unfortunately no insurance upon either house or barn. There is evidence that the fire was of incendiary origin. It appears that Mrs. Dobbin saw the fire in the stack at an early stage and proceeded with a pail of water to extinguish it. When thrown upon the fire the water did not seem to have any effect upon it and there was a distinct odor of coal oil. Besides it is stated that the green grass in the vicinity was burned in an irregular course like that taken by a rivulet of coal oil flowing from the stack. This fire is a singularly unfortunate one. Mr. Dobbin and family are practically homeless and except for the land almost entirely without possessions. His neighbours appreciate the situation and it is probable that their sympathy will not be of an entirely sentimental character.

HE BOBS UP AGAIN.

Sam Murray, Whom the Doctors had Pronounced as Incurable, Still on Deck—Now Acting as Foreman for a Big Lumber Concern.

North Bay, Sept. 3,—Sam Murray's name is one that has often figured in newspaper columns during the past eighteen months because he was cured of paralysis and blood poisoning by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after half a dozen physicians had pronounced him incurable. On the strength of physicians' certificates, Murray was paid his disability claim by the Grand Trunk. Since he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, he has been accepted as a first-class risk by a leading life insurance company. About a year ago, he got a position as foreman for the big lumber concern of Davidson & Hay, of Toronto, and the fact that he was able to satisfactorily to attend to the trying duties of such a position, is ample evidence of the permanency of his cure.

IMPORTANT AGRICULTURAL POINTERS.

(The Bobcaygeon Independent.)

There are few gentlemen possessing a greater experience in the commercial affairs of this country than Mr. Cluxton, of Peterborough, and none who have more at heart the prosperity of the Midland district. In the following correspondence the agricultural community will find much material upon which they can profitably expend their most earnest reflection.

Peterborough, Aug. 29th, '94.

ED. BOB. IND.—Sir, I have had it on my mind to write to the press for the purpose of sounding a warning note in connection with the Cheese Industry of Ontario, and as you always manifest a deep interest in the welfare of the farmers, I have taken the liberty of addressing this letter to your excellent journal.

During the last few years I have read lectures and listened to addresses by the Government officials on dairying. These addresses were very valuable and useful, and have done a great deal of good. The quality of the cheese has been raised in consequence to a high standard. Indeed, I think the cheese made in the counties of Peterborough and Victoria is not excelled in the Dominion. The lecturers, however, are not business men, and that is where the danger lies. While they are well versed in the manufacture of cheese and butter, they seem to know but little of political economy, or the law of supply and demand. They all, with one accord, urge the farmers to increase the number of their cows and the quantity of milk sent to the factories. One of these gentlemen went so far in a public address as to advise that a farmer should have one cow for every acre in his farm. If every farmer grew nothing but oats, the price of oats would fall, and the price of other farm produce would be dearer. So with cheese. I fear that cheese in Canada may be overdone. In connection with this important subject I have in hand for publication extracts from a letter from London, Eng., written by a friend of mine, formerly of Montreal, one of the largest exporters of produce Canada ever had in that city, and with whom I had very extensive dealings for years. This letter gives valuable information by a practical and experienced merchant. The strong and notable point is his hint in reference to the effect the new regulations in Australia and New Zealand will have on Canadian cheese and butter.

New Zealand is one of the finest grass countries in the world, about equal to Ireland.

For the purpose of encouraging and developing the cheese trade, Australia is giving a bonus of six shillings per cwt., about one and a half cents on every pound of cheese exported from that country. If cheese exporters in Canada could make a quarter of a cent per pound on their exportations they would be glad.

The effect of this subsidiary grant will be to stimulate the business in those countries and seriously affect the dairying trade in America.

But now that the United States markets are again opening up to the Canadian farmers under the new tariff, they can safely turn their attention to other products, though not neglecting cheese and butter. Wool and lumber are now imported into the States free of duty. The duty on barley has been reduced to 15c. a bushel and the duty on eggs, fruit, cattle, horses, sheep has also been reduced, so we will hear no more about wool selling at 17 or 18c. per lb., or eggs 8 or 9c. per dozen, or barley at 35 or 40c. a bushel. We shall hear no more nonsense about two rowed barley, or of eggs sent 3,000 miles away trying to find a market in England.

There is now a brighter future for the farmers of Ontario, which I hope may be long continued.

W. CLUXTON.

The following is the letter referred to by Mr. Cluxton :—

London, Aug. 4th, '94.

DEAR MR. CLUXTON,—I wrote you by last mail, rather more hurriedly than your good, kind letter demanded. * * Since I have been on this side of the water, I have had an opportunity of studying business from a different point of view. London is undoubtedly the heart of the business world, and with her six millions of population, reaches out to the remotest nook, and although many people on your side think us old fashioned in our ways of doing things, still the representatives of the whole earth come here to deal with us and after all is said, there is only one London, with all her faults. During the last ten years I notice the price of the leading products is reduced in gold value from a third to a half, and this is in my opinion will be permanent as steam and electricity have been the greatest factors in the change. Take our bread for example, California, South America, India, Australia, Manitoba, Russia, Egypt, and the Islands of the Sea, are all pouring in their wheat and selling it here at 18 to 23s per quarter. Barley from Persia, Russia, and the Danube have been free sellers at 10 to 12s per 400 lbs. Corn at 16s 6d to 18s, from America, Egypt, Russia and the Danube. During last winter, butter from Australia and New Zealand came in immense quantities, many single steamers bringing from 600 to 800 tons at a time. These countries being as yet only in their infancy can produce an unlimited quantity, and the same is not very far distant as regards cheese, these countries having arranged to pay a bonus to exporters of about a penny a pound on both articles. Already we are receiving cheese from both Australia and New Zealand, who have been for some time studying Canadian methods of producing this article, and certainly in the near future are resolved to run them a close race.

Canada has had it pretty much its own way lately, and last winter did well on what they colc tored and held back for winter consumption, and I do not say that similar results may not be again reached this winter, but, in my opinion, from this out it will be a dangerous business holding, for the Australian seasons are the opposite of ours. Their summers are our winters, and they are at their largest production when we are dried up or frozen up. In the future the successful merchant will be the one who keeps moving from day to day, and aims at bringing producers and consumers as near as possible to each other, avoiding multiplication of middlemen, heavy storage and handling expenses * * Yours,

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nerviline. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

THE WORK OF DEMONS.

Valuable Heirlooms Destroyed in a Fire —Had Revenge on the Heroes.

SOUTH ACTON, Mass., Sept. 3.—The house of Mrs. C. C. Taylor was burned Friday morning with many articles of value, causing a loss of $20,000, upon which there is an insurance of about $3,000. The loss includes heirlooms and articles of historical value which came over in the Mayflower and which Mrs. Taylor had contemplated presenting to the Massachusetts Historical Society.

Since coming to this village Mrs. Taylor has been subjected to many annoyances. Last fall a valuable trotter which she owned was poisoned and two weeks ago the tails of four of her horses were cut off and the eye of one nearly gouged out. For months past tools have been stolen from the barns, sheds and outbuildings. Yesterday's fire was undoubtedly incendiary. Mrs. Taylor owned the property, but a short time ago a printed notice appeared on the bill board at the postoffice which purported to be a legal notice announcing a sheriff's sale of her home on a certain date. The notice had been printed for the occasion and was gotten up to give the appearance of having been cut from a newspaper.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—The city press association says that Mrs. Jack Mason, better known as Marion Manola, the actress, is insane. Insanity caused by financial troubles.

Bush Fires in Omemee.

OMEMEE, Ont., Sept. 3.—Bush fires are raging about three miles west of this place. Farmers have to remain up all night to fight the flames and protect their buildings. The smoke is so dense here that people are nearly suffocated, and can scarcely see across the street.

Ald. Hallam's Haul.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—Intimate friends of Ald. Hallam state that the placing of wool on the free list by the United States has made the representative of Ward 2 richer by $50,000. It is said he had been storing wool for some time in anticipation of free wool.

Destroyed by Fire.

ZEPHYR, Ont., Sept. 3.—The house and contents belonging to Mr. James Taylor, farmer, who lives about two miles from here, was destroyed by fire. The fire is supposed to have originated in the chimney. Loss about $1,500, insured for $400.

Spilled Milk.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—A milk wagon owned by the Stanley Dairy, of Oxford, was struck by a trolley car at Queen and William streets Saturday morning and badly wrecked. The driver escaped unhurt. A lot of milk was lost.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

Pains in the Joints

Caused by Inflammatory Swelling

A Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"It affords me much pleasure to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. My son was afflicted with great pain in the joints, accompanied with swelling so bad that he could not get up stairs to bed without crawling on hands and knees. I was very anxious about him, and having read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I determined to try it, and got a half-dozen bottles, four of which entirely cured him." MRS. G. A. CANOEISTS' SAD FATE

Three Well-Known Chatham Men Drowned Up North.

HOW IT HAPPENED A MYSTERY

Two of the Bodies Found by a Timber Agent—The Entire Town of Chatham Shocked by the Unfortunate Occurrence.

NORTH BAY, Sept. 3.—Word reached here Saturday afternoon that a party of canoeists belonging to Chatham, Ont., and consisting of D. M. Christie, barrister; Arthur Northwood, science master in Ottawa Collegiate Institute, and George Rispin, who left Chatham some three weeks ago on a canoe trip up the French River, had been drowned at the head of Lake Nipissing. Nothing can be learned as yet as to the cause of the accident.

The captain of the Camilla brings the following report of the particulars: On the 29th and 30th of August Crown Timber Agent D. F. Macdonald, while proceeding up French River, found the dead body of a man about five miles below Five Mile Rapid. Macdonald secured the body to the shore and sent his men back seven miles to Campbell's lumber camp. Mr. Kelly, who is in charge of the camp, returned with the men and brought some lumber and ties with him and made a coffin and buried the body. Before burying the body the following effects were found in his possession: A telegram to Arthur P. Norshwood, Thurso, from Ottawa: "Pennock has wired you by mistake to Owen Sound as follows: 'Appointed modern language master; wire acceptance immediately.' (Signed) D. P. McLean." There were $15 in bills and 75 cents in silver, a watch, railway ticket and baggage check. Mr. Macdonald sent all the effects to S. Wauh, collector of customs at French River, and continued his journey on to Lake Nipissing. When he was near the foot of Five Mile Rapids he found a second body in the river in a badly decomposed condition. It was with reluctance his Indians helped him to take the body on shore, where he secured it with a strong line and had it covered with brush, blazing a pine close by as a mark for those who would come to bury it, as there is nothing but bare rocks for miles along that part of the river. A short distance from where this body was found he found a new Peterboro canoe bottom side up. On turning up the canoe a pair of shoes, a frying pan, a tin cup and a bottle of matches were found shoved forward in the bow, under the small deck. A paddle was lying on the shore close by. The shoes evidently belonged to the man just found, as he was barefooted. The canoe and paddle were placed on a rocky island in a place of safety. On reaching the portage, the canoe sail, oars, and fishing ropes were all tied in a bundle. Two baggage camp bags, a box and basket containing provisions and cooking utensils lying on the portage path. Near by were the coats and vests of the party, a gold watch and chain, a memo book and a pair of gold rim spectacles, also a small diary of the Alliance Assurance Co.; on the back was printed in gold letters, G. K. Atkinson, Insurance and Land Agent, Chatham, Ont. In this book is a memo: "Aug. 10th—left Chatham, had supper at Webbs. — Aug. 11th — took Wenouch, Burke Falls to Ahmic Harbor." In the other note book the last entry was made on the 20th Aug.—"Rose at sunrise, started at 8.40 a.m." The pockets of the last body that was found were not examined.

CHATHAM, Sept. 3.—The three citizens of Chatham reported from North Bay at having been drowned near Lake Nipissing left here about three weeks on a canoeing trip up the French river from whence they intended to proceed by way of Lake Nipissing to North Bay. The last heard from them was at the mouth of the French river on the 18th of August when they wrote to friends here that they were starting up the south branch of the river for Lake Nipissing. While their friends were naturally somewhat anxious at not hearing from them since, no great alarm was felt as two of the party, Messrs. Christie and Rispin, were experienced canoeists, and had taken the trip last year accompanied by Mr. E. Bell, L.L.B. The news of the sad accident is a great shock to the town where the unfortunate men are well known and respected citizens. Mr. D. M. Christie was the senior member of the legal firm of Christie & Lewis, barristers. He was forty years of age and a bachelor. Arthur Northwood was a son of Mr. John Northwood, and a graduate of Toronto University. He had been filling the position of science master at the Owen Sound Collegiate Institute but had taken a new position in the Ottawa Collegiate Institute where he was due on Tuesday next. George Rispin was a young man 25 years of age and a brother of the Grand Trunk Railway city ticket agent in this city.

Cancelling Their Risks.

OTTAWA, Sept. 3.—There has been considerable comment in the city in connection with the cancellation by several insurance companies since last Sunday's big lumber fire of risks held by them on properties belonging to J. R. Booth, the lumber king. Mr. Booth has paid on the average about $10,000 a year in insurance, and this has been going on for the past thirty or thirty-five years without any returns until the recent fires. His returns for this investment has been the losses on the four fires he has had during the past year. In all this would amount to about $180,000, so that Mr. Booth has paid nearly double what he got in return.

LATE LONDON CABLES

Lord Rosebery and the Home Rule Cause.

COUNT OF PARIS' ILLNESS

Queen Victoria to Celebrate the Birth of the Duke of York's Son—Queenstown Gains an Advantage Over Southampton—Cardiff Exhibition.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Mr. Gladstone's contribution of £100 to the Irish National party fund, following the speech of Mr. Dillon in Dublin on Wednesday, when he intimated to the Government that the Irish party would be obliged to reconsider their position unless the ministry promptly and plainly declared their policy in regard to the House of Lords, are the current political topics. The facts are understood to have been intended as a firm reminder to Lord Rosebery to fulfill the promise which he gave upon assuming the premiership that the ministry would maintain the continuity of Mr. Gladstone's policy in regard to Ireland, the keynote of which sounded in Mr. Gladstone's last speech in the House. In this memorable speech the ex-Premier denounced the House of Lords and advised the people to insist upon the abolition of the veto power of the upper body as the only hindrance to the granting of a full measure of home rule to Ireland. But Lord Rosebery's first session of parliament has been finished without a sign of the government's intention of pushing this part of the programme, and it is notable that Mr. Gladstone's mediator in the £100 contribution, Lord Tweedmouth, is the only member of the cabinet who advises the government party to make an anti-Lords campaign before the country. Lord Rosebery has gone to Dunrobin, Scotland, to join the Duke of Sutherland in a shooting party, which by the way, consists almost entirely of Tory peers. The personal friends of the Premier find him in high spirits, but he flatly declines to discuss or listen to anything in the shape of politics. He only laughs when he hears his followers threaten dissatisfaction and in every way he appears to regard himself as thoroughly the master of the situation.

The other members are not so merry at the situation which confronts them. They are able to see plainly that it is the intention of the labor and Irish parties to go into open revolt during the autumn and in the meantime it is certain that Labouchere section of the Radicals will carry out their intention of running parliamentary candidates whose first pledge will be to refuse to serve under a premier who is a peer.

The Labor party, with a view showing that they do not intend to serve the Liberal party through thick and thin as heretofore, are arranging to run Tom Mann, the labor agitator, against the Liberal commoner Fenwick, as a candidate for secretary of the Treasury.

During the coming week the Queen intends to celebrate the birth of the son of Duke and Duchess of York by at great family gathering at Balmoral, at which, besides the immediate relations of the Royal family, Prince Henry of Persia will represent the Emperor of Germany and the Czarovitch will be present on behalf of the Czar. The gathering will last several days and will be replete with festivity.

In the meantime, critical condition of the Count of Paris casts a gloom over the spirits of the members of the royal family. The head of the House of Bourbon is privately highly esteemed and respected by the various members of her Majesty's family, including the Queen herself, though their meeting during later years have been infrequent. The cause of this semi-estrangement was the hopeless love which the late Duke of Clarence bore for the Count's daughter, Helene.

It is said that the entire large and interesting American section of exhibits at the Antwerp exposition has been secured for the exhibition which is to be held in Cardiff in 1895 and which will be formally opened by the Prince of Wales.

Tenders were closed yesterday for the conveyance of mails across the Irish channel from Holyhead to Kingston. The decision of Mr. Arnold Morley, postmaster general, in this matter will go far to settle the question of ultimate victory for Queenstown over Southampton as the point of transfer for American mails.

It is thought here that the present political struggle in Norway will result in a renewed Radical majority in the Storthing.

The slave dealing scandal in Cairo is a serious affair. Not only has the traffic in young girls been large, but the most prominent natives are involved. It is expected that the sixteen offenders who are to be tried next week will be acquitted because it is found that the law punishes only dealers and not purchasers.

It must be admitted that the extraordinary measures adopted for the suppression of anarchy in France have served thus far to make its mad votaries more defiant than ever. The revengful blow which has followed every execution of an anarchist murderer has not been struck in memory of Carnot's assassin, but the authorities are in momentary expectation and dread of it. In fact the government is almost in a panic over the danger.

Many people, not aware of the dangers of constipation, neglect the proper remedy till the habit becomes chronic, or inflammation or stoppage results. A dose or two of Ayer's Pills in the beginning would have prevented all this.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

You Won't Mind the Rain

Rainproof Serge

One of the newest novelties in Dress Goods. Does not differ in any respect from ordinary Serge, except that it is RAINPROOF.

Ladies are delighted with this new weave of goods, and it promises to receive a great deal of preference. Our ranges in BLACK and NAVY are decidedly stylish as well as serviceable. You needn't mind the rainy season with a dress of this new material.

In reference to our New Fall Dress Stuffs, we wish to impress the fact that they are our own direct importations, and, to a large extent, the designs are exclusive, and are not shown by other stores.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

Tuesday, Sept. 4th, 1894.—At this morning's observation, the self-registering thermometer indicated 52 degrees above zero, and no appearance of change of temperature.—THOMAS TELFORD.

The DeLamortan System of Cutting

Mrs. McCaully having purchased the right to teach and sell the above system, has removed the school to her own rooms, over Mason's seed store, corner of Water and Brock streets, where she is prepared to receive pupils and do all manner of dress and mantle making.

Books for the People.

The following new books have been added to the library of the Mechanics Institute: Memoirs of Baron de Meneval, (vol. 2 and 3; Life's Little Ironies, Hardy; Change of Air, Hope; Cleopatra, (2 vols.), Ebers; Red Shirts, Gaulot; Francis of Assisi, Sabatier; Among the Moors, Montband; Jungle Book, Kipling; Mrs. Limber's Raffle, Butler; George Mandeville's Husband, Raimond; Dr. Janet of Harley Street, Kenealy.

An Omemee Fire.

Monday morning, about one o'clock, a house owned by Mr. Wm. Cardwell, located on Mary street, Omemee, was destroyed by fire, and also the adjoining residence of Mrs. Moxton, which was occupied by the old lady and her daughter. The effects in the latter building were saved but there was no insurance on the house. The Cardwell building has been vacant for a few days, but the late tenant had not removed his furniture. There was a small insurance on the latter. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The Black and the Blue.

The drop in prices of new fall goods, announced by Joseph Armstrong & Co., has proved a strong attraction to the ladies, so early in the season. This firm has had many strong features to offer during the summer season, and they seem determined to pursue an equally vigorous and pushing policy during the fall. The black and the blue ink prices on the goods make it easy to accept the reductions on the goods as genuine. You examine the goods—the tickets do the rest. dw

Binder Twine.

Mr. A. Johnston, of lot 26, in the 7th concession of Smith, reports that he recently used three balls of binder twine experimentally — the Central Prison, Brantford and Red cap. Each ball weighed exactly 3 lbs. 13 ounces. The following are the results: Central Prison ball, costing 8 cents, bound 601 sheaves; Brantford, costing, 8.87 cents, bound 750 sheaves; the Red Cap, costing 8 cents, bound 621 sheaves. It will be seen that taking the price into account there is little, if any, difference in the amount of grain a given quantity of cord of the several kinds will bind.

A Family Gathering.

There was a family gathering yesterday, at "Belgrave Place," the mansion of Mr. John Helm, Cobourg road, says the Guide, such as is seldom witnessed. There are nine members of the family living, seven of whom were present on the occasion. One of the most remarkable things in reference to this family is there has not been a death in this family since 1818, except the father and mother.

The names of those present were:—John, George, and Ann Helm, Port Hope; Sophia Helm, Cobourg; Ralph Helm, Syracuse; Wm. Helm, Peterborough; Mrs. Blanhorn, Cleveland; and also J. H. Helm, sons Walter and Frank, Port Hope; Miss Mary Blanhorn, Cleveland; Mrs. Geo. Helm and Agnes Helm, of Port Hope, and Miss Carrie Helm, of New York City. Such a gathering is seldom witnessed as that of yesterday. All the elderly people are in excellent health. The only regret expressed was the absence of the other two sisters who reside in California.

During those hard times you cannot afford to pay four profits; buy direct from the manufacturers, Grafton & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—School Board meets this evening.

—Ashburnham council meets this evening.

—There was no police court session this morning.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—A large number of citizens spent yesterday at the different pleasure resorts on the upper lakes.

—St. Luke's Harvest Festival will be held on Sept. 27th. Rev. Dr. Mockridge will preach the sermon.

—A fight took place on Chambers street yesterday between two youths, but very little gore was spilled.

A Trenton lady says:—I was ill in bed with terrible sick headache. Phenyo-Caffein cured me in an hour.

—Duck shooting parties are the order of the day, a large number of sports leaving town yesterday in search of game.

—The following are the vital statistics for the month of August registered at the town clerk's office: Births 26, deaths 21, marriages 0.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What-Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale a Lynch's Drug Store.

—No thoroughfare on Hunter street today. The whole width of the bridge over the creek is monopolized by the absorption of the people's taxes.

—The harvest festival under the auspices of the Salvation Army was concluded last evening. It proved a very successful one. The produce was disposed of last evening at the barracks and it found ready buyers.

—Principal Grant's lecture on "The Making of Canada," to be delivered in the Opera House on Oct. 2nd, will undoubtedly be the most interesting and profitable entertainment of the season. Mayor Kendry has kindly consented to preside.

—During the progress of the baseball match yesterday afternoon a large number of "smart Alecks" occupied seats on a lumber pile outside the Riverside Park, and took delight in hooting and jeering the umpire in the discharge of his duty.

—Messrs. Curtis & Son, on Saturday shipped a carload of drain tile to Ottawa. Messrs. Curtis & Son's tile are meeting with great favour and they find ready sale for their output. The white bricks they have shipped to Ottawa this season give greater satisfaction than those of any other make.

—A couple of our citizens are building a wheel in imitation of the celebrated Ferris wheel of the World's Fair. The concern is being put together at Whyte's foundry, and will be completed in time for the fall exhibitions. The wheel is about 30 feet in diameter, and will hold about twenty passengers.

—Mr. W. E. Ramsay, who is at present making a tour of Europe, will sail for home on Sept. 13th. His first appearance in Canada in his new entertainment "A Trip Around the World," will be in Massey Hall, Toronto, on Oct. 19th, under the auspices of the Royal Grenadiers. Mr. Ramsay will bring with him all the latest London songs.

Fine Oak

At Clegg's, a splendid line of fine polished oak; bedroom suites, newest designs and best workmanship, and prices fully twenty-five per cent. lower than a year ago. All the cheaper lines in stock also. In parlour suites, etc., we show a larger assortment than ever offered in Peterborough before, at all prices and all our own manufacture; no factory work in this line. Clegg's upholstered goods are known almost from Halifax to Vancouver. Though more than twenty years in business, we have never yet re-upholstered one of our own parlour suites. A. CLEGG, 427 George street.

A Night Blooming Cereus Blooming.

On Sunday night, the lawn in front of Mr. Lount's residence, Little Simcoe street, was the scene of a floral seance. It was not the breaking of the Sabbath but the breaking of the buds of a night blooming cereus. Mrs. Holgate, now of Montreal, had a night blooming cereus, which she nursed tenderly for ten years, but being unrewarded with bloom, she left the plant behind her when she went to Montreal. But on Sunday afternoon, the buds that had recently formed—five in number, began to expand, and later in the evening the unfolding of the beautiful petals to the size of tea saucers took place, the expansion being visible, and at 10.30 five magnificent flowers shed their rich, heavy fragrance on the air. A large number had been attracted by the unusual sight, and the flowers were not allowed to close, but cut off as souvenirs and presented to the spectators. The moment the flower was separated from the plant its perfume vanished.

WILLOW AND WICKET.

Peterborough cricket club met the Millbrook team on the P.A.A.A. grounds yesterday and wiped out the stain of the defeat at Millbrook recently. The home team was captained by "Davy" Rogers, who sent his eleven to bat first. The wicket was lively and the batsmen needed to keep his eye open to avoid punishment from erratic balls. The home team were retired for the small total of 55, to which Halliday contributed the only double figures—14. Some of the best bats scored ducks. Millbrook's first attempt was not at all encouraging the side being pavilioned for the little total of 25, without double figures being compiled. Allison's fatal bowling was largely responsible. He took 7 wickets for 13 runs. Peterborough's second essay came within ten of the century, the telegraph showing 90 at the fall of the last stamp. Of this total Montgomery captured a dozen, Allison engineered a well compiled 29, making the top score with both bat and ball. Leefe got together a fine fifteen. Stocker was in fine form and played well for the clever 21 he contributed to the score sheet. Millbrook's second attempt opened auspiciously and it looked at first as if they would close the gap of 120 runs that intervened between their first innings and making the tie—the first wicket falling for 16 runs, the second for thirty-eight, but the procession soon set in and the side was retired for a well played 69, leaving the visitors 51 in the minority. The feature of this innings was Lefroy's skillfully compiled 25. C. Needler was the only other man to get beyond the digits with a well earned 11. The fielding on both sides was fairly good, though several catches—apparently easy to the spectator who did not have to hold the ball, were missed. Burnham is to be credited with two very fine catches, and Guy Rogers and Montgomery held on handsomely to a couple of long field catches. The following is the score:

BASEBALL.

The Orono Baseball Club came to town yesterday, flushed with victories over Blackstock, Port Perry and Salem, but their victorious career was checked by the Auburn club, who defeated them in a well played game by a score of 10 to 8. The game took place on the Riverside Park in the morning and was the best seen here this season. The Auburn boys played good ball and as the horseman says, they did not leave their feet for an instant. It would be unfair to individualize, as every one on the team played well. The game was very close throughout and it was not until the last man was out in the last innings that the game was decided. There was a large gathering of spectators who took a lively interest in the game.

"Danny" McCabe, of Peterborough, thinks Cobourg a little weak and has offered the services of a promising young player of Peterborough to the champions. His offer was rejected with thanks.—Post.

LACROSSE.

To-morrow the Peterboroughs journey to Orillia to play the first game in the semi-finals with the team of that town. It is the hope of every lover of the game that the boys will return home triumphant.

THE LONDON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Head Office, London, Ont.

The above company now in its twentieth year since organization is one of the prominent financial institutions of Western Ontario. The company has a subscribed capital of $225,000 and $60,000 is deposited with the Dominion Government as a special protection to its policyholders over and above the protection afforded by its other assets in Canada, amounting together to about half a million dollars invested in first mortgages on real estate and other equally desirable securities.

The company's income in Canada averages at the present time over $500 per day and over a quarter of a million has already been paid to Canadian policyholders or their heirs.

In addition to issuing policies upon all the ordinary plans and upon terms as favourable as afforded by any other company, a special feature of the London Life's business is its Industrial or family insurance. In this branch all the healthy members of a family, male and female, from one year of age and upwards to sixty-five may insure. The premiums are payable weekly at the homes of the members, as small a weekly premium as five cents and upwards being accepted at all ages and policies issued accordingly. Two classes of policies are issued, viz., whole life and twenty year endowments. The former is intended to furnish a fund, out of which, upon the death of the insured, the funeral and other expenses can be defrayed, while the latter in addition to the foregoing also affords an excellent opportunity of saving small sums from week to week, which savings are payable to the insured, if living, at the expiration of the twenty year period.

All claims are paid promptly upon receipt at the head office of the necessary claim papers, the average time elapsing between date of death and issue of cheque in payment of claim, rarely exceeding three days.

The London Life is the only Canadian company issuing this class of policies and having recently opened up a branch office here over No. 172 Hunter street, in charge of Assistant Superintendent H. J. Smith, who previous to coming here was for several years in the company's employ in Toronto, and having appointed a staff of local agents, our citizens are now afforded an opportunity of obtaining insurance in this excellent home company upon terms that will enable everyone to insure, no matter how small their income.

For fuller particulars see the company's illustrated paper, The Monitor, which is furnished free.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

—ON THE—

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

From the CANADIAN TRADE REVIEW.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

LOCAL LABOUR'S ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

A SUCCESSFUL DEMONSTRATION HELD YESTERDAY.

A Creditable Labour Parade—The Events at the Driving Park—Horse Races, Baseball and Lacrosse Matches—A Large Gathering Present—The Promenade Concert in the Evening.

Yesterday the workingmen of Peterborough laid aside their tools and turned out en masse in order to celebrate the first Labour Day as a statutory holiday in a fitting manner, and a successful celebration it was. The committee composed of members of the different labour organizations who had the celebration in hand were united and worked with a determination, that could augur naught but a successful demonstration. Last year the different labour unions of the town successfully celebrated the day by a demonstration in the Driving Park, instead of following up the old custom of holding excursions out of town, and it proved a successful venture in every respect. This year the same programme was carried out and the demonstration of yesterday was a fine success. From the trades parade in the morning to the closing programme in the rink, the events of the day passed off without a hitch, and the result was that the celebration of Labour Day, 1894, surpassed all previous celebrations held of this kind.

The streets were alive early in the morning with workingmen and their children, and on all sides could be noticed members of the different unions, decorated with the badge of their respective organization. At about 9.30 a mass meeting was held in the Labour Hall for the purpose of arranging the parade. At ten o'clock the members of the different unions mustered in the Central Park for the parade. The following was the order of procession :

Fifty-seventh Battalion Band,
Iron Moulders Union, No. 191,
Machinists Union, No. 286,
Tailors Union, No. 49,
Members of other Trade Unions and Knights of Labour.

The parade was a large and representative one and took in the principal streets of the town, after which they paraded to the Labour Hall where they dispersed.

After dinner the large number in town wended their way to the Driving Park, where the athletic sports took place. The street cars did a rushing business in conveying the people to the park. The spacious grand stand was packed by a large gathering.

An efficent committee had the sports in hand, and it was not long before the programme was opened. The horse races were the first on the list. Mr. H. Winch acted in the capacity of judge, Mr. Ed. Brown as starter, and Mr. James English as timekeeper.

THE RUNNING RACE.

Considerable interest was manifested in this event among the sports and the race proved a very interesting one, the following horses entered : Graham's "Bank Robber," McGregor's "Gipsy," Norwood ; Jone's "Nettie Wood," Wolstenholm's "Star Minnie, Bennett's, (Port Hope) "Butcher Billy." The race proved an easy one for Nettie Wood, Bank Robber and Butcher Billy coming in second and third respectively. Following is the summary :

Jones' " Nettie B "	1	1	1
Graham's " Bank Robber,	2	2	2
Bennett's " Butcher B lly "	3	3	3

Time, 53 1-5, 54, 52 seconds.

LIVERYMEN'S RACE.

In the Liverymen's Race, mile heats, best 3 in 5, three horses entered. Fred Jone's "Russ," Martin Connors' "Fred S," and J. Connors' "Russel Hayes." This race proved a long one. The following is the summary :

Fred Jones' " Russ"	2	3	2
Martin Connor's " Fred S."	3	1	1
J. Connor's " Russell Hayes"	1	2	3

Time, 3,2¾, 3,30½, 3.17, 3,19½.

HOTELKEEPER'S RACE.

This was a trotting race in mile heats, best three in five, and proved to be a very interesting one. The race was between Wm. Clancy's " Mambrino Mitchell," Martin Connor's " Fred S",the third horse, " Russell Hayes", not doing very heavy trotting. The following is the summary :

Wm. Clancy's " Mambrino Mitchell"	1	1	1
Martin Connor's " Fred S".	2	2	2
J. Connor's " Russel Hayes"	3	3	3

Time, 3.02, 2.47½, 2.50.

In the one mile district bicycle race there were three entries : Messrs. E. Lush, M. G. Walker, and R. Turner. First, M. G. Walker, time, 1.30 ; 2nd E. Lush.

In the foot race, 100 yards handicap, Geo. Riley, town, won first prize, with G. Holden, Toronto, second.

The half mile bicycle race, open, was won quite easily by Mr. M. G. Walker, Mr. E. Lush, taking second place.

The matched foot race between L. LeBar town, and G. Holden, Toronto, excited considerable interest. The first heat LeBar got the lead and held it till the end, winning in ten seconds. The second heat started off with Holden in the lead, which position he held to the line, winning the second heat in 10½ seconds. The third heat also went to Holden at the start and he finished the heat in 10 secouds, winning the race.

In the running hop, step and jump there were quite a number of entries. Mr. Geo. Riley won first prize, distance 39 feet, 4 inches, and Robt. Dolan second prize, 38 feet, 10 inches.

Messrs. Walker and Lush, in the one mile, open, bicycle race, captured first and second prizes respectively, Mr. Walker's time being 3.20.

The half mile foot race was won by Mr. Wm. McAuliffe in 2 23, Mr. J. Murphy coming in second.

In the girls race,(50 yards) about twenty-five young girls faced the line. Annie Pratt secured first prize, her time being 6½., Ettie Minorgan coming in second.

The 100 yards boys' race also brought out a large number of competitors. Master Harold Dunsford won first money and H. Mowry second. Time, 12½ seconds.

During the afternoon the LaBelle Bros. gave an exhibition of trapeze, slack wire, acrobatic and tight rope acting. This was one of the most pleasing features of the day, and their different evolutions and movements were received with loud applause. Messrs. LaBelle Bros. are a remarkably clever combination and should prove a drawing card at any demonstration.

THE BASEBALL MATCH.

During the progress of the sports a baseball and lacrosse match took place. Peterborough and Orono took possession of the diamond and played a close, but at times ragged game of baseball, an inferior exhibition as compared to the splendid work of Orono and Auburn in the morning. At times some very neat and swift play was noticeable, but it was agonizing the next instant to see two or three of the players go to pieces on both nines. However, the game proved very interesting and the result was that both teams had scored ten runs each. The umpire also came in for his share of the booting by the baseball enthusiasts for his erratic decisions.

THE LACROSSE MATCH.

Peterborough Juniors and Millbrook next took the field, and a fine exhibition of the game was witnessed. The juniors have only been defeated once this season, on May 24th last at Millbrook, by the team they opposed yesterday. The Millbrook team play neat lacrosse, but they lack that combination team play which characterized the Peterborough's work yesterday. Both clubs have first class material in them for a strong team. The Millbrook's were outplayed at every point and the ball was kept constantly on their flags. The juniors succeeded in defeating the villagers after a very neat game, entirely free from roughness, by a score of 4 goals to 2.

THE EVENING ENTERTAINMENT.

In the evening a grand promenade concert was held in the skating rink and was attended by a large number. The Fifty-Seventh Battalion band took up a position in the centre of the rink, and the programme presented was an excellent one in every respect, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the many present. A pleasing feature of the programme was the rendition by the band of a number of Louis Phillip Sousa's popular selections, which were thoroughly appreciated. Between the numbers Messrs. Dan Simons and Jack Connors gave an exhibition of clever tumbling, dancing and other humorous features, which were received with rounds of applause.

At the conclusion of the evening's programme Millar's orchestra furnished excellent music for dancing, which was kept up until early in the morning.

This brought to a close one of the most successful celebrations of this kind ever held in Peterborough, and the committee in charge, as well as the members of the different labour unions, are to be congratulated on the successful demonstration held.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

The Fire Brigade band occupied a position in the grand stand during the day, and the programme furnished at the park was an excellent one.

A number of fakirs sold their wares on the grounds yesterday, and reaped a good harvest.

The celebration yesterday was blessed with fine weather. The storm which visited Toronto Sunday night evidently passed Peterborough by.

The members of the Driving Park Association wish it stated that they had nothing to do with the management of the races yesterday. The credit of their success is wholly due to the members of the demonstration committee who had the event in charge.

An effort should be made in the future to keep the crowd off the race track. Special policemen should be appointed for this purpose.

The following is the committee to whom the success of the demonstration of yesterday is due : Robt. Scott, chairman ; Robt. Mulligan, treasurer ; C. D. McFarlane, secretary ; and Messrs. C. H. J. Mitchell, Geo. Ball, G. Evans, W. McKim, and E. A. Nott.

The prizes in the different events will be given to the successful competitors at the Labour Hall this evening.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicsed, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

LOSS OF POWER and vital force follow loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood, stops the waste of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh. Nasty Cod liver oils add fat but not wholesome flesh. Thin, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it, too.

In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

WILL SUE FOR DIVORCE.

A Toronto Scene in Which a Jealous Husband Shoots at a Doctor.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—John E. Taylor, furniture dealer, of 254 College avenue, says he will at once commence an action for divorce against his wife, whom he married in 1884 whilst she was in her 16th year.

Mr. Taylor had a lively time at his home early on Friday morning. He was suspicious of the fidelity of his wife, and telling her that he intended going to Dundas, he hid in a closet in her bedroom. While there he claims that he discovered evidence sufficient to justify him in his intended action for divorce.

The co-respondent will be Dr. Frank J. Dawson, of 5½ Brunswick avenue, whom Mr. Taylor accidentally shot at in the excitement of finding his suspicions apparently verified. Taylor says he fired his revolver twice at Dawson, that he did not try to shoot him, but that he thoroughly scared him. He says Dr. Dawson was in the bedroom with his wife, and that he was listening to their conversation when Mrs. Taylor opened the closet door and in groping about put her hand on his head. He had to come out, and he commenced the fusilade that made Dr. Dawson act as if he had an urgent call to see a patient on the street.

Dr. Dawson says he was called by Mrs. Taylor to see one of the children, who had been taken suddenly ill.

Mrs. Taylor denies the allegations of her husband, and says he is of a jealous and suspicious disposition.

A MONTREAL OUTRAGE.

George Jewett May Die from the Result of a Dynamite Explosion.

MONTREAL, Sept. 3.—An outrage of a most serious nature was committed on the wharf on Saturday. A man named George Jewett was standing talking to two other men near Joe Beef's old establishment, when some person quietly stepped up and placed a dynamite cartridge almost directly under him. This he did without being noticed. He then picked up a big stone and threw it on the cartridge, which exploded with considerable force. The shell struck Jewett on the ear, taking the best part of that organ off and otherwise injuring the unfortunate man. The perpetrator of the outrage immediately cleared out.

Jewett was taken to the police station on the wharf, and shortly afterwards to the General Hospital in an ambulance. The police have a description of the man who committed the deed, and are now searching for him.

The cartridge was of the kind generally used for fog signalling purposes. Jewett is an old B Battery man. He is attached to the Salvation Lighthouse.

On enquiry at the hospital it was learned that Jewett's injuries were of a serious nature. The doctors fear that a piece of the shell has penetrated the inside of the ear. One of the legs is also badly hurt.

EX-REGISTRAR RIDOUT DEAD.

After a Long Public Service He Passes Away at a Good Old Age.

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—John Ridout, ex-registrar of York county, died at his home, 119 Wellington street west, on Saturday at the advanced age of 88 years. The deceased was born in Toronto (then York) on May 8, 1806, of English parentage. He was called to the bar of Upper Canada in 1822. He was appointed deputy registrar in 1841, which position he held until 1855, when he succeeded his father as registrar of York county, which position he filled with honor to himself and the county until the 1st of July last, when he resigned on account of enfeebled health.

He leaves a widow and one son, J. Grant Ridout of the assistant receiver-general's office.

The registrarship of York county had been held by the Ridout family for three generations.

A Day of Sport for Quebec.

QUEBEC, Sept. 1. — The Q. A. A. A. grounds were crowded on Saturday afternoon. The military authorities with the co-operation of Admiral Hopkins and the officers of the British fleet had arranged to give Quebec a regular day of sports. The patrons of the military and naval sports were: Admiral Sir J. O. Hopkins and Major-General Herbert. The men-of-war men raced with the military and won many prizes. They were also victorious in the tug-of-war. The most interesting event was an exhibition in limbering and unlimbering field guns and returning with the pieces at a distance of forty yards, the whole operation of dismounting, retiring and remounting only taking a minute and a half. No. 1 company of the Blake carried the prize.

Work of Experienced Crooks.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.—A gang or safe crackers who have been doing Annapolis Valley, struck Wolfeville last night. They broke into Franklin's blacksmith shop where they secured tools with which they forced their way into the postoffice where the safe was blown open and rifled. About $35 was all the burglars secured. Quarter inch holes was drilled in the safe door and the combination bursted with a charge of dynamite. A neighbor heard a heavy explosion about three o'clock. The work was that of experienced crooks. Rupert Harris' grocery was opened but burglars evidently were frightened. Nothing was stolen.

Charge of Embezzlement.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept, 3.—N. A. Hawkins, cashier of the local Standard Oil Co.'s office, was arrested yesterday afternoon on two warrants charging him with embezzling eight thousand dollars. He is 27 years of age and married and has been in the employ of the company for six years. He is said by those best acquainted with him to have been a "high flyer" for three or four years. As the money is said to have been taken last year and the company's auditor visit each office frequently, it is thought that he must have covered up his peculations skilfully.

His Mangled Remains Found.

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., Sept. 3.—The mangled remains of a man supposed to be John Bay, of George's river, was found by track-master Hen[illegible] yesterday morning about a mile a[illegible] half from the station. Deceased while intoxicated started to walk home on the railway track, had fallen asleep and was killed by the express which arrived at ten minutes to eight last night. Deceased was about twenty-five years of age and unmarried.

Killed By An Express.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.—A man named John Day was killed by an express near North Sydney Friday night.

Placing a Candidate in the Field.

MILTON, Sept. 3.—The Patrons of Industry of the county of Halton met in convention here Saturday afternoon for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Dominion elections. The meeting was well attended. J. Lochie Wilson of Glengarry was present, and advocated very strongly the placing of a candidate in the field. Several Patrons spoke as strongly against it, but on a vote being taken the meeting almost unanimously decided to nominate a man. The nomination was deferred until September 15.

Peel Conservatives.

BRAMPTON, Sept. 3.—At the Conservative convention held here Saturday afternoon W. A. McCulla, ex-M. P., received the unanimous nomination of the convention. No other name was mentioned. Mr. McCulla is perhaps the strongest candidate the Conservatives could put in the field.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

SWEPT BY FOREST FIRES

Whole Districts in Minnesota Completely Devastated.

HUNDREDS OF LIVES LOST

Towns and Farms Swept Clean by the Flames—Entire Families Cremated —Fears for the Safety of a Passenger Train.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 3.—The town of Hinckley, Minn. was completely destroyed by forest fire on Saturday night and two hundred lives were lost. The loss of life at other places will probably swell the total to four hundred dead.

The first train over the St. Paul and Duluth road direct from the scene of the great fire reached Minneapolis at 12.45 yesterday afternoon. There were about a dozen persons on board including Mrs. Lawrence, the only one of the passengers on the limited express which started on Saturday afternoon from Duluth who has reached Minneapolis. The other passengers were those who went up on the train yesterday afternoon from this end and finding that they could get no further stopped out at Pine City and returned to Minneapolis on the first train. Mrs. Lawrence says the first evidence of the fire was noticeable about 10 miles north of Hinckley when the air became almost suffocating. One mile north of Hinckley about 50 persons rushed towards the train screaming frantically. The engineer seeing the danger they were in if they remained stopped the train to let them aboard. The heat became intense and the whole volume of the fire seemed to burst forth in a mighty effort to wipe the train and its occupants off the face of the earth. Mrs. Lawrence describing the scene said: "At the first rush of the flames towards the cars the window panes went out with a crash and the train began slowly to return toward Skunk Lake. People screamed and men jumped through the car windows; the panic was horrible. There was no humanity in it. Every fear-crazed person was for himself and they did not care how they got out of the flames. My dress caught in the flames but I extinguished it. I saw two Chinamen who were paralyzed by fright and made no effort to get away but simply hid their heads under the seats and were burned to death. I stood it as long as I could and then I rushed out of the car, jumping over one or two persons that were lying on the ground injured. Some of the people jumped into Skunk Lake, but I ran along the track. After running until my strength gave out I fell down between the rails. I expected every minute that my dress would be burned from my body. I put out flames on my dress half a dozen times, and I had to hold my hands over the baby's face in order to keep it from suffocating."

This morning Mrs. Lawrence was picked up in the middle of the track about two miles north of Hinckley by a relief party from Duluth which made the trip on a handcar. Mrs. Lawrence says the site of Hinckley is nothing but a blackened waste, with the bodies of dead and injured persons lying everywhere. There were fully 125 persons aboard the limited, but only two were burned outright. These were the Chinamen mentioned. About a dozen persons, according to her story, were injured in the panic which resulted when the people tried to escape from the car. Some rushed to the platform and jumped off while the train was moving, while others fought their way through the mass of passengers in an effort to get away from the scenes. In this way many suffered severe injuries such as broken bones.

Mayor Eustis received a telegram from a citizens' committee at Rush City, Minn., yesterday afternoon stating that 150 lives had been lost at Hinckley, and the situation is horrifying. A carload of provisions was procured, but no engine could be secured to take it out to the sufferers. It will go out to-day.

Cumberland, Wis., Sept. 3.—Baronette, a town of 500 people eight miles north of here, and Granite Lake, a small town four miles north, were completely wiped out Saturday night. The people barely escaped with their lives and have been brought to this city. Five families are still missing, and it is thought they may have perished in the flames. Fifty million feet of lumber was burned at Baronette and five million feet at Granite. The fire is raging violently over a territory ten miles square southeast of this city, and hundreds of farmers are homeless, barely escaping with their lives.

Eau Claire, Wis., Sept. 3.—Word has reached this city that the lumber town of Baronette, near Spooner, is wholly wiped out by fire. Baronette is on the northern division of the Omah road and has 500 people and is the home of the Baronette Lumber Co. whose plant is all gone, only the depot being left standing.

Marquette, Mich., Sept. 3.—This region is enveloped in a pall of smoke. The air is stifling with heat as well as with smoke. Forest fires are reported from all over the Upper Peninsula but so far nothing has been learned of a serious nature except heavy damage to standing timber and the probable destruction of many farm buildings and homesteads. Rumors are current that the village of Sidnay, 100 miles west, has been totally destroyed, but report cannot be confirmed, as the wires west are down.

St. Cloud, Minn., Sept. 3.—The Pine region of Eastern and Central Minnesota is all ablaze and thousands of dollars' worth of property is being destroyed. At last accounts the town of Millica, Mitlace County was on fire with little probability that the flames could be stopped before every building in the place was razed. So far as learned three persons have been burned to death.

Ashland, Sept. 3.—The village of Maringo, a thriving lumber mill place in this county has been swept away by fire. Two hundred families are rendered homeless but no lives have been lost so far as known. A large quantity of lumber was burned in the yards. The mill of Spender & Co. and 1,500 feet of lumber were destroyed.

Marquette, Mich., Sept. 3.—Much apprehension exists here regarding the whereabouts of the passenger train which left Duluth Saturday afternoon, due here at 4.45 a. m. yesterday. Two hundred miles of its run is through the fire swept district.

Pine City, Minn., Sept. 3.—Three towns, Hinckley, Mission Creek and Pokegama, are in ashes and more than 200 corpses lie in the region in the neighborhood of Hinckley. The vast valley between the Kettle River and Cross Lake is laid waste, including several villages and settlements. Besides the towns that were reduced to ashes farms were swept clean by the flames. The forests are still burning fiercely and rain is required to drown the fires. Whole families have been cremated. In some instances only one or two men escaped from a neighborhood to tell of the destruction. They saved their lives by running to small lakes or hiding in potato fields, and reached Pine City more dead than alive. The dead are being picked up by the score and brought here. Searching parties are penetrating the burned districts, but find none but the charred remains of the inhabitants. The people from Hinckley and Mission Creek who escaped with their lives are destitute, having neither home nor food. The relief sent out from St. Paul was timely. The supply of provisions was more welcome than even the blankets sent out later, because the majority were still anxious to continue the search for the dead and sufferers. The tents and hospital supplies were very necessary for the injured and badly burned people.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the few remedies which are recommended by every school of medicine. Its strength, purity, and efficacy are too well established to admit of doubt as to its superiority over all other blood-purifiers whatever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla leads all.

I was attacked severely last winter with Diarrhœa, Cramps, and Colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. Mrs. S. Kellett, Minden Ont.

TERRIBLE FLOODS IN TEXAS.

The Damage to Crops and Live Stock Runs Into Millions.

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 3.—The country for 100 miles east and west about 300 miles north and south, is cover with water at a depth of from two to ten feet and the Leona, Sabinal and Saco rivers are still raging torrents of water. Places of safety are crowded with men, women and children and live stock. It is thought there must have been great destruction of property and loss of life south of the Southern Pacific track for a distance of 200 miles in the valleys of the swollen streams. These valleys are thickly settled with farmers. In the valley of Leona river the loss to the crop will reach half a million dollars and along the Saco and Sabinal fully $300,000 additional. To this loss is to be added the drowning of thousands of horses and cattle and the destruction of buildings. The homeless and destitute families are being provided for as best the limited means of the people who were not caught in the deluge will permit. About 200 families are being given shelter. There is still no tidings from the Leona settlement situated seven miles below Uvalde on the banks of the Leona. Efforts have been made to reach the settlement but the waters are found to be impassable. The belief that the entire settlement of 75 families was washed away grows stronger. The flood struck Batesville about 3 o'clock in the morning and wrought terrible havoc. The entire town was submerged residences and business houses washed and there is great destitution among the people of the town which had a population of 800. Fears are entertained that the Buena Vista, south of Batesville, has suffered a similar fate, as it was in the path of the water from both the Leona and the Neuces rivers. The courier from Batesville states that the entire county for a distance of fifty miles east and many west of Batesville is under water.

The Ontario Championship lawn tennis tournament will be held in Hamilton this week.

The Count of Paris' condition is unchanged. He is conscious and has not lost strength lately.

D'Alton McCarthy addressed a large and enthusiastic audience in New Glasgow, N. S., on Saturday.

The Vigilant was awarded Saturday's race with the Satanita, although the wind fell and she did not quite finish the course.

An express train from Ocean City, N.J., ran into the rear end of an excursion train at Camden, N.J., yesterday. Two passengers on the excursion were killed outright.

At Lockland, Ohio, James Cain shot his wife, little girl and father. The first two will die. Cain is 27 years old and for years has been addicted to drink. He was jailed.

Fire caused by an explosion of a lamp in the barn of John Cootes, London township, destroyed his large stables, sheds and outbuildings last night. Loss, $6,000; covered by insurance.

A Kansas City despatch says: Four masked men raided the bank of Lescott, 15 miles north of Salina on Saturday, forced the cashier to give up $1,000, wounded a lad and fled.

A celebration of the battle of the Alma is to be celebrated by survivors of the Crimea living in Ottawa. A meeting to further the purpose has been called for Wednesday evening.

The annual Catholic congress which met in Cologne last week adopted with increased emphasis the former resolutions in favor of observing Sunday strictly as a day of rest, organizing trades unions according to the principles of Christian social order, and making state insurance compulsory for all workingmen.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

W. B. Fullerton, Gananoque, Ont., Jan. 18, 1894. Chemist.

Sirs,—My baby was very bad with summer complaint, and I thought he would die, until I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. With the first dose I noticed a change for the better, and now he is cured, and fat and healthy. Mrs. A. Normandin, London, Ont.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

—:o:—

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

Shoe Store Burned Out.

BELLEVILLE, Sept. 4.—A most disastrous fire broke out yesterday in the store of Haines & Lockett, wholesale and retail boot and shoe dealers, Front street. The fire is supposed to have caught from lightning running down the telephone wire. The stock is almost a total loss and the store is completely gutted. The firm place their loss at $42,000. The store was owned by Mr. Haines, senior member of the firm, and insured for $8,000, which will cover loss. The stock and fixtures were insured for $35,000. Other merchants on either side suffered considerably from water and smoke. W. J. Diamond's law office over the burned store was insured for $350.

Chinese Officials Deny the Report.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The officials of the Chinese Legation here discredit the Tien Tsin dispatch which states that Gen. Yeh and 700 Chinese officers have been rewarded for the victory of the Chinese over the Japanese at Ping Yang. They assert that if seven hundred officers directed the operations at Ping Yang the total force engaged must have been at least 50,000 men instead of 12,000 as reported originally. The British government has informed the government of Japan that the Japanese gunboat Tatseta must be detained at Aden under the foreign enlistment act until the war between China and Japan is over.

Blood Poisoning From Tights.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 4.—Raymond Wood, a contortionist, is lying in a precarious condition, caused by wearing green tights. He did his act at the Home minstrel show in this city last Friday, and, in perspiring, the tights faded. This was especially the case on his right leg below the knee. He thought nothing of it, and was surprised to find the member highly inflamed the next morning. It had become discolored and swollen to twice its usual size, and it is now feared that amputation will be necessary, if more serious results are not caused by blood poisoning extending over the entire system.

Count of Paris' Death Expected.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Count of Paris is rapidly growing weaker and the end is not far off. All of the dying man's family are at his bedside. Princess Waldemar of Denmark and Prince de Joinville arrived at Stowe House last night, making this gathering of the Orleans family the largest since the death of King Louis Phillippe. The Count of Paris is conscious and awaits the end with patience and fortitude. He had bid farewell to all of the servants of the household.

Barn and Contents Destroyed.

ST. JACOBS, Ont., Sept. 4.—During the thunder storm yesterday evening the large bank barn of Jacob Stroh, two miles west of here, was struck by lightning and totally destroyed with the whole season's crops, two horses, four pigs, two wagons and all the other implements. Loss very heavy; insured.

Ringleaders Arrested and Shot.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Sept. 4.—It is reported that an uprising has taken place in Port Au Prince, resulting in severe fighting in the streets. Several of the ringleaders of the outbreak have been arrested and shot but the revolt is said to be still spreading.

An Ex-Consul Attempts Suicide.

ROME, Sept. 4.—Eugene Zozzi, formerly American consul here, made an attempt to kill himself on the mall of the Pincio, a fashionable evening resort, but was prevented by the police. It is believed that the attempt was prompted by financial troubles.

DR. ANDREW GRANT & CO.,

Dear Sirs,—Your celebrated "HAIRINE" is very highly spoken of by those using it, and the sale is constantly increasing. For removing DANDRUFF and promoting the growth of the HAIR, it surpasses anything I have ever known.

THIEVING SWITCHMEN.

A Systematic Plundering of Freight Cars by Railway Employes.

BUFFALO, Sept. 4.—Yesterday the police arrested five women and one man, principals in a gang of car burglars who have been operating for a considerable time. The police also got hold of a portion of the plunder valued at over $1,000. One of the women said: "We have been robbing the cars for months. Every morning between 5 and 6 o'clock we go to the yards and steal all we can. All the folks on the street do. We wouldn't have done it only we saw the switchmen doing it." "What did you do with all you stole?" she was asked. "We sold some, but kept the most of it," she said. "They all steal," she said, "every one on the street."

At every house watched there were tons upon tons of coal, all of which had been stolen. Coal was heaped up in every corner. The houses on the inside were like little palaces. The carpets, rugs, bedding and clothing were of the most elegant and expensive kind.

The husbands of the women when working are New York switchmen, but some of them have not been working for months. It seems the women did all the stealing. There are dry goods, groceries, boots and shoes, meats, carpets, bedding, silverware of the most expensive kind, and in fact almost every variety of merchandise is to be found in the stolen property.

MURDERED FOR SIX DOLLARS.

A Fiend Nearly Severs a Woman's Head for Money.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Josephine Hoffman, a widow living with her son on the second floor of 542 East Sixth street, was murdered by Charles Feigenbaum, 53 years old, a boarder, who had lived with the family a short time. The woman's throat was cut from ear to ear. Mrs. Hoffmann's son was awakened by his mother's cries. He ran to her room and found her murderer standing over her with an ugly-looking knife in his hand. Feigenbaum made for the son on his appearance, but he made his escape through a window. Feigenbaum was arrested. The woman was murdered so that Feigenbaum could get $6 she had in her possession.

A Socialist Suicide's Funeral.

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—The body of Agnes Wahnit., the socialist leader and founder of the Berlin Waitresses' Union, who committed suicide by taking prussic acid in the Freidrichshain Cemetery, was interred yesterday in the Free Thought Cemetery. Thousands of persons accompanied the body to the grave. Hundreds of wreaths, bound with red ribbons, were received from all parts of the country where socialism has a foothold. Herr Vogtherr, a socialist member of the Reichstag, delivered an oration at the grave, and socialist hymns were sung. There was no disorder. The body of the suicide was found near the monument erected over the graves of those who lost their lives in the riots of 1848. The woman was recently condemned to imprisonment for making an incendiary speech, and on the day she killed herself she should have surrendered to the prison authorities to undergo her punishment.

The Boys at School.

Boys who are away at school should always have some quick and sure remedy for sudden attacks of Cramps, Diarrhœa, or Dysentery, for a physician is not always near, and an hour's delay in cases of this kind often leads to serious results. Therefore parents should supply their sons with Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, which is as efficacious as it is simple and harmless. Directions are with each bottle, and one dose rarely fails to bring relief to a sufferer from any bowel complaints. Only 25c. for a bottle double old size.

That hacking cough can be quickly cured by Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Price 25c

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

MANTLES

THIS SEASON.

We are now offering about 50 Fall Mantles at from

$2.50 to $4.00

Which were bought most of them as samples at a large discount and are now clearing the lot to make room for heavier goods that have arrived. The above are a choice stock and not poor stuff as is often advertised at these prices. You only need to see them to be convinced and you will do well to come early as we have only 50 of this line to sell.

The agent through whom we imported our Mantles keeps us posted as the styles change and we will have all the latest novelties to show you as the season advances.

YARNS.

We make a point of keeping a full assortment of Yarns from the coarsest factory to the finest Saxony. Knitters will find our Factory Yarns well scoured and good wool. Our Lion Brand is specially manufactured for Boys and is only 5c. a skein. Baldwin's 3, 4 and 5 ply is universally known and needs no introduction as the name sells it; also all the delicate tints in Saxony kept in stock. Just opened out a fresh stock of Heptonette Cloths suitable for either Dresses or Ulsters in navy and black.

Remember our motto. To always keep a large and complete stock to select from. Small profits and quick returns, to undersell but never be undersold.

LABOR AT THE CAPITAL

Trades and Labor Congress of Canada Convene at Ottawa.

THEIR TENTH ANNUAL SESSION

The Congress Includes Representatives of Labor from the Atlantic to the Pacific — Several Important Questions Will be Up for Consideration.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 5.—The leaders of organized labor in the Dominion are in the city. The tenth annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened in the city council chamber yesterday morning. This congress, representing as it does the labor organizations of all kinds in the Dominion, from the far Pacific to the Atlantic seaboard, is composed of the representative labor men in Canada. The congress will be in session for the remainder of the week.

The delegates that had arrived from the different cities when the congress was opened were: Toronto, George W. Dower, A. W. Holmes, G. T. Beales, J. Coulter, D. A. Carry, John Armstrong, D. J. O'Donohue, John Francis, J. H. Gilmour, James Gardner, and John S. Hodgins; Montreal, Urbain Lafontaine, George S. Warren, L. E. Bonduresult, A. Blendin, V. Dubreuil, P. C. Chatel and Wm. Darlington; Quebec, P. J. Jobin, F. Nargis, H. L. Langevin, E. Jackson, E. Little, J. E. Besnard, D. J. Marsan, Wm. Cuthrie and Alfred Cote; London, H. A. McLean and J. T. Marks; Prescott, Ward S. Plumb.

Previous to the opening of the congress Mr. Antonine Choquette, president of the Ottawa Trades and Labor council, after extending a welcome to the delegates on behalf of that body, introduced Mayor Cox who welcomed the delegates to the city.

Mayor Cox said that it was with the utmost pleasure that he gave the delegates a sincere and happy welcome. If he was correct in his ideas of the objects of the congress they meant nothing more than justice and equity or the procuring of a fair day's pay for a fair day's work. With such an object as this the congress was deserving of the sympathy of the people. He was satisfied from his brief acquaintance with the delegates before him that they were gentlemen who knew how to accomplish the desired end and knew how to rightly present their claims to the public. Through a united effort they had persuaded the Dominion Government to proclaim labor day a holiday throughout the Dominion, and he felt sure that they would be successful in procuring other changes in the interests of labor.

Mr. George T. Beales, of Toronto, president of the congress, replied to the address of welcome. He said that it was a pleasure to know that those who fought above the labor advocates in the past were now coming down to the labor platform. It was found by the organization of labor forces that the many can take care of the few, and this was the object of the congress.

It pretended to speak for those who have not been able to speak for themselves. Laboring men felt proud that their influence had been sufficiently felt to persuade the Government to give the laboring classes an annual holiday, and having this law placed on the statute books. The congress would discuss political questions to be brought before them calmly. He was sorry to say that the men who sent the delegates to the congress were the men who very often cast their ballots against labor. He referred to the recent election in Toronto when the labor candidate, Mr. Armstrong, was defeated, while he would certainly have been elected had the labor vote not been divided by the raising of the religious cry and stirring up of feelings that should never have been raised in a political contest. The laboring men only wanted a just share of the things of this world—something they had not yet received. While they liked to see the employer prosper they did not want to be subjects of oppression and obliged to send their children to the factory at an age when they should be in school. Concluding, he declared the congress open for the despatch of business.

Ald. McGuire and Cook gave brief addresses of welcome and the congress adjourned until the afternoon.

When the afternoon session of the Congress opened the annual report of the president, Mr. Geo. T. Beales, was presented. He said among other things: "The importance of such yearly meetings of labor representatives cannot be overestimated. It is by such means that the united voice of the workers of our Dominion can only be heard, its demands made, its requirements declared, and though slow may be our progress, it behoves us to persistently persevere. It is not only your particular organizations and their interests, but the interests and welfare of our country that we seek to improve and further. Particularly in these most trying times of depression is it necessary that we devote our minds to an intelligent consideration of the causes leading to it. The concentration of wealth in the grasp of a few has and is developing a power that unless a halt is called will inevitably lead to a more hopeless degradation of the workers than even at present exists. This power must be met by increased organization among the workers of the world. Oh, that its force could be realized among the many as it is practised by the few, as witness the power of organization of a few in the recent railway troubles among our American brethren. It seems scarcely possible, but yet too true, that a few wealthy owners could set at defiance all justice and reason asked and fought for by the millions of workers, calling at their will the military and judicial forces of the United States. But, despite the reverses of such troubles, we can assuredly be certain of its effects on the future, bringing us a little nearer to the goal of equality of interests, so necessary to the general welfare of the masses.

"It is also my pleasure to be able to mention the consummation of a long sought for want, as far as the Province of Ontario is concerned, in the passage into law of an act providing for the establishment of a board of arbitration and conciliation for trade disputes. In conclusion I commend again to your earnest consideration the vital questions that will be submitted to you, beseeching your perseverance and energy on your return to your constituents."

The report of the executive committee was also presented. It was reported that the committee had waited upon the Government relating to several matters of importance to organized labor. The subjects presented were the payment of the prevailing rate of wages on Government contracts; the abolition of withdrawal notices in connection with deposits in the postoffice savings banks; a uniform two-cent passenger rate on all railways in the Dominion; rigid inspection of gear and tackle used in loading and unloading vessels; the establishment of the first Monday in September as labor holiday; the employment of a practical mechanic as superintendent of the Government printing office, and Chinese emigration on the Pacific coast.

Special attention was drawn to the fact that at the last session of Parliament royal assent was given to 186 different bills and only three of these were measures in the interest of workingmen. The Quebec Legislative Committee reported that Washington is not the only place where the representatives of the people refuse to grant to the people whom they represent a hearing. The Quebec Congress asked for amendments to the Quebec Factory Act, and spent a whole night with the Provincial Legislature, but did not succeed in obtaining one single modification or amendment that might be remotely considered as of direct benefit to the workers in shop or factory.

The whole business of the afternoon session was of an important character. To morrow the delegates will have a run over the electric street railway and will visit Rockliffe.

BAD BOYS IN SCARLET.

Volunteers in Camp at Levis Act in a Disgraceful Manner.

QUEBEC, Sept. 5.—The citizens of Levis are much incensed against the volunteers drafted from the different military schools in Canada and formed into a military camp at Levis for the purpose of field exercise. The boys in red got very turbulent after having drank and insulted women and girls. They were watched lately after one of their wild rambles and were given a sound thrashing. A large body of them having just crossed from Quebec, and not knowing what was the matter, sought the assistance of the police, seeing the Levis men so badly disposed against them. The camp was then required to send an escort of 100 men to protect the soldiers from the infuriated men of Levis, and on their way to camp the escort picked up a number of drunken soldiers who had taken refuge in back yards. General Herbert has stopped all leave of absence from camp.

MONTREAL FIREMAN KILLED.

He Sustains Fatal Injuries in a Collision During a Fire.

MONTREAL, Sept. 5.—Wm. St. George, a fireman of the Montreal Fire Brigade, met with a sad death last evening. He was attached to the hook and ladder of No. 1 Station.

The firemen were called out by an alarm in the evening, and while No. 1 hook and ladder was on its way to the fire, shortly after leaving the station, it came into collision with a beer waggon and was overturned. St. George, who was on the ladder truck, was thrown underneath the wheels and they passed over his body, almost completely severing one of his legs. The ambulance was summoned, but the unfortunate man died on his way to the hospital. He was 56 years old and leaves a wife and large family.

Fruit Crops in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, Sept. 5.—J. W. Bigelow, president of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association, writes from Wolfeville: "We can now report with some certainty respecting Nova Scotia fruit crop, and although many well-cultivated orcharus have small crops, as a whole there is a good crop of very good quality, which may be estimated as follows: Apples, 120,000 brls; plums, 110,000 baskets, 10 pounds each; pears, 5,000 bush. Strawberries and small fruits have yielded $50,000, and with prospects for good prices the Nova Scotia fruit crop will give a revenue of $800,000, besides that used for home consumption. Several orchards in King's county have over 1,000 barrels each, for which owners can take from $2,000 to $3,000 in orchard, and some plum growers have been offered $1,000 for their crop."

Confessed to Stabbing the Nightwatchman.

MONTREAL, Sept. 5.—Some weeks ago a murderous assault was committed upon nightwatchman Emery and his assailant escaped. Emery, after lying four weeks in the hospital, recovered. A man named Fraser, who was arrested a few days ago at Alexandria, Ont., on a charge of committing a series of robberies, has now confessed that he was the man who stabbed Emery while the latter was attempting to arrest him and a companion for burglary. Fraser has been sent before the court of Queen's Bench, now in session here, for trial.

Hotel Property Destroyed.

CHATHAM, Sept. 5.—Fire broke out in the outbuildings of Martin's hotel, King street. The flames extended to the hotel itself and to the rear of Radley's drug store next door, and before the brigade had control of the fire the outbuildings were destroyed and the hotel and drug store badly gutted. One horse and a valuable setter dog were burned to death in the barn. The hotel building was insured in the Hartford, and stock and furniture in the Sun of London. Radley's stock and the building are covered in the National. Origin of fire unknown.

THE BURNED DISTRICTS

Towns and Counties Which Fall Prey to the Flames.

LIVES ESTIMATED TO BE LOST

The Total Number Now Placed at Four Hundred and Fifty—Robbing Dead Bodies at Sandstone—Some Incidents in the Great Disaster.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—From revised returns received from the burned regions of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan the following are the total and partially burned towns and counties:

Minnesota towns totally destroyed—Hinckley, Pokegama, Sandstone, Sandstone Junction or Miller, Patridge, Cromwell, Curtis, Cushing, Mission Creek. Partially destroyed—Finlayson, Manafield, Rutledge, Milaca. Counties totally destroyed—Pine. Partially destroyed—Kanabec, Carlton, Benton, Aitken, Mille Lacs, Morrison.

Wisconsin towns totally destroyed—Comstock, Benoit, Barrounett, Poplar, Marengo, Granite Lake. Partly burned—Spencer, High Bridge, Ashland Junction, Fifield, Washburne, Cartwright, Grantsburg, Turtle Lake, Rice Lake, Musecda, Bashaw, Shell Lake, South Range. Counties partly burned—Barron, Washburne, Florence, Ashland, Taylor, Chippewa, Burnet, Marinette, Price, Grant, Douglas, Marathon, Bayfield.

Michigan towns partly burned—Trout Creek, Ewen, Sidnaw. Counties partly burned—Houghton, Ontonagon (almost totally except in towns), Huron, Mascona.

The Number of Lives Lost.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 5.—The general executive committee in charge of the relief work in this section has made a report of the dead bodies recovered thus far as follows: Hinckley, 271; Sandstone, 77; Miller, (often called Sandstone Junction) 15; between Skunk Lake and Miller, 12; Pokegama, 25; in lumber camps, 50; total, 450.

The losses at Sandstone are: Sandstone Quarry Co., $25,000; Martin Ring's store and saw mill, $15,000; school house, $15,000 and about 40 dwellings ranging in value from $1,000 to $3,000.

Everything at Sandstone was burned, the only thing left standing being the school-house walls and the bank safe. The only living things to be seen there on Sunday night when the relief party arrived were a horse and pig. Sixty-two bodies have been buried thus far in the town, not counting those which have been found in the out-lying country and buried where found.

A party from Duluth came down to help bury the dead and came upon a gang who had broken open and rifled some safes. When discovered they had just found a cistern from which they had hauled 15 dead bodies and robbed them of jewellery and were throwing the bodies back into the well. The ghouls escaped.

The fire was seen by the Sandstone people four hours before it struck the town and everything was packed up in readiness to move to Kettle river, east of the village. Before anyone was aware of the real danger the fire came upon the town from the northeast and west, firing the whole town inside of five minutes. Many were unable to reach the river and died in the streets. A blacksmith was burned to a crisp in his shop, where he was shoeing a horse. Not a thing was saved and in 30 minutes the whole town was wiped off the face of the earth. The survivors are entirely destitute and have not even clothing except such as is provided by the relief committee.

At Hinckley the full realization of the calamity is just begun to be felt. A large number of bodies were recovered. Coroner Cowan sent 57, while 68 were buried in the graveyard and more were being brought in all the time.

Portions of human bodies are strewn here and there about the town, while on the streets are dead animals of all descriptions. Monday's big pile of bodies has been put under ground, some piled promiscuously in a trench six feet wide and forty feet long, while others were put in pine boxes and buried.

Lee Webster, mayor of Hinckley, lost his wife, and while feeling quite sure she is dead, he is searching everywhere for her. Yesterday he had nine bodies disinterred that he might examine them.

Hinckley survivors say that if every one had gone to the big gravel pit all would have been saved. Many went to the swamp across the river, from which as many as 100 corpses have been taken.

One farmer, whose name cannot be learned, who lived about half way between Miller and Sandstone, killed himself when he saw his wife and three children, his son-in-law, wife and children all burned to death before his eyes, and his home, stock and savings of a lifetime swept away.

An Iowa Town Wiped Out.

MASON CITY, Ia., Sept. 5.—The town of Dawsin, Wright county, with a population of 1,000, was nearly wiped out of existence by fire last night. Only two business buildings remain. Loss, $100,000.

Cranberry Crop a Failure.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass., Sept. 5.—The cranberry crop will be exceedingly short, probably not one-quarter as large as last year. At a meeting of prominent growers held in Warham on September 1 the action of the committee in Sandwich last week was reaffirmed, that those present would sell no berries for less than $8 per barrel at the depot and that they would consign no berries except when the consignee is limited to sales that will net the grower $8 per barrel.

Fatal Railway Collision.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 5.—Shortly before midnight a cut of eight loaded cars broke loose in the Fifth avenue yards of the Big Four road and ran down through the Union depot and west to the Ottawa river bridge where it collided with a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train. It is reported that the bridge was knocked down and both trains plunged into the river. Details are meagre but it is reported that a fireman was killed and many persons injured.

Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1894.

THERE were brewed in Germany last year 1,202,132,074 gallons of beer; in Great Britain, 1,164,752,962 gallons and in America (the continent apparently) 1,084,423,460. Germany also occupies the position of consuming the greatest amount of beer per head, 33.378 gallons a year, and in Bavaria the per capita consumption reached the prodigious figure of 62 gallons a year. The German brewers used up 1,552,950 tons of malt, the British 1,893,396 tons of malt, and the American 1,723,900 tons of malt or its equivalents. When we look at the enormous total of more than five million tons used in the manufacture of an article which, to say the least of it, is not a necessary of life, we can, says the Globe, form some faint conception of the absurdity of the fear that we are nearing the limit of the earth's capacity to produce food for its children.

THE long wet season of the early summer and the protracted drouth of August ought to enhance public interest in the subject of forestry. In France it has been found necessary to renew the forests on the hillsides in order to prevent extremes of flood and drouth. The commonly-accepted theory is that the forest, with its leaves, roots, mosses and other means of retaining moisture, acts as a reservoir, gathering the water and releasing it in such a way as to promote regularity in the flow and volume of the water courses.

ALL THE COLOURS OF THE RAINBOW.

(Globe)

The Conservative leaders of to-day are a happy combination. Mr. Madill is a striking illustration of their methods. He is, so he says, a Protestant of Protestants. He is coaxing the Protestants into Mr. Clarke Wallace's lodge, and at the same time driving the Catholics into Sir John Thompson's arms. Every Protestant he draws to Mr. Clarke Wallace carries a grist to Sir John Thompson's mill, and every Catholic he drives to the Premier gives Sir John additional strength.

For ways that are dark and tricks that are vain the heathen Chinee was said to be peculiar. But this statement was made before Sir John Thompson's Government came into power. Since then for arts, graces and combinations, Sir John Thompson is even more peculiar than the heathen Chinee. Look at the tinted combination in this galaxy, Sir John Thompson; Mr. Clarke Wallace, the Orange Grand Master; Mr. Madill, President of the P.P.A.; Mr. J. J. Curran, home rule orator and champion of the cause of Ireland.

How delightful it is to see all these factions sinking their little differences on the altar of the party and blending in one harmonious whole for the party's good and the spoils of office.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

The Temperance Committee of St. Paul's Society have been doing good work this term, and are now planning for some very effective work in the last week of this month. On Sunday, Sept. 23rd, Rev. E.F. Torrance will preach a temperance sermon. That afternoon Mr. J. W. Garvin will give an illustrated address to the S. S. children in the church. Parents and friends will be welcomed to this meeting. Monday night the Endeavour Society and visitors will hear (by proxy) the masterly speeches given by Miss Willard and Mr. Wooley at the Cleveland Convention. Tuesday night arrangements are being made for a "platform meeting" to be addressed by the local ministers. Wednesday night there will be a praise and promise service. Thursday night, Sept. 17th, Rev. Mr. Johnston, of Lindsay, will deliver a lecture, which will no doubt draw a large crowd, Mr. Johnston being a great favourite in Peterborough. Friday night is not arranged for yet, but will be announced later on, as well as fuller particulars of the above meetings.

The public is cordially invited to be present at any or all of these meetings. Besides your presence the Temperance Committee desires the prayers of all who are interested in the work, that success in the highest and best sense of the word may follow these meetings.

"RAM'S HORN" CLIPPINGS.

Many a man who chews or smokes can prove to his own satisfaction that it is wrong for a woman to wear a feather on her bonnet.

Would Christ be able to find twelve men suitable for Apostles in any modern community? If so, which element would be better represented in that company—the Salvation Army of the slums or the kid glove aristocracy of the pews?

THREE GATES.

If you are tempted to reveal
A tale some one to you has told
About another, make it pass,
Before you speak, three gates of gold.

These narrow gates—First, "Is it true?"
Then, "Is it needful?" In your mind
Give truthful answer. And the next
Is the last and narrowest, "Is it kind?"

And if to reach your lips at last,
It passes through these gateways three
Then you may tell the tale, nor fear
What the result of speech may be.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found relief before I had finished taking half of a bottle. I got so much help from taking the first bottle that I decided to try another, and since taking the second bottle I feel as well as ever I did in my life." GEO. MERRETT, Toronto, Ont.

How We Forged

Our way to the front, is largely due to close buying, close application, and an appreciative class of customers. Our whole hobby has been to excel in selling Groceries, Provisions, etc., which we know to be the best, the purest, and the cleanest, for the smallest margin of profit. We cannot afford to mistake anything. We never do If you are so prejudiced that you're willing to go on paying too much, no argument need be wasted, but if you are open to conviction and a fair judge of values, a sample order will prove to you how true our contention is.

We are especially pleased to know that our past six months business has been the most satisfactory, as well as the largest in Peterborough.

OUR SPECIALS for the next week will consist chiefly in Sugars for Preserving, Vinegars and Spices for Pickling, and Teas. Come early—better late than ever—but come, sure.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

From our own Correspondent.

Miss Clara Sperry, of Peterborough, was the guest of her sister, Miss N. H. Sperry, of Norwood, last week.

Mr. Esplin of Paisley, is the guest of Miss Robb.

Mrs. Dickson, of Peterborough, is visiting Mrs. W. E. Roxburgh.

Mrs. Mitchell, Cloyne, is the guest of Mrs. Carmichael, at the manse.

Rev. Jas. Cleland of Port Hope, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on Sunday last.

A very sad event occurred at Stony lake last Friday morning in the death of Mrs. Cook, mother of Mrs. John Davidson. Deceased had been in poor health for some time, but had considerably improved during a two weeks stay at the lake. The party intended leaving the island for Peterborough on Friday, but while being got ready Mrs. Cook suddenly fainted and expired in a very short time. Heart disease was the cause of death. Our sympathies are with the bereaved relatives.

Last week while sorting lumber, John Harper, jr., and J. N. Ackerman were almost buried under a falling pile. Mr. Harper sustained several bruises and a severe ankle sprain, while Mr. Ackerman had one of his ribs fractured and received a number of bruises.

At the recent entrance examination there were 134 candidates writing at Norwood, 79 of whom passed, making a percentage of 59, nearly. Of the 79 successful candidates 21 were from the Norwood public school, there being but one failure, which gives our school 95½ per cent. Leaving out the candidates from our school, 52½ per cent., nearly, of candidates from other schools were successful, as compared with 95½ per cent. from Norwood.

The total number of marks obtainable was 820. The highest number obtained was 638 by Croft Gear, followed by Gertie Moffatt with 630, and Edna Knapp 625, which three rank first in the county on the examination.

Labour day passed off very quietly here. Over 100 attended the Presbyterian Sunday school picnic to Trent Bridge. The picnicers arrived at the Narrows about 10 o'clock, and indulged in boating, bathing, etc. After dinner a baseball match between teams chosen from the married and single men was played. Although every advantage was given to the married men the match resulted in a victory for the bachelors by a score of 24 to 18.

The Model School opened on Tuesday with an attendance of 40. Mr. Ward has taken charge of the fourth room, while Mr. Perney is engaged in teaching in the Model School.

The Mechanics' Institute will give a concert on the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 11th, the second night of the Fair.

Last week a horse belonging to Mr. Robb was killed on the C.P.R. track. The animal was valued at $50.

Council Meeting.

The council met on Monday evening, all the members being present. Minutes of last regular meeting were read and signed. By-law No. 176, to raise a sum of money for school purposes, received its several readings and was passed and signed. The following accounts were presented and ordered to be paid: J. McLachlan, cedar for sidewalks, $3.50; R. Scriver, building 21 rods of sidewalk, $8.40; R. Scriver, quarters salary as constable, $12.50; J. G. Keefer, on printing contract, $35. James Pengelly sent in a communication, resigning his position as collector. Moved by Councillor Stuart, seconded by Councillor Reynolds, that the resignation be accepted and that a by-law to repeal the by-law appointing Mr. Pengelly be passed.—Carried. By-law No. 177, repealing clause 2 of by-law 172 and appointing Thos. Fraser collector at a salary of $35, passed. A communication from the county treasurer re lots 1 and 2, north Ridge street, was read. Moved by Councillor Reynolds, seconded by Councillor Ebbs, that whereas D. J. McCarthy was erroneously assessed in 1893 for $4.89 arrears of taxes which should have been assessed against lots 1 and 2, north Ridge street, the amount is abated to D. J. McCarthy and charged against said lots on the non-resident roll.

LATER SUMMER.

Come forth from frescoed ceiling,
When restful, dreamy haze
Enwraps the world, revealing
Sweet summer's later days!

The busy time of sowing,
With nice, precarious care
Before the mystic growing—
Succession everywhere—
Is done.

Robin's bright song now slumbers;
The feathered choir is gone,
Whose soul inspiring numbers,
Of erst, awoke the dawn.

But plaintive notes are drawing
An answer from the glen,
Commingling with the cawing
Of raiding rooks; and then
The cedar trees and spruces,
And dark clad sighing pine,
The beech, the oak, the maple,
The juniper and vine
Salute with quiv'ring shimmer
In many tints of green,
Nor hide the ferns that glimmer
With drooping grace between.

The sun, the sky, the growing
Seem halting on the way,
A truce with time bestowing
On this still August day.

Of other times a-dreaming
The cricket has a song;
To-day is only "seeming,"
She dwells in days agone.

Thank God for present duty!
Thank Him for this day's cheer!
Give praise for all the beauty
Entwining round the year!

Ripe summer has its story,
Asters and golden rod;
Its bounty and its glory
Reveal the power of God.

FAIRMOUNT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Sunday, the 1st inst., as Mr. William J. Johnston, son of William Johnston, and Mr. Robert G. Johnston were returning from the funeral of the late Mrs. Andrew Meharry, the horse took fright and bolted, overturning the buggy and, throwing both occupants out, ran away. Mr. R. G. Johnson escaped with slight injury, but Mr. William Johnston, shortly after the accident became unconscious and remained so for some hours, but at present is out of all danger.

HAVELOCK.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs. W. Judson has just returned home from Campbellford, where Dr. Hage, the eye and ear specialist, has been treating her. She was opening a lemon sour bottle and the cork hit her in the eye, totally destroying the sight. People not used to opening them should be more careful.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most commmon and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nerviline. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

HON. MR. LAURIER'S REPLY.

He is Waited Upon by a Deputation With Respect to Manitoba Schools.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 5.—A deputation of Roman Catholics waited upon Hon. Mr. Laurier, the Liberal leader, yesterday, to find out what measures of relief he would afford regarding school legislation in the event of his party coming into power. A long address was presented, reciting their grievances and the history of the school question.

Mr. Laurier, in reply, said that many statements made in the address were new to him. He expressed surprise that the petitioners had not interviewed members of the Government when visiting Ottawa, as they had power to grant relief.

It was explained to Mr. Laurier that this was not done because the Ministers used different languages in different provinces, and Catholics had no faith in them.

Mr. Laurier understood the complaint to be that the schools were not public but Protestant. He recommended that the case be laid before the Government. He was a staunch advocate of provincial rights. Provinces should deal with educational matters, but if any right was invaded or any injustice done, the minority had in the Canadian constitution a remedy, an appeal to means provided by the British North America Act. If the facts were as stated in the address, he believed the Catholic minority had the strongest grounds for remedial legislation. If in office he would order an investigation, and if the facts were found as stated he would apply the remedy.

NEWFOUNDLAND AFFAIRS.

An Ex-Registrar-General Tells of the Corruption in Politics.

TORONTO, Sept. 5.—Hon. J. J. Rogerson, at one time Registrar-General for Newfoundland, is in the city, on his way to the Methodist Central Conference in London. Mr. Rogerson came direct from St. Johns, the capital of Newfoundland. He says the recent disqualification of Sir William Whiteway and his party was the outcome of a revulsion of feeling against bribery in any form, and a determination on the part of the people to have a pure government.

Mr. Rogerson said there was little feeling at present in Newfoundland in favor of confederation, though he thought it would be favorably considered if his countrymen could see any trade benefits to result therefrom. A high protective policy would not suit Newfoundland. As long as Canada's policy tended towards prohibitive tariff as it now was, so long would any feeling in favor of joining the Confederacy remain dormant in Newfoundland.

Even now he thought Canadians could do a larger business in Newfoundland than they did if they chose.

Sir Adolphe Caron in England.

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 5.—Sir Adolphe Caron, Postmaster-General of Canada, has been consulting the officials of the Colonial Office regarding the landing place of the proposed Pacific cable at Honolulu or Necker Island. Everywhere a desire is being shown to assist towards the success of the project, and it is believed that the new government at Honolulu is quite willing to co operate in the scheme. The Messrs. Siemens and other electrical experts are already placing tenders for the cable and the Siemens are still confident of the immediate feasibility of the project even without a survey. Sir Adolphe believes that a conference will be held in Australia next year to complete the business of the intercolonial gathering of June last at Ottawa.

CHEESE MARKETS.

Montreal, Sept. 3.—At the wharf this morning, there were 6,700 boxes offered, 2,200 coming in by boat and 4,500 by rail. The demand was brisk, and everything was absorbed at 10½c and over. On the street nothing was done.

Utica, Sept. 3.—Cheese sales to-day:—3,085 boxes at 9½c, 3,108 boxes at 9¾c, 3,290 boxes at 10c, 332 boxes at 10¼c. 100 boxes on private terms. 145 packages of creamery butter at 21½ to 22½c.

Little Falls, Sept. 3.—Cheese sales to-day:—40 boxes at 9¾c, 936 boxes at 9¾c, 3,252 boxes at 10c, 326 boxes on commission, 276 boxes dairy at 9½ to 10c; 74 packages of creamery butter at 21½ to 22c, 19 packages of dairy butter at 2[illegible] to 21c.

Many people, not aware of the dangers of constipation, neglect the proper remedy till the habit becomes chronic, or inflammation or stoppage results. A dose or two of Ayer's Pills in the beginning would have prevented all this.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

These seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

The DeLamortan System of Cutting.

Mrs. McCaully having purchased the right to teach and sell the above system, has removed the school to her own rooms, over Mason's seed store, corner of Water and Brock streets, where she is prepared to receive pupils and do all manner of dress and mantle making.

Thanks of the Committee.

The managing Committee of the Labour Demonstration wish to publicly and cordially thank those citizens who contributed so liberally to the prize list and also all those who assisted in any way to make the demonstration the gratifying success it proved to be. The working men of Peterborough are to be congratulated upon the executive ability they displayed in the management of their Labour Day Demonstration.

Conservative Meeting.

A meeting of the local Conservatives was held in the Opera House, last night. There was a fair attendance for the season. Mr. Jas. Kendry occupied the chair and Mr. Jas. Stevenson was present and addressed the meeting, lauding the grand record of the Government and dealing with that important election factor, the Trent Valley Canal. After some private consultation, it was decided to hold the annual meeting in Peterborough, on Sept. 22nd.

Of Course They are Well Pleased.

This morning, Messrs. J. J. Turner & Son received the following letter, which is very much to the credit of their business like promptitude as well as their work:

NAPANEE, SEPT. 4TH.

GENTLEMEN,—The sails you made for us last July reached us in good time. We were delayed in getting them in for some time after we received them, but when we put them on, we were very much pleased with them. They could not look or fit better. We are well pleased with them, both as a fit and make.

Yours truly,
THOS. A. HUFFMAN.

The Black and the Blue.

The drop in prices of new fall goods, announced by Joseph Armstrong & Co., has proved a strong attraction to the ladies, so early in the season. This firm has had many strong features to offer during the summer season, and they seem determined to pursue an equally vigorous and pushing policy during the fall. The black and the blue ink prices on the goods make it easy to accept the reductions on the goods as genuine. You examine the goods—the tickets do the rest. dw

During those hard times you cannot afford to pay four profits; buy direct from the manufacturers, Grafton & Co.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—A drunk was discharged at the police court this morning.

—Mr. A. F. Hoover, teacher of Pianoforte, has resumed his classes this week.

—About twenty feet of the eastern guard pier, at the foot of the locks, is being renewed.

Belleville's new daily paper will make its appearance in a few days. It has good financial backing.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store.

—Janitor Barrett, of the West Ward school, had the table at the School Board meeting last evening beautifully decorated with choice flowers.

The uniform report of druggists:—Customers are delighted with results and speak in highest terms of Phenyo-Caffain for headache or neuralgia.

—Regular meeting of Court Littlejohn C. O. F. in the Sons of England Hall, Hunter street, this evening. Entrance to hall door, next to Clarke & Gibson's jewelry story.

—City Lodge, I.O.G.T., No. 404, will hold a debate to-morrow night on the subject, "Resolved that country life is preferable to town life." Lodge will be thrown open at 8.45. Every body invited.

—Mr. Jos. Woodcock, formerly of the "Bodega," Peterborough, has purchased a finely equipped saloon in Montreal, "The Alcide," 293 St. Lawrence-Main street. He entered into possession on Sept. 1st, and is reported to be doing a good business.

—On Monday, Mr. Sam Fitzgerald invaded Kent's creek, Rice Lake and captured 65 fine bass. He also bagged nine ducks. A pretty good record for one day, which suggests the possibility of his piscatorial brother's record being lowered.

PERSONAL.

ASHBURNHAM COUNCIL.

Regular Meeting of the Village Council Last Evening.

A meeting of the Ashburnham council was held last evening.

COMMUNICATIONS

were received

From S. R. Armstrong, town clerk, Peterborough, notifying the council that the Finance Committee of the Peterborough council would meet on Friday night next in the clerk's office to discuss the proposed union.

From Dumble & Leonard, notifying the council of the protest of land owners on Oxford street against the digging of an open drain through the lane leading from that street to Stewart street.

A number of accounts were presented to the council and ordered to be paid.

Estimates for the Village of Ashburnham for the year 1894:

Roads and bridges	$2,300 00

SEPARATE SCHOOLS:
Required by trustees	$ 327 00
5 8-10 mills on $ on $56,505 Separate School assessment	327 72

A. H. PECK,
Treasurer.

September 1st, 1894.

The estimates were adopted and the rate struck at 19 4/10.

The increased rate over last year is due to the fact that this year $500 on school account from last year is added to the regular school demand for the present year. Had this sum not been included in this year's estimates the rate would have been about the same as last year.

POLICE COURT.

Wednesday, Sept. 5th.

At the police court this morning Geo. Rickey, a well known and hitherto well conducted citizen, was charged with a serious offence. He was arrested last night by Police Constable Stewart on the following information: "That on Monday, Sept. 3rd, he did carnally know ——, a girl under fourteen years of age, and not being his wife, without her consent, contrary to the criminal code of 1892." The evidence of several witnesses was taken with closed doors, and the accused was committed for trial, bail being refused.

KINMOUNT.

A destructive fire broke out at Kinmount on Saturday morning and owing to the excessive dryness spread rapidly and widely. The buildings destroyed were Bowie's hotel, Cyril Scott's dwelling, Jas. Wilson's butcher shop, Scott's store (unoccupied), Rivers' shop, Charles Scott's dwelling (loss $1,000), and McDonald's blacksmith shop. The total loss is about $15,000, only partially covered by insurance. The fire is a great set back to the prosperity of the village.

Any private party having money to invest should see advertisement in another column, under "Opening for investment."

Fell Through the Bridge.

A Toronto man named Lynch fell over the crib work near the Lock Works into the creek last night and was pretty badly injured. It appears he was roaming around in the vicinity of the Phelan House in the dark and by some means fell into the creek. A lady passing by heard his groans. The police were notified and he was picked out and removed to the Little Windsor and afterwards to St. Joseph's Hospital. He is suffering considerably from cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

Intermingled with a few Duckiets.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Several parties are stopping at the Jubilee Point hotel and will remain a fortnight. They are Mr. Jackson, of the Port Hope Gun Club, accompanied by several other members of the club. They succeeded in bagging nine or ten brace of the feathered tribe. They have also had great luck so far with the finny tribe, catching seventeen yellow and black bass and fourteen lunge, weighing from four to sixteen lbs. They return home the latter part of this week.

Mr. J. J. Hall, inland revenue officer, Peterborough, accompanied by his son, Mr. John Hall and wife, of Chicago, Commodore H. Calcutt, of the P. S. and N. Co., Miss Maggie Calcutt, with her friend, Miss Maggie Calcutt, of Chicago, returned home after a most pleasant outing on the Otonabee and Rice Lake. They had exceptionally good sport in angling, making an immense catch. In trowling they succeeded in hooking twenty lunge and seven bass in short duration. The commodore is looking unusually well after his sojourn down the river and expresses himself as highly delighted. The party were the guests of Hotel Jubilee, of which Mr. Calcutt is proprietor, and managed by Mr. Robert Jackson, with an obliging staff of attendants.

It is Mr. Calcutt's intention of having the point thoroughly underbrushed throughout the whole space at once and during the winter, thinning out the trees. Alongside the dancing pavilion there will be erected a grand stand to accommodate four or five hundred, along side of which there will be a ball ground, four acres in all, which will be cleared and levelled up for next season's business, making one of the best baseball cricket or lawn tennis grounds at any summer resort in the Dominion. The trees are being whitewashed some ten feet high from the root, which makes the point catchy to the eye from the lake and river. He is bound to see Jubilee one of the grandest resorts next season.

At Hastings, Friday last, there was quite a baseball tournament. The Keene's played Bewdley and the Douro Chiefs played Ballieboro. The steamer Dal y, under the command of Capt. Chas. Calcutt, handled both excursions admirably.

Mr. E. J. Hartley, accompanied by the far famed "Jack Frost," shipped 18 brace of ducks to town, yesterday. Their total shoot, beginning Saturday, was 79, some of them they could not get, on account of lighting in the weeds.

Mr. Harry Neil, Capt. R. Tivey, C. James, arrived home yesterday morning with eighteen brace. They report that the ducks are quite plentiful but hard to get at. They anticipate taking another pop at them the first part of October.

Mr. Jack McAllister of Gore's Landing, a noted and far-famed duck hunter, and an all round sport, alone bagged twenty-one single ducks. Jack can teach a few of the Peterborough crack shots something they don't know as regards duck shooting. Ain't that so, Jack?

Mr. Harry Dale, of London, Eng., is not faring as well as the others, he only bagging two or three.

Now then, there is a certain four eyed gent living not a great ways from Keene, who makes himself quite at home in and about the boys' camps, helping himself just 'exactly' as he pleases, while they are out shooting. Taking their cholera medicine from one camp at the same time taking cased goods from another. Of course it was merely done as a joke, but the boys consider it too thin to deprive them of the necessaries of life. He is known as he was caught in the act, and if he repeats it a second time they intend making it interesting for him. So take warning and leave their camp alone.

Mr. Alex. Patterson and M. O'Brien paid Capt. Tivey's party a visit Sunday.

Mr. James Wedlock, of Wedlock's Landing, the noted frog exporter, bagged nine brace, wood duck principally.

The summer resorts along the river and lake afford first-class board to fishermen and duck hunters, guides, etc., at a most reasonable rate. They are situated as follows: Victoria Park, Jubilee, Gore's Landing, Harwood, Idyl Wild and Keene, all of which are in the vicinity of the duck hunters' paradise, particularly Jubilee Point, which is the centre.

Mr. Adam Davidson, wine clerk at the Southern Hotel, town, paid the boys from here a friendly visit Sunday and brought home to the manager, Mr. Steve Holland, ten brace, which were duly plucked and served on the table. The genial proprietor of the house gave the boys a rare dish on the occasion of it being Labour Day, which they greatly relished. They state they will call again. Mr. Holland was generous enough to have all the "duckies" dressed, even those which did not belong to himself. Of course the parties who received them thanked Steve most cordially. Steve is a generous proprietor.

SARNIA'S CHIEF OF POLICE

Pays a Visit to Peterborough—His Impressions of the Town.

Chief of Police, Jno. Windred, of Sarnia, is in town on a visit to his son-in-law, Mr. Wm. Chrowe, Ashburnham. In conversation with a reporter to-day, the Chief stated that he visited this town thirty-one years ago, in the capacity of drill instructor, sent out by the House Guards department, the head of the military department of the British Army. This was the time the volunteer force of Canada was first organized. He was then connected with the 60th Rifles, which had just returned from India. His field of labour was at Cobourg and the other frontier towns, the drill instructor at Peterborough being Sergeant Sault. At that time, Chief Windred states, he received an invitation to attend a military ball gived by the officers in Peterborough, and it was then he first met Lt.-Col. Rogers, who was then captain of the volunteers. Chief Windred since coming to town has had the pleasure of meeting the Colonel, and he was surprised to see him looking so young.

In referring to Peterborough, the chief stated he noted a wonderful change in that time, and stated that it was the smartest town he had ever visited. He was further surprised to learn that no factories had been forced to close down owing to trade depression, and stated that no other town in Canada, or even the United States, could lay claim to that honour.

Chief Windred has been connected with the Sarnia police department for fourteen years, and has five men under his supervision. He is an athletic looking gentleman, and has the build and carriage, and, it is said, the grit and pluck of the average British soldier.

We are receiving daily from one hundred to five hundred baskets of Crawford Peaches. Pears, Plums, Grapes. Crawford Peaches selling to-day from 50c. to 85c. Grapes, 20c, 30c and 50c. Pears and Plums very low.

INDIGESTION.

Madill's Dyspepsia Powders will give sure and quick relief for Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any of its forms.

A MEETING OF LIBERAL WORKERS.

A meeting of the Liberals of the town will be held in the law office of Messrs. Stratton & Hall, Hunter street, on Friday evening next for the purpose of taking whatever action may be decided as necessary in view of the possibly near-at-hand Dominion elections. The present parliamentary term has still a year to run and the Ministry is entitled to another year of office without appeal to the country. But past experience shows that the parliamentary term is not adhered to when party exigencies suggest a premature dissolution. As there is no knowing when an election contest may be precipitated, it is wisdom on the part of Liberals, who will receive no intimation of the approach of the elections, except what the signs of the times provide, to be prepared for any emergency. The necessity and vital importance of thorough organization cannot be overestimated. A large attendance of working Liberals is specially requested for Friday night.

DROWNED NEAR CHEMONG INDIAN VILLAGE.

Timothy J. Crough of Ennismore, Falls out of a Punt and is Drowned.

Early Monday morning Mr. Timothy J. Crough, aged 18 years, in company with two other young men, went out on Chemong lake in a punt on a fishing expedition. Mr. Crough occupied a position in the rear of the boat, and when some distance from the shore he was seized with a fit and fell overboard. One of the young men attempted to seize him by the foot, but was unable to do so, and he immediately sank from view. A search was at once instituted for the body, and about five o'clock in the evening the body was found by Mr. John Mahoney of Ennismore. The accident has cast a gloom over the whole township, where the young man was held in high respect. He was the only son of the late Timothy Crough of Ennismore, and his mother is still living in the township. The funeral took place this (Wednesday) morning to the Ennismore cemetery and was very largely attended.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

SUPERVISION COMMITTEE'S REPORT.

The report of the Supervision Committee was presented as follows:

GENTLEMEN,—Your Supervision Committee having carefully considered the limits or boundaries which regulate the attendance of pupils at each of the ward schools, recommend that the following changes only be made, viz: That the present northern boundary of the south school, west of Bethune street, be changed from Charlotte str et to the gravel road, to include both sides of Simcoe and Gilmour streets, and of that portion of Park street between them. This arrangement will relieve the present over crowded rooms of Park street school and no provide too many pupils for the Rubidge street school.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JNO. McKEE, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

PROPERTY COMMITTEE REPORT.

Mr. P. Hamilton, chairman, presented the following report:—

GENTLEMEN,—The Property Committee beg leave to report that during the holidays, as by the order of the Board, had the different schools calcimined and painted and general repairs done as follows:

South Ward School—G. Diston, contractor, for painting out-side woodwork, two coats, all inside two coats, and tinting walls, $190; A. Dawson, repairs to masonry and brickwork, $29.95; R. Clinkscale, repairs to woodwork, $23.33; L. Spry, repairs to waterpipes and eave troughs, $7.65; C. W. Francisco, blackboard, $10, and some other small sundries for materials, glass, etc.

North Ward School—Painting all outside work one coat and tinting walls inside, Fry & Edwards, contractors, $48, and a small bill for extras on worn part of stairs, window sills and pillars in front of school, $9 70.

West Ward School—Repairs to front platform and floor of hall and closet. This was done mostly by the janitor at a small cost. Blackboards re-slated by C. W. Francisco cost $28.50.

Collegiate Institute—Tinting walls and oiling floors, Duncan & Gray, contractors, price $50. They also had a small bill for extras which is in suspense.

There were some necessary repairs to Central School, but of a minor character.

The basement school in St. John's Mission church has been fixed up for a kindergarten school, and is going to answer as a temporary substitute until we get better accommodation.

Tables and chairs and supplies for 50 pupils were procured. The tables were furnished by Mr. E. Courtney, and the chairs and supplies were ordered through A. H. Stratton & Co. and the quantity limited to the actual necessities to commence operations. The piano is supplied by Mr. Crosby at a rental of $2 per month until such time as the Board sees fit to cancel the arrangement by purchasing or otherwise.

We congratulate ourselves that never in the history of Peterborough were our schools in better shape and in a more efficient condition to do the work for which they have been erected.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PETER HAMILTON, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

THE INSPECTOR'S GRATIFYING REPORT.

Public School inspector next presented the following report:

PETERBOROUGH, JULY 9th, 1894.

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN,—The number of pupils enrolled in June was 1428. The average attendance was 1257 or 87.2 per cent. of those enrolled.

The Central school enrolled 656; average attendance 566 or 86.2 per cent. The Park Street School enrolled 235; average attendance 209 or 89 per cent.

The enrollment in the Rubidge Street school was 357, with an average attendance of 309 or 88 per cent., and in the Barnardo avenue school 189, with an average attendance of 163 or 86.7 per cent.

The half yearly promotion examinations were held the last week in June, at which 1,037 pupils wrote. Of this number 642, or 62 per cent., were promoted. In June, 1893, fifty-three per cent. of the candidates were successful, and in January, of the present year, fifty-eight per cent.

In January last, the standard of examination tests was raised to that of the very best schools in the province, and in the last examination this high standard was retained. The increased success of the candidates may therefore be fairly considered a true indication of the progress being made.

Our method of examining the papers sent in by the candidates is, I think, fair and just. Generally speaking each teacher examines papers of candidates in divisions two grades below her own. For example, a junior fourth class teacher examines, say, junior 3rd class geography papers from the 4 schools; another examines junior 3rd grammar papers from all the junior 3rd classes. A similar method is followed in placing the presiding examiners. By such methods we secure uniformity and avoid the possibility of the influence of any selfish interests.

The public school celebration was held in the early part of June, but owing to the several unavoidable postponements it did not prove a financial success. The total receipts were $36.25, and the total expenses up to date $33.85. This leaves a balance of $2.19 which will be expended in engraving the names of the officers of the successful companies on the silver cups, and in purchasing suitable brackets on which to place the cups in the school rooms.

Comment on the marching and other military performances of our six companies of cadets, and on the beautiful series of exercises given by our girls' brigade is perhaps unnecessary. It was generally conceded that they reflected much credit on their physical instructor and on the wisdom of the Board of Education in providing such advantages. Many expressed the pleasure they felt at gazing upon the graceful and well-developed physiques of our girls and boys.

The $11.50 worth of bar-bells, sashes, etc., purchased has been added to the apparatus of the gymnasium.

THE TEACHING STAFF.

Generally speaking, your staff of public school teachers has worked faithfully and successfully throughout all of the term.

Respectfully yours,

J. W. GARVIN, P. S. Inspector.

The report was received.

PETERBOROUGH, Sept. 4.

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN,—Along with this report is handed in the one prepared for the Board meeting on July 9th, but which because of the lateness of the hour was not read and received.

ENTRANCE CANDIDATES.

Since then the success of our Entrance Candidates has been made public. Out of seventy-one, forty-six, or 65 per cent. succeeded in passing the examination. Relatively considered the result was most creditable. The same number of candidates wrote from other schools but 21 only were successful. Of the 11 candidates who ranked highest, 10 were from the Central school. The three W.C.T.U. prizes and all but one of the Honour certificates were won by Central school pupils. The average marks obtained by each of our 71 candidates were 426 and by each of these from schools other than the Central, 378—a difference of 69 marks per pupil. Such a result reflects no little credit on your teaching staff as a whole, and especially on the teachers of the entrance classes.

The schools re-opened on the last Monday of August. 1,335 were enrolled during the week.

To improve the classification of the South Ward school I was compelled to send the junior 4th class to the Central, and to place the two third book classes in the principal's room. This action will, I trust, meet with the approval of the Board.

The lady teachers newly appointed to the staff have been placed, subject to the Board's approval, as follows: Miss Mark in the second highest division of the Rubidge street school, Miss Cairns and Miss Thomas in the second book and primary divisions, respectively, of the Park street school, and Miss Morrow in the primary division of the Barnardo avenue school. Mr. Lewis has been given charge of the junior 4 boys of the Central school and Miss Jenkins of the senior third division.

The establishment of a second Kindergarten and of both as integral parts of our public school system is, a very notable step in advance; and I am glad to be able to say that parents have not been slow in showing their appreciation. Already the South Ward Kindergarten has 247 pupils and the one at the Central between 50 and 60.

Respectfully yours, J. W. GARVIN.

The report was received and confirmed.

Mr. Hill in referring to the report, stated that all should congratulate themselves on the creditable and highly satisfactory condition of the schools.

Mr. Hamilton said the position the schools occupied was a creditable one, and the results achieved were very satisfactory as compared with former years. It proved that the teaching staff of the schools were working with a will and that the schools underwent a thorough inspection. They had, he said, certain reasons to congratulate themselves upon the result.

The Board then adjourned.

A LINDSAY LOCHINVAR

Runs Away with a Sougog City Lass, But is Overtaken by an Angry Father.

Yesterday Chief Roszel received word from Chief Bell, of Lindsay, to look out for a Lindsay girl named Rose Hallinan, who, the telegram stated, was eighteen years old and good looking and was accompanied by a young man named Geo. Dovey, of the same town. The couple arrived in town from Omemee on the noon train. The chief spotted the girl and left her with Mrs. S. Holland, of the Southern House. The chief wired to the Lindsay chief of police that she was in town and he received word back to hold her until her father, Mr. Dan. Hallinan, arrived. The nine o'clock train brought him to town. The chief got a constable to keep his eye on the Lindsay lass until her father arrived at the hotel, where he made arrangements with the landlord to keep them over night. All went merry as a marriage bell after the police withdrew from the scene, but it was not long before they were recalled to quell a riot and on arriving on the scene the father of the young girl was found with a shooting iron ready to exterminate the occupants of the house. Mr. Dovey, the young Lochinvar, and the enraged father were both arrested and locked up. This morning, Dovey was charged with being drunk and was dismissed. Mr. Hallinan was charged with creating a disturbance, but the magistrate, after hearing the evidence, allowed the prisoner to go, stating that he came from a decent town. The Chief emptied the revolver of the cartridges and handed it back to him.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still puts her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

UNDER MARTIAL RULE

Cabezas Running Things in Nicaragua With a High Hand.

FOREIGNERS FORCED TO FLEE

Many Arrested for Complicity in the Uprising Under Chief Clarence—These Outrages Committed Under the Noses of British and U. S. Authorities.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—News has been received from Bluefields by the steamer John Wilson. A definite confirmation of the seizure by the Nicaraguan government of the Bluefields Bananas Company's steamer Mascot for alleged complicity in the Mosquito incident was brought. The passenger who gives the information says that Cabezas is running things at Bluefields with a high hand.

The town is practically under martial law and foreign residents who are charged with complicity in the uprising of the Indians under Clarence are being arrested indiscriminately. It is alleged that if a native bears a grudge against a foreigner he simply has to tell Cabezas that the object of his hatred is a bad man and the foreigner is arrested whether there is any proof to corroborate the assertion of his accusers or not. As a result the commerce of foreign nations is greatly impeded and the foreign residents are flying the country in alarm.

Twelve men, supposed to be among the English residents, were arrested and sent to Managua, the capital of the Nicaraguan republic, previous to the sailing of the Wilson, and it is alleged that one of them, a Mr. Ingraham, an attache of the English diplomatic service, is charged with abetting the Indian uprisings. The informant states further that these outrages are perpetrated under the very guns of two American and one English man-of-war.

Just before the Wilson sailed six Americans and Englishmen were exiled by order of Cabezas. They were sent away from Bluefields in a small freight schooner, and up to the time of the departure of the Wilson it had not been learned whether they had been safely landed or not. Their passage was paid by Cabezas out of the Nicaraguan treasury.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

A Montreal Man Almost Instantly Killed on the Grand Trunk.

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—Matthew Cregan, aged 60 years, the father of Mike Cregan, a former well-known lacrosse player, was almost instantly killed last night by being run over by a Grand Trunk freight train on Wellington street. He was drawing near the track at the time and his horse became frightened at the engine and ran away, throwing him underneath the cars which ran over him cutting off both legs.

The Cregan family seem to be in very hard luck as it is only a few years since his son, Mike Cregan, the lacrosse player, lost his arm in a railway accident.

The Girl of To-day.

Every few days some apology for manhood with more brass than brains jumps up with an essay on girls. This abominable class of literature always begins with a sneer and ends with a kick. A distinct flavor of sourness permeates it. The genuine girl is absolutely unessayable. Nobody understands her; she doesn't understand herself. She is a delightful bundle of contradictions. As wise as a serpent, she is as innocent as any sucking dove. She is modest as a violet and sweet as a barrel of molasses. She is as rosy as a winter apple and as plump as an Indian summer partridge. She knows something about the piano and lots about making biscuit. She is tender with her sweetheart and sets the dog on the other fellow. She is an armful of delights, and blessed is the youth she takes into partnership in wearing out the sofa. She is a daisy and a dumpling, and in all God's created creation there is nothing worthy to be named in the same breath with her. Them's our sentiments, and the man who differs from us has treason in his soul and bile on his liver.—Glasgow Times.

Oil Wells in Quebec Province.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 4.—A special from Windom, N.Y., says: "Among the arrivals of strangers over the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad recently, to visit the gas wells which the natural gas trust is developing a mile east of here, was a contractor from Gaspe Basin, Canada, 200 miles north of Montreal, where a new oil field is being developed by Boston capital. This new oil field has been very productive and profitable, and the discovery of oil has been kept a close secret. Every man that has worked in the field has been obliged to take an oath before given employment that he would never tell the secret or give any information to outsiders concerning the oil wells. The oil is taken to Boston by boats. The oil is much heavier than the Pennsylvania oil and is said to resemble Russian oil. From tests made in the surrounding country it is thought that an extensive oil field will be found in eastern British America that will soon cause considerable excitement.

An Italian Brig in Distress.

HALIFAX, Sept. 4.—The Italian brig Concasione Immicolato, which arrived yesterday from Trapani with a cargo of salt, had an extraordinary long long passage—128 days—and was only 46 days from Gibraltar. The delay was in the Mediterranean. Westerly winds prevailed day after day and kept the vessel back. The brig left Trapani April 25 and Tarnia June 17. The captain reports having spoken to the barque Curacho, lat. 42, long. 61, 50, bound to St. John, while lying in Gulf of Lyons. During the early part of the voyage the steamer Bevel, returning to Barcelona from Rome, with 500 pilgrims, drew up into the bay in distress. An accident caused the steamer to fall over on her beam ends. Her spars dipped into the water, she having been that way for some days.

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

Arrangements can be made for reduced rates for excursion parties of 25 to 50 by regular trips. For large excursions, the barge "Chemong" can be engaged.

From Chemong to Bobcaygeon is one of the most charming trips in the country, passing through Chemong and Pigeon Lakes, by the Indian Village and Oak Orchard, and winding among the islands and bays of the Narrows.

A new hotel has recently been erected at Jacob's Island, Pigeon Lake, in one of the most beautiful spots on our back waters in the midst of the finest fishing grounds; the steamer passing four times each day gives tourists an excellent opportunity to visit Peterborough and Bobcaygeon.

Family tickets and season books, for steamer only, can be procured from the Captain on board, at A. P. Bottom's hardware store, Bobcaygeon, or of the G.T.R. Agent, Peterborough, and at the Peterborough Book store.

His Dyspepsia Cured.

MR. GEO. READ.

DEAR SIRS,—I write you to say that for some time I had been suffering from acute indigestion or dyspepsia, and of course felt very great inconvenience from same in my general business. I thereupon decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles I found I was quite another man, for

B. B. B. CURED ME.

I have also used it for my wife and family, and have found it the best thing they can take, and from past experience I have every pleasure in strongly recommending B. B. B. to all my friends.

I write you because I think that it should be generally known what B.B.B. can accomplish in cases of indigestion.

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

Movement in Labor Circles for the Abolition of the Lords.

ATTACKED BY THE KABYLES

A British Brig Plundered on the Sahara Coast—Twenty Pleasure Seekers Drowned by the Capsizing of a Yacht in Morecambe Bay.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—At to-day's session of the National Labor Commission President Delves will deliver an address in which he will advocate the abolition of the House of Lords. He will also contend that the hours of women and children employed in factories must be curtailed whatever may happen to the question of 8 hours a day for men. Mr. Delves' speech will end with an appeal for better organization of trades unions. John Burns, M. P., in an interview at the close of yesterday's session, said that the congress would show that old unionism no longer exists and that socialism is triumphant. The rapid extension of machinery and the urgency of the problem involving the unemployed workers induces the most hide-bound individuals to adopt any method to deliver the workingmen from the shackles that bind him. Both capital and machinery instead of making slaves of the workingman must become his servants. The members of the congress of all shades of opinion now desire to co-operate to this end.

The British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Mark Land Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade says: English wheats during the past week have been dull and unchanged. Fine Duluth has been quoted for October shipment at 23s per quarter: Manitoba old crop at 23s 6d. Flours have been weak, fine white California having sold at 18s. per sack and good English at a similar price. Corn has been firm, American has been sold at 23s. Barley, oats and peas have been steady. There was an increased enquiry for new English wheats, prices ruling at 23s. per quarter. Old samples commanded 25s., red 27s. White foreign wheats averaged 6d. dearer. Round and flat corn advanced 6d. Oats were quiet with a steady request. Barley and beans were slow.

Sacked the Newspaper Office.

ATHENS, Sept. 4.—The Akropolis has been publishing a series of articles derogatory to the army. The articles excited much indignation in the army, which decided to put a stop to further adverse criticism on the part of the Akropolis. One hundred and thirty officers and men of all arms went to the office of the newspaper armed with axes and wrecked the place. Books in the library were torn to pieces and everything of value was hacked to bits. Inflamed with success, the soldiers marched in a body to the editor's residence, where they burst in the doors and destroyed all the household effects. Twenty of the soldiers have been arrested. The outrage is everywhere denounced.

The Vigilant's Next Race.

COWES, Sept. 4.—The Yankee sloop Vigilant is here preparing for the Cape May cup race to-morrow. The race will begin at 8 a. m. and will extend over this course: From off Alum Bay pier, Isle of Wight, out of the Needles passage to the western end of Charbourg breakwater; thence to Charbourg roads, out of the eastern end of the breakwater and back through the Needles channel to the starting line, a total distance of about 122 miles. Opinion here this evening is that if the prevailing wind continues the race will be almost a steady reach and will be won by the Vigilant.

British Ship Attacked by Kabyles.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The government is informed that an English brig, unloading a cargo at the English factory at Cape Juby, opposite the Island of Fuerteventure on the Sahara coast, has been attacked by a band of Kabyles, who plundered the cargo of the vessel and wounded a number of the employes of the English factory. The remainder of the factory hands took refuge in the brig, which cast off its moorings and drifted seaward.

Twenty Persons Reported Drowned.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Information has been received from Morecambe, Lancashire, that a pleasure yacht capsized on Morecambe Bay and that the entire party on board numbering twenty persons were drowned.

Decrease in German Specie.

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—The statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany shows a decrease in specie of 18,130,000 marks.

Negro Barn Burners Lynched.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 4.—Six negro barn burners were taken from the custody of officers at Millington and shot to death.

ITCHING AND PIN WORMS. PILES

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and exposing affection, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the skin is warm and in bed. No medicine in the world can cure you until you remove the cause, and this is impossible in the majority of cases. Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive cure. One application gives relief, and in every case it will certainly do all that is claimed. Thousands are using it daily and curing themselves while you are reading this. Sold by all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, for $1.00. Sample box sent on receipt of 25 cents. Don't suffer another day. Don't let your druggist impose on you by telling you he has something just as good. He has not. Don't be persuaded to try Pile Pills, Pile Remedies, Pile Cures, or anything else. Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only sure cure for Piles. Don't forget this.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause than Itching Piles, yet the effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation, characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

The Lake Shore's New General Manager.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—At a meeting of the executive and financial committee of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad Company held yesterday D. W. Caldwell president and manager of the Nickel Plate road, was appointed General Manager in the place of the late John Newell who was president and general manager. There was no president chosen but D. W. Worcester was elected vice-president.

Murder and Suicide.

VERNON, Tex., Sept. 4.—Financial troubles led O. C. Klock, a farmer, to shoot his wife and then himself yesterday. A passer-by found their little son, the sole witness of the crime, crying on the doorsteps. Mrs. Klock was dead in the house with a bullet through her heart, and Klock was dying with a bullet through his head. Klock was a prosperous farmer until recently.

Extensive Grave Robberies in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Sept. 4.—The finding of seven caskets, three of them whole and one quite new, together with crosses, floral decorations and head-boards in an unfrequented part of Forest Lawn cemetery has given rise to considerable excitement. It is believed that there have been extensive grave robberies and a rigid examination will be made.

SHELBURNE, N. S., Sept. 4.—Typhoid has appeared in a gang of Italians who arrived two weeks ago to work on the railway. So far there is only one case.

About Cactuses.

A writer in the Popular Science Monthly who is a successful grower of cactuses, says that if you ask that convenient fiction, the Man in the Street, what sort of a plant a cactus is, he will probably tell you it is a leaf and no stem, and each of the leaves grows out of the last one. Whenever we set up the man in the street, however, you must have noticed that we do it in order to knock him down again, like a nine-pin, the next moment; and this particular instance is no exception to the rule; for the truth is, that a cactus is all stem and no leaves, what looks like a leaf being really a branch sticking out at an angle. The true leaves, if there are any, are mere spines or prickles on the surface, while the branches in the prickly pear and many of the ornamental hot-house cactuses, are flattened out like a leaf to perform foliar functions. In most plants, to put it simply, the leaves are the mouths and stomach of the organism; their thin and flattened blades are spread out horizontally in a wide expanse, covered with tiny throats and lips, which suck in carbonic acid from the surrounding air, and disintegrate it in their own cells under the influence of sunlight. In the prickley pears, on the contrary, it is the flattened stem and branches which undertake this essential operation in the life of the plant—the sucking in of carbon and giving out of oxygen, which is to the vegetable exactly what the eating and digesting of food is to the animal organism. In their old age, however, the stems of the prickly pear display their true character by becoming woody in texture and losing their articulated leaf-like appearance.

500,000 Dogs in Paris.

Paris is interesting itself in a dog crusade. Some one has discovered that there are 500,000 dogs in that city, and that it costs $5,000,000 a year to feed them. This is one of those statistical fallacies that remind one of the discontented pendulum. No one calculates how much the dogs are worth to the owners in loyalty, affection and protection. All that is shown is the utilitarian aggregate of dog biscuit.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Sept. 4, 1894.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 100. Market quiet; mixed, $3.30; stockers, $1.50; lambs, $3.25.

At East Liberty sheep supply liberal; market fully ¼c lower than last week; extra, $3 to $3.25; good, $2.10 to $2.40; fair, $1.25 to $1.60; common, 50c to $1; yearlings, $1.50 to $3; lambs, $2 to $3.25.

Strong buying in South American stocks was the only feature at the London stock market. American railway shares were well supported with buying from the continent, chiefly Germany. Speculative gold bonds were bought here. Gold is going to Germany from the open market.

Chicago.—Cattle receipts were 26,000; market weak; common to extra steers, $2.90 to $5.80; stockers and feeders, $2 to $3.35; cows and bulls, $1.25 to $3.40; calves, $2.25 to $5.25. Hogs—Receipts, 26,000; strong; heavy, $5.90 to $6.25; common to choice mixed $5.50 to $6.15; choice assorted, $6 to $6.10; light, $5.75 to $6; pigs, $3.50 to $5.75. Sheep—Receipts, 11,000; steady; inferior to choice, $1 to $3.30; lambs, $1.50 to $4.25.

At East Buffalo there were no Canadian stocks on the market, but agents for Canadian shippers and such Canadian firms as Matheson & Co. expect that by next week the run of sheep and lambs will begin steadily. It is now possible to market light cattle here. Not many hogs from Canada are shipped to this market. In fact Canadians are more frequently buyers than sellers here. Prime Canada lambs would have sold up to $4.75 and at this figure there is a small margin of profit over Canadian quotations.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

DR. ANDREW GRANT & CO., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 200 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

TORTURED AS A SPY

An Innocent Chinee Suffered Because He Looked Like a Jap.

CHINA ARMING HER RECRUITS

One Province Withholds the Men and Supplies Demanded—Two Japanese, Arrested as Spies, Surrendered by the American Consul.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—A despatch from Shanghai to the Central News says a large number of Chinese recruits are arriving at Tien-Tsin, where they are receiving their arms and equipments. The province of Shang-Tung is showing much discontent and little or no sympathy with the war against Japan and is withholding the men and supplies which have been demanded of that section of the country. The authorities of the province, speaking in the name of the inhabitants, regard the war-like actions of Japan as directed against the government and not against the people of China.

On the contrary the people of Manchuria are intensely anti-foreign and urge the most active opposition to the Japanese.

A man was arrested at Ning-Po, a day or two ago, as a Japanese spy and was tortured by having his ankles broken. It has turned out that the man was not a Japanese at all but a native of Southern China who was on a pilgrimage to Foo Choo.

Two Japanese who were arrested in the Shanghai settlement as spies were surrendered yesterday to the native officials by the American consul. The foreign population of Shanghai are very indignant at this action. The Chinese authorities claim the right to arrest Japanese within the limits of the settlement. The United States government has instructed its consuls not to intertere in any way in the difficulty between China and Japan. The American consul surrendered the spies only after being assured that they would be fairly tried and not tortured.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The state department has directed all diplomatic and consular officers in China and Japan to use their friendly offices in the protection of Chinese subjects in Japan and Japanese subjects in China. All the Chinese consuls in Japan and the Japanese consuls in China have gone back to their respective countries, and their interests are now practically in the hands of the American officials. A report that two Japanese subjects had been given asylum in the consulate general of the United States at Shanghai is contradicted by the consul-general. He cabled the state department that he had not harbored the Japanese in question, and it is probable that he merely tendered his good offices in their behalf.

The Peary Relief Expedition.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The first news of the Peary relief expedition steamer Falcon, since she left Brooklyn, June 26, has just been received by the Brooklyn Standard-Union, in the shape of a cablegram dated Disco, July 17, via Copenhagen, September 4. The despatch states that the Falcon arrived at Disco, July 16, and that the party, among whom is H. L. Bridgman, managing editor of the Standard-Union, were all well. It adds that the Falcon was to proceed northward on July 17, the date of the despatch.

Austrian Army Manœuvres.

VIENNA, Sept. 5.—The Austrian troops marched and fought for fourteen hours yesterday in the mud and rain near Landerkren. Emperor Franz Josef was in the field nearly twelve hours. The troops did their work with splendid spirit. Not a single case of fainting or disability is reported.

HE BOBS UP AGAIN.

Sam Murray, Whom the Doctors had Pronounced as Incurable, Still on Deck—Now Acting as Foreman for a Big Lumber Concern.

North Bay, Sept. 3,—Sam Murray's name is one that has often figured in newspaper columns during the past eighteen months because he was cured of paralysis and blood poisoning by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after half a dozen physicians had pronounced him incurable. On the strength of physicians' certificates, Murray was paid his disability claim by the Grand Trunk. Since he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, he has been accepted as a first-class risk by a leading life insurance company. About a year ago, he got a position as foreman for the big lumber concern of Davidson & Hay, of Toronto, and the fact that he was able to satisfactorily to attend to the trying duties of such a position, is ample evidence of the permanency of his cure.

That hacking cough can be quickly cured by Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Price 25c

Industrial Exhibition Formally Opened.

TORONTO, Sept. 5.—The Industrial Exhibition was formally opened by the Premier yesterday. Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mackenzie Bowell arrived in the city by the eastern C. P. R. train. Hon. N. Clarke Wallace called upon the distinguished statesmen at 12.30. In company with President Withrow a start was made for the Exhibition grounds. At 1 o'clock the guests sat down to luncheon, which was followed by brief speeches. Then the guests walked over to the platform, where the usual addresses were made.

Picked His Father's Pockets.

HALIFAX, Sept. 5.—A truckman named Michael McGrath lay down with $500 in cash about him, and when he awoke he found the money was not in his pocket. His son, a man 30 years of age, was also missing. The matter was confidently reported to the police, and they have been looking for young McGrath since without success. He went to Boston.

QUAILS BEFORE THE GALLOWS.

The Condemned Murderer of Katie Rupp is Becoming Low Spirited.

JERSEY CITY, Sept. 5.—Bernard Altenberger, the murderer of Katie Rupp, is breaking down. He no longer laughs, plays cards with the keepers or jokes with Bull, the other murderer. Yesterday he cried and moped in his cell, and last night he did not sleep well. The assurances of his keepers that Lawyer Peshall will yet save him do not comfort him as they did a few days ago. Yesterday he wrote a letter to his mother in Germany, asking her to forgive him. The chaplain was with him all morning trying to cheer him, but with little success. Altenberger says he is prepared to die, and believes God has forgiven him.

Counselor Max Salinger left for Trenton to make, it is believed, a last effort to secure a reprieve for Altenberger.

Hangman Vanhize is here to erect the gallows. The execution will take place to-morrow.

Shocking Outrages by Kabylis.

TANGIER, Sept. 5.—The Kabylis in the vicinity of the city of Morocco are perpetrating outrages upon the Jews at Domat, Sadirabel, Tanai, Tanilat and other places. The shops, houses and synagogues are being looted, men are being tortured and killed and the women and children outraged and sold into slavery. The city of Morocco is besieged by Kabylis and it is feared that the garrison will not be able to hold the place much longer.

Strike Riots in Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 5.—The strike among the Hebrew tailors in this city is beginning to assume a serious aspect. Yesterday was marked by rioting and disorder and it was only by the smallest margin that bloodshed was averted. It is feared that still further trouble will follow.

Mr. H. S. McDonald, druggist, says: The sale of Phenyo-Caffain with me is steadily increasing. Customers speak in the highest praise of its efficiency in headache, neuralgia, etc.

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

GERMAN MANTLES!

Lovely creations of the most celebrated Berlin makers, which we have marked so slightly over actual cost, that ladies will be surprised as much at the cheapness as the style and nattiness. Comparison of Prices and Styles will result in our favour.
Our Mantle Department is in full swing again, stocked with stylish new Cloths, and unexcelled for superior values. Mantles cut, fitted and made to order in approved styles, without extra charge.

English Dress Goods

New Covert Cloths, Box Cloths, Priestley's Serges, Estamines, English Worsted Serges, Real Scotch Tweed Suitings, Black and White Goods, and other European and American Novelties.
A correct impression of these goods will be better formed by the eye than the type. Ladies are welcome to inspect the new styles, whether ready to buy or not.
Most of the stock being bought direct from the manufacturers, purchasers are enabled to have the best possible values offered.

Dress Making.

This department has begun with unusual activity. MISS NEILD, so well and favourably known, is again in charge. Now is the time to place your orders. Ladies entrusting us with their orders may feel assured of promptness, courtesy, satisfaction, and moderate charges.

MANTLES
THIS SEASON.

We are now offering about 50 Fall Mantles at from
$2.50 to $4.00
Which were bought most of them as samples at a large discount and are now clearing the lot to make room for heavier goods that have arrived. The above are a choice stock and not poor stuff as is often advertised at these prices. You only need to see them to be convinced and you will do well to come early as we have only 50 of this line to sell.

The agent through whom we imported our Mantles keeps us posted as the styles change and we will have all the latest novelties to show you as the season advances.

YARNS.

We make a point of keeping a full assortment of Yarns from the coarsest factory to the finest Saxony. Knitters will find our Factory Yarns well scoured and good wool. Our Lion Brand is specially manufactured for Boys and is only 5c. a skein. Baldwin's 3, 4 and 5 ply is universally known and needs no introduction as the name sells it; also all the delicate tints in Saxony kept in stock. Just opened out a fresh stock of Heptonette Cloths suitable for either Dresses or Ulsters in navy and black.

Remember our motto. To always keep a large and complete stock to select from. Small profits and quick returns, to undersell but never be undersold.

ALONG THE RAINY RIVER

Large Tracts of Timber Destroyed by the Forest Fires.

AFTERMATH OF THE DISASTER

Relief of the Sufferers Proceeding—The Total Number of Fatalities Remains About the Same—Smouldering Fires Still Causing Great Alarm.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 6.—The fourth day after the great disaster finds affairs in comprehensive shape. J. T. Mannix, secretary of the relief committee, says that according to the best information obtainable the total number of fatalities will be about 425. In some localities the loss of life is somewhat greater than reported, while in other places the reverse is the case. The work of relief is progressing nicely, but what is being done now is only of a temporary character The committee will do everything possible in the way of rebuilding.

ASHLAND, Sept. 6.—Chief Scott, of the Ashland fire department, has been out all day supervising the work of providing better protection against advance of fires upon Ashland. A brisk wind has set in, causing considerable excitement and apprehension from fires. Fires can be seen blazing from Ashland very plainly. It is dangerous to leave Ashland for over three miles. If the strong winds continue fires will break out again in all of the burned districts. Once burning over does not seem to prove effective in stopping fires.

Manitoba Settlers Suffer.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 6.—Fire is burning on both sides of Rainy Lake and along Rainy River. Large tracts of timber have been burned on the Canadian side. A woman and four children were burned to death. The fires jumped the Rainy River from Minnesota to the Canadian side. All settlers back from Rainy River have been burned out, losing everything, and several lives have been lost.

Finding More Bodies.

DULUTH, Sept. 6.—A message from Partridge on the Eastern Minnesota road states that last evening a special train left there for Duluth bearing the party of 30 explorers that left here two days ago under the leadership of W. T. Bailey to scour the country on both sides of the track into which no one else had penetrated. Bailey reports that the men discovered 28 bodies of settlers scattered over a wide extent of country. Most of them were identified.

Nothing but a good wind is needed to fan the forest fires around Carlton, a place of 1,000 people, 22 miles west on the Northern Pacific, into a blaze that will destroy the place. At Barnum, 40 miles south on the Duluth road, the people spent the day in wetting the grass and brush around the sawmill.

Another Settlement Wiped Out.

CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., Sept. 6.—Fisher Meadow, near Estella, a small settlement, was wiped out yesterday. The fire is said to be running towards Murray, where danger is apprehended.

Other Places in Danger.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., Sept. 6.—The villages of South Manistique and Thompson are on the danger of prevalence of fierce forest fires in this vicinity. The conditions are favorable throughout Schoolcraft county. Manistique is almost without fire protection.

Trial of Debs and His Associates.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—The contempt cases against Eugene V. Debs and the other directors of the A. R. U. came up in the United States Circuit Court before Judge Woods. The defendants are accused of violating the injunction issued by Judges Woods and Grosscup during the recent strike. All of the defendants filed answers, in which they denied the charges preferred. Over 100 witnesses have been subpœnaed by the government and the array of legal talent on both sides is a brilliant one.

Liquor Men Meet at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 6.—The National Liquor Dealers Association of the United States began their annual session here yesterday. About 500 delegates are in attendance. One of the topics of discussion will be the recent action of Bishop Watterson, of Columbus, in regard to the members of Catholic societies engaged in the liquor traffic.

A Fatal Family Squabble.

COLUMBIA, Ala., Sept. 6.—Charles Reddick went to the house of Tom Williams, where his wife was nursing the latter's wife, and tried to get into the house. His wife would not let him in as he was drunk. Reddick shot his wife. Her sister, Miss Lizzie Koonze, then shot Reddick, killing him instantly. Mrs. Reddick will die.

Strength of the U.S. Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The enlisted strength of the army has reached 24,860, within 140 of the limit prescribed by law. In view of the small number of vacancies it has been decided that no person under the age of 21 will be enlisted until further orders, boys as musicians or to learn music excepted.

Attempt to Assassinate Hippolyte.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The Haytien minister has received the following telegram from Port au Prince: 'There has been an attempt against the life of the President. The authors have been shot. Perfect quiet prevails. (Signed) MARCELINI, Foreign Secretary."

HELD A WARM SESSION

Trade Delegates at the Capital Hold a Spirited Argument.

TO EXCLUDE CIVIL EMPLOYES

The Resolution Ruled Out of Order, but Will Appear Again—Several Other Resolutions Important to the Trades Submitted to the Congress.

OTTAWA, Sept. 6.—President Beales yesterday opened the second day's proceedings of the Trades Congress. A number of communications were read, among which was one from the city council of Toronto, asking that delegates be appointed to the deep waterways convention. The request was complied with.

President Darlington introduced a resolution that in future no Government employe, Federal or Provincial, be admitted as delegate to this congress.

By the same delegate a resolution was introduced, "That this Congress, having outlived its usefulness as proven by its inability to obtain even a modicum of justice from either Provincial or Federal Governments, that we re-construct the Congress in conformity with the advanced ideas of the time, and we do so on such lines that we will be in a position to issue charters for the purpose of organizing all toils, so that we be in a position to concentrate our political action."

From the Typographical Union of Ottawa this resolution was read: "That in the opinion of this congress, pending the abolition of the existing contract system, it is expedient on all Government contracts—Dominion, provincial, or municipal—made hereafter to requir contractors to pay the union current rate of wages to their workmen."

Considerable time was spent by the congress on the statement made by one of the delegates that the Factory Act inspector was neglecting his duty with regard to the sawmills of Ottawa. The Government will be asked to see that he does his duty in the future.

The debate on Government employes came up at 11 o'clock, and after an hour's debate, in which many personalities were used and the delegates became very warm, the resolution was ruled out of order. It will likely come up again to-day.

Congress at the afternoon session condemned the Quebec law, known as the Masters and Servants Act, a resolution being passed to this effect. A resolution was also passed asking the Quebec legislature to prohibit overtime in shoe manufactories, except by special permission of factory inspectors.

Another resolution was passed asking the Government to protect union labels. The Quebec Government was also asked to facilitate and render less expensive the incorporation of benefit and labor unions. The congress also decided to take into consideration a protest from the French typos of Montreal against the granting of subventions to certain religious institutions of Montreal, which make a disloyal competition against the printing business. These places were also exempted from taxation. The matter will come up to-day.

William Houston, M. A., principal of the School of Pedagogy, delivered an address to the delegates on the question of education from a labor standpoint.

BOVINES DYING MYSTERIOUSLY.

Investigation Into the Sudden Death of Cattle in Ontario County.

BROOKLIN, Ont., Sept. 6.—A second investigation was held here, called by Hon. John Dryden, the Minister of Agriculture, to consider into the increased mysterious death of cattle running upon the public highway. A number of veterinaries were present and conducted a post mortem and consultation upon two cows belonging to Mr. Alfred Roberts and J. Brooks which had died in the morning. They were again baffled and gave no opinion to the public but decided to send the stomachs of these animals to Toronto to be thoroughly analized, where they were taken by the Minister of Agriculture.

The investigation had just been concluded when paris green in quantities was found scattered in the grass along the road and the excitement of the large crowd assembled was great, they thinking they had found the true source. They are anxiously waiting the report of the analysis.

Fifteen cows are dead and all being in the immediate neighborhood of one another this has caused alarm. In each case death is very sudden. The Roberts cow was well and milked at 7 o'clock and was dead at 7.30.

South Huron Reformers.

BRUCEFIELD, Ont., Sept. 6.—A meeting of the Reform Association of South Huron took place here yesterday for the purpose of choosing a candidate to represent the Liberal interest in the next Dominion elections. The different municipalities of the riding were well represented by delegates. After routine business was disposed of the convention proceeded to the selection of a candidate. The vote was taken by ballot and resulted as follows: Mr. John McMillan, M. P., 48; Mr. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., 26; Mr. Thomas Fraser, 11; Mr. McMillan having received a majority of the whole vote his nomination was made unanimous.

Drowning Accident in a Squall.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 6.—There was a drowning accident at White Point, Aspy Bay, N.S., on Tuesday. James Challoner, John Nickerson and Frank Rambean were going to North Harbor in a boat. When a mile away a sudden squall filled the boat and it sank, leaving nothing for them to save themselves on but the mast and one oar. Several men in a boat saw the accident, but could not go fast against the strong wind and sea. On reaching the spot Nickerson had sunk, but the other two were saved.

Disturbances in British Districts Cause Some Apprehension—The Trades Congress at Norwich—A Military Balloon Struck by Lightning.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—In a speech in Liverpool last evening Joseph Chamberlain reviewed the recent record of the Government. The Ministers, he said, had been compelled by their Irish taskmasters to devote the whole time of the Commons to Irish affairs. Foreign affairs had been crowded out and the gravest interests of the empire had been overlooked. British diplomacy had been impotent in Siam and had been shamed and humiliated in the Congo region. The politics of the country would be confused and unsettled until the Government would accept the challenge of the Lords to the country for its verdict on their rejection of the home rule and evicted tenants bill.

Agitation for Eight Hour Day.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The Trades Union Congress, in session at Norwich, has passed a resolution censuring Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, for the failure of the Government to carry out the clause of the Newcastle programme relating to the payment of members of the House of Commons. The vote of censure was carried 14 to 103. A resolution favoring federation of the Trades Union Councils was carried, and the parliamentary committee was instructed to begin agitation to the end of getting the Mines Act amended so as to forbid employment underground for more than eight hours a day.

Lightning Struck the Balloon.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—While the Duke and Duchess of Connaught were inspecting the performances of a military balloon at Aldershot, yesterday, the balloon was struck by lightning which followed the anchor wire to the earth and seriously injured three men who were holding the wire. The Duke ran to the assistance of the men who were shrieking with the agonies of pain which their contact with the wire caused them. It is not thought the men are fatally hurt.

Disturbances in the Niger Region.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Owing to the disturbed condition of the British districts in the Niger region of Africa, orders have been issued for the speedy transfer of 500 troops from Kingston to Bonny. The British war ships, Philomel and Widgeon, have been ordered to leave Capetown for Bonny, where they will co-operate with the war ships Alecto and Phoebe and the troops from Jamaica.

The Seizure of Necker.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The annexation of Necker Island by Hawaii has created no little surprise in colonial circles, as the island was suggested at the Intercolonial Conference held recently at Ottawa as a station for the proposed Pacific cable. It is understood that the Imperial Government is about to treat with the Hawaiians for a transfer of the island.

Oyen's Tribute to Wellman.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Peter Oyen, the Norwegian geologist who went north with the Wellman polar expedition, has denied in a letter to the Standard that it was against his will he was left alone on Danes Isle. Mr. Wellman, he says, did everything fairly and honorably.

NEWS FROM THE ORIENT.

Chinese Fleet Concentrating at Wei-Hai-Wei—Spies Beheaded.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—A despatch from Shanghai to the Central News says that all the Japanese in China have now been put under Chinese jurisdiction.

The Yokohama specie bank and other Japanese business concerns in China are closing.

The Chinese press and officials ridicule the British for having taken no notice of the Kow Shing incident.

A torpedo exploded off the coast near here yesterday, destroying a junk. All on board were killed.

It is reported that a levy of 250,000 troops has been made upon the province of Shan Tung, which has hitherto withheld the men and war supplies demanded by the government.

The Central News correspondent in Shanghai says that the Chinese fleet is about to concentrate at Wei-Hai-Wei. The enterprise of the Japanese in reconnoitering and the reports of a plan to attack the fortifications by sea and land have caused the Chinese to strengthen the position with panicky haste. The whole promontory has been inspected by the military authorities, and their orders to extend the fortifications have been executed. Earthworks are rising rapidly at the weak points along the coast. Heavy guns have been sent forward from the Tien-Tsin and Nankin arsenals and the necessary ammunition for them will be transported to the coast shortly.

Under American Protection.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 6.—The recent surrender by the American consul of two Japanese who were recently arrested, accused of being spies, and who had been under the protection of the United States, has created a panic among the Japanese in this country. The latter believed themselves to be safe under the protection of the United States, and their alarm is increased in view of the report that their two countrymen are to be immediately executed. At the time the Chinese agreed to give them a fair trial. All the Japanese in this city, about 700, are making preparations to leave China.

Sixteen Fishermen Drowned.

QUEENSTOWN, Sept. 6.—The American line steamship Ohio, Captain Boggs, from Philadelphia, on August 26, which arrived here yesterday, brought two French fishermen who had been rescued off the banks of Newfoundland. They had left the wreck of their vessel in a dory five days before they were taken on board the steamer. The fishermen said that sixteen men who remained on the wreck must certainly have been drowned.

A BRUISED REED.

There was a time when the Conservative party in Canada owed much of its success to the address and the courage which it was able to display in its extremity. Sir John Macdonald used to strike when the iron was hot. He was in the habit of forcing the people to a judgment of his conduct, right or wrong. If he gave out that he was in the right he had the courage of his assumed convictions, he submitted his arguments boldly to the Electorate. If he confessed himself in the wrong, he either asked the people, "what are you going to do about it?" or he made promises of good behaviour for the future. But he was always quick to decide upon the stand which he should take in the interests of the party, and indomitable in the pursuance of that policy. He had at once the brains to see what he should do if he would keep himself in power, and the courage to do it. And if the people admired him for anything, it was for ability and fortitude. He ruled his motley following with a rod of iron, fearing none and conciliating all. By the strength of his personality he whipped the warring factions of his party into such a semblance of union as led to to the presentations of a united front to the common enemy. He left, as the only inheritance of his followers, a policy dependent entirely upon the maintenance of a central and personal force. The essential element of the success of the party after his death was the rise of some man who could wear his mantle fitly.

Such a man has not risen. Upon Sir John Macdonald's death the men who were left at the head of the party declared that the prediction of Conservative dissolution would not be verified. The principles which Sir John Macdonald had laboured to establish would be maintained. Those principles were in themselves, strong to prevail and the forces of Conservatism would be unbroken. It had every appearance of an idle boast, made to revive the flagging spirits of the partizans in the country at large. The necessity for the finding of a leader of the "Chieftain's" own sort seemed not to strike the minds of the remnant. At the beginning the inglorious policy of drift dictated its action. Its first choice of leaders was a makeshift. The man who by virtue of his abilities stood nearest the throne was set aside, and a man against whom a considerable element, not only of the electorate, but of the party itself, was not arrayed, was chosen in his stead.

Sir John Abbott's most conspicuous declaration of policy resulted in such a stultification of the Government as Sir John Macdonald would never have permitted. When the second Sir John assumed the headship he promised that the vengeance of the people upon the malefactors who had been shown to have plundered the treasury would be fully wreaked. Sir John Macdonald, had he lived through the crises of which the foreknowledge hastened his end, would have refused to make such a promise in specific terms, or would have insisted upon its redemption. The promise played a large part in the decision of the bye-elections which followed close upon it and the people waited in confidence to see the boodlers brought to justice. But Sir John Abbot retired from the Premiership and Sir John Thompson came at last into his kingdom; and in the fulfilment of the promise of his predecessor he failed utterly. The position of the party would have been a better one if the promise had never been made.

The first indignation for the scandals of 1891 passed away and the people put to the Government another question, from which, for the time, their attention had been diverted. They clamored for tariff reform and the Government again promised that their will should be done. But this promise involved a year's delay, in which every interest in the country suffered from the disquietude occasioned by the promised changes. And when the proposals were finally submitted, it was found that the Government was entirely without conviction and, therefore, entirely without knowledge as to what it intended to do. The proposed tariff enraged the manufacturers, whose capital was invested upon the strength of the repeated assurances of the Government that their privileges would not be disturbed; and it enraged consumers, who saw in it provision for less freedom from taxation than they had in all justice demanded. Between the devil and the deep sea, the Government rushed to the devil of privilege and under the shelter of the "clerical error," re-adjusted its proposals until the manufacturers were satisfied.

While all this has been in progress the Government has enjoyed several opportunities to take the judgment of the people upon its policy. In a moment of over-confidence it opened Winnipeg and the tariff reform candidate was elected by a substantial majority. Since that the Government has opened only such constituencies as seemed, on careful calculation, certain to return a Government supporter. In New Brunswick two seats have been filled without delay, because this is a Government of, by and for the Maritime Provinces. No such promptitude characterised the Government policy in the matter of vacancies, or prospective vacancies, in other provinces. In Quebec two seats, Quebec West and Vercheres, are vacant, the former having been so for some months. In Ontario the Government would be very happy to open Cardwell if it had the courage to do so. And in Manitoba, Lisgar would be opened if a like consideration did not stand in the way.

The Government has not the sense to see that confession of fear is confession of weakness and probably defeat. It has no man with brains enough to see the necessity for decisive action; or with courage enough to carry such a policy into effect. It is not only that it is a government without principle. The country has forgiven such a weakness on more than one occasion. But it is a Government without knowledge either of its own intentions or of its own desires, and without courage or address to carry either into effect. Even were its record unexceptionable, it would still be open to condemnation, because it presents in its composition none of those elements of ability and trustworthiness on which alone the country is apt to rely. It is to be condemned not only for what it has done and failed to do, but for the unpardonable sin of incompetence.—Montreal Herald.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

A picnic was held on Friday last, at Ida. It was gotten up by T.W. McLean, teacher and the pupils of S. S. No. 5, Cavan. The sports were very good and consisted of baseball, races, dancing, etc. The baseball game was won by Cavanville team, having defeated the Mount Pleasant boys by a score of 10 to 8. Mr. S. E. Ferguson ably umpired the game. The races were well contested and the following is a schedule of the winners;—

Girls' race, over 12,—1 Sadie Hutchinson, 2 Minnie Staples.

Boys' race, over 12,—1 Fred Cathcart, 2 Hanlan Sisson.

Girls, race, 7—12 years,—1 Wilma Coe, 2 Maud McKnight.

Boys' race, 7—12 years,—1 Oscar McGill, 2 Sid. McLaren.

Girls' race, under 7,—1 Ruby Elliott, 2 Jessie Sisson.

Obstacle Race—1 Roy Lough, 2 Fred Cathcart.

Eating race (12 soda biscuits)—1 Sid McLaren, 2 Cassie Bullen.

As the shades of night began to fall the merry makers retired to their several homes, all well pleased with the afternoon's fun.

Mr. John Sadler was in town on Monday looking after the business of his foundry here.

Mr. John Maddis, of Rochester, is visiting his parents.

Mr. S. D. Casey was out of town for a few days about the first of this week.

Mr. Joseph Fee was a happy man last Tuesday. Brand new baby boy came to gladden his home.

Mr. Joseph Gardner has rented Mr. Curtis' farm, and John Sutcliffe, Esq., has let his farm to another tenant.

Cavanville and our boys play a match game of baseball on Saturday in our village.

Mr. W. Turner, of Millbrook, was in the village on Sunday and Miss L. McIvor and Mrs. Paul on Monday.

Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

Said She Was Past All Help

and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She has a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 89 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario.

THE LONDON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Head Office London, Ont.

The above company now in its twentieth year since organization is one of the prominent financial institutions of Western Ontario. The company has a subscribed capital of $255,600 and $60,000 is deposited with the Dominion Government as a special protection to its policyholders over and above the protection afforded by its other assets in Canada, amounting together to about half a million dollars invested in first mortgages on real estate and other equally desirable securities.

The company's income in Canada averages at the present time over $500 per day and over a quarter of a million has already been paid to Canadian policyholders or their heirs.

In addition to issuing policies upon all the ordinary plans and upon terms as favourable as afforded by any other company, a special feature of the London Life's business is its Industrial or family insurance. In this branch all the healthy members of a family, male and female, from one year of age and upwards to sixty-five may insure. The premiums are payable weekly at the homes of the members, as small a weekly premium as five cents and upwards being accepted at all ages and policies issued accordingly. Two classes of policies are issued, viz., whole life and twenty year endowments. The former is intended to furnish a fund, out of which, upon the death of the insured, the funeral and other expenses can be defrayed, while the latter in addition to the foregoing also affords an excellent opportunity of saving small sums from week to week, which savings are payable to the insured, if living, at the expiration of the twenty year period.

All claims are paid promptly upon receipt at the head office of the necessary claim papers, the average time elapsing between date of death and issue of cheque in payment of claim, rarely exceeding three days.

The London Life is the only Canadian company issuing this class of policies and having recently opened up a branch office here over No. 172 Hunter street, in charge of Assistant Superintendent H. J. Smith, who previous to coming here was for several years in the company's employ in Toronto, and having appointed a staff of local agents, our citizens are now afforded an opportunity of obtaining insurance in this excellent home company upon terms that will enable everyone to insure, no matter how small their income.

For fuller particulars see the company's illustrated paper, The Monitor, which is furnished free.

OMEMEE.

(From a Correspondent.)

Farmers are rejoicing over the nice showers. Every kind of roots was beginning to wilt badly.

A large number will attend the Peterborough markets from this time forward, the hurry being over.

Monday morning's fire about one o'clock startled our residents considerably, after such a long rest from fires. Owing to no wind, the fire was confined to two buildings and their contents, viz: Wm. Cardwell's frame house and Mr. Morton's frame house adjoining. The latter had no insurance on contents or building. There was a small insurance on the former. Capt. Evans commanding the fire company did excellent work with the village hand fire engine. Otherwise, a serious conflagration would have resulted. Cause of fire unknown.

Mabel Brown, pupil of the late Prof. Seward, has gone to Toronto Musical Conservatory.

Active preparations are already being made for our fall show.

The Presbyterian Sunday school excursion proved a success in every way, more especially financially, clearing about $20, and every one pleased.

The Rev. Messrs. Smith, Port Hope, Hay, Cobourg, and MacWilliams, Peterborough, are delegates here in connection with some changes. The object is to have Omemee connected with only one other outside station, and service held twice on Sunday instead of once. It is doubtful if such can be arranged until later on.

Those of our citizens who attended Labour Day at Peterborough enjoyed themselves.

Our schools are in full blast with large attendance.

ENNISMORE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The full particulars of the Ennismore drowning accident are to hand and are as follows:—It appears that Mr. Timothy Crough, with his uncle, Mr. Hickey, and his three cousins started, Sunday, to visit Mr. Ned Hickey, of the same township, where they stopped over night. Next morning they started out on a fishing expedition and when near the Chemong Indian village, the occupants of the boat were horrified to see young Crough fall off the stern of the punt into the lake and immediately disappear from view. They marked the spot and immediately gave the alarm. A searching party was organised and an effort made to find the body. Messrs. Jno. Mahoney and Con. O'Connor, who were grappling, succeeded in recovering the body and bringing it to shore, when it was removed to Mr. Ned Hickey's house. The funeral took place this (Wednesday) afternoon to the Ennismore cemetery. The mother and relatives of the young man have the entire sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

CAVAN.

Mr. Geo. McWilliams, manufacturer of wind mills pumps, fanning mills, etc., yesterday completed the work of putting down an artesian well of the depth of 205 feet for Mr. Thos. McIndoo. There is eighty feet of water. Mr. McWilliams also put in one of his artesian pumps, operated by a Queen windmill which elevates the water into one of his frost proof tanks. Mr. McIndoo is well pleased with the excellent job Mr. McWilliams has made.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most common and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nerviline. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, and have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

Muskrats shall not be taken, hunted or killed till after the first day of January next.

Nicholls Hospital Notes.

Miss Bolster, head nurse of the hospital, left last night for a few days' visit to Toronto.

Mrs. Barnett, mother of Miss Barnett, one of the hospital nurses, who has been visiting in town for two or three weeks, returned to her home in Almonte to-day.

Misses Hoyt and Robinson, of the nursing staff, who have been spending their holidays on Stony Lake waters, have resumed their duties.

Master Freddie, son of Mrs. O'Donovan, lady superintendent, having spent his holidays in town, returned to Toronto yesterday.

Miss Violet Dixon, Stewart street, graduate of the hospital training school for nurses, who has just recovered from an attack of pneumonia, leaves to-day for a visit in Winnipeg for the improvement of her health.

Thrown from His Wheel.

The Belleville Intelligencer says: An unfortunate accident befell Mr. Fred. Abraham, proprietor of the Canadian Horseman, Toronto, yesterday morning, while wheeling into Warkworth. Mr. Abraham took the 5.45 a. m., train for Hastings, intending to participate in the day's sport at Warkworth, some ten miles distant. The run between Hastings and Warkworth is through a delightful stretch of country, and being partially down hill the entire distance is a favourite spin with cyclists. Mr. Abraham had coasted most of the distance, when descending a sharp incline, which, without being observed by the rider, swerved quickly down another incline. Before observing the hill in front of him, he had reached the outskirts of the road, and being forced into the sand, lost control of his wheel, and within a hundred yards, while the wheel was forging ahead with lightning rapidity, was pitched headlong against a telegraph pole, severely fracturing his right knee, while sustaining severe internal injuries. Mr. Abraham while suffering intense agony was picked up by a passing milk man, and was carried to the nearest house where his wounds were dressed. He returned to the city at 4.30 yesterday afternoon where he is being attended by Dr. Youker. He will probably be incapacitated from work for some time.

Mr. Frank McNaughton, an old EXAMINER comp., but now of Cleveland, Ohio, is in town visiting his mother.

Mr. Richard Gillespie, son of Mr. Gillespie, George street, after a two years stay at the Canadian "Soo" is home on a visit.

Dr. Brad, of Omemee, was in town yesterday, on a business trip. He is one of Omemee's solid citizens, turning the beam at 256 lbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, of Warsaw, Dummer, have returned home after spending a pleasant week at their friend, Mrs. Wm. Frith, Ashburnham.

Mrs. Terrill, of Belleville, returned home yesterday after a considerable stay in town in attendance upon her son, Mr. Alf Terrill, who has been ill in the Nicholl's Hospital, but is now convalescing nicely.

Miss E. Delaney has returned home from attending the fall millinery markets. She spent one week at Montreal and three or four days in Toronto and returns with the leading styles and novelties in millinery for the fall trade.

Mr. A. S. Clarke, manager Prof. W. G. Alexander, Fowler and Wells' Institute, New York, is in town to-day, arranging for a two weeks' course of lectures in the opera house beginning on Monday, Sept. 10th.

Mr. G. H. Squire, of the reporting staff of the Kingston News, was in town yesterday on his return from a pleasant fortnight's outing on our northern waters. He favoured the EXAMINER with a fraternal call.

Hon. George B. Shaw, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, Supreme Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the world, from 1890 to 1892, died at his residence in that city on Monday last. Mr. Shaw married Miss Josephine Bletcher, a well known Peterborough lady, grand-daughter of the late J. T. Henthorn, J.P.

Mr. G. R. Sproule, photographer, returned yesterday from Toronto, where he was employed passing judgment upon the extensive display of photographic work, exhibited at the Industrial Exhibition. Mr. Sproule was the sole judge on photographic work. He was appointed at the instance of the numerous photographers who are exhibitors, and his selection is a great compliment to both his integrity and his ability as a photographic artist. The confidence thus expressed was justified by the result. Mr. Sproule's decisions gave the greatest satisfaction, even unsuccessful competitors frankly conceding the justice of his awards. Mr. Sproule's high reputation as an artist, gained by about 30 years successful experience, is generally recognized by his brother artists in the province.

Coming Attractions.

Students of human nature will be interested in the coming to this town of Prof. W. G. Alexander, the noted phrenologist, who is billed for a course of lectures at the Opera House, beginning on Monday evening next. The professor is said to rank high in his profession, and carries the highest testimonials, both personal and from the press. When in Toronto two years ago, Association Hall, where he gave his course of lectures, was crowded to the doors night after night, and the city press accorded him extended and most flattering notices.

Grand Fall Opening.

We take much pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of Pete Simons & Co., announcing the arrival of the first instalment of their fall and winter goods. They certainly have a very fine stock, and a large variety to select from, which will well repay a visit from those desiring a good suit of clothes at rock-bottom prices. There is one feature in connection with the business done by this firm deserving of special mention, and which is not enjoyed by any other house in town, viz:—The large number of orders received every spring and fall from the United States. This fact alone speaks volumes for Mr. Simons' ability as a cutter, and should not be lost sight of by intending purchasers.

Charlotte Street Methodist Church.

The morning service last Sunday was conducted by Prof. Satoh, of the Imperial University of Japan. The lesson was the 4th chapter of St. John's gospel, the text was from the same chapter, which gives an account of the first missionary sermon by Christ at Jacob's well in Samaria. The preacher gave a synopsis of the life of Christ up to his journey to Samaria. The preacher illustrated his sermon first on the human side, then on the spiritual, drawing many practical lessons. Although a native of Japan his English was remarkably good. Messrs. Davis and Shaw sang a very fine piece during the offertory. In the evening the pastor occupied his own pulpit, reading for the lesson the 3rd chapter of St. James, choosing for the text the sixth verse of the same chapter, "And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity, so is the tongue among our members, etc." The large congregation present were expecting to hear the text of "Don't say so" expounded, but not exactly in the way that it came; for, after describing the different kinds of animals that had been tamed by man, the preacher came to the kernel of the subject, the tongue, which no man can tame. One by one the things the tongue is sometimes guilty of, such as blasphemy, talebearing, backbitting and slander were particularized and condemned. The preacher said some of the strongest and straightest things about those persons that are guilty of sinning in this way, that ought to come home to them and make them turn from the error of their ways. He denounced talebearers in the strongest possible language, quoting some one who said that the punishment that should be meted out to those that carried the tale and those that received it, that the one should be hung by the tongue and the other by the ear, as warning to others. The preacher was in dead earnest and his efforts were backed by all the gifts he possesses of both body and mind. Such a sermon will bear fruit although, as the preacher remarked in closing, that he felt it hard to say some of the things that he had found it necessary to speak upon, and that next Sabbath evening he would give them a sermon upon a good all round man. The singing of the choir was good.

Haines, Bowmanville, on lot 29, con. 3, Haldimand, north-east of Cobourg, he exhumed a human skeleton about 6 ft. 6 in. in height. Though possibly buried over 50 years age, the teeth and bones of toes and fingers are well preserved. It is thought to be the remains of a white man. A mystery surrounds the find and speculation is rife as to who he was and how he came to be buried there. —Guide.

—The "little bird" that supplies gossip to the sanctum apparently made shy by the pop of guns, incident to the opening of the close season, has only now reported the exploits of a trio on Labour Day. On that day Mr. Robert Fair, of the Golden Lion, and Mr. Julian Veder, an American friend, went out to Buckhorn and annexed jolly Tom Eastland, the portly boniface of the hotel. The trio went out for ducks and succeeded in bagging 22 birds, not to speak of a venerable goose which was so artistically brought down and plucked by the boniface aforesaid.

GREAT SEMI-ANNUAL LINEN SALE

—AT—

HALL, GILCHRIST & CO'S

COMMENCING

Wednesday, Sept. 5.

Owing to the stringency of the times the manufacturers of linen goods were not only loaded up with stock but they were starving for cash. Consequently our buyer was able to get such bargains as were never before our fortune to procure. We need not say any more as to the values we will offer but simply ask you to carefully read the list and call and see for yourself that you will at least save 40 per cent. at this sale.

A MEETING OF LIBERAL WORKERS.

A meeting of the Liberals of the town will be held in the law office of Messrs. Stratton & Hall, Hunter street, on Friday evening next for the purpose of taking whatever action may be decided as necessary in view of the possibly near-at-hand Dominion elections. The present parliamentary term has still a year to run and the Ministry is entitled to another year of office without appeal to the country. But past experience shows that the parliamentary term is not adhered to when party exigencies suggest a premature dissolution. As there is no knowing when an election contest may be precipitated, it is wisdom on the part of Liberals, who will receive no intimation of the approach of the elections, except what the signs of the times provide, to be prepared for any emergency. The necessity and vital importance of thorough organization cannot be overestimated. A large attendance of working Liberals is specially requested for Friday night.

SEPARATE SCHOOL BOARD.

The regular meeting of the Separate School Board was held on the evening of Wednesday, the 5th inst.

There were present: Dr. Brennan, chairman, presiding, and Messrs. Quinlan, Goselin, Kelly Hickey and LeHane. Rev. Father Collins, local superintendent, was also present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

Communication was received from the Provincial Treasurer, enclosing cheque for $201.50, being grant for schools.—Received.

ACCOUNTS PRESENTED.

The following accounts were presented and referred to the Finance Committee:—

W A Sanderson, repairing clock	$ 75
E Archambeault, wood	4 50
P J Crowley, wood	6 60
G Mercier, labour	1 50
J Murty, plumbing	56 75
Peterborough Water Co., water	4 00
Review Printing Co., printing	5 00
Examiner Printing Co., printing	11 45
A H Stratton & Co., supplies	9 75

The following accounts, paid since last meeting on order of Property Committee, were confirmed:

T Williams, work	$ 50
M McFadden, desks	93 60
J R Burns, repairs	21 70

The teachers of the several schools presented a statement of school supplies required which were referred to the Property Committee with power to procure same.

Dr. Brennan, as chairman of the committee to arrange for caretakers, reported that the committee had engaged Mr. P. Donoghue as caretaker for Murray street school and that N. Faurcier was engaged for Lake street school.

Mr. Kelly moved the adoption of the report, which was seconded by Mr. LeHane.

Moved by Mr. Kelly, seconded by Mr. Hickey, that Separate School tax for Catholic Association, $11.29, for 1893 be paid.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Goselin, seconded by Mr. Quinlan, the chairman, secretary and Mr. LeLane be a committee to get from town clerk and treasurer statements of amounts of Separate school taxes collected for the years' 1890 and succeeding years.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Quinlan, seconded by Mr. Goselin, that the thanks of this Board be tendered to Mrs. John Cousins who has acted as Janitress of the Murray street school for the past sixteen years.—Carried.

The Board then adiourned.

A DECIDED TRANSFORMATION.

The New Ceiling and Mural Decorations of St. Peter's Cathedral Sacristy.

The sacristy or winter chapel of St. Peter's Cathedral has been decidedly transformed in appearance. Decorators have been at work for some time past and the improvement effected will be much appreciated by the worshippers. The decorations are in water colours. The walls have been tinted a pale terra cotta, and the cornice in maroon picked out in gold. The treatment of the ceiling has been very artistic and effective. It is divided into two panels, in three colours. The principal are a light cream, silver gray and a delicate shade of sky blue, relieved with maroon and gold. The effect of these decorations is to brighten the chapel greatly, the former dull gray of the walls and ceilings having subdued the light that filtered through the dark stained glass windows, to a rather pronounced degree of dim "religious light." The brightening effect of the distemper frescoes has been further heightened by the wood work of both the chapel proper and the confessionals being grained in oak. The altar is painted a dead white with panels in delicate blue, relieved with gold ornamentation. The statues of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph have been renewed and restored their original and perhaps improved condition. Altogether the chapel has been greatly improved, and much credit is due Mr. Alfred Picard, who has done the work, which will be completed on Saturday. The wood graining was done by Mr. John Simons.

Fashionable Dress and Mantle Making

Mrs. E. Keane desires her customers to know that she has returned from her summer vacation and is prepared to receive their orders for the fall trade. Instructions given in Cutting and Fitting, "Crow's Mechanical Tailor System used. None to equal it in fit and accuracy. Satisfaction guaranteed in all orders as to fit, style and finish. Terms moderate. Six apprentices wanted. None but good hand sewers need apply. Mrs. E. Keane, 156 McDonnel street, corner George. dw

The Black and the Blue.

The drop in prices of new fall goods, announced by Joseph Armstrong & Co., has proved a strong attraction to the ladies, so early in the season. This firm has had many strong features to offer during the summer season, and they seem determined to pursue an equally vigorous and pushing policy during the fall. The black and the blue ink prices on the goods make it easy to accept the reductions on the goods as genuine. You examine the goods—the tickets do the rest. dw

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGH'S."

GOUGH BROS.,

The Wonderful Cheap Men.

Low Water in the St. Lawrence.

MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—The water has seldom been so low in the river as it is at present. In the ship channel between here and Quebec it is "dead" low at 27 feet 6 inches. Harbor officials think it may go at least one and a half feet lower. At this point it would be the lowest on record. Steamers leaving here have got to load to suit the depth of the water. Opposite the city several shoals are plainly visible and during the past week several small boats have got stranded on the mud.

A Gay American Wanted.

HALIFAX, Sept. 6.—An American came on the steamer Halifax from Boston last Friday and put up at the City Hotel. He had a large amount of money with him, and was bent on having a good time. On Saturday afternoon he went driving in a barouche, and he had the same carriage all Sunday. When Monday morning came the man had disappeared. The hotel people reported the matter to the police, but as yet no trace of him has been found. He registered as Robert Spiers, New York.

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary—A Pleasant Disappointment—She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

The Old-fashioned Style of pill gives you a feeling of horror when you see it and when you feel it. Like the "blunderbuss" of a former decade it is big and clumsy, but not effective. In this century of enlightenment you have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver troubles in the most effective way. They're not easily seen for they're small as grains of mustard seed, but the effect is lasting and the cure complete. For Indigestion, Constipation, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headache, nothing has been found to equal these pills of Dr. Pierce's invention. They give such complete relief that their makers promise that they'll give you satisfaction or your money will be returned.

Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. 25 cts. a vial. A vest-pocket remedy.

NO UPRISING FEARED.

The Trouble With Battleford Indians Was Not So Serious.

OTTAWA, Ont. Sept. 6.—The Indian Department here states that there is no truth in the story that an uprising is apprehended in the Battleford district among Indians. Some little trouble did take place between the Indians and a store-keeper named Dey, but no violence was done and on the appearance of the police the Indians dispersed.

There May be Trouble Here.

In the case of the British Columbia sealing schooner which was brought to Victoria by a United States schooner under arrest and handed over to a British gunboat on the charge of having a shotgun and powder on board, the Minister of Marine, Sir Hibbert Tupper, has ordered Collector Milne to have nothing to do with the vessel, no offence being shown. The Wanderer had complied with all the regulations, and was waiting for the opening of the season to hunt seals with spears. The arrest has destroyed the schooner's business for the season. It is thought the United States cruiser took advantage of the agreement in reference to the sealing up of arms and ammunition on sealing vessels, which agreement the Canadian Government objected to strongly at the time, claiming that the use, and not possession, of firearms was prohibited. The trouble in the Wanderer's case arises out of just this dispute. It is thought the owners of the vessel will sue the commander of the British man-of-war for interfering without authority. Trouble is anticipated over the matter.

DRAYTON'S BIG FIRE.

Several Buildings in the Village Burned to the Ground.

DRAYTON, Ont., Sept. 5.—A disastrous fire broke out yesterday morning in Chas. E. Smith's carriage shop, and before it could be got under control spread to several buildings adjoining, destroying them.

The following buildings were burned: Chas. E. Smith's carriage shop and stables. Loss about $600; insured for $400; stock in same company, $150.

Blacksmith shop owned by Chas. E. Smith, occupied by R. Tosh. Building insured for $200. Tosh's loss about $100 on tools and stock.

I. T. H. Brown, photo gallery and dwelling; no insurance on either; some furniture saved; loss about $1,000.

J. S. Bishop, dwelling and butcher shop, stables and ice house; part furniture saved; insured for $800; loss about $1,500.

William Roberts, bakery and dwelling; no insurance on stock and furniture; house owned by Kilpatrick, Orillia; insured for $500; Robert's loss on contents about $300.

John Whyte, stables and shed and a quantity of wood; no insurance; loss $500.

As the town has no fire protection a message was sent to Palmerston asking for help, which came quickly and rendered good service. Fortunately the wind was from the northwest at the time, or the best part of the town would have been wiped out. Cause of fire unknown.

THE GREATEST STRIKE.

General Secretary Hayes Predicts a Final Strike of Immense Proportions.

MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—General Secretary John W. Hayes, of the Knights of Labor, who has been in Montreal for several days, has left for home. Mr. Hayes was interviewed during his visit here, and in the course of the interview stated that there would be another strike which, he believed, would be the last one that would take place in the United States for a long time. Every labor organization in the States, he declared, would stop work at the same hour, and block the wheels of production to such an extent that the demands of labor would have to be compiled with. He could not say when the strike would commence, but preparations had already commenced for it. The strike, he said, would extend to Canada.

New Fishing Regulations.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 6.—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin has arrived here, having returned from a cruise through Behring Sea and the seal islands on the U. S. steamer Rush. He has closely investigated sealing matters, and is paying especial attention to the working of the new regulations. While here he inspected the system of bonding merchandise between Canada and the U.S. Mr. Hamlin will leave to-day for Washington over the Canadian Pacific road.

During the hot weather impurities in the blood may seriously annoy you. Expel them by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla the great blood purifier.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A Catastrophe in a Mine.

MAWBAUKA, Ills., Sept. 5.—At the Assumption Coal shaft about seven miles south of here a wire cable broke and the cage fell to the bottom demolishing everything in its way. Twelve men were at work below. They were rescued.

Deserts the Republicans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—Senator John P. Jones (Nev.) has created a political sensation by formally severing his connection with the Republican party.

Damage From Floods.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Sept. 6.—The first heavy rain in fifteen weeks fell here Tuesday night. North of here much damage was done. At one place near Orlando two children are reported washed away and drowned. East of Perry many buildings were demolished and several people killed. At Crescent City one large two story building was completely wrecked, the stock ruined and one man badly injured.

Ward McAllister's Son in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Mrs. Lizzie Mc Call, the actress, is about to sue Heyward, son of Ward McAllister, for breach of promise of marriage. Howe and Hummell are her attorneys.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Sept. 6, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The local markets were quiet with outside prices nominally unchanged. On the street oats were easier, 300 bushels selling at from 31 to 31 1-2. Some 200 bushels of wheat brought 54 for white and 53 for red.

At Buffalo spring wheat opened with fair enquiry, ruled steady until near the close when the market became unsettled. There is quite a fair inquiry for barley and prices are gradually creeping up under the influence of a strong market in the west. Canada, although nothing has been done, is being figured on to a considerable extent.

Wheat dull and about steady in Chicago, closing 1-8 to 1-4 lower. Corn gained strength on the efforts of shorts to cover as well, as because of the scarcity of storage room. Oats were firm and closed 1-4 higher.

At East Buffalo live stock market two loads Canada lambs were on sale, taken at $4.44 per cwt. with a few out. They were fat and of suitable quality. This price is likely to hold for some time. The Toronto quotations equal to about $3.75 per cwt. with added duty of 50 to 60c each, leaves still a fair margin in favor of the market and the freight rate from western Ontario to Buffalo compare favorably with the rates to Toronto.

The stock markets were "choppy" in London. Realizations were general but there was no serious decline. Americans were dull. South Americans were the feature of the day.

At New York trading was light and changes were few and such as they were rose wholly from professional operations. There is no "outside public" in the old-fashioned sense to govern price fluctuations. The commercial classes themselves, the wholesale stock speculators in years of promise, are too busy guarding profits in their own business to occupy their minds with Wall street ventures.

Sheriff's Sale of Land.

COUNTY OF PETERBOROUGH TO WIT:

BY VIRTUE OF SEVERAL WRITS OF Fieri Facias issued out of her Majesty's High Court of Justice for Ontario, and County Court for the County of Peterborough, and to me directed and delivered at the suits of George Dunsford and others, plaintiffs, and against the lands and tenements of Frederick Ernest Burnham, defendant, I have seized and taken in execution and will offer for sale at my office, in the Court House, in the town of Peterborough, on Monday, the 3rd day of Dec. 1894,

at 11 o'clock a.m., all the estate, right, title and interest of the said Frederick Ernest Burnham of, in and to all and singular those certain tracts of lands and premises hereinafter described, viz:—

1. Park Lot No. 4, in Township Lot 13, Con. 13, Township of Monaghan, (except the south 33 feet thereof now forming part of King street west, now in the Town of Peterborough.)

2. Park Lot 5, in Township Lot 13, Con 13, Monaghan, (except the small part thereof now forming part of Charlotte street as extended west,) now forming part of the Town of Peterborough.

3. Lots Numbers 1 and 2 south of Simcoe street and west of George street, in the Town of Peterborough, containing one-half acre each more or less.

4. 84 feet more or less frontage on Water street, being part of Town Lot Number One, south of London street and east of Water street, described as follows:—commencing at a point on the east side of Water street 63 feet south of the north-west corner of said lot, thence south along Water street to a point 45 feet north of the south-west corner of said lot, thence easterly in a line parallel with the north limit of said lot, thence northerly along the east limit of said lot to a point 63 feet south from the north-east corner of said lot, and thence westerly in a line parallel with the north boundary of said lot to the place of beginning.

5. Lot 5 (less that part thereof sold to the Midland Railway of Canada,) Lot 6 and the south half of Lot 7 south of Antrim street and west of George street in the Town of Peterborough.

6. Lot No. 22 as shown on Registered Plan No. 49 for the Town of Peterborough, situate on the West side of Park street, at its junction with Brock street together with a right of road 10 feet wide along the south side thereof.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 89 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

RUSSIA'S VAST CROPS.

TOO GREAT TO HARVEST WHERE FAMINE RECENTLY REIGNED.

To Gather in the Grain Would be Tantamount to Throwing Good Money After Bad — A Severe Agricultural Crisis Thereby Anticipated.

Cries of despair are coming from Russian farmers and land owners because of the abundant wheat harvest, says the London Telegraph. For weeks past the Russian press has been devoting its leading articles to a discussion of the measures best calculated to neutralize the effects of the coming plentiful harvest, and now, curiously enough, the question has reduced itself to this simple issue: Should the wheat be reaped and garnered in, or would it not be wiser to turn sheep and cattle into the fields and thus lessen the quantity of the produce? It seems well nigh incredible that a people who, two years ago, were in the throes of a famine and publicly offered up prayers to Heaven for an abundant harvest, should be now concerting measures for the purpose of counteracting the effects of the wished-for abundance. But it is none the less true, and stranger still, some organs of the press, in reply to the question: "Should the wheat be reaped?" have deliberately given it as their opinion that for numerous districts it would be advisable to solve this problem in the negative." Nay, more, it now appears that many land owners refused last year to gather in the harvest, and are determined not to remove it this year either. One landlord, for instance, who owns a large estate near Odessa, and whose facilities for export are therefore exceptionally numerous, foreseeing the fall of prices, purchased one thousand sheep and unhesitatingly turned them into his fields of wheat. He is said to be so satisfied with the result that he means to do likewise now that a further fall in prices is probable.

The Odessa Novosti, a journal which is usually well informed upon agricultural questions, has published a series of articles to show that to gather in the harvest this year would be tantamount to throwing good money after bad, for it can only be done at a heavy loss to farmers. A pood (thirty-six pounds) of barley, for instance, when it reaches the port of Nikolaieff from the neighboring government Poltava costs the producer thirty-six and one-fourth copecks, whereas the market price is at present thirty-six copecks, and is bound to become less as soon as the abundance of this year's harvest is generally known. A very severe agricultural crisis is anticipated in consequence, and the well-meaning efforts of the government to keep down the price of the ruble with a view to facilitating exportation will avail nothing. The results of such a crisis may be gauged by the circumstances that Russia is an agricultural country, which cannot hope to find in the increased profits of manufactures a compensation for the falling off of corn exports. The situation is critical, and will make itself sorely felt in more than one form before the end of the year.

Unfortunately a dispassionate study of the causes that have combined to bring about the present crisis fails to bring to light a single consideration which would warrant hopes of a brighter prospect in the near future. Some authorities maintain that the prohibition to export grain which was issued by the government during the famine enabled American farmers to triumph over their Russian competitors by leaving European markets without Russian grain for a year. But most Russians hold that this was no more than the occasion; the real cause lay deeper, and is to be sought for in the manner in which the Russian producer is handicapped by domestic laws and conditions, in the negligence of Russian grain merchants, who sought to enrich themselves rather than acquire a high reputation for the native produce, and in the resulting inferiority of Russian grain. Thus Russkaia Chisn, a well-informed agricultural organ, unhesitatingly declares that the "foreign demand for Russian grain was the result of a misunderstanding, for the grain itself, owing to its quality, could not compare with that of America or even Australia and East India, and those who transacted the sale, if judged by the standard of conscientiousness or by the commercial methods they employed, would lose by comparison with their foreign colleagues." The journal then goes on to say that the export from Russia was artificial, due exclusively to the mistaken agricultural policy of the government, which made it impossible to forward grain from the farthest corners of Russia to Germany, England and Belgium for nominal freights, while it was practically impossible to distribute it in the neighboring Russian districts where people were dying of hunger. Thus on the one hand it was scarce at home, where sorely needed, and plentiful abroad, where it was not really wanted.

Farm Notes.

Feed shade to the calf.

Of all stock on the farm, young lambs are the most difficult to push without a set-back.

Corn and clover hay will produce some first-class sheep in the fattening pen, and at a handsome profit.

A flock of well-fed and well-cared-for scrubs is preferable to the same number of half-starved purebreds.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the few remedies which are recommended by every school of medicine. Its strength, purity, and efficacy are too well established to admit of doubt as to its superiority over all other blood-purifiers whatever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla leads all.

I was attacked severely last winter with Diarrhœa, Cramps, and Colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. MRS. S. KELLETT, Minden Ont.

Robbed His Employer.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 5.—Henry Morris, a man employed as farm hand by Philip Bowden, a farmer living on the plains road, skipped out during the absence of Bowden and family, taking with him $240 in cash which he had extracted from his employer's trunk. Morris has worked for Bowden since May 26 and said he had been previously employed for four years by Dr. Wright, of Toronto. He is a Shropshire Englishman, about 40 years of age. The police have the case in hand.

Anxiety for the Miranda.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Sept. 5.—Considerable apprehension is felt here for the steamer Miranda which should have reached Sydney last week. She left with the Cook Arctic expedition for Greenland, July 27, and has not been heard from since. It is expected that she has met with some accident. She has about fifty excursionists aboard besides a crew of nearly forty.

Cardwell Conservative Candidate.

MONO MILLS, Sept. 5.—At a convention of the Liberal-Conservatives of Cardwell held here yesterday to nominate a candidate for the House of Commons eighteen nominations were made. All dropped out except Messrs. Snell, Allen and Willoughby and on a ballot being taken Mr. Willoughby received the nomination by a majority of 19 votes.

A Fire in Walsingham.

WALSINGHAM CENTRE, Ont., Sept. 5.—Fire broke out in the carriage shop of G. Christmas & Son, carriage makers and undertakers, yesterday. The flames quickly spread to the blacksmith shop, and both buildings were totally destroyed.

Hanged to an Electric Light Pole.

WATERTOWN, S. D., Sept. 5.—A tramp named Bourke, who assaulted Mrs. Winbone, was caught and dragged through the streets with a rope around his neck and finally hanged to an electric light pole.

Fatal Cloudburst in Kansas.

WICHITA, Kas., Sept. 4.—The lower portion of this town was inundated yesterday by a cloudburst. Lightning killed the little son of Thomas Herman, fatally burned a nine-year-old daughter and tore the house to pieces.

Fast Steamship Terminus.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—It is reported that the terminus of the projected fast steamship line to Canada is to be at Brean, Bridgewater Bay, Somerset, almost opposite Cardiff, on the other side of the Bristol channel.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Sept. 5, 1894.

Yesterday was settling day with Montreal banks. It was a pretty big fourth, a large amount of paper falling due, more especially among dry-goods houses. The banks report payments somewhat better than last months, but still there are a good many renewals being sought. From present indications, however, leading bankers think that trade has taken a turn for the better.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain is beginning to come in more freely. On the street 500 bushels of wheat sold at 55 for white and 53 for red. Barley was nominally quoted at 42 1-2c. Oats were firmer, selling at from 32 to 33.

Buffalo—Cattle, 10 cars, easy, only a peddling trade. Sheep and lambs, 12 cars, a few Canada lambs. Good to fancy wethers, $3.25 to $4. Good to extra lambs, including Canadas, $4.15 to $4.25. Hogs, 12 cars; best hogs sold up to $6.25; generally $6 to $6.15.

At Buffalo the visible supply of barley has increased to 569,000 bu, though trade at all points is in the air. Some inferior Canada barley is offered at 47 to 50c while good western is quoted at 53 to 60. At New York barley malt is dull, country made from Canada barley quoted at 90 to 96.

At New York Government receipts continue heavy notwithstanding the regular September disbursements, the gains being still almost wholly on the department of customs. It is rather noticeable that thus far the gain in the treasury total surplus is made up entirely of notes, and does not affect the gold.

Wheat was firm in Chicago in sympathy with corn, the advance being 3 8c. May corn closed 7-8c higher and cash 1-2 lower. Oats were firm.

The London markets were quieter to-day but the tone was good and especially for investments, consols being at the highest point recorded. Americans, after weakness, showed a material recovery at the close.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

LACROSSE.

The Peterboroughs journeyed to Orillia yesterday and played the team of that town the first game in the semi-final series, and a splendid exhibition of the game it was. There was not, however, a very large crowd present to witness the game. Both teams were in splendid condition, and put up an excellent game. The match resulted in a tie, both teams scoring three goals, although Peterborough disputed one game claimed by Orillia, and the result was that the umpire was removed and another put on. The games for the home team were taken by Lipsett, Glover and Lassimer. The boys state that they were treated in a first class manner by the Orillia boys while in the town, and are also loud in their praises of the treatment accorded them by the genial proprietor of the Orillia House, who they say is an all round gentleman. "Tansey" McDonough is the only member of the local team who met with any mishap on the field; he received a severe blow on the nose, with the result that it is badly fractured. Following are the teams:

Peterborough.		Orillia.
Dobbin	goal	C Frost
Lewis	point	It W Went
McDonald	cover "	E Robbins
Burke	1st defence	D Connors
McCabe	2nd "	G Armstrong
Bagley	3rd "	F McPherson
Davidson	centre	Dick Hendren
W Phelan	3rd home	J Curran
R Lassimer	2nd "	S Robbins
G Lipsett	1st "	Dan Tudhope
It Glover	outside home	R Frost
McDonough	inside "	C Newton
W Leoh	field captain	M B Tudhope
C. LeBrun	umpire	A Carss

H. McConaghy, referee.

Orillia plays here next Wednesday, and it is hoped the boys will turn out every evening to practice. The boys stand a splendid chance of coming out victorious in the end, and it now remains for them to put in steady practice. Lovers of lacrosse may depend upon seeing the best lacrosse match played here this season, and it is hoped that a large number will turn out to encourage the boys, who promise to give a good account of themselves next Wednesday.

For the Peterboroughs, Dobbin in goal, put up a magnificent game, and in the field, Phelan, Lipsett, Lassimer, Lewis and McCabe distinguished themselves.

Frost, Robbin, Henderson and the home players of the Orillia team, proved to be their stars; their playing yesterday was faultless throughout.

The 2nd Peterboroughs go to Millbrook to-morrow to play the village team.

The Toronto papers have evidently been misinformed. They stated that the Orillia club had protested yesterday's game. A protest must be entered before the teams line upon the field, and no protest was entered or even talked of by Orillia yesterday.

SEWAGE FARM DEPUTATION.

The Visit of Messrs. Best and Hughes to the Berlin Sewage Farm.

On Monday, Mr. H. Best, chairman of the Sewerage Committee, and Mr. J. L. Hughes, a member of the same committee, visited the town of Berlin to inspect the sewage farm, which that town maintains in connection with its sewerage system. They were fortunate in meeting the town Engineer, Mr. Bowman, and ex-mayor Stabler, chairman of the Sewerage Committee, who showed them over the farm. It is situated about a mile from the town and is the terminus of the seven miles of sewer pipes, outfall and lateral, which Berlin possesses. There are at present ten acres of the farm under treatment. The land cost $100 an acre, and the preparation has cost so far $4,000. The preparation involves grading and laying of subsoil pipe. The soil of the Berlin farm is clay loam and is not suitable for the purposes of a farm, which requires a sharp soil and a sandy or gravelly subsoil. The sewage is conveyed by the outfall pipes and flows into a trough with the side next the plot to be irrigated, slightly lower. A workman with a board, shaped to fit the concavity of the trough dams the flow of sewage at any desired point and causes an overflow upon the prepared beds of soil, and so on with another section till the required ground is covered. The sewage overflow sinks into the soil, and what remains upon the surface, after a certain length of exposure to sunlight and air, is incorporated with the lower soil by cultivation. After the plot has been treated as often as the absorptive capacity of the soil will permit, the plot is ploughed up and again overflowed.

These gentlemen regard the sewage farm as being yet in the experimental stage of the serious problem of winter disposal of sewage, they say, has not been solved by the Berlin authorities.

There was a meeting of the Sewage Committee last night, but only four of the members were present and nothing important was done.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

OBITUARY.

The Late Emily Lina Rountree.

Wednesday morning about one o'clock at the Nicholls Hospital, Emily Lina, eldest daughter of Mr. Arthur Rountree, succumbed to an attack of typhoid fever. The deceased young lady, who was in her sixteenth year, was first stricken with an attack of inflammation, which developed into typhoid about four weeks ago. She was removed to the Nicholls Hospital for treatment, but the cruel disease had fixed its hold securely upon her and remained with her until death. Miss Rountree was a young girl of a bright and amiable disposition and a universal favourite among her wide circle of young friends. She was a member of the choir of St. John's church and a devoted attendant of St. Luke' Bible class. The funeral takes place this afternoon at four o'clock. The body will be taken to St. John's church where a choral service will be held, after which the funeral will proceed to Little Lake cemetery.

The Late Elisabeth Burton.

Elizabeth Burton, wife of Mr. Andrew Fawcett, died at her residence, Stewart street, Ashburnham, on Wednesday, aged 54 years. For the past two or three years Mrs. Fawcett has been a sufferer from a cancerous tumor. She received treatment from the best specialists of Toronto while in the Toronto General Hospital about a year ago, but without any relief and she gradually grew worse, until death ended her sufferings yesterday. The deceased lady was well and favourably known throughout the district. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The Late Geo. M. Greer.

Geo. M. Greer, M. A., son of the late Thos. Greer, Esq., of Colborne, and brother of Mr. John Greer, of Springville, died rather suddenly at Halifax, N.S., on Monday. The deceased had a paralytic stroke on Friday, from the effects of which he never rallied. He was in his fiftieth year and was a graduate of Toronto University and was unmarried. His remains were interred at Halifax yesterday.

THEIR QUADRENNIAL CONFERENCE.

Methodists From All Over Canada Assemble at the Forest City.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 6.—The delegates to the quadrennial Methodist conference, which opens in the Queen's Avenue Methodist Church to-day, are all here. Dr. Carman, Belleville, the general superintendent, was early on hand. Among the other arrivals were Rev. Mr. Cassidy, Japan; Mr. H. Satoh, a representative of the Japanese government at the world's fair, and who remained over to be present at the conference; Rev. J. W. Holmes, Clinton; Judge Deacon, Pembroke; Dr. Alexander Sutherland, Toronto; Rev. Isaac Tovell, president Niagara conference, and Rev. J. Whitfield, Dundas.

The superannuation committee met on Tuesday in Wesley building, Richmond street, Toronto, with Rev. Dr. Carman in the chair. The report of Rev. Dr. Griffin shows the fund to be in a very healthy condition. The revenue amounted to $90,114, which is a considerable increase over last year. The invested funds exceed $206,000, being an increase of $3,500 on the investments of 1893. At the close of the present financial year 204 ministers, 151 widows of ministers and 83 orphans were receiving support from the funds.

There will doubtless be some discussion over the editorship of the Christian Guardian. It will be remembered that at the last conference an attempt was made to oust Rev. Dr. Dewart without success.

HE BOBS UP AGAIN.

Sam Murray, Whom the Doctors had Pronounced as Incurable, Still on Deck—Now Acting as Foreman for a Big Lumber Concern.

North Bay, Sept. 3.—Sam Murray's name is one that has often figured in newspaper columns during the past eighteen months because he was cured of paralysis and blood poisoning by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after half a dozen physicians had pronounced him incurable. On the strength of physicians' certificates, Murray was paid his disability claim by the Grand Trunk. Since he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, he has been accepted as a first-class risk by a leading life insurance company. About a year ago, he got a position as foreman for the big lumber concern of Davidson & Hay, of Toronto, and the fact that he was able to satisfactorily to attend to the trying duties of such a position, is ample evidence of the permanency of his cure.

AN EMIGRANT DIES OF CHOLERA.

Physicians Are in Doubt if the Disease is the Asiatic Scourge.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Sept. 6.—John P. Walther was taken from an emigrant train yesterday suffering with what appeared to be a well-developed case of cholera. He was isolated in a house outside the city limits and the other occupants of the car were locked in the coach and forwarded to Pittsburg. The man died in great agony in the evening.

Walther and his fellow passengers arrived at New York on the North German Lloyd steamship Elde, from Bremen. One of the passengers says Walther was attacked with severe pains and vomiting two days before the vessel arrived, but that the ship's surgeon gave him medicine which braced him up sufficiently to pass inspection at New York.

The authorities have telegraphed to the Pittsburg officials to intercept and quarantine the car.

Physicians who have been through an epidemic of cholera are positive that Walther's was a bona fide case of cholera, but were undecided as to whether it was of the Asiatic nature.

The best cough cure is Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It heals the lungs and cures coughs and colds.

TURNBULL'S

Fresh from the German Manufacturers. Our new stock has arrived and is now opened out. It contains all new and desirable cuts to date. New colourings, new trimmings, and also new prices, as we ourselves were surprised at the Mantle the manufacturer has given us to sell for $3.00, while for $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 they are just beauties, both in cloth and trimmings; for $9.00, $10.00, $11.00 you get the pick of the bulk of the stock. Also we are showing a line of Fur Lined Capes at $16.00 and $20.00 which have to be seen and tried on to be appreciated. We have not forgotten the children as we are showing a nice range of Ulsters in all sizes and shades. Our Mantle Cloths are now opened out and we believe we have never shown as pretty and cheap a range. MISS TULLY, who is head of this department, is well known and needs no introduction. She always gives a perfect fit. We have made preparations for a very large Mantle trade this season and are confident we will do it as we have the goods direct from the makers, and our long experience has taught us to know a good selling line when we see it. A cordial invitation is given to look through and inspect our stock whether you intend to buy that particular day or not. No trouble to show goods.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

The Times Predicts a Tariff Deadlock in the Next U.S. Congress.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL INGLEFIELD

He Was Commander-in-Chief of the North American Squadron in 1879—A Gunboat Sent to the Benin River—Decrease in Emigration to Canada.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Times says editorially: "It is improbable that the American tariff will be altered before the winter of 1897 or 1898. Attempts will be made to modify it piecemeal, but nothing will be done by the present Congress. The Republicans are likely to get a majority in the House in the November elections, but they will be unable to command enough votes in the Senate to overrule the President's veto. Therefore in the next Congress the tariff will be a deadlock over which business men, whether protectionists or tariff reformers, may rationally rejoice. The whole world is interested in the revival of business in the States and the settlement of the tariff for three years is one of the conditions making for a long-delayed recovery, but complete change in the methods of American railway management is equally necessary to this improvement."

BRITISH TRADES UNION.

The Meeting Addressed by a Labor Delegate from America.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—At yesterday's sitting of the Trades Union a prolonged debate ensued upon a resolution to nationalise all lands containing mines or minerals.

Mr. James Kier Hardie, M.P., moved an amendment that besides the land the whole means of production, distribution and exchange of output of mines ought to be nationalized. Mr. Hardie's motion was carried by a vote of 219 to 61.

Mr. Lloyd, the delegate representing the American Federation of Labor, addressed the congress. He said the time had come when the wage earners of the world should unite in closer fraternity. The fact that the trades unions of Great Britain had made greater progress in the matter of federation than those of America, he thought, was partly due to the fact that there was little homogenity among the workingmen of America. The honesty of purpose of the labor leaders in England was recognized in America as the one secret of the success of their efforts in cementing trades unions.

Death of Admiral Inglefield.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Admiral Inglefield died here yesterday. Sir Edward Inglefield, Kt., K.C.B., D.C.L., F.R.S., was born in Cheltenham in 1820. He was educated at the Portsmouth Naval College and at the age of 20 took part in the operations on the coast of Sidon. He was detailed subsequently for service in South America. He commanded H.M.S. Comus in the naval battle of the Parana and soon afterward got the rank of commander. He became Vice-Admiral in 1875, superintended the Malta deckyards from 1872 to 1877, and was commander in chief of the North American station in 1878-9. He commanded three Arctic expeditions. He published several works on naval subjects and one on his experiences in Arctic regions.

British Migration to Canada.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The emigration returns for the month of August show the number to have sailed for Canada to be 3,249, a decrease of 1,230 as compared with August of last year. During the eight months of the year only 18,000 emigrants have sailed for Canada as compared with 43,000 last year.

A Gunboat to Go After Chief Nana.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The government has decided to send a gunboat to the Benin river, West Africa, to suppress Chief Nana, whose tribesmen recently attacked and killed a number of British subject. The collision grew out of the opposition of the natives of Benin to British traders.

The Eiffel Tower Sold.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 7.—The World says that a syndicate of Baltimore capitalists has purchased the Eiffel tower and that the structure will be brought here. The promoters of the Baltimore centennial which is to be held in 1897 are said to be the purchasers of M. Eiffel's building.

Big Tailors' Strike in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The Knights of Labor tailors decided last night to go on strike. It is estimated that about 12,000 men will be out in this city and vicinity.

A Nicaraguan Expedition to Colombia.

COLON, Sept. 7.—It is reported here that the Nicaraguans are preparing an expedition composed of four hundred men which will be sent to Bocas del Toro in order to demand of the republic of Colombia the surrender of the ringleaders in the fight of July 5.

King Humbert to Visit Sicily.

ROME, Sept. 7.—King Humbert has arranged to pay a visit to Sicily, accompanied by Premier Crispi, who will introduce bills in the Chamber of Deputies settling the Sicilian land question and designed to pacify the leaders of the anti-government party in Sicily.

Shot by Burglars.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Police Sergeant Nicholas Sheehan while pursuing burglars was shot and killed by them.

WAR NEWS FROM TOKIO

The Reported Chinese Victories in the Peninsula Denied.

FLOODS IMPEDE OPERATIONS

A Decisive Battle Cannot be Fought Till the Floods Subside — Japanese Forces Occupy a Strong Position at Ping-Yang—Shanghai Reports.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A Tokio despatch to the Central News says that the last reports from the front tell of heavy rains which have impeded military operations. The streams of the Corean peninsula have risen rapidly and much of the adjacent lowland is partially flooded. The Japanese officers say it is not likely that any important battle will be fought before the floods subside. Occasionally skirmishes have taken place, they say, but neither side has tried recently to bring about a decisive action.

The Japanese regulars in Corea now number 30,000. Some 10,000 of these troops, comprising a strong cavalry force, have been detailed for the scouting service and the protection of the main army's lines of supply and communication. Some 18,000 Japanese occupy a strong position at Ping-Yang. They have thrown up earthworks and mounted heavy guns. The Chinese army with about 20,000 men has taken position facing the Japanese. Scouting parties from the two camps have met frequently and exchanged shots, but the mortality has been inconsiderable. The spirit of the Japanese troops is said to be all that could be desired.

The Marquis of Saongi, president of the Department of Imperial Orders, has arrived in Corea with a large suite. His mission is to convey to the Corean King the Emperor's congratulations in view of Corea's achievement of her independence.

The correspondent says the reports of great Chinese victories in Corea are pure fiction.

From a Chinese Source.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Central News says: "Otori, the Japanese minister to Corea, has taken extreme measures to move the King of Corea to grant a comprehensive railway concession in favor of Japanese contractors. He is trying also to obtain exclusive mining rights for the Japanese. Despite Japanese denials there has been a general engagement. Many wounded are arriving at Seoul. It is impossible to learn from Japanese sources whether they were injured in skirmishes or in a pitched battle.

"Coreans attacked fifty Japanese foragers recently, capturing thirty and handed them over to the Chinese. The troops now coming from Japan are landed at Chemul Po. Twelve mountain guns and twelve mortars have been taken ashore at that port.

"The Chinese fleet was at Wei Hai-Wei September 4, and the Japanese was off the southern coast of Corea.

"Captain Von Henneken has been appointed inspector of the Chinese coast defences."

Threatening Shanghai.

Another despatch from Shanghai says it is reported that the Japanese have threatened to withdraw their promise not to molest Shanghai unless the Kiang-Nan arsenal there is closed. The motive for the threat is not apparent, but it is surmised that the Japanese are anxious to provoke British interference. The Kiang-Nan arsenal is now in a state of inactivity, and under the circumstances its productive capacity is small.

THE OLD VICEROY'S TROUBLES.

He is Held Responsible for the War—Enemies Working Against Him.

SAN FRANCISO, Sept. 7.—Pekin newspapers brought by the steamer Peru which has arrived contain news that bodes ill for Li Hung Chang. The whole responsibility in the conduct of the present war rests on him and for every disaster the Chinese land or sea forces sustain he is held accountable.

The Nichi-Nichi says that Wang Jung-Ho and Li Hung Tsan who were commissioned by the Pekin Government to watch over the actions of the Viceroy are going to take active measures now that intelligence of defeats of Chinese on land and sea has reached the ears of statesmen of Pekin. Wang Jung-Ho is said to be on bad terms with the Viceroy and as his influence over the court of Pekin is known to be considerable the situation of the Viceroy must be an anxious one.

The Hochi and several other papers state that a committee for the impeachment of the Viceroy has been appointed and that Wang Jung-Ho, Li Hung Tsan, Chang Chtung and an elder brother of this Chang, all enemies of the Viceroy, have been appointed its members.

That the court of Pekin was disposed towards a pacific policy and that the declaration of war was forced upon it by the Viceroy Li is evident from the great consternation with which the statesmen in Pekin received the news of the sinking of the Kow Shing. The Viceroy underrated Japan, which he regarded as incapable of taking any decisive step.

Since the outbreak of hostilities the Chinese population in the ports of Yokohama and Kobe has been reduced by about 2,000. The Chinese government is said through its officials in Europe to be attempting to get forty military and naval officers to serve in the present war. A private telegram is said to have been received in Tokio to the effect that it has been proposed that the Chinese military council take advantage of the want of men-of-war on the Japanese coasts to send warships to attack a number of ports at the same time.

Throws Off France's Suzerainty.

PERPIGNON, France, Sept. 7 The Bishop of Urgel, who conjointly with France is suzerain of the neutral country of Andorra, has issued a pastoral letter claiming that he is the sole ruler of Andorra and claiming that he will no longer acknowledge the suzerainty of France. This action has caused great excitement in the so-called Andorra republic.

LABOR IN CONVENTION

Proceedings of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.

A PLAN FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

The Congress Considers a Scheme to Colonise the Territories—A Lively Discussion Over the Motion to Exclude Civil Servants From the Congress.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—Just after the delegates to the Labor Congress had assembled in the city hall yesterday the report of the committee on President Beale's address was read and was followed by a somewhat lively debate. The report read:

"That we heartily concur with his suggestions and recommendations, excepting wherein he recommends that it behooves us to again and again knock at the doors of the governments until our just and reasonable demands are granted.

"We believe that the time has arrived to stop knocking at the government doors, and the time has now arrived to take such independent political actions as will have the doors open to us all the time through the formation of an independent labor party."

Delegate Darlington spoke in favor of the report. He reiterated his statements that the Congress had outlived its usefulness and that during its ten years of existence the labor movement had retrograded. He said that if it had kept up half way even, it wouldn't be so bad, but he did not believe in rapping and begging and praying to any government without any result.

President Beales got out of the chair and entered into a spirited defence of his address. He said that he had endeavored to present a report which would be compatible with the truth. He believed in continually and persistently putting their views before the Governments until the reforms asked for should be obtained. He stuck to the views laid down in his address and thought the committee had advanced views which congress would be unwise to adopt.

The president's recommendations were carried by 29 to 5.

A committee consisting of Delegates Carey, Toronto; Plumb, Prescott; Beaudreau, Montreal; Patterson and Leggo, of this city, was appointed to bring in recommendations relating to the formation of a Canadian organization that shall have power to issue charters and levy capita tax to labor organizations.

The resolution that was held over from Wednesday to make Government employes ineligible as delegates to the congress was then brought up and caused a lively discussion.

Delegate Smith, of Ottawa, moved in amendment that only persons employed by the year by the government be excluded from the congress.

Delegate O'Donohue, of Toronto, said he had been an employe of the government for years but his ideas of labor had not been changed. Men looking for government situations and were not able to secure them were the most dangerous. The meaning of the resolution was that a man accepting a government position was a fraud as a labor man. There was not a member of congress who would not accept a good government position if it was offered to him.

Delegate Jobin, of Quebec, thought that the congress had no power to say who should be sent to it as delegates. This matter rested with the labor unions that sent the delegates. The resolution was lost.

Trades and Labor Congress held an evening session and discussed the advisability of admitting the Patrons of Industry, the Grangers and the Single Taxers. The committee to whom the replies from subordinate organizations were referred reported that ten replies had been received in all, six of which voted for taking in all three organizations and one the Patrons of Industry and Single Taxers, while two were opposed to their admission and one was indefinite. The question was filed.

On motion of Delegate Lafontaine a resolution was passed calling for the abolition of the law permitting the seizure of wages for debts in the province of Quebec. He spoke rather disparagingly of Montreal lawyers.

Delegate Langevin, of Quebec, moved and Delegate Little, of the same place, seconded, a motion to accept a colonization scheme which the former had prepared for the settlement of the unoccupied lands of the Northwest. The scheme was in effect to send the unemployed people from the centres of population to the territories and to have them educated in the arts of agriculture as well as get a military training so that they could be called upon in the case of necessity to protect the settlers. In this way the services of the mounted police could be abolished. The matter was referred to a committee and congress then adjourned.

Deserters From Her Majesty's Navy.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—Detectives O'Keefe, Campeau and Lafontaine arrested two sailors who deserted from H. M. S. Tourmaline at Quebec. The first one, named Joseph Kinsley, was arrested on Notre Dame street east, and Henry Flunis on the corner of St. Charles Borrome and Craig streets. He was in plain clothes. The ship's officers at Quebec have been communicated with. The detectives have the names of five more deserters, who they are seeking. One of these deserted while the vessels were in Montreal and the other four from Quebec.

Niagara Central Railway.

HAMILTON, Sept. 7.—Captain Neelon and Mayor Robertson, of St Catharines, waited on Mayor Stewart and asked on behalf of the Niagara Central Railway Company, that the city give it a right of way from the eastern limits to a point near the centre, the company to provide its own station grounds and to give Hamilton stock of equal value to the amount spent in purchasing the right of way. The proposition will be laid before the finance Committee.

PARTY GOVERNMENT AND PATRONAGE.

From the article in Tuesday's Star entitled, "Keep Party in Servitude," we judge there is no great disagreement between that journal and the Globe on the question of party patronage. Our position, briefly, is this: (1) We believe that the system of party appointments is necessary only so far as it is essential to the maintenance of party government; (2) and that party government itself is necessary only so far as it is essential to responsible government. The principle of responsible government is that Ministers shall remain in power only so long as they possess the confidence of the people as represented in the law-making body. This means that the law-making body, or a majority thereof, shall control both legislation and administration. In practice it delegates administration and the initiation of most important measures of legislation to the Ministers. Hence these are sometimes referred to as a committee of Parliament. But this is not strictly accurate. The Premier and his colleagues, officially, are the servants and advisers of the Crown; and although that relation may be regarded as largely theoretical, it has this practical result, that the colleagues of the Premier are chosen by himself, not by the House. The direct control of the Ministry over administration is complete, and though the ultimate control still rests with the House, it is usually exercised only with regard to large principles, not details of administration.

Now, to carry on a stable and continuous policy of administration it is necessary that a majority of the House should be in general and continuous accord with the Government; in other words, that there should be a Government party. And to ensure proper criticism of administrative acts, it is necessary that the other side should be organized into an Opposition. So that party government may be said to grow naturally out of responsible government. And as the Premier is allowed to choose his own colleagues, and is held to a general responsibility for their acts, it does not seem unreasonable that the minor offices should be filled in the same way, and should, as a general rule, be filled by persons in sympathy with their chiefs as to methods of administration. So that the system of party appointments may be said to grow naturally out of the system of party government, and therefore out of responsible government.

Legislation is on a somewhat different footing. It seems essential that the Ministers should initiate those laws which are necessary for the carrying out of their administrative policy; but in practice they do a good deal more, initiating most of the important measures, and declaring, through the mouth of the representative of the Crown what is to be the legislative programme of the session. The effect is not only to enhance their power and authority, but to strengthen the party tie by giving the majority an inducement to agree upon the legislation as well as the administration of those whom they regard as their leaders. It is difficult to lay down hard and fast lines as to how far responsible government is bound up with Ministerial control over legislation. Many important measures are left to be decided by the House as open questions not involving party or the fate of the Government. With all this we agree with the Star, that party is a means, not an end, should be the servant and not the master of public men, that no reproach ought to attach to a change of politics, and that the natural tendency to adhere to one party ought not to be increased by an abuse or patronage. —Globe.

THE lists, extending over many columns of the daily newspapers, of successful candidates at the recent Ontario examinations for teachers, indicate what a continuous rush there is for professional life. It is hard to say, remarks the Farmers' Advocate, to what extent the "professions," as they are called, would degenerate were it not for the constant infusion of country blood. That the "professions" are becoming overcrowded is no secret. Teachers, bookkeepers and clerks of all kinds are finding it more and more difficult to obtain employment even at "living" wages. A local paper in one of our Western Ontario towns mentions the fact that a university graduate applied to that paper the other day for the position of junior reporter. When a man whose training represents the cost of a good, small-sized farm, is begging for a situation carrying with it a salary of $7 or $8 per week, and our land is not supporting one-half or one-quarter the persons of which it is capable, it is very clear that we have got into a condition detrimental to the highest interests of the state.

IT is announced that the iron and sheet steel manufacturers will hold a meeting shortly to consider the advisability of reducing wages on account of the tariff reductions. It may be remarked that there is no instance on record of manufacturers meeting to discuss the advisability of raising wages after an increase in the protective tariff.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most commmon and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nerviline. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE SITUATION IN CARDWELL TO-DAY.

As Viewed by the Toronto News (Independent-Conservative).

The McCarthyites in Cardwell recently performed the dangerous act of swapping horses while crossing a stream. Dr. Henry who had been generally recognized as the candidate of the new organization in the county, was thrown over and Mr. Stubbs elected in his place. This action created a certain amount of friction and for a time the prospects of the old liners in the historic battle ground seemed excellent.

But McCarthyism is to-day once more triumphant and the Thompsonians are in the valley of despair. These conditions arise from the nomination made yesterday. It was generally understood among the faithful that "Dick" Allan, a popular farmer and an ex-reeve of Mono, which is the pivotal township, would have the call. But "Dick" was rejected and W. B. Willoughby, a clever young lawyer of Toronto and Bolton, chosen. The most serious part of the affair, from a Conservative standpoint, is that this choice appears to have been forced upon the convention by the McCarthyites, who formed one-third the delegates, and who voted for Willoughby because the latter will prove a less powerful antagonist at the polls than a man like Allan, who could appeal to rural prejudices and ambitions.

The position, Mr. White, the present member, finds himself in at this juncture is far from enviable. He wants the collectorship of customs at Montreal, and wants it bad. The Government promised him the billet provided he would place a successor in the field who could carry Cardwell. This condition Mr. White tried to comply with by booming Allan, but the convention refused his choice. The Government and the member are now both in a quandary. To open the constituency is to invite defeat. To refuse to open will be a confession of weakness and jeopardize Mr. White's chances of the collectorship. The general feeling is that the lesser evil from the Government standpoint, will be chosen, and that Cardwell will remain closed.

A Bad Wreck

—of the constitution may follow in the track of a disordered system, due to impure blood or inactive liver. Don't run the risk! The proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery take all the chances. They make a straightforward offer to return your money if their remedy fails to benefit or cure in all disorders and affections due to impure blood or inactive liver. The germs of disease circulate through the blood; the liver is the filter which permits the germs to enter or not. The liver active, and the blood pure, and you escape disease.

When you're run down, debilitated, weak, and your weight below a healthy standard, you regain health, strength, and wholesome flesh, by using the "Discovery." It builds up the body faster than nauseating Cod liver oil or emulsions.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, piles, billiousness, indigestion, or dyspepsia, and headaches.

A Mother's Beautiful Child

Dragged Nearly to Death's Door by Severe Nervous Disease—Suffered Extreme Pain in the Head—Doctors Could Do Nothing—South American Nervine Called in at the Eleventh Hour and Restores to Health Little Annie Joy, of West Toronto Junction—The Great Remedy is Reducing the Death Rate of All Canadian Cities.

MISS ANNIE JOY, WEST TORONTO JUNCTION.

A bright little lad, or golden-haired girl, is the delight of your home. Whether you revel in riches, or know something of the privations of poverty, that child is all the world to you. It is no wonder that mother and father become anxious when sickness overtakes the little one.

The remedy, fathers and mothers, is near by. South American Nervine has been the means of giving back the bloom of youth to thousands of suffering little ones. It is not a medicine that buoys up the parents' hopes, only to have them in a short time dashed down again lower than ever. Whether with child or adult, it promptly gets at the seat of all disease, which is the nerve centres. From this fact it is peculiarly efficacious in the treatment of nervous diseases of man, woman or child.

A recent case is that as told by Mrs. M. A. Joy, of West Toronto Junction, whose little daughter Annie, aged 15 years, had been a sufferer from severe nervous depression for about two years. As with all mothers, no trouble and expense was spared in the effort to bring relief to the child. The little one suffered extreme pains in the head, so distressing at times as to render her completely helpless, sapping all her strength. The best skill of the most skilled physicians was called into request, but little Annie steadily grew worse. Becoming more hopeless and discouraged as the weeks went by, Mrs. Joy decided on trying South American Nervine as almost a last resort. Employing her own words she said: "I determined to give it a trial, although I felt it was useless."

To-day it is all happiness around that home, for before one bottle of the medicine had been taken, the mother tells us Annie commenced to show decided signs of improvement. The child has taken three bottles and has practically regained her natural health and vigor. There is nothing surprising in the fact that Mrs. Joy cannot speak too highly of South American Nervine.

Much was at stake, but this wonderful discovery proved equal to the emergency, and so it does in every case. Thousands of letters on file from well-known citizens prove this. For nervous diseases of young or old, from whatever cause, it is an absolutely infallible cure.

METHODISTS AT LONDON.

Opening Meeting of the Quadrennial Conference—Progress of Methodism.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 7.—The quadrennial Methodist conference opened in Queen's Avenue Methodist church yesterday with about 200 delegates in attendance. On the third ballot, Dr. Shaw, President of Wesleyan Theological College, was elected secretary of the conference. The business was somewhat of a general character. In the afternoon Dr. Carman, general superintendent, delivered his address, showing the progress made by Methodism during the last four years. Every department was in most excellent condition and constantly growing. At the ratification conference of 1883 the membership of the church was 189,803, now it is 280,092.

The committee on conference boundaries have agreed on one report which favors a reduction in the number of annual conferences in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec from 6 to 4.

SWORD OF GENERAL WOLFE.

The United Service Institution Claims to Have the Genuine Article.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The United Service Institution has on exhibition a sword, which they claim was worn by General Wolfe at Quebec. They also claim the sword which the Hon. J. C. Patterson, Canadian Minister of Militia, purchased recently from Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson and Hodge, is not genuine, and that General Wolfe's sword was presented to the Institution fourteen years before Hon. J. C. Patterson's purchase was found on the plains of Abraham.

The donor of the sword alleged to be genuine was a descendant of General Wolfe's friend, General Ward, who received it from the hands of General Wolfe's mother.

Long Service Medals for Volunteers.

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 7.—The War Office has decided to issue volunteer medals for long and meritorious service and for distinguished conduct. Canadian volunteers will participate in these honors. The decorations will be issued under regulations identical with those governing the regular army. The length of service required in the Imperial and Colonial forces will be the same. The power to grant gratuities with the medals if left to the Governors-in-Council of the different British colonies. Colonial volunteers will be eligible for the long service medal recently instituted for the English volunteers.

Struck to Death by a Train.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Sept. 7.—Charles E. Robertson, aged 46, merchant tailor and councillor of this city, met with a shocking accident at Kensington which resulted in his death shortly after. He was on his way to the Summerside races and alighted at Kensington. The train was moving when he went to get aboard and he missed the hand rail, falling on the track. The car passed over both of his legs. The left leg had to be amputated, and half an hour after the operation Mr. Robertson died.

A Hamilton Boy's Brave Deed.

HAMILTON, Sept. 7.—W. S. Duffield, of the W. E. Sandford Manufacturing Company, performed a heroic action at the Beach, rescuing Ellen Buckingham, a nurse at the Elsinore, who had gone in bathing, got beyond her depth, and before being brought to the surface was under water several minutes. Duffield's brave action, followed by the prompt application of restoratives, saved her life.

Farmer Killed by a Train.

SARNIA, Ont., Sept. 7.—John Green, a well known farmer of Sarnia township, while returning home on the London road with his team, was killed by a freight train at the London crossing of the G. T. R. about two miles from town. His horses were going at a rapid pace and Green evidently was not on the lookout as the track is visible on both sides for some distance. Both horses were also killed.

Salt from England Free.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Treasury Department has decided that salt imported from England is entitled to free importation into the United States under the new tariff, notwithstanding the fact that several of the dependencies of Great Britain impose duty on that commodity when imported from the United States.

Grocery Store Burglarized.

PORT CREDIT, Sept. 7.—The grocery store of James Hamilton was rubbed yesterday. The safe was blown open and about $40 in bills and a like amount in silver taken. Suspicion rests on an American who was seen around the town in the evening.

The Minnesota Disaster.

PINE CITY, Minn., Sept. 7.—The worst has been told and it is doubtful if there will be any very large additions to the list of dead. Supplies are coming in at a rapid rate and there is no lack in any department of the relief work.

Mme. Joni Committed for Trial.

ANTWERP, Sept. 7.—Mme. Henry Joni has been committed for trial on the charge of having murdered her brother, sister and uncle to get their life insurance.

HE BOBS UP AGAIN.

Sam Murray, Whom the Doctors had Pronounced as Incurable, Still on Deck—Now Acting as Foreman for a Big Lumber Concern.

North Bay, Sept. 3.—Sam Murray's name is one that has often figured in newspaper columns during the past eighteen months because he was cured of paralysis and blood poisoning by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after half a dozen physicians had pronounced him incurable. On the strength of physicians' certificates, Murray was paid his disability claim by the Grand Trunk. Since he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, he has been accepted as a first-class risk by a leading life insurance company. About a year ago, he got a position as foreman for the big lumber concern of Davidson & Hay, of Toronto, and the fact that he was able to satisfactorily to attend to the trying duties of such a position, is ample evidence of the permanency of his cure.

CHRISTOPHER FINLAY FRASER.

All dark and gloomy the great building stood,
Save where in one far window shone a ray,
In the weird hour 'twixt midnight and the morn.
The lonely watchman noted it and said,
"'Tis Fraser's lamp; some business of the State
Keeps him astir, unmindful of himself—
He should have rest."

Sir, peace; he is at rest.
In yon high chamber, 'neath the watchful light
That falls upon his form and touches it
With glory, so to symbolise our love,
Prone on the floor beside his untouched couch,
Alone, alone and dead—he lies in state.

With morning's dawn the news is fast afoot,
And men are saying, as they shake their heads,
"And yet 'twas like him thus to pass away;
He did his noble service to the land
Without parade and almost secretly,
And had the choice been his, we may believe
He rather would have gone thus unobserved
Than to have heard around a stately bed,
Through weeks and months our whisperings of praise.

We mourn him truly, deeply, all—nay, bold—
There's one who mourns not, nor has any cause—
The cynic of the time, whose role it is
To say there are no honest public men—
He mourns not Fraser's death, because he knows
There's one man less between himself and truth.

Take a last look, Ontario, on thy son;
Now say farewell, for here in solemn state
Come consecrated priests of Papal Rome
To claim the sacred clay.
Yes; he was theirs, this statesman pure and true—
He worshipped at Rome's altar, and he'll sleep
Until the judgment in Rome's holy ground.

But bow them stay till Bigotry has come
With faltering step and shame-flushed brow, and looked Upon the dead, and marked the general grief,
And caught the perfume of the flowers heaped
By Protestant upon the honoured bier,
And realised that, had her will been law,
This man had been denied a right to show
He loved his country, and could serve her well!

MADAMINE.

THIS new and valuable medicine for all female complaints is daily making remarkable cures of cases in which all other remedies had failed. This treatment has been in constant use by an experienced physician for many years with the greatest success. It is perfect as a cure or falling of the womb, leucorrhœa or whites, painful, suppressed, profuse or irregular menstruation, congestion and inflammation of the womb, and other uterine troubles, which give rise to nervous diseases, headache, constipation, backache, depression, tired feeling, etc., which so many women suffer from. September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

The DeLamortan System of Cutting.

Mrs. McCaully having purchased the right to teach and sell the above system, has removed the school to her own rooms, over Mason's seed store, corner of Water and Brock streets, where she is prepared to receive pupils and do all manner of dress and mantle making.

A Cavan Artesian Well.

Mr. Geo. McWilliams has been busily engaged for some time past in putting down an artesian well on the farm of Mr. Thos. McCaudoo, township of Cavan. The drill was forced down 205 feet before a flow of water was reached. The distance the water raised from the bottom of pipe was eighty feet. The pump working barrel which is about one hundred and twenty feet from the surface, is operated by Mr. McWilliams' celebrated Queen windmills. The drill in its operation passed through layers of sand and quicksand and about seventy-five feet of blue clay. Mr. McWilliams done the work in a satisfactory manner.

Professor Alexander.

Professor Alexander, who is announced for a course of lectures on Human Nature, at the Opera House, next week, has been prominently before the public of the large cities of the United States, for the past five years. The papers of the Union have been full of comment on the able manner in which the various subjects under consideration have been presented by the professor. His lectures are said to fairly sparkle with wit, humor and ludicrous anecdotes, illustrative of the point at issue, and yet fraught throughout with an earnest thoughtfulness, characteristic of the man. The opening lecture, Monday evening, will be free.

Millbrook to Have Electric Light.

We had a visit last week from an agent of the Canadian General Electric Co., the Millbrook Reporter says, who succeeded in securing the right of way on our streets and the promise of the council to consider favourably the lighting of the streets by electricity. He also met with good encouragement from the merchants and citizens in general who subscribed for over three hundred lights, thus assuring the carrying forward of this much needed improvement to our village. We hope that those who have not yet given their aid to the new enterprise will do so at once in order that a suitable plant may be placed here, sufficient to give us a first class service. It is expected to be in operation before the new year.

A Hamilton Binder's Record.

Mr. Barton Earle, who has returned from a visit to Haldimand township, Northumberland county, stated to a reporter that he came across a Peter Hamilton binder with quite a record. Eleven years ago Mr. Hugh Stewart, of Haldimand township, purchased the binder and sold it to Mr. Thos. Stewart, of the same locality, eight years ago. For the first three years it was the only binder in the district, and was in general use in the neighbourhood. During this long period of eleven years it has only cost its owner seventy-five cents for repairs. Mr. Earle was present and saw the machine cutting peas and oats and it did its work perfectly. The machine was not worn in the least and the owner would not part with it under any consideration. Mr. Stewart claims that there is not a binder in the district that can do the work with better results.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—There was no police court session this morning.

—The "Sun" Cholera Drops at James Lynch, druggist.

—A public meeting was held in Lindsay last night to discuss the sewerage question.

—The band will play in the park to-night and a first class programme will be provided.

—Division Court is being held to-day at the Court House before His Honour Judge Weller.

—The Tweed News appears this week in a new form, considerably enlarged and in more modern style.

—The Fire, Water and Light Committee met last night, but very little business of importance was transacted.

—The knights of the brush are busily engaged in improving the premises of Mr. W. J. Green, Hunter street.

—An important meeting of the Board of Trade will be held in the council chamber on Tuesday evening, Sept. 11th, at 8 p.m.

—A mongrel bit a child while playing in a yard on George street north, sinking its two teeth in the little one's finger, to-day.

—Indications point to an exceptionally large fruit and vegetable market to-morrow. Citizens would do well to note this fact.

—One of Gilmour & Co.'s alligators will be launched in the Little Lake this evening, it came down by train from Lakefield.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimate, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store.

—The explosion of a steam pipe at the Canadian General Electric Works yesterday caused considerable excitement for a time, without serious results.

—The Ashburham Council will meet the members of the Finance Committee of the town council, at the town clerk's office this evening, for the purpose of discussing the proposed municipal union.

—A great fire is raging along the Rainy River district, and a very large area of timber land is being destroyed. It is estimated that more timber is being burned in Ontario this season than has been cut in the past ten years.

—Mr. M. P. Ketchum's (Brighton) trotting dog Doc defeated J. A. Perry's (Toronto) Victor, a cross between a collie and a Newfoundland, at the Toronto Exhibition yesterday, in two straight half-mile heats. Time, 1.55½, 1.50¼.

—The regular meeting of City Lodge, I.O.G.T., last night was well attended. Mr. J. P. Simpson, C. T., filled the chair. After the business of the lodge had been transacted, a debate took place on the subject, "Resolved, that country life is preferable to city life." There were four speakers on each side, and the judges gave their decision in favour of the affirmative. The speeches made on both sides were splendid efforts.

—Otonabee Council, R. T. of T., held a very interesting meeting last evening. A debate took place on the subject, Resolved "That women do more for the temperance cause than men." The affirmative was championed by Mr. Bruce Anderson and Misses A. Smith and M. McWilliams, and the negative by Messrs. C. Munro, S. Taylor and Miss M. Dawson. The judges, Mrs. Jas. Munro and Messrs. H. S. Armstrong and C. Chrowe, decided in favour of the negative.

—A new method of butter making has been discovered. A Lindsay citizen had occasion to visit Peterborough recently, and took his wife and baby along for a drive. Half a bottle of reduced milk was taken with them to supply the wants of the infant on the way. On replenishing the baby's bottle after some distance had been driven it was found that the milk had been completely churned by the shaking of the vehicle, a number of nice lumps of butter being removed. The milk remained perfectly sweet. This is a pointer for the farmers. There is money in it. They could start for town with new milk in cans and have butter made by the time they arrive.—Watchman.

A Sight Worth Seeing.

Go up to-day and take a walk through my beautiful greenhouse of fresh blooming flowers, potting and bedding-out plants, etc., corner Argyle and George streets. FRANK WISE.

Obituary.

Hon. Geo. B. Shaw, who was married to Miss Josephine Bletcher, formerly of Peterborough, whose death was noted in yesterday's issue, was a prominent citizen of Eau Claire, Michigan. He was first elected as congressional representative of the Eau Claire district in 1892, defeating his opponent by a majority of 2,270. He was very highly respected and at the capital, Madison, the flag was at half mast in honour of the dead congressman. The funeral, took place on Friday, and the presence of thousands of citizens, testified to the respect in which the deceased statesman was held. The attendants included prominent citizens, members of Congress, Senators, etc., from every part of the state. Among the floral tributes was a magnificent trophy from the Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of the world, of which Hon. Mr. Shaw was, for a term, Supreme Chancellor.

What the People are Saying.

The Government cannot interfere to insist on Mr. Grundy's restoration.—Sir Oliver Mowat.

We are bringing on the sewer work as rapidly as possible. Tenders will be asked for very shortly.—H. Best.

I will have the stone work of the Hunter street bridge placed in a few days.—James Bogue.

It was a move in the right direction having the Horticultural Exhibition when the flowers are in full bloom.—Dr. Burnham.

We do not known when the annexation of Peterborough and Ashburnham will take place.—Ashburnham people.

We will take our sister village, Ashburnham, into our arms when we get—time.—Mayor Kendry.

Who can we get to accept the nomination for the House of Commons that will make a good run.—The Conservatives.

I am not out of the way just yet. I have not received notice of my appointment to the Senate.—J. Stevenson.

We will talk over the political situation this evening.—The Liberals.

We expect we will have a great Fall Exhibition if the weather proves favourable.—W. J. Green.

Our school is the best since my principalship.—Principal Fessenden.

The attendance at the Public Schools is very large.—Inspector Garvin.

Increased accommodation will shortly be required if the attendance at the Public Schools becomes much larger.—Peter Hamilton, chairman Property Committee.

We have a petition to present to the town council, containing a thousand signatures, asking for a repeal of the license by-law.—Those that were disappointed.

We are opposed to any increase in the number of licensed places.—The temperance people.

We are advertising for tenders for a new steel bridge, at Wallace Point.—J. E. Belcher.

What are we going to do all winter?—The unemployed.

I am enjoying a few days holidays.—F. R. Yokome.

BROOKS' IMPROVED HOT WATER HEATER.

An Invention Which is Simplicity in Itself.

Last evening an EXAMINER representative was shown an improved hot water heater at the residence of Mr. M. Riley, Stewart street. Hot water heating of houses has become the most popular style of producing heat. Heretofore the reason why it was not more generally used was on account of the expense connected with it.

The Brooks Improved Hot Water heater is an improvement in this direction. It may simply be described as one box stove with an oval top cast inside another stove of the same shape, with an inch and a quarter water space between them, and the top crown is made in the same way, with the same water space as in the furnace. The water is all around the fire, which is easily heated and kept hot with a low fire. To this is added the pipe or pipes through the centre of the fire, which makes it a little giant for heating. By means of this construction the best circulation with the least possible friction is attained. In connection with this it might be mentioned that to show its great heating power the single two inch pipe which passes through the centre of the furnace is of itself capable of heating many hundred feet of inch pipe. The makers claim that with the perfect combustion of fuel around this pipe and the sides and ends of the furnace, with even the lowest fire, that the heating power cannot be equalled by any other heater with the same quantity of fuel.

The heater is constructed out of the best quality of cast iron and is put through a thorough test before leaving the works. Besides, it has a large amount of direct fire surface and when the pipe, which passes through the hottest part of the fire, is added, a heating surface is obtained that cannot be equalled.

The heater takes up very little room. An abestos or iron lining is furnished for covering, but brick is recommended. It can be taken through any door or passage into any cellar and stands so low when set up that the flow pipes will rise high enough above the heater in the lowest cellar to give the water a good upward start on its way to the rooms.

The smaller sized heaters are capable of heating the ordinary tenement houses, and landlords have a long felt want supplied by a better heater, burning less fuel and at a cost that will pay them to put them in. There are at present from fifteen to twenty residences in town supplied with these heaters, and the houses have rented readily. It is the best heater, the makers say, in the market to-day, both as to cost and consumption of fuel. They make this statement and are prepared to make a trial at any time, at any place, with any and all kinds of fuel. This heater is manufactured by Messrs. Rudkins & Riley, Peterborough. It has been patented both in Canada and the United States, and as soon as the advantages and capabilities of this improved heater are known, the firm expects to be kept hustling to meet the demand.

In connection with this it may be stated that the firm have secured the agency for the Stafford Radiator, which is stated to be the best of its kind in the market. This radiator, as well as one of the heaters, will be on exhibition at Murty's tin-shop, Hunter street, next week.

A Showy Plant.

Mr. Alf. Haskill has placed in the show window of his barber shop a fine specimen of the banana plant which is quite an attraction. The plant occupies the entire central portion of the window and stands over five feet high. The leaves measure fully four feet from the stem and are 18 inches in width. The stem is fully thirty inches in circumference. Alf's idea of investing in this prodigous specimen is not quite understood, but the boys think he is going into the banana business and wants to "corner" the market by growing his own fruit on the premises.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

MR. GRUNDY'S CASE.

The Peterborough Registrar and His Deputy.

SIR OLIVER MOWAT'S REPORT

NO GROUND FOR GRUNDY'S RESTORATION.

His Dismissal Clearly on Account of His Letter to the Empire, Not of His Evidence.

Sir Oliver Mowat, acting in his official capacity as Attorney-General, has prepared and submitted to the Executive Council of Ontario, a report on the inquiry into the case of Mr. Grundy, the former Deputy Registrar of Peterborough, who, it will be remembered, was dismissed by Mr. Morrow, Registrar, during the recent session of the Legislature. The Opposition claimed that he was dismissed because of the evidence he had given before the Public Accounts Committee, and in spite of a promise made by the Chairman of the Committee, Mr. N. Awrey, that the Government would not permit Grundy to suffer on account of any evidence he might give before the committee in that connection. Sir Oliver Mowat promised that an investigation should take place. Mr. Fleming, Inspector of Legal Offices, was appointed a commissioner to take the evidence and report upon the case, which evidence was taken at the Court House, in Peterborough, and forwarded to the Government, and the following is the official finding of the Attorney-General on the report and evidence put in by Mr. Fleming:—

The undersigned has read the report of the Commissioner and the evidence taken before him. The reason given by the Registrar to his deputy, Mr. Grundy, for the latter's dismissal, was a letter which Grundy wrote to the Toronto Empire from Peterborough some days after his evidence had been given before the Public Accounts Committee at Toronto. I see no reason enabling me to ascribe the dismissal to a different cause or to assume that the dismissal would have taken place though the letter had not been written. The letter seems to have had for its primary object to explain away a statutory declaration and letter by Mr. Grundy after his return to Peterborough, and in which he stated some matters differently from his statement of them in his evidence. But, at the same time, Mr. Grundy, in his letter to The Empire, chose to charge the Registrar with a grave crime, which Grundy had not stated in his evidence and which the Registrar's witnesses before the Commissioner disproved, and the Commissioner so found. The case, therefore, is of an employee of a public officer choosing for his own purposes in a letter to a public journal to make a false charge of a very serious kind against his employer. In law, an employee so acting would not be entitled to complain of being dismissed for it by his employer, even although his time of employment had not expired, and I cannot say that the Government would in the present case be warranted in insisting on Grundy's being restored, after being so dismissed.

THE COMMISSIONER'S ACCOUNT.

The following is the Commissioner's account of the matter. Speaking first of Grundy's evidence before him, the Commissioner observes:—"He says, when he was dismissed, that Mr Morrow told him it was because of the letter he had written to the Empire newspaper. A copy of this letter is set out in the notes of the evidence taken on this investigation. In that letter he sets out, amongst other things, a charge against his employer, the Registrar, of a criminal offence—"that the Registrar received an instrument from a favoured firm, and gave it a precedence and priority as to date of registration that it should not have, that is, he entered it as registered on a date and at a time prior to its actual receipt in the office, and out of its proper order, as concerns other instruments." If this charge were true, the Registrar would be an unfit person to hold the office. This charge is the same as that numbered 7, inquired into in this investigation, and hereinbefore reported. It rested only in Mr. Grundy's suspicion, and is most clearly proved to be untrue, and its publication was followed by, and was the cause of, his dismissal, as he was informed by Mr. Morrow when his services were dispensed with."

There are other observations and expressions in the letter which are not such that a man could claim to be justified in voluntarily employing towards his principal while he remained in his service.

MR. GRUNDY'S BOOK.

It appears also from the evidence that some months ago, suspecting or fancying that the Registrar had some thought of dismissing him, by way of providing a situation for the Registrar's son, Mr. Grundy had begun keeping in a private book a memorandum of any irregularities, or supposed irregularities, in the office, which came to his knowledge. Any master or principle would deem this intolerable in a person in his employment. But the keeping of this book does not appear to have been know to the Registrar until the fact came out in Mr. Grundy's own evidence before the Commissioner, and it had no part in his dismissal. With respect to this book, the facts as found by the Commissioner are as follows:—"As to the cause of the dismissal of the said Henry Grundy from his office of Deputy Registrar of the County of Peterborough, Mr. Grundy swears that as early as the beginning of the present year he began to take notes in a memorandum book of irregularities in the office, because he was told he was going to be dismissed from the Registry Office, that Mr. Morrow was going to dispense with his services. This was not told to him by Mr. Morrow; but he says he noticed a difference in Mr. Morrow's treatment of him; that Mr. Morrow had a son there, and he seemed to be fitting his son for the position; he wanted his son there; his son was being put forward quite conspicuously, in a way he, Mr. Grundy, thought, of getting into the work of the office, and he thought the Registrar wanted his son rather than him; and, further, that he saw Mr. Morrow very often when he came into the office in the morning looking at him in a funny way, in a manner, he thought, that was rather severe, and that he did not understand, and he says that he drew inferences and began to take notes. He was, therefore, at this time anticipating his dismissal, and taking steps to get even when his dismissal came. There is no other conclusion to be drawn from his conduct in noting in his book all the irregularities which he believed he saw in the conduct of the office."

THE IRREGULARITIES.

As to the irregularities, it does not appear that anyone has been damnified by any of them, or is likely to be, or has complained about any of the irregularities as injurious to him in any way. Further, it appears that, notwithstanding all Mr. Grundy has said about them, they were not of such a character as to prevent him from speaking of the Registry office as being "allowed, not only by the legal gentlemen, who signed Mr. Stratton's letter, and by those who did not, as by others throughout the Province, to be one of the best offices in the Province, and for which satisfactory state of affairs I ascribe to the late Registrar, Col. Haultain, and to myself, as much as to the present Registrar, the credit thereof." He also, in the same letter to the Empire, spoke of the Registrar as having a "kind heart," and of his having "always been on the best of terms with him. The document, which was signed by the legal gentlemen, and referred to so approvingly by Mr. Grundy, appears to have been the following, which appeared in the public journals of the Province about the date thereof:—

Peterborough, April 23, 1894.

N. Awrey, Esq., Chairman Public Accounts Committee, Toronto:

"We, the undersigned members of the legal profession in Peterborough, are amazed at the evidence of Mr. Grundy anent the Peterborough Registry Office. This office is admirably conducted—with scrupulous care and exactness, and we constantly congratulate ourselves on having one of the best conducted Registry offices in the Province. (Signed), D. W. Dumble, E. B. Stone, A. Stevenson, W. F. Johnston, Hutton & Wood, John Burnham, A. P. Poussette, Stratton & Hall, Hall & Hayes, W. H. Murray, Denniston & Stevenson.

"His Honour Judge Weller, not being a practising member of the profession, could not sign the above testimonial, but very heartily concurred over his signature, in his expressions as to Mr. Morrow's efficient management of the Registry office."

Peterborough, 23rd April, 1894.

J. R. Stratton, Esq.:

"DEAR SIR,—I have a great deal of business with our Registry office and have always found the Registrar, Mr. Morrow, very civil, obliging and courteous, and the office well conducted."

(Signed) W. H. MOORE.

MR. STEVENSON'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. James Stevenson, the Conservative M. P. for West Peterborough, when asked by a newspaper reporter on or about the 19th of May what his constituents thought of the case of Mr. Grundy, the dismissed Deputy-Registrar of Peterborough, is reported to have said as follows:—

"Nobody in Peterborough thinks Mr. Grundy has any grievance. The people there are satisfied that the registry office is well conducted and they would have justified the Registrar had he dismissed Mr. Grundy sooner than he did. Neither the Government nor the public know anybody in connection with the registry office except the Registrar. Mr. Grundy was not dismissed because of the evidence he gave in Toronto, but because of a letter he sent to the papers after his return to Peterborough. He belongs to a class that I cannot well describe. I see that in his appeal for sympathy he says he has seven children. As a matter of fact he has eight. How he came to forget about the eighth one I do not know. His memory must be defective; and if he can make mistakes in regard to the number of children he has, no doubt he can err about proceedings in the registry office. At all events Peterborough people take no stock in Mr. Grundy or his grievances and they have no fault to find with the Registrar."

Mr. John Burnham, the Conservative member for East Peterborough, is one of the legal gentlemen who signed the letter already mentioned, in which he and other legal gentlemen expressed their amazement at Mr. Grundy's evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, and certify that the Peterborough Registry Office is admirably conducted—with scrupulous care and exactness—and that it is in fact one of the best conducted offices in the Province.

NO REASON FOR INTERFERENCE.

On the whole, therefore, as Mr. Grundy was not dismissed for the evidence (true or untrue) which he gave before the Public Accounts Committee, but was dismissed for publishing a letter afterwards in which he voluntarily charged the Registrar with a grave offence that was not charged in his evidence before the Public Accounts Committee, and was not sustained by the evidence before the Commissioner, the undersigned is of the opinion that the case is not one in which the Government can interfere to insist on Mr. Grundy's restoration to the office from which he has been dismissed by the Registrar who was his employer.

BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE!

New Goods for Fall Making Their First Speech!

The first calendar month of Autumn, 1894, will bring us up to the greatest business we have ever known. Measure it by bulk, weight, dollars or transactions, we get the same great result—BIGGER THAN EVER BEFORE.

The cause should be remembered—for it contains a splendid argument for further gains. It is simply that we command the markets in the various lines of goods we sell. THEREFORE, IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPETITORS TO MEET EITHER THE GOODS OR PRICES.

COMPETITION CANNOT STAND AGAINST OUR PRICES. We don't like to be over-boastful about it, but we're well within the mark when we say that we sell TEN suits to other stores' one.

What makes Gough Bros. so distinctly Gough Bros., is the SPIRIT that actuates their business—all the time striving to serve our customers better and better—shortening the road from producer to consumer, and saving to buyers every penny of cost.

We maintain our well earned title of "THE WONDERFUL CHEAP MEN"—not because cheapness is synonymous with trash, for our fixed aim has been and will continue to be, to sell a $20 suit for $15. That suit you paid $17.50 for we can duplicate for $12.50. We can and do dictate prices at which we buy. You may think our prices are sometimes too low—too low for good clothing—but if special prices or unusual discounts are given us, we take them off to you to make larger sales. And whoever sells the largest quantities, per consequence buys the largest lots, gets the largest discounts, and can afford to make the lowest prices.

"ALWAYS GOOD AT GOUGHS," has long been our typical expression for genuineness.

FIRST INSTALMENT OF FALL GOODS

54 Cases—14 Huge Cases of Clothing, 40 Cases of Boots and Shoes.

Don't come here looking for Summer Clothing—for we haven't any—and we are mighty glad of it. We'd be willing to bet that there isn't another Clothing house in the country that is so completely cleared of summer stocks. Everything is brand new—fresh and clean—the handsomest and best tailored Ready-to-Wear Clothing ever shown in Peterborough—Fall and Winter weights, every one. Our new stock of Clothing consists of High-Grade Garments for Men, Youths, Boys and Children, assorted from the latest products of the best manufacturers in Canada and Great Britain, and have been selected for the best trade Peterborough affords,

TO CELEBRATE THE OPENING OF THE SCHOOLS.—We have placed on our tables 500 Youths' and Children's Suits, neat, nobby and durable—warm for Fall wear and not too hot for balance of the Summer. All purchased at a heavy discount. Parents, this is the best chance you will have of securing good, serviceable School Suits for your Boys at figures that will discount manufacturers prices. Bring along the Boys. It costs but little to clothe them at Gough's.

SCHOOL BOOTS AND SHOES.—Are you spending more money than you ought to for Boots and Shoes? It is a large item in the family. No mistake is made if you come to Gough's for your Shoes. You pay us no intermediate profit—we make the profit by buying big stocks at a big discount.

Anarchist Firebugs Indicted.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The grand jury has indicted William Scharf, Carl Herletz, Josephine Herletz, Gustave E. Nelson, Sophia Nelson, Bernard Naumann and William Wagner, Anarchist firebugs. The gang used an ingenious bomb, made in Germany, to start the blaze, which would allow the occupants to be miles away when the fire broke out. It is claimed the gang defrauded insurance companies out of $100,000. Wagner is said to be wanted in New York on a charge of murder.

The Democratic Party in Danger.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.—The Sugar Planters Convention in this city was the most remarkable gathering in many years, and the first serious break in the Democratic party in twenty years is now actually threatened. The convention declared in favor of an alliance with the Republican party on national issues and two, and possibly three, congressional districts comprising the sugar region are endangered to the democrats. There were 300 representative men present.

The Insurrection in Peru.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A despatch from Lima says the Peruvian government has not yet been able to compel decisive action with the insurgents, who refuse to fight, and retreat whenever they are approached by the government forces. The government, the despatch says, has no difficulty in raising money to pay the troops, but the Lima police have received no salary for two months, in consequence of which there is much discontent.

Papal Delegate in the U. S.

ROME, Sept. 7.—The Pope is preparing an encyclical letter, addressed to the bishops and people of the United States. The letter will announce the absolute supremacy of the apostolic delegate in church affairs in the United States, with the simple right of appeal to the Pope. The apostolic delegation will take place of the propaganda fide in directing religious affairs in the United States. The encyclical will not deal with scholastic questions.

Changes in French Diplomatic Service.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The Soir says that many changes in the French diplomatic service are impending. M. de Crais, it is informed, will be recalled from London and M. Herbette from Berlin. Ex-Minister Spuller will succeed De Crais in London.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Sept. 7, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—The local grain market was brisker. Some 500 bushels of wheat brought 54c for white, 53c for red and 52c for goose. Barley, 100 bushels at 42c; oats 800 bushels at 31c to 32c. Outside grain is nominally unchanged in price.

After a dull market in Chicago wheat advanced rapidly toward the close on light receipts, closing ¾ to 1c higher. The tenor of the crop reports was favorable to an advance in corn and the May option closed 1 3-8c higher. Oats were firm and showed a net gain for the day of 1-4 to 1-2c.

The shipments of barley at Buffalo were 50,074 bushels to Western Troy and 9,450 to Cayuga, N.Y. So far the local transactions have been small and quotations are not settled. Local houses report that holders are firm at 55c to 60c for choice western, and 60c to 65c for good Canada.

At East Buffalo the sheep and lambs market closed weak. Three cars of Canada lambs averaging 75 pounds sold at $4.25. Average quotations—Fair to best Canada, $3.75 to $4.50; offerings, 2,200 head.

Prices of stocks at New York were sold down fractionally by speculators in the afternoon, chiefly because no further buying tendency seemed to be developed. This was clearly enough the case with sugar certificates, which dropped two points in the first ten minutes of business, while the rest of the market was quite motionless.

Profit taking continues in London, and the public for the moment have returned to the investment markets. Still prices hold their ground wonderfully and recover from each relapse. The bank of England's return was featureless.

At East Liberty, Pa., the sheep supply was light. Extra, $3 to $3.25; fair, $1.50 to $1.80; yearlings, $1.50 to $3 20; lambs, $3.75.

At St. Louis sheep receipts were 1,400; southwestern mixed, $3; native, $2.50 to $2.60; lambs, $3 25 to $4.50.

OTTAWA NOTES.

The Railway Mail Clerks' Grievance—Judicial Appointments.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—The Ottawa division of the railway clerks' association will hold a banquet in the Russell house on Tuesday evening next. The banquet will be in honor of the delegates to the sixth annual convention of railway mail clerks. This association was formed by the railway mail clerks about seven years ago and has for its object the mutual benefit of the clerks. Just now they are starting an agitation to better their condition by being placed on an equal footing with other clerks in the various departments of the service. They claim that they are in more important positions than their fellows in the inside service but they do not get the same consideration.

It is said that the Catholics of Eastern Ontario who feel that they have been overlooked in the appointment of Supreme Court judges are bringing influence to bear upon Sir John Thompson in the matter of the appointment of a judge to the Common Pleas Division, which may be left vacant by the promotion of one of the junior judges to the position lately occupied by Sir Thomas Galt. They also point out that Mr. Justice McMahon is the only Catholic judge now sitting at Osgoode Hall. Senator Scott, Q.C., and Mr. O'Gara, Q.C., of Ottawa, are mentioned by them as eligible to the aforementioned vacancy.

T. D. Tims, who was for many years financial inspector of the Financial Department, who was superannuated a few years ago, dropped dead on the verandah of his house at Kingsmere.

Moors Routed by Tribesmen.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Advices from Fez Morocco say that a body of Moorish troops under command of the Sheref of Lamerani, while en route to Marakesch for the purpose of punishing some rebellious tribes, were met at Tadla by a strong band of tribesmen and completely routed.

Middletown Bank Fails.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 7.—The Middletown National Bank of Middletown, of which Charles W. Raymond is president, closed its doors yesterday. The failure has been anticipated and will not cause much distress.

A British Man-of-War Aground.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Sept. 7.—The British warship Ringarooma has gone ashore on the Island of Mallicollo in the New Hebrides group. Assistance has been sent to her. No details can be obtained. The Ringarooma is an eight gun 2,575 ton cruiser, of 7,500 horse power. She is detailed for service in Australian waters.

Forest Fires in New Brunswick.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 7.—Extensive forest fires are raging all round the neighborhood. Several houses have been burned within a few miles of the city. The city is full of smoke, and unless something is done immediately to stay the progress of these fires the destruction of property will be very great.

Murderer Altenberger Hanged.

JERSEY CITY, N.J., Sept. 7.—Altenberger was hanged yesterday morning. The crime for which Altenberger suffered the death penalty was the murder of a girl named Katie Rupp. The murder was particularly brutal and unprovoked.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. MRS. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

His Dyspepsia Cured.

MR. GEO. READ.

DEAR SIRS,—I write you to say that for some time I had been suffering from acute indigestion or dyspepsia, and of course felt very great inconvenience from same in my general business. I thereupon decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles I found I was quite another man, for

B. B. B. CURED ME.

I have also used it for my wife and family, and have found it the best thing they can take, and from past experience I have every pleasure in strongly recommending B. B. B. to all my friends.

I write you because I think that it should be generally known what B.B.B. can accomplish in cases of indigestion.

A THOROUGH-GOING SERMON ON THE SUBJECT BY A WOMAN.

Kate Field as a Teacher—She Says It is Part of the Christian Religion—Why Farmers Should Favor and Work for Better Highways.

Everybody has a panacea nowadays for curing our national ills. In the general madness perhaps I may be permitted to suggest that the most evident duty is the duty that lies next us, and that on the fulfilment of the duty of the majority depends the welfare of all.

It is a self evident proposition that the salvation of this nation depends upon the intelligence and integrity of the masses. All crime, all bad legislation are due to ignorance, the one unknown quantity which it is impossible to overcome. Admitting the power of the masses to make or mar, the question arises which class constitutes the bulk of our population. It is easily answered: Farmers. To them, then, we must look for the preservation of republic institutions. As they prosper so will the state. It is, therefore, of profound interest to the nation that farmers stand at the top instead of the bottom of the social and financial ladders.

As ye sow so shall ye reap. By ignoring the farmer, by leaving him in his ignorance, the churches of this country have a deal to answer for. Their missionary work lies here, not in Japan and Africa. The beam needs to be cast out of our own eye before we seek the mote in our brother's. Christianity begins at home and Christianity begins with good roads.

"But farmers oppose them. They fear greater taxation. Moreover, rich men holding unimproved property for speculative purposes also oppose them," say many.

What of it? Is not this proof positive of the need of home missionaries? Nothing has given me greater satisfaction than the congress of good roads at Chicago during the world's fair and the more recent good roads convention at Asbury Park, N.J., the state that proves its faith by its works and shows the value of good highways by the increase of valuations and of population.

The good roads congress of a year ago was an evidence of practical Christianity that should have been the crowning glory of the world's parliaments in point of attendance and enthusiasm. That it was not establishes the fact of urban as well as suburban ignorance and makes the need of an earnest propaganda all the more apparent.

Among various interesting papers read at this congress, that of Professor Lewis M. Haupt, consulting engineer, of Philadelphia, furnished unlimited food for rumination. Professor Haupt's paper should be published as a tract and sent to every farmer in the United States. It would do more as an opening wedge to a change of opinion than anything I know of on this vital subjects of roads.

Seeing is believing. What makes economy in transportation? Reduced resistances to locomotion. Why is water transportation cheaper than that of the rail? Because of reduced resistance. Thirty millions of improvements on the great lakes has saved in the cost of transportation, as compared with rail, $150,000,000 in one year! How does the greater part of tonnage reach rail and water? By earth roads. What is the comparative cost of this earth movement? Twenty-two times greater than by rail and 266 times greater than by water. What further argument is needed to convince enlightened minds of the duty that lies next them?

Bad roads can be made good at comparatively small expense. How to raise the money is the next question. Albert A. Pope, of Boston, suggested at this congress that every state should establish a graduated succession tax of 1 per cent on all estates valued from $10,000 to $100,000, 2 per cent on estates valued from $200,000 to $500,000, and so on, gradually increasing the tax as the inheritance increased. Thus taxation could never fall on the poor, and when good roads were once established they could be maintained at very little cost.

Another speaker at the congress advocated appropriating a part of saloon licenses to improving roads. The detail of taxation must be left to the states. When it is realized that Illinois alone loses millions yearly on account of bad roads, their appalling extravagance becomes evident to all but human bats.

Look at certain counties on Long Island, New York, that have redeemed themselves while less intelligent communities rebel at any improvement that necessitates additional taxation. Towns that never before knew each other are now perennial visitors; farms of little value are making small fortunes for their owners in garden truck hauled to New York markets over good roads, and urban business men seek permanent homes where they can enjoy country pleasures and fresh air within a short distance of the metropolis. The very farmers who were loudest in denunciation of good roads are now their most enthusiastic advocates for the good reason that they reap the greatest benefits.

There are many bats among farmers, not because nature has made them blind, but because bad roads have cut them off from intelligent intercourse. When they learn that the friction of bad roads wears out wagons, harness, horses, oxen and temper, and that the friction of humanity at the far end of a good road means joy and prosperity begotten of better farming, the republic will look to farms not only for occasional Abraham Lincolns, but for its unflinching and enlightened conservators.—Kate Field, in Chicago Herald.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the few remedies which are recommended by every school of medicine. Its strength, purity, and efficacy are too well established to admit of doubt as to its superiority over all other blood-purifiers whatever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla leads all.

ITCHING PILES AND PIN WORMS.

No More Misery.

ITCHING PILES is an exceedingly painful and annoying affliction, found alike in the rich and poor, male and female. The principal symptoms are a severe itching, which is worst at night when the sufferer becomes warm in bed. So terrible is the itching that frequently it is impossible to procure sleep. Often the sufferer unconsciously during sleep scratches the parts until they are sore—sleep and tender form, excessive moisture is exuded. Females are peculiarly affected from this disease, causing unbearable irritation and trouble. These and every other symptom of Itching Piles or irritation in any part of the body are immediately allayed and quickly cured by Chase's Ointment. It will instantly stop itching, heal the sores and ulcers, dry up the moisture.

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

Gives Instant Relief.

PIN WORMS is an ailment entirely different as to cause from Itching Piles, yet its effects and symptoms are exactly the same. The same intolerable itching; the same creeping, crawling, stinging sensation characterizes both diseases. Chase's Ointment acts like magic. It will at once afford relief from this torment.

FATE OF THE MIRANDA.

The Exploring Party Arrives at Halifax on an American Schooner.

HALIFAX, N.S., Sept. 6.—The American schooner Rigel, halibut fishing on the Greenland coast, arrived here yesterday with the Miranda exploring expedition; also the crew of the steamer, numbering 90 in all. The steamer struck a rock in Davis Straits and damaged her bow so much that they went into harbor. A small party then sailed north 150 miles in a small boat to where the fishing schooner Rigel was reported to be by Esquimaux. They arrived safely and the schooner hastened to the assistance of the expedition, and on the 21st of August the Miranda took the schooner in tow and for two days sailed homeward. The steamer being considered unsafe during a heavy gale which threatened, the crew and passengers were transferred to the Rigal on the 23rd, the steamer sinking shortly after. They endured much discomfort on the passage, but arrived apparently none the worse. Most of the party will return home by rail to-morrow. The expedition did not get within 800 miles of their destination.

The Pythians' Crusade Against Liquor.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—In the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias yesterday the committee on the state of the order, to which was referred the future eligibility for membership of those engaged in the liquor business, recommended that such persons hereafter be excluded from membership. A vote was taken on this question, and while not final, was in favor of adoption of the recommendation of the committee. The matter will come up for consideration in to-day's session, and it is said that it will be formally adopted.

Succession to the Crown of France.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—Several newspapers have been advised that the Count of Paris is still unconscious and is expected by his physicians to die within a few hours. The Temps says that Prince Francois Marie of Bourbon has prepared a manifesto to be issued after the Count of Paris' death, claiming for himself the heritage of the crown of France. This manifesto is now in the hands of Prince Valori, the Prince's representative in France. The Prince will take the title of Duke of Anjou.

Killed by the Wronged Husband.

HENRIETTA, Texas., Sept. 6.—J. W. Witt, secretary of the Thirteenth Congressional District convention, and superintendent of public schools at Decatur, was assassinated at the latter place by S. Simmons, a young business man of Sherman. It is alleged that undue intimacy existed between Witt and a sister of Simmons, and that Witt openly boasted of it. Simmons was arrested.

Carpenters Have a Bad Fall.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 6.—While working on a building belonging to D. H. Bedford on the Tecumseh road two carpenters named Andrew Lennie and Abraham McColl were severely injured by the falling of a scaffold. The men were precipitated about 20 feet. They were removed to their homes on Bruce avenue and an examination shows Lennie to have sustained severe internal injuries which may result fatally. McColl received some bad bruises and had a wrist broken.

Suicide of a Montreal Young Man.

MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—Arthur Lepailleur, a young man 20 years old, shot himself last night in a bar-room on Chaboilles square. Lepailleur entered the saloon in company with a companion and went to a small room, where drinks were ordered. His companion left him and shortly afterwards a shot was fired. Lepailleur was found in the room, shot through the temple. He was well connected in the city.

Hong Kong Free of the Plague.

HONG KONG, Sept. 6.—The Canadian Pacific railway's steamer Empress of India sailed from this port yesterday for Vancouver. The ship has a clean bill of health, the authorities having declared the city free from the plague which for some time prevailed here.

C.M.B.A. in Session at St. John.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Sept. 6.—At the C. M. B. A. grand session yesterday Archbishop O'Brien and Bishop Sweeney paid the convention a visit. They made speeches endorsing the order and wishing all success to it. The entire afternoon was taken up in discussing amendments to the constitution and by-laws and when adjournment for tea was made, not quite one-half of the printed amendments had been considered.

Canada's Grape Crop Immense.

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 5.—The Canadian grape season can now be said to be open. The late rains have cleaned the crop up and Sandwich growers will soon begin their harvest. The crop this year is immense.

The Cooking of Fish.

Underdone fish is unwholesome, while overdone is tough and woolly in texture. It is impossible to give any exact time for cooking, since it will vary with the shape and texture of the fish and the method of applying heat.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25 cents.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST

About Pianos!

It Is An Actual Fact

That J. W. CROSBY sells Better Pianos for Less Money than any traveller or outside agent.

1st. Because he has no big salaries or commissions to pay to agents.

2nd. Because his expenses, rent, taxes, etc. in Peterborough, are more than one-half less than travellers and representatives living in the cities.

3rd. Because having the control of the best instruments of all the best Piano makers in the country, competition between the different makers gives him the advantage over the representatives of any one single Piano firm.

J. W. Crosby has sold about 300 Pianos in and near Peterborough. He sells the Williams, Morris, Rheinhart, Uxbridge and Gerhard Heintzman Pianos, and can undersell for quality of goods, price and terms, any and all outsiders. Try him.

Pianos from $200 to $400. He can save you $50 over outsiders or won't ask you to buy.

A New Grocer

COME TO TOWN.

I take pleasure in announcing that I have purchased the Grocery and Provision Business, lately carried on by Mr. W. J. HALL, in the well-known and long established premises at

No. 355 George St., Burnham's Block.

The present stock, which has been well bought, and is in first-class condition, will be replenished with a more complete assortment of FAMILY GROCERIES, PROVISIONS and everything in the culinary line.

Also PRIME SUGAR CURED HAM. BACON, PORK, FLOUR, EGGS, BUTTER, &c. In every case the best goods will be bought, then we know what we are selling. If there are two qualities we will always get the better one.

My business will be conducted on the CASH principle—buying for cash and selling for cash—which is the only way to get and to give the best values and lowest prices. My motto will be "Small Profits for Cash."

All I ask is a call from my old friends in the country, as well as my new friends in town, and as many more as may favour me with their custom. I mean business. I am here to stay. I mean to grow.

PRESENTED WITH AN ADDRESS.

Mr. Geo. J. Early, of City Lodge, I.O.G.T., Presented With an Address on the Eve of His Departure From Town.

Last evening at the close of the business of City Lodge, No. 404, I.O.G.T., a very interesting event took place. Mr. George J. Early, who for the past fifteen years has been a prominent and highly respected citizen of the town, has disposed of his photograph studio to Mr. J. Byers, of Lockport, N.Y., who will conduct the business in the future. Being a prominent temperance man and organizer of City Lodge about eighteen months ago, it was but fitting that the members should show their appreciation of his efforts in this behalf, and to recognize in some degree his sterling worth and integrity. After the business meeting had been concluded Mr. Geo. K. Munro stepped forward and read the following address :

Geo. J. Early, G. M., P. D. G. C. T.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER :—It is with no small feeling of regret that we learn of your intended departure from Peterborough, and that the friendly fraternal relations heretofore existing between you and ourselves, as members of City Lodge, No. 404, Independent Order of Good Templars, are about to be severed, and that we must erase from our books the name of one, who, for his sterling worth and integrity, is universally respected and loved by us all. We desire, on this occasion, to express to you in this very slight degree, the high esteem in which you are held by the members of this Lodge, and the gratitude we feel towards one who has done as much for our Lodge, for the noble and beloved Order of which we form a part, and for the great cause in which we are engaged, as has been done by you.

It was a zeal born of the true love of God, and for your fellow-man, that prompted you some eighteen months ago to concentrate your energies on the organization of this Lodge. And that same zeal, together with the self-sacrificing spirit for which you are noted, has marked all your relations to the Lodge since its organization. And now, when the dullness of the summer months has passed, and a bright and successful future for our Lodge is dawning, we repeat that it is indeed with tender feelings of regret that we, on this occasion, meet as a lodge, to bid you adieu.

We trust that in severing your connection with us, and with our town, you have been guided by the Divine Hand which cannot err, and our earnest and united prayer is, that whatever vista of life you may enter, and in whatever portion of the temperance work you may be engaged, you may in the future, as in the past, in all things and at all times, look to our Great Right Worthy Grand Templar for guidance, and at the feet of the Son of God continue to teach the lesson you have so well learned, of Faith, Hope and Charity.

Signed on behalf of the order,

GEO. K. MUNRO, Secretary. J. P. SIMPSON, C. T.

Mr. Early made a very feeling reply to the address, referring to the pleasant evenings spent with City Lodge, and reminding them that in this new field of labour he would always remember the Good Templars of Peterborough, and hoped that the lodge would have a bright and successful future.

Mr. Early's departure from town will be regretted by all classes of citizens, as he was a prominent worker in all movements relating to the advancement and improvement of the town. He has not yet decided as to what part of the province he will reside in.

DESCRIPTION OF CHRIST.

The following beautiful description of our Saviour is said to have been found in a manuscript written by Lucius Lentulus, President of Judea, to the Roman Senate, and is well worthy of preservation by those who are His followers at the present time :

"There is at present a man in Judea of a singular character, whose name is Jesus Christ. The Barbarians esteem him as a prophet, but his followers adore him as the immediate offspring of the immortal God. He is endowed with such unparelleled virtue as to call back the dead from the grave, and heal every kind of disease with a word or touch. His person is tall and elegantly shaped, his aspect mild and reserved. The hair flows in those beautiful shades which no united colours can match, falling into graceful curls below his ears, agreeably touching on his shoulders and parting on the crown of his head, like the headdress of the Nazarenes. His forehead is smooth and large ; his cheeks, without spot, are of a lovely red ; his mouth and nose are finished with exquisite symmetry ; his beard is thick and suitable to the colour of his hair, reaching a little below his chin and parting in the middle like a fork ; his eyes are large, bright and serene. He rebukes with mildness, and invites with the most persuasive language.

"His whole address, whether in words or deeds, being eloquent, grave, and strictly characteristic of an exalted being. No man has ever seen him laugh, but the whole world beheld him weep ; and so persuasive are his tears that one cannot refrain from joining in sympathy with him. He is moderate, temperate and wise ; and whatever the phenomenon may turn out in the end, he seems a being of excellent beauty and divine perfection — in every respect surpassing the children of men."

SHE IS STILL WELL.

Many People Thought that Mrs. Reany's Recovery was only Temporary — A Pleasant Disappointment — She is Better than Ever.

SHELBURNE, August 27.—When Mrs. Reany's letter appeared in a local paper here some time ago, giving a history of her long illness and final cure of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, many readers thought her improvement was only temporary. All such have been most successfully contradicted, as a letter recently received here from Mrs. Reany states that she has all along been gaining in general health, since her kidneys were restored to a sound state, and that for many years she has not enjoyed such good health and spirits. Mrs. Reany, therefore, still pins her faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills, and recommends them as strongly as ever to afflicted members of her sex.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE CO.

OF CANADA.

From the CANADIAN TRADE REVIEW.

"There is no invidiousness involved in the assertion that no other Canadian company in existence can point to such a record of rapid, substantial and uninterrupted progress and prosperity as that exhibited in the successive annual reports of the Sun Life. . . . Most assuredly are its directors, shareholders and policy holders to be congratulated upon the very flourishing condition of the Company, and especially upon the result of the business of a year which was marked by the prevalence of conditions—the influenza epidemic, for instance—which proved disastrous for so many life companies. And with no less certainty can it be said that the very great progress made by the institution has been mainly due to the able and energetic efforts, guided by the sagacity and prudence which pratical experience alone can bring, of the President and Managing-Director, who has been efficiently assisted by the Secretary. From the contemplation of so successful a past the management may reasonably draw most sanguine anticipations as to the prosperity of the future.

Fall and Winter
Mantles and Mantle Cloths
—AT—
TURNBULL'S

Fresh from the German Manufacturers. Our new stock has arrived and is now opened out. It contains all new and desirable cuts to date. New colourings, new trimmings, and also new prices, as we ourselves were surprised at the Mantle the manufacturer has given us to sell for $3.00, while for $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 they are just beauties, both in cloth and trimmings; for $9.00, $10.00, $11.00 you get the pick of the bulk of the stock. Also we are showing a line of Fur Lined Capes at $16.00 and $20.00 which have to be seen and tried on to be appreciated. We have not forgotten the children as we are showing a nice range of Ulsters in all sizes and shades. Our Mantle Cloths are now opened out and we believe we have never shown as pretty and cheap a range. MISS TULLY, who is head of this department, is well known and needs no introduction. She always gives a perfect fit. We have made preparations for a very large Mantle trade this season and are confident we will do it as we have the goods direct from the makers, and our long experience has taught us to know a good selling line when we see it. A cordial invitation is given to look through and inspect our stock whether you intend to buy that particular day or not. No trouble to show goods.

WILHELM'S SOLICITUDE

The Emperor of Germany Made a Fatherly Speech at Koenigsburg.

HIS CARE BUT FOR THE PEOPLE

He Makes a Plea for the Confidence of His Subjects—Radical Papers Disposed to Consider the Speech a Significant Sign of the Times.

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—Emperor William in his speech at Koenigsburg said that knowing the people were passing through hard times, his daily thought was how to help them. He asked their support. Instead of joining the professional opposition of politicians they should rather fully commune with him. He was always ready to lend them a willing hand. He had shown his solicitude and anxiety to assist the people of the provinces in his measures for the extension of railways, building dykes, improving the navigation of the Vistula and laying out state funds to assist the local authorities.

Coming to the budget he said that measure would give fresh proof of his paternal care. Let the people reserve their minds in quietude, hoping for better times. The statue of the first Emperor with sword uplifted was symbolical of law and order."

Concluding he said: "In the arduous struggle against the designs to destroy the constitution and the life of society, the Prussian nobility, like the ivy around the oak, clings around my home. May it be so with the whole of the German nobility, showing a bright example to the fractions of the populace who are wavering in their loyalty. Forward, under God, and dishonor to him who deserts his King."

The Post (Free Conservative) says of the Emperor's speech: "His declaration for religion, morality and order against forces of the revolution will find a loud echo throughout the land."

The National Zeitung (National Liberal) says: "He cannot sympathize with those who deny that anybody, whether nobleman or burgher, has the right to express his political opinions by parliamentary opposition."

The Radical journals comment as follows:

Vossische Zeitung: "The ivy rather lives on the tree than protects it. When the storms come the tree does not require any ivy to protect it if its roots have struck into sound ground. The speech does not reveal which party the Emperor regards as the professional opponents of his government."

Volks Zeitung: "The Agrarians will be unable to avoid response to the Emperor's appeal to close their ranks and support the government."

Borsen Zeitung: "It is a sign of the times that the Emperor attributes the duty of protecting the oak to the nobility alone. His Majesty's other faithful subjects would hail an appeal to them to fight for him against social democrats and anarchists."

Tageblatt: "It is quite characteristic of our present political situation that the Emperor should be forced repeatedly to bring his authority to bear on the opposition of the Prussian nobility. Evidently he desired to build for them a golden bridge on which they could return to the government's side and aid it in the struggle against revolutionary movement. We trust that the Emperor's references pointed to only spiritual combat, not to new repressive laws."

An English Comment.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Standard says in leader on Emperor William's speech: The Emperor's utterances are in harmony with the spirit of the time of universal suffrage. He is dissatisfied with the old executive methods and likes to be brought face to face with man."

Lumber Free Both Ways.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—The Treasury Department have received official information that Canada imposes no export duty and no discriminating stumpage dues on the articles mentioned in the free lumber schedule of the tariff act. Collectors of customs have been instructed to admit such articles free of duty when imported from Canada.

Fatal Collision on the Wabash.

STAUNTON, Ills., Sept. 8.—The Toledo passenger train on the Wabash railroad ran into some coal cars here last evening and completely wrecked the engine, mail and baggage train, killing two tramps who were stealing a ride and seriously scalding and maiming the engineer.

Reached a Good Age.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Sept. 8.—Peter Rourke, who claimed to be 113 years old, was found dead in bed yesterday at the county poor-house, where he had been an inmate twenty years.

Crusade Against Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 8.—Eighty-six Frankfort society ladies have signed a bitter denunciation of Col. Breckinridge, begging the people not to return him to congress.

CLOSE OF THE CONGRESS

Labor Men Will Discuss Business Next Year at London.

SUNDAY TRANSIT AND LABOR

The Congress Defines Its Attitude on the Sunday Car Question by a Resolution—They Will Ask for a Change in the Factory Act.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—The Trades and Labor Congress resumed its business yesterday. Delegate Darlington, Montreal, moved that the congress welcome a delegation from the Patrons of Industry, elected from their executive upon the same basis that district assemblies and trade councils are represented. The motion was carried by an overwhelming majority. The vote stood 31 for and 5 against.

A resolution was passed asking the Dominion Government to give letter carriers to all towns and cities in the Dominion of over 5,000 inhabitants.

Delegates Choquette, Armstrong, Draper, Little and Dubreuil were appointed a committee to wait on the premier to press upon him the necessity of passing an eight hour bill.

When congress adjourned at noon a lively discussion was going on on a resolution of Delegate Page, asking the legislatures to pass a law authorizing the running of street cars on Sunday. An amendment was moved to this by Delegate Macdonald asking the legislature to pass an act preventing more employment of labor on Sunday than was absolutely necessary.

In the afternoon sitting the discussion on the street car question was continued, and finally an amendment by Delegate Armstrong was carried. This was to the effect that when voters petition the council of a municipality it should submit the matter to a vote, and if favorable to Sunday cars that the legislature be petitioned in favor of it.

The following resolution was made: "That it is inexpedient and unadvisable that any body or organization be accorded the right of representation on the Trades and Labor congress not clearly and officially pronounced and in favor of a minimum of wages, the shortening of the hours of labor in all branches of industry and in opposition to the expenditure of public money in the aiding, encouraging or bonusing of emigration from abroad to the Dominion of Canada."

The next resolution, which was carried, was an instruction to the executive to petition the Legislatures to amend the Municipal Act so that the entire electorate could vote on money by-laws. The executive were also instructed to press upon the governments the adoption of a system akin to the cumulative or Hare-Spence system of voting in public elections.

A resolution was also adopted recommending a change in the Ontario statute to the effect that the assessment of garden or nursery property in cities, towns or villages, whether incorporated or not, be placed at a figure corresponding with what the property would freely sell.

The Ontario Government will be asked to amend the Factory Act by increasing the minimum age of boys to 14 years.

The following officers were then elected: President, P. J. Tobin, Quebec; Vice-President, A. R. McDonald, Ottawa; Secretary-Treasurer, G. W. Dower, Toronto; Ontario executive, E. A. Connell, John Armstrong and D. Carey; Quebec, N. Page, Wm. Darlington and H. Langevin. London was voted for as the next place of meeting.

After passing some formal resolutions the Congress then adjourned to meet at London next year.

Barn Destroyed by Lightning.

BLENHEIM, Ont., Sept. 8.—During a heavy electric and rain storm which passed over this town and vicinity yesterday, damage was done in several places. Two miles from here the barns of Joseph Wetherall were struck by lightning, setting fire to and destroying them entirely, together with the whole season's crop which had been threshed but a few days ago. The electric fluid entered at one end of the barn which was used as a stable and in which four horses were standing, two of them being struck and killed instantly. A son of Mr. Wetherall's and two other men were also in the barn at the time waiting for the rain to cease. All three escaped with a slight shock. The barns were fully insured.

Steamboat Company Fined.

HAMILTON, Sept. 8.—In the police court yesterday the Hamilton Steamboat Company was fined $50 for running the steamer Mazeppa to Toronto with a load of passengers when that steamer's license was for running in the bay only. Inspector McIlwaine, of St. Catharines, was the prosecutor, and he has laid three charges against Matthew Brothers, of the steamer Acadia. One charge is for doing business on the lake when the certificate is for the bay only. Another one is for having a master who has no master's certificate, and the third is for exceeding the passenger limit allowed by law. The offences all occurred on August 16.

Killed by a Boiler Exploding.

THREE RIVERS, Que., Sept. 8.—J. A. Gagnon's saw mills, situated across St. Maurice river here, were wrecked yesterday by the boiler exploding. Both ends of the boiler were blown out, and the building in which it was situated was scattered for several hundred feet. The dead body of the fireman, Sam. Beamier, was found at a distance of 100 feet with the top of the skull blown off. Six men were badly injured.

Found in the Whirlpool.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 8.—The body noticed in the whirlpool on Thursday has been rescued by two men named Hicks and Whitly. It is that of a young man of about 15 years and was clothed in a pair of navy blue knee pants and evidently had been in the water about a week. The hair was off his head and face and his face and his head was bruised and bloated. The body is in charge of Undertaker Morse.

FAST STEAMSHIP LINE

Lord Brassey Takes a Hand in the Allan-Huddart Controversy.

HE ADVOCATES THE SUBSIDY

But the Report of the Earl of Jersey is Yet to Be Heard in This Connection—He Gives the Allans a Quiet Rub in Reply to Their Opposition.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Lord Brassey says in a long letter published in the Times today: "My friend, Mr. James Huddart, has asked me to assist him to put before the British the advantage of an accelerated service between England, Canada and Australia. He argues that even if Canada has a special interest in establishing a new trade and postal route across the vast Dominion, the British interests are hardly inferior in the development of the communications between the colonies. Moreover, while Canada will find a large proportion of the money, all the expenditures to construct ships will be incurred by the United Kingdom.

In assisting the scheme conditions might be inserted, requing the conveyance at low rates of troops to Hong Kong and of relief crews to the Australian, Pacific and China stations. It might be insisted that the plans of the new ships insure their fitness for service as scouts and auxiliary cruisers. The subsidy might be partly made by a reduction of the amounts now paid for mail services by other routes."

As regards the Allans' statement that the Gulf of St. Lawrence was difficult to navigate, Lord Brassey says:

"The Allan line has been free from disaster for many years. If the present proprietors had been men of the same enterprise and with the same inducements to face risks in business which animated the founder of the line, they would have put vessels on their line which would have been capable of earning the subsidy which has been granted to a rival.

"The Government ought not to push economy too far. High speed services can only be performed by subsidized steamers. Moreover, in the interests of imperial unity, when such a conference as the one at Ottawa ask for co-operation it would be unwise to refuse. The decision in the whole matter largely depends on the Earl of Jersey's report. If he recommends the subsidy no hesitation ought to be shown."

COMPLIMENT TO CANADA.

The Bank of British North America Pays a Tribute to This Country.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—At the general annual meeting of the Bank of British North America yesterday Mr. Richard Glyn, the chairman, said that the result of the last half year's business had been disappointing. It had been found impossible to lend money at paying rates, that lent having been very low. The rates quoted had seriously affected the profits. The balance sheets reflected the great depression which affected the entire North American continent. The earning power of the bank showed the same tale, but the institution's excellent position enabled the bank to take advantage of the business that was offered at paying rates.

A high compliment was paid to Canada concerning the way which her commercial concerns came through the depression. The banks were a credit to the Canadian banking system. Canada had an immense advantage in that she banked on her own capital, and had not, like other colonies, to borrow money in London on deposits which generally fell due at inconvenient times. Not only did Canada lead in banking, but in everything affecting the welfare of the colonies.

A Welsh Lord's Opinion.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Lord Swansea is in town, en route for Sudbury. He is one of the "Radsealfers" created by Mr. Gladstone and is chairman of one of the largest nickel mining companies in the world. He said: "It is intolerable that a body like the House of Lords should be able to trample on the popular will. Its reform is absolutely necessary. I would not advise the total abolition of the Chamber, however." He thinks Mr. Gladstone, though an old man, will lead the Liberal party once more, although his leadership is not essential to the success of the party. Lord Swansea is a strong home ruler.

MacWherrell Grows Nervous.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—MacWherrell, the murderer, who has been sick for more than a week at Brampton jail, is recovering and able to walk about his cell again. He appears to grow more nervous, still he has not given up hopes of having his sentence commuted. MacWherrell is anxious that renewed efforts be made to have the trial of Walker, which is down for the 17th of this month, traversed until the spring assizes, as he is of the opinion that in the event of such an adjournment he would at least be further respited and perhaps eventually be granted a commutation.

McCarthy's Political Prognostications.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—Dalton McCarthy is here on his return from the Maritime Provinces. He says there is no doubt that Peter Mitchell will carry Northumberland at the next election and that Hon. Mr. Foster will be defeated in Queen's. He expects a fight contest in St. John, now held by the Conservatives.

The Dutch in Lombok.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 8.—A despatch from Batavia says that Captain Lin[illegible]green and his command, who were surrounded by the Balinese, arrived at Amperna yesterday under the safe conduct of the Rajah of Lombok. The enemy have been driven from their position at Arven by the Dutch artillery. The Dutch forces are preparing to make an attack upon the natives.

Disaster to a Fishing Fleet.

HELSINGFORS, Sept. 8.—A storm broke suddenly last Saturday over eight fishing boats off the coast near this port. All the boats went down. Fifteen fishermen were drowned and eighteen swam to a barren rock. Seven survivors of the wrecks died of exposure. The others signalled a passing vessel and were rescued.

A WORD TO SPORTSMEN.

We are requested to publish the following letter which has just appeared in the "American Field" :—

I wish to address the tens of thousands of sportsmen and shooters throughout America and therefore ask that the following be made public through your columns :—

NOTICE.

To sportsmen in particular and to everybody in general who uses a gun, let me say a few words to you.

The time for hunting is near at hand, soon thousands and tens of thousands of men and boys all over this country will be out in fields, in woods, if not already out, in search of some living thing to shoot at ; to test their skill, to try the quality of their gun, in short to gratify an unrestrained desire to destroy something.

Stop ! think a moment ; what is the use in killing some harmless songbird that you find. What good is there in killing some beautiful, playful squirrel that you discover often not thirty feet away, which often by its actions manifests a desire to make your acquaintance, and to be on the most intimate terms with you? He is a thousand times more interesting alive than dead, and after you have killed him you are often at a loss to know what to do with him.

What benefit and satisfaction is there in killing the crane and other such birds which fly so slowly and grandly about the lakes and marshes, or in slaughtering mudhens because they seem so plentiful in the fall and spring?

Sportsmen, by word and example commence immediately to bring about a reform among those who handle the gun, and stop this wicked, wanton destruction of bird and animal life, which gives such a charm to our forests and fields wherever they are found.

M. R. BORTREE,
President Chicago Game, Bird and Fish Protective Association.

HUDSON BAY ROUTE.

The Hudson Bay Route continues to engage attention in Manitoba. The Free Press says that leading members of the Government are of opinion that the accomplishment of reaching the sea by this route is only a question of time. The commercial value of this way is still disputed, and many who were silent on the subject remain unconvinced of its utility. But it is not a question which should be left in doubt. If it is practicable, that is if navigation can be carried on for a sufficient length of time to make the route a mercantile one, no one will question the propriety of its being used. Observations taken for a succession of years by the Dominion Government, proved that Hudson Bay was open for navigation three months of the year, for the rest of the time the Straits being sealed up with ice and snow. Whether or not such a route can become a permanent highway for commerce, while the St. Lawrence can be kept open for double the length of time, is a problem. The first charge on the Government, however, is the deepening and enlargement of the canals to facilitate the movement of the produce of Western Canada, and attract more and more of the freight business of the Northwestern States, which the Canadian route must eventually control, by reason of shorter mileage, cooler temperature and proportionately quick despatch, and favourable shipping conditions.

A Bad Wreck

—of the constitution may follow in the track of a disordered system, due to impure blood or inactive liver. Don't run the risk ! The proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery take all the chances. They make a straightforward offer to return your money if their remedy fails to benefit or cure in all disorders and affections due to impure blood or inactive liver. The germs of disease circulate through the blood ; the liver is the filter which permits the germs to enter or not. The liver active, and the blood pure, and you escape disease.

When you're run down, debilitated, weak, and your weight below a healthy standard, you regain health, strength, and wholesome flesh, by using the "Discovery." It builds up the body faster than nauseating Cod liver oil or emulsions.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, piles, biliousness, indigestion, or dyspepsia, and headaches.

MURDER MADE EASY.

A State of Things in Buffalo Which Need Looking Into.

BUFFALO, Sept. 8.—An evening paper publishes a sensational article, alleging that in the Polish section and east side districts murder is made easy owing to the wholesale violations of law by physicians of those sections. The paper recites several cases in point and makes four distinct charges as follows:

"1. That death certificates are given without the alleged attending physician ever seeing the patient for which the certificate is given.

"2. That innumerable quacks practise, and at the last, as the patient is about to die from neglect, a physician is called in and for a consideration he gives a certificate without ever reporting the case to the coroners or the Department of Health.

"3. That there are cases in which the patient dies of violence from injuries inflicted by another person, and regular certificates are given which do not show the contributing causes of the death, and the cases are not reported to the coroner for investigation.

"4. That although the attention of Superintendent Bull is called to the cases and the police department is aware of these deaths, they are never investigated."

Newsome Released on Bail.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 8.—W. Barclay Newsome, the typewriting machine agent from Toronto, was held yesterday by United States Commissioner Fairchild in $1,000 bail for bringing Miss Lily Flannigan, his stenographer and typist, into the country contrary to the provisions of the Contract Labor Act. The penalty for this offence in criminal proceedings is a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not to exceed twelve months, or both. Seward A. Simons, who appeared for the defendant, explained to the court that Mr. Newsome was a stranger in Buffalo and might have difficulty in giving bail, but could furnish it through a bank as soon as he could correspond with his friends in Canada. He asked that the defendant be remanded to the custody of his counsel pending this, and, there being no objection on the part of Assistant United States District Attorney, it was so ordered.

Tailors Win Their Strike.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The big strike of the coatmakers is settled. The fight was short and hard. It was directed squarely against the sweating system, and the workers gained the day. The strikers, under the leadership of Meyer Schoenfield, won their plucky battle, and 7,000 of the 14,000 coatmakers who have been out since Sunday morning go back to work on their own terms. The other 7,000 will probably be similarly employed by the first of next week, though there are many details yet to be settled.

A Sure Remedy for Neuralgia.

Neuralgia is one of the most commmon and distressing complaints incidental to this climate. It is not confined to any particular season, for whilst most general in the winter seasons, yet many suffer its excruciating agony in the heat of summer. In late years this form of disease has become better known, and consequently the means of relief have become greatly increased in numbers, as well as in efficacy. Among the most powerful and penetrating combinations, placed within the reach of the public for the relief of neuralgia, we can mention no remedy equal to or more certain than Polson's Nerviline. Its power over pain is something wonderful, and we advise a trial for neuralgia, or any other painful complaints.

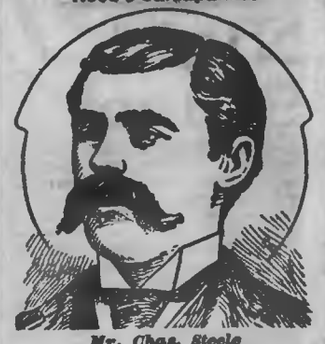
That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.



Mr. Chas. Steele
St. Catherine's, Ont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with a general tired feeling, shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could get only little rest at night on account of the pain and had no appetite whatever. I was that tired in my limbs that I gave out before half the day was gone. I tried a great number of medicines but did not get any permanent relief from any source until, upon recommendation of a friend, I purchased a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made me feel better at once. I have continued its use, having taken three bottles, and Give New Life to Those Burdened With Disease.

Paine's Celery Compound is the Sufferer's Best Friend.

Another Wonderful Cure in Manitoba.

LIFE WAS ONCE A BURDEN TO MR. FAIRHALL.

NOW HE IS HEARTY AND HEALTHY.

Mr. Fred Fairhall, of Fairhall, Selkirk Co., Manitoba, writes for the sole purpose of benefitting thousands in Canada who suffer from the troubles and afflictions that made life a misery to him in the past. Comment on our part is unnecessary, as Mr. Fairhall clearly proves that Paine's Celery Compound was the direct means of saving his life. He writes as follows :—

"Having read of some remarkable cures reported in the Winnipeg Weekly Tribune permit me to add my testimony in favour of your valuable medicine.

"I had been troubled with indigestion and bilious diarrhœa for six years. These troubles, with hard work, brought upon me in the spring of 1891, nervous prostration. From a state of activity, I was reduced to a condition that I could not work. My memory, which previously had been retentive, failed me : I could not sleep, and I felt a great depression of spirits. I was so distressed at times both in body and mind, that I often wished to die, and I frequently prayed to God, if it was His will, to take me.

"I thank God all this has passed away. Paine's Celery Compound with God's blessing has been the means of curing me. I have taken ten bottles of the Compound which I purchased from Mr. R. W. Oliver, of Killarney.

"I am now perfectly restored in mind and memory ; my appetite is good, and I am improving steadily in health. For all these blessings I am more than thankful, and have strongly recommended Paine's Celery Compound to many of my neighbours."

THE WHEAT OUTLOOK.

The Hungarian Minister of Agriculture published on the 1st instant an estimate of the wheat crop of the world, in which he calculated that the world's output for this year will be 2,476,000,000 bushels, as against 2,279,000,000 in 1893 and an average of 2,280,000,000 for the last ten years. He further estimated that the requirements of importing countries will be less by 15,000,000 bushels than they were last year, while the surplus of exporting countries will exceed that of last year by 65,000,000. The New York Times is of the opinion that the Hungarian Minister underestimates largely the size of the crop in the United States which is not a hopeful comment for those looking to see wheat go up. A good deal of the increased surplus comes, as might be expected, from Argentine. It is said that the wheat acreage has been increased in that country for this year's crop by twenty per cent.; and that this has been done in spite of the fact that the average price received by the Argentine wheat growers for the last crop was only 38 cents a bushel. By way of explanation of this remarkable condition of affairs, the following extract from a letter to the London, Eng., Times from a Buenos Ayres correspondent is valuable :

"This increase in the wheat-growing area of the Argentine is somewhat curious when the starvation prices of to-day are considered. But the production is chiefly the work of Italians, who have emigrated with their families of late years, from Italy. These people take up a piece of land and do all the manual labour themselves; they grow what food they need, and are content with very little; they spend nothing beyond what is absolutely necessary in the matter of clothes, and nothing in luxuries. Hence, whatever return they get from their crops is a pure gain for them, and is available to pay the instalments due on the land they have selected. In many cases the land owner gives the land and receives 12 per cent. of the gross products of his crops as his rent. Under these circumstances the cost of the production of wheat is extremely small and compares favourably with the cost of cultivation in other countries."

Immigration will sooner or later bring the vast Canadian Northwest into competition with these wheat fields, and the result must be to compel districts not especially suited to this crop, to supply some other item of the world's need. The outlook for an immediate increase in the price of wheat does not seem bright, if these figures of the Hungarian Minister are correct; but, as in other industries, the law of supply and demand will finally settle the problem. Either wheat will be diverted into new channels of consumption, less of it will be grown, or the purchasing power of the hungry will increase.

DESTRUCTIVE FOREST FIRES.

Farm Property in the Vicinity of St. John, N. B., in Danger.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 8.—Up to the present this province has been comparatively free from forest fires this season, but now they seem to be springing up in all directions. Word comes of the destruction of large patches of wood on the Mannawagonish road west of this city. The woods are full of fire. There are many fine houses, some occupied by retired St. John merchants, on that road, which are in danger. One of these fine old residences, that of P. Thompson, formerly proprietor of a leading hardware store, was burned yesterday. It was a spacious farm house, for many years the centre of lavish hospitality. The building was valued at $12,000. Thompson lost his large barns and all his hay crop.

At Musquash, farther west on the same road, four houses and a highway bridge was burned. A bridge on the Shore Line railway was also on fire, but was saved.

Great apprehension is felt lest fires start up again.

The Rainy River Catastrophe.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—Rainy River advices state that a large number of settlers are still missing and friends are searching the burning districts in hopes of securing their bodies or finding them alive.

RAT PORTAGE, Ont., Sept. 8.—The forest fires along the Sault Rapids swept with fury on both sides of Rainy River. Millions of feet of pine were destroyed. All the crops, buildings, horses and cattle are gone.

No loss of life occurred on the American side, but the fire is still raging.

Hannaford was safe at last reports. Fort Francis had a narrow escape.

Twelve families at Grassy River road lost everything and are in want. Rainy Lake City is safe.

HE BOBS UP AGAIN.

Sam Murray, Whom the Doctors had Pronounced as Incurable, Still on Deck—Now Acting as Foreman for a Big Lumber Concern.

North Bay, Sept. 3,—Sam Murray's name is one that has often figured in newspaper columns during the past eighteen months because he was cured of paralysis and blood poisoning by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after half a dozen physicians had pronounced him incurable. On the strength of physicians' certificates, Murray was paid his disability claim by the Grand Trunk. Since he was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, he has been accepted as a first-class risk by a leading life insurance company. About a year ago, he got a position as foreman for the big lumber concern of Davidson & Hay, of Toronto, and the fact that he was able to satisfactorily to attend to the [illegible] duties of such a position, is ample evidence of the permanency of his cure.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, anhave no liability ?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability ; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance :

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them ; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says : "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay ; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached ; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability ; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

September Beauties.

Early shipments of Fall Stuffs have been afloat all August and crowding in upon us the past week.

The autumnal styles rapidly opening up in almost all departments plainly say to everybody—"No steps backward, whatever the times." No let up to the into-the-store tramp, tramp, tramp of visitors to inspect our elegant Fall Dress Goods gathered from Germany, from France, from England, from home looms. Every counter nicer and brighter for this inflow.

ALL-WOOL NOVELTIES — with almost the sheen of Silk.

FIGURED NOVELTIES—tempting to the quietest taste.

FRENCH SILK AND WOOL NOVELTIES—quiet in tone and full of rich beauty.

FLEECY, FUZZY, WARM NOVELTIES—all wool weaves.

BLACK STUFFS—Nearly every design that is making talk in the Coloured Goods has its double in the Blacks.

Miss a day at our Dress Goods Counters and you miss the first sight of some of the prettiest stuffs that ever crossed the ocean.

There is already a demand for the dressmaker, especially for the little girls that can't wear shabby old things to school.

Several lots of Underwear and Hosiery that were a little too much for mid-summer comfort, but will work right in for wear now, for Misses, Youth's and Children, at prices to suit economical buyers.

We go to the farthest extreme in providing every safe guard for those who deal here as to qualities and values.

An Ashburnham Accident

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Wm. Crowe, Ashburnham, while engaged in manipulating a swing at his residence met with a severe accident. By some means the swing became detached from its fastenings and in his efforts to save the occupant, Mr. Crowe fell, striking his shoulder on the verandah floor, with the result that a bone of the shoulder was fractured known as the collar bone. Dr. Clarke attended to the injured man and it will be some weeks before he is able to be around.

Young Women's Association.

Prof. Alexander, who is announced for a course of lectures here next week at the opera house, has during his Canadian tour examined in public on the stage many of the best known men in the country. Prominent among them may be mentioned that of Mr. Jas. L. Hughes, Toronto School Inspector, who, at the close of a public examination on April 11th, '93, expressed himself as follows:—"The professor has not only delineated my strong and weak points, but has described characteristics which only my wife or most intimate friends could know. I owe my success to understanding myself through the aid of phrenology." Jas. L. Hughes, Inspector of Schools, Toronto, Canada. (At the close of a public examination on April 11th, 1893.)

McComb will present every customer with the profits to-night. Start early. Store closes at 10 o'clock.

Two Youthful Offenders.

County Police Magistrate Edmison held court at Havelock, yesterday. Two village youths, Thos. and Geo. Sampson, aged 8 and 10 years respectively, were charged by Detective Ross, of the C. P. R., with tampering with the railway, by placing obstructions on the track. The magistrate allowed them to go, on condition that their father and mother enter into recognizance to watch their actions in the future.

Let Words of Others Tell the Story.

"What do you suppose I paid for this suit that I have on? Take a look at it—feel it."

"Well, I should say not less than $10 or $11—these are days of cheap clothing."

"I just paid Gough Bros. a five dollar bill for it. I have paid $8 for the making of a similar suit."

The above conversation actually took place in a well known shop on Dickson's race last Saturday. Names can be given if desired.

Liberal Caucus.

A meeting of the Liberals of West Peterborough was held last evening. There was present a goodly number of the most active supporters of the party. It was decided to call a general meeting of the supporters of the party and those opposed to the present Ottawa Administration for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest West Peterborough at the approaching election. The meeting was arranged to be called after the fall fairs had taken place. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one and the Liberals will enter the contest with every prospect of redeeming the constituency and sending a representative in support of an honest government with Hon. Wilfred Laurier as leader.

Saturday's Market.

The market to-day was not as large as last Saturday, except in fruit and vegetables, of which there was a large supply, and which sold off readily at reduced prices. The townspeople seem to realise the full market in these articles, and the result was that there was a large turnout of buyers. Butter and eggs were in good demand, selling readily at, butter 20 to 21c; eggs, 9 to 10c; chickens, 40 to 50c.; ducks, 50 to 60c; a pair. Apples were plentiful to-day, in good quality selling at 50 to 60c. per bag; potatoes 50c. per bag. Hay and oats are scarce and both in good demand, hay, $8; oats, 27 to 29c. per bush.; old oats, 32c. Notice is given that there will be a large amount of stock next live stock day—Tuesday. Enquiries have been made in reference to barley by American buyers, and it is expected that the market in this grain will soon be open at an advanced price.

A Credit to a Local Artist.

Mr. D. A. Shaw, artist in oils, is making more than a local reputation. His pictures have, as they merited, received at home universal praise for their excellence, and now he has exhibited very successfully at the Toronto Industrial Exhibition. He hung two fine pictures, of which the Empire says, "Mr. D. A. Shaw, of Peterborough, showed a clever portrait of "A Young Artist." The Mail says: "Mr. D. A. Shaw, of Peterborough, a new contributor, but who gives evidence of having the root of the matter in him, has two pictures, both portraits, the chief one being a vigorous oil sketch, entitled "An Art Student," which is hung high and close to the door. The general effect is earnest and telling." These remarks are very complimentary, especially when it is from the nature of the press comments in which, in most instances, merely the name of the artist exhibiting is given without an specific reference to his works. Mr. Shaw is certainly a painter of unusual talent and skill and his presence in town gives a good opportunity to those desirous of acquiring a knowledge of painting, for Mr. Shaw's teaching ability is quite equal to his artistic ability.

What the People are Saying.

I will talk on the subject of "A good all-round man," at evening service on Sunday. —Rev. Mr. Rae.

That is the kind of a man we are looking for as a candidate.—The Conservatives.

We have him. We will make known our "dark horse" shortly.—The Liberals.

It would have suited me just as well if the council had not adopted the bylaw for the ringing of the Curfew Bell. — James English.

You'd express our sentiments to a nicety Mr. English.—The boys.

It is not troubling us very much. — The Police.

I will give a special prize to the Separate School pupil who contributes the best essay on the Red River Rebellion. — Dr. Brennan.

We talked over the subject of the Union with Ashburnham last night—The Finance Committee.

We were also present, but the usual result followed—nothing being done. — The Ashburnham council.

Why are we not made aware of the conditions of union?—Peterborough ratepayers.

I entirely agree with the expressed opinion of the Attorney General.—B. Morrow, Registrar.

I am now out of it, but what about the calf with the cough?—H. Grundy.

We had a very good Saturday's business. —The merchants.

It was a good day for us—good prices and a nice rain.—The Farmers.

Many people, not aware of the dangers of constipation, neglect the proper remedy till the habit becomes chronic, or inflammation or stoppage results. A dose or two of Ayer's Pills in the beginning would have prevented all this.

Dr. Low's Pleasant Worm Syrup removes worms of all kinds from childrenor adults.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Additional local matter on eighth page.

—There was no police court session this morning.

—Lindsay people are talking of establishing an organ factory in that town.

—The band furnished a first-class programme in the court house park before a large gathering last evening.

—The Lindsay papers are booming their band, and if the musicians toot as much as the Lindsay papers, it must be a first-class aggregation.

—The rector of St. Luke's will deliver a special address on "Church Work" to-morrow morning. A full attendance of members is requested.

—The clothier, who does not advertise, usually carries a large stock of pants which will not bag at the knees for quite a long time.—Printers Ink.

—The repairs to the bulk-head and flume on the Dickson's Company's raceway, Ashburnham, have been completed, and the sawmill started operations this morning.

—Thursday evening while two boys were bathing quite close to the Hunter street bridge over the Otonabee a sneak thief went through the pockets of their clothes and carried of their week's earning.

—The smoke in Omemee on Sunday was almost blinding. It was so dense that a person could hardly see 200 yards ahead. Rea's woods west of the village was on fire and parties were fighting the conflagration all day.—Mirror.

—Mr. H. Stevens has just completed the Ferris wheel, mention of which was made in the EXAMINER a few days ago, and it was tested yesterday with a large number on board with satisfactory results. The wheel is 25 feet in height, and carries eight seats made to accommodate three persons each.

—A flute and drum band, 20 strong, has been organized at Garden Hill this week, and under the able instruction of D. H. McKinley, Omemee, and will no doubt in a short time come to the front as a first-class band. Mr. McKinley will shortly conduct a couple of other bands which are being organized.—Mirror.

—Congratulations to Col. Rogers, Capt. Max. Dennistoun and the other rifle men of the 57th Peterborough Battalion on their success this year. It is not often the 45th fail to win a high place; but we can in our failure to win, most heartily rejoice to see such a fine lot of fellows as the 57th are, come to the front.—Warder.

—Howry & Sons, who are running the Fenelon Falls saw mills, are contemplating two prospects, one to build a railway from their limits to connect with the waters of Pigeon Lake and thence tow the logs to Fenelon Falls. The other is to connect with the Haliburton branch of the Grand Trunk, at a point between Gelert and Haliburton.

H. J. Byers, Lockport, N.Y., has purchased Mr. Geo. J. Early's photo business, George street. Those desiring high class work in photography will do well to examine his samples. For the last two years he has had full charge of one of the best galleries in the State of New York, and is fully up to the times in everything pertaining to photography.

—The Cannington Gleaner, in its account of a wedding in that town Wednesday, says:—"When the train arrived it had on board the Peterborough Lacrosse Club, and the boys at once disembarked, surrounded Mr. and Mrs. Talbot, and sang "He's a Daisy Just Now." This performance was certainly unique, and, we must say, rather pleasing and interesting."

—Many friends in this district and North Verulam, where the family resided for years will remember Mr. Fivaius Gamsby, and family, who accompanied Mr. R. Smythe of this town, to the Rainy River free grant townships a couple of years ago. The shocking news was recorded in the daily papers of Thursday that Mrs. Gamsby and four children had been burned to death in a forest fire, one son escaping by taking refuge in a well.—Lindsay Post.

The Boys at School.

Boys who are away at school should always have some quick and sure remedy for sudden attacks of Cramps, Diarrhœa, or Dysentery, for a physician is not always near, and an hour's delay in cases of this kind often leads to serious results. Therefore parents should supply their sons with Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER, which is as efficacious as it is simple and harmless. Directions are with each bottle, and one dose rarely fails to bring relief to a sufferer from any bowel complaints. Only 25c. for a bottle double old size.

I. O. O. F. Notice.

Another Voice From Smith.

SMITH, July 7, 1892.

I was troubled with a nasty pain in the back and shoulders for a long time, and had tried several remedies without getting any relief. I thought at first it might be my lungs, as the doctor's say such pains are symptoms of lung trouble coming on, but I was induced to try a bottle of Membray's Kidney and Liver Cure, for sale at Tully's Drug Store, and after taking the second dose I was surprised to find the pains all leaving me. It acted like magic. I never knew anything that acted so quick on man or beast before.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

A Splendid Programme of Special Attractions.

A special meeting of the Executive of the Central Exhibition met in the parlours of the Morgan House on Friday evening. Present, President Elliott in the chair, and Messrs. Davidson, Hunter, Kennedy and Winch.

A deputation representing the Rugby football club was heard concerning a competition in that great sport. After consultation it was decided to offer a $50 silver cup, open to town and county Rugby football clubs, the cup to become the personal property of the club winning it two years in succession. The matches are to take place on the grounds on Tuesday, Sept. 25th, and if necessary to complete the series, on Wednesday, the 26th.

A purse was also offered for a half-mile matched foot race (professional) between M. Bird, town, and — Jeffrey, of Coldwater.

In consideration of the large outlay this year on the grand stand and buildings, it was decided not to put up a new dining booth this year, but to rent a tent and repair the old booth so as to provide ample accommodation to the thousands who will attend the exhibition

The other special attractions are all arranged for. These consist of superb acrobatic performances by the LaBelle Bros., Simons and Connors Company, thrilling flying trapeze and high wire acts, grand balloon ascension on Tuesday afternoon by who is the heroine of over 200 successful ascensions and parachute drops. She will be accompanied in her mid air flight by her dog, which will take a separate parachute drop in advance of the downward flight of its mistress.

On Tuesday evening there will be a magnificent which will be the most splendid exhibition of the kind ever given in Peterborough.

The same evening there will be a grand tug of war between the Peterborough Fire Brigade and Nassau L.O.L., which will also be open to any other team of ten wishing to enter. The prizes will be of substantial value. The competition will take place on racks constructed for that purpose. Prof. Ed. Hutchinson has been engaged to make an illuminated ascension during the fireworks, and will discharge a splendid pyrotehnical display amongst the clouds. Last but not least, though the smallest competitors in the county, will be the baby show on Tuesday afternoon, shortly after the formal opening. The speeding in the ring will also begin Tuesday afternoon, and be completed on Wednesday afternoon. The races will be for bigger purses and will attract stronger competition than ever before.

A TRIUMPH OF THE FLORICULTURIST'S SKILL.

A Magnificent Bed of Hydrangeas Calls For Special Comment.

The beauty of the grounds environing the Nicholls Hospital and the perfect manner in which they are kept has always been the subject of delighted comment from the many visitors to that institution.

The sloping lawn, in front of the hospital, never looked more charming than at present, the beds of the many hued dahlias and geraniums, lending additional beauty to the velvety slopes of the terraces.

The chief charm at present, however, lies not in the beds of dahlias and geraniums, though handsome they be, but in a huge mound of that magnificent perennial, known as the hydranged paniculata.

Individual shrubs of the hydrangea are seen at times growing on the lawns of lovers of floral beauty and in these cases few other flowers are needed to make as attractive a tout ensemble as the eye would wish to meet. Taking this fact into consideration, a faint idea may be formed of the indescribably beautiful appearance presented by the hospital's hugh circular mound of these blossom laden shrubs, the bed being 64 feet in circumference and 22 in width.

The particular piece of ground in which the shrubs in question are growing was previously skillfully thrown up so as to form a perfect mound and the effect produced by the huge pale rose-coloured blossoms, topped off by three towering, dark foliaged castor oil plants, (ricini alegaus) is of a nature defying description.

The first or inner circle of hydrangeas is comprised of six plants and the outer one of twelve. Almost incredible as may seem the statement, yet by actual count these eighteen shrubs bear upon them upwards of 1,500 blossoms, the largest of which measures thirteen inches in length and twenty-four inches in circumference. Few of the flowers are perceptibly smaller in dimensions than the one mentioned.

A border around the bed, consisting of gigantic coxcombs of unusual beauty, also calls for special mention together with the carefully selected and blossom laden geraniums, which are interspersed amongst them.

Mr. Jas, Head, the efficient and painstaking caretaker of the hospital grounds, is deservedly proud of this triumph of the floriculturist's skill, the credit for the formation of which is entirely due to him.

The Black and the Blue.

The drop in prices of new fall goods, announced by Joseph Armstrong & Co., has proved a strong attraction to the ladies, so early in the season. This firm has had many strong features to offer during the summer season, and they seem determined to pursue an equally vigorous and pushing policy during the fall. The black and the blue ink prices on the goods make it easy to accept the reductions on the goods as genuine. You examine the goods—the tickets do the rest. dw

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

The Peterborough juniors visited Norwood, yesterday, and played a friendly match with the team of that village. Both teams put up a good game, but the junior Peterboroughs played their combination match with better effect than the Norwoodites, and succeeded in winning the game by a score of four goals to two. Every member of the home team put up a first class game. The four goals were scored by Wasson, King and Brown. The latter succeeded in winning two out of the four scored. Following are the teams:—

Peterborough.		Norwood.
Rogers	goal	Fraser
Lynch	point	Fraser
McMahon	cover point	S Henderson
Craig	1st defence	McGregor
Thompson	2nd "	Bateson
Butler	centre	F Hendren
Wasson	3rd home	Anderson
Brown	2nd "	Graham
King	outside "	Ritchie
Guy	inside "	Williams
D Desaultel	field captain	R Hill

F Stevenson, referee.

The Orillia News-Letter in its report of the recent lacrosse contest says: "The match passed off very smoothly, and was almost entirely devoid of anything like the rough play and savagery that too often characterized the matches between the clubs of the two towns a few years ago. Altogether the match was as fine and fast an exhibition of scientific lacrosse as any lover of the game would wish to see. The Peterborough boys are a gentlemanly lot of fellows, and no doubt should the Orillias have occasion to visit Peterborough next Wednesday to play off for the final they will be accorded the best of treatment. The fifth game the Peterborough boys seemed to gather themselves together in an effort to completely paralyze their opponents. Joe Begley and Walter Phelan particularly distinguishing themselves. It only lasted a minute, Mr. Lacemore scoring, after some hard opposition by Orillia's defence. And a mighty shout of triumph went up from the admirers of the players from that little Norwood suburb down on the Otonabee."

Mr. Geo. Tite, Brockville, the popular home player of the B.L.C., left this afternoon for Port Hope to remain a week, after which he will proceed to Vancouver, B.C. —Times.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

The hospital cellars are being stocked with the winter's supply of coal.

The dates for the final examinations and the graduating exercises have not, as yet, been fixed.

All the private wards in the hospital continue to be occupied and applicants for these apartments have to be content with cots in the public wards.

The three young ladies, who have almost completed their two years' training, as nurses, in the hospital, and who are preparing to write on their final examinations this fall, wish to brand as a base falsification the rumor that they practice bandaging, nightly, on the bedposts and the legs and arms of the chairs, of their respective departments.

All the nurses having returned from their holidays, the Lady Superintendent resumed the classes in the senior grade last evening.

Mr. Byers, a local amateur photographer, took a number of views with his camera yesterday in the hospital grounds. Two pictures were taken of the Lady Superintendent and her staff of nurses. The appearance of Mr. Byers and his camera was the signal for a wild rush for curling tongs and freshly done up caps. Among the views taken was one of Mr. Head's hydrangea bed.

The condition of Mr. Joe Sutton, son of Councillor Sutton, who is suffering from an attack of typhoid, continues much the same as it has been for the last couple of weeks, his temperature averaging from a half to a degree above normal.

Mr. James Harper, another of the typhoid patients, is slowly improving, though the virulent attack of the fever through which he has passed, has weakened him considerably, and will, in all probability, render his recovery a tedious one.

RIFLE COMMITTEE MEETING.

Fifty-Seventh Battalion Rifle Committee Arrange the Fall Matches.

A meeting of the Rifle Committee of the 57th Battalion was held at the drill shed, last evening. Brevet Lieu.-Col. and Major Bell occupied the chair. The principal business discussed was the coming fall rifle matches of the Battalion, which will be held on Thursday, Sept. 20th. A great many more prizes will be offered for competition than any previous year. Over one hundred prizes have been offered, besides the medals, crossbars, etc. The matches will consist of the range prize match of 100, 200, 300 and 400 yards. The team prize open to teams of fifteen officers and men from any company. In the aggregate prizes, the highest aggregate scores in all ranges count. Interest is centered in "A" and "E" companies match for medals and cups of the company, to be competed for by members of the companies only. The meet promise to be interesting and everything points to successful matches at the butts, on Sept. 20th.

Peculiar to Itself.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself, in a strictly medicinal sense, in three important particulars, viz: first, in the combination of remedial agents used; second, in the proportion in which they are mixed; third, in the process by which the active curative properties of the preparation are secured. These three important points make Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar in its medicinal merit, as it accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.

But it is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. What Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others is reason for confidence that it is the medicine for you.

From the Crown of the Head To the Soles of the Feet

WE COVER ALL.

It is one thing to cover up your body, Robinson Crusoe like, with goat skins and tanned palm leaves. It is quite another thing to get well-fitting, neatly-made Suits, Boots and Hats of the latest designs, without paying an exhorbitant price.

MEN'S HATS!
MEN'S SHOES!
MEN'S CLOTHING!
MEN'S UNDERWEAR!
MEN'S FURNISHINGS!

ALL UNDER ONE ROOF!

This store appeals to Men—and to Women also. The field of trade is widening continually. Instead of confining ourselves to Clothing, we have, for the fall of 1894, brought together under one roof such things for men's wear as they have shown themselves to want.

The Goliath's of the Markets.

Just as buyers flock to the great emporiums like Eaton of Toronto, Carsley of Montreal, Mabley of Detroit and Wannamaker of Philadelphia, so do they crowd to Gough Bros. of Peterborough.

WHY! Because they are the Goliath's of the market—they touch the button and manufacturers pour out their wealth of Bargains to them.

CORRECTING A MISTAKE.—Who sells the cheapest goods—the merchant who is compelled to buy in one higgling market, and is tied down to one grasping manufacturer, or the merchant who has the freedom of all the competing markets and manufacturers of the world? Do men buy Hats cheaper where nothing but Hats are sold, or Boots cheaper where nothing but Boots are sold, or Clothing cheaper where nothing but Clothing is sold?

Might as well expect a farmer to do as well for his family by raising nothing but Pumpkins as if he raised a mixed crop.

HATS and CAPS.

Young men are usually quick to save money. We're able to discount the trade, because of unusual buying power. We go direct to the makers and insure fine qualities by knowing what to buy and what to let alone. The best is none too good for us. If you're a judge of quality, it won't take any talking from the salesmen.

On the finest Fur Fedora Hats we take off 35c., and ask only $2.65.
On the best Fur Felt Stiff Hats we take off 50c., and ask only $2.00.
On Men's Knockabout Hats we take off 20c., and ask only 80c.
On Men's Peak Caps, satin lined, we take off 25c., and ask only 50c.
On Men's Silk Hats, latest styles, we take off 50c. and 75c., and ask only $3.00 and $3.75
Youths and Boys in same proportion.

BOOTS and SHOES

warranted not to crack, nor take in washing. Ours isn't the common kind of Boots and Shoes. If anybody can beat the quality, the style, the price, we'll quit the business.

On the best $3 Men's Selected Shell Cordovan Balmoral or Congress, with Dunraven toe, we take off 40c., and ask only $2 60.

On the best Men's Fine Waxed Hand-Made Balmorals we take off 35c., and ask only $1 25.

On the best Fine Patent Leather Oxford Shoes, turn soles, we take off 45c., and ask only $1.20.

On the best French Dongola Kid Button (common sense) we take off 60c., and ask only $1.20.

Misses', Boys', and Children's in same proportion.

NEW HACK.

The undersigned has added a first class new hack to his well equipped livery and is prepared to make calls at any hour—day or night. Careful driver and moderate charges. Call at Mosley's Livery, rear of Snowdon House, when you want a nobby turnout and prompt service.

A. E. MOSLEY,

TELEPHONE 198.

THEY CAN'T ESCAPE.

The liver when active is the watch-dog of the system—the destroyer of germs and impurities. The truth is: ninety-nine out of every hundred diseases begin with a sluggish liver. A slight cold or chill may amount to something serious. If you correct the liver you'll cure the cold. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets rouse the liver to vigorous action. After dinner, if you're bilious, take one of these tiny, sugar-coated Pellets. Take them when you have wind or pain in stomach, giddiness, fullness, loss of appetite, or when you suffer from costiveness, indigestion, sick or bilious headaches.

The makers take the risk of their benefiting you. If they're not satisfactory, your money is refunded.

Can you ask more?

What you are sure of, if you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is either a perfect and permanent cure for your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case may be, or $500 in cash. The proprietors of the medicine promise to pay you the money, if they can't cure you.

TAKING A FRIEND'S ADVICE.

MR. THOMAS ADAMS TELLS THE HAPPY RESULT THAT FOLLOWED.

He was Suffering from a Severe Attack of Rheumatism—Would Have Given Anything to Secure Relief—How a Cure was Brought About.

From the Brantford Courier.

A brief statement in respect to the recovery of Mr. Thomas Adams, of St. George, will no doubt be of considerable interest to suffering humanity in general and particularly to those who may profit somewhat by the experience hereinafter set forth. Mr. Adams is a stone mason by trade and resides about a mile east of St. George. At present he is operating the Patten Mills and is well known and respected in the neighborhood. In order to gain all the information possible concerning the circumstances of the cure, a representative of the Courier proceeded thither to investigate the case. Mr. Adams was found at work in his mill. He is a man of about thirty-five, healthy and vigorous, a man whom one would not suspect of having had any ailment. When interviewed he cheerfully made the following statement:—"About three years ago when at work at my trade I contracted, through over-exposure, a severe attack of muscular rheumatism, which confined me to the house for three weeks, during which time I suffered the most excruciating pain, being hardly able to move. I was so bad that I could not lie down, had to just let myself fall into bed. When attempting to rise I had to turn over upon my face and crawl up, there being only one position from which it was possible to rise. I would have given anything at this time in order to secure relief. My first thought was to call in a regular practitioner, so I procured one of the best physicians in the neighbourhood, but he did not seem to get control of the malady. After treating me for some time he left of his own accord saying he could do nothing for me. About this time a friend of mine persuaded me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Finally I decided to give them a trial, I soon experienced a decided improvement and was mending rapidly, the terrible pain left me and I had considerable relief and was able to get around with the use of a crutch. After the further use of the Pink Pills I was so far recovered as to be able to resume work and since that time have been free from the complaint. I do not now feel any of the soreness and stiffness of the joints, I can get right up in the morning and go off to work without any feeling of uneasiness whatever. I have every confidence in Pink Pills and heartily recommend them. I believe them a good thing to take at any time to get the blood into good condition and if I felt any illness coming on I would, instead of calling a doctor, send at once for a box of Pink Pills."

When strong tributes as these can be had to the wonderful merits of Pink Pills, it is little wonder that their sales reach such enormous proportions and that they are the favourite remedy with all classes. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions; irregularities and all forms of weakness. In men they effect a radical cure in all troubles arising from mental worry, over work, or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont., and Schnectady, N. Y., and sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape), at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company at either address.

Manicuring at Home.

The woman of good taste has her finger nail cut exactly to the round of her finger, matching the half moon below and just betraying the tip. It is filed simply to smoothness, and rubbed only enough to remove roughness and marks. A weekly polish with the rose-tinted and rose-scented salve, washed away with the brush in warm water before finishing answers all the needs of the nails thus kept, while before the polishing the nail has been thoroughly cleansed, so that no loose skin or hard particle adheres to the sides or base, in order that no hang nail can be formed to work or tear down the quick flesh. Every woman who wishes this done can do it for herself.

Dr. Low's Worm Syrup cures and removes worms of all kinds in children or adults. Price 25c. Sold by all dealers.

Canadian Trade Report.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—September opened with an improved tone to trade and orders received have increased, but prices are close. Collections are said to be better in the provinces of Quebec than Ontario. There is also an improvement reported at Toronto where the Industrial Exhibition has attracted many interior buyers, thereby helping business. At Halifax trade is quiet and collections remain unchanged. Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Halifax amount to $14,108,000 against $15,223,000 last week and as compared with $18,356,000 in the first week of September 1893. There are 29 business failures reported in the Dominion of Canada this week against 33 last week, 27 in the week a year ago and 29 two years ago.

Double Drowning in Toronto.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—James Rivett, a waiter at McConkey's, John Mimms, an employe of the Toronto Club, and B. O. Furey, 107 Fulton avenue, started out in a boat from the foot of Booth avenue for a morning's shooting. They were hardly clear of the bank when their boat ran aground on a shoal made by the dredging out of the western channel of Ashbridge's Bay and was overturned, the three men being precipitated into the water. Furey managed to reach the shore and ran shouting for help. Weighed down by their heavy the two other men sank to the bottom. Two young men arrived a few moments too late and only succeeded in recovering the dead bodies. Rivett was a married man.

He Believed in Free Coinage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Special Agent Harris, of the Treasury Department, has returned from Shasta where he arrested James Sylvester and George Short, who have been flooding the neighborhood with counterfeit dollars for a long time. Short is a Populist and was a delegate to the recent Populist convention in Shasta county at which he advocated the free coinage of silver.

Italy and the Vatican Reconciled.

ROME, Sept. 8.—A papal decree has been issued instituting an apostolic prefecture for Massawah. This act is regarded in political circles as a mark of reconciliation between the Vatican and Italy. Coincident with the issuance of the decree King Humbert has signified his intention to give his approval to certain nominations of bishops from which the royal approval has long been withheld.

Destitute Aliens Not Wanted.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Trades Union Congress sitting at Norwich passed a resolution demanding that the government prohibit the importation of destitute aliens. The result of the balloting for secretary of the parliamentary committee was the election of Sam Woods. Commoner Fenwick and Tom Manu were the other candidates for the office.

Bulgarian Political Crisis.

BELGRADE, Sept. 8.—It is reported that ex-Premier Stambuloff of Bulgaria has offered to form an alliance with the Bulgarian emigrant Zankoff. The object of this alliance would be the deposition of Prince Ferdinand. Zankoff is said to have declined the offer.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences. Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

No Better Medicine,

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 66 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

His Dyspepsia Cured.

MR. GEO. READ.

DEAR SIRS,—
I write you to say that for some time I had been suffering from acute indigestion or dyspepsia, and of course felt very great inconvenience from same in my general business. I thereupon decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking two bottles I found I was quite another man, for

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

M. STAMBULOFF CLUBBED.

A Serious Crisis Threatens the Throne of Prince Ferdinand.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A despatch to the Standard from Vienna says that M. Stambuloff was rendered temporarily unconscious by the blow from the stick in the hands of his assailant yesterday after leaving court. The conflict between Prince Ferdinand and M. Stambuloff is proving pernicious to both men, and earnest days are in store for Bulgaria. The crisis, the Standard's correspondent says, will not pass without important changes, and people who are able to judge events already consider that the throne of Prince Ferdinand will be shaken to its foundation.

Labor Men and the Lockwood Bill.

BUFFALO, N.Y., Sept. 7.—Commissioner McSweeny, of the Immigration Investigation Committee, who began on Tuesday the work of gathering the opinions of the labor men of Buffalo for the committee has completed his labors. He says that he finds that the labor element here is universally in favor of the Lockwood bill as a way out of their present difficulties. The representatives of the Firemen and Seamen's Union added their testimony in favor of the bill, stating that it would put a stop to the Canadian sailors, who sail on the lakes during the summer and spend their earnings out of the country in the winter.

Austria's Army Manœuvres.

VIENNA, Sept. 7.—The Austrian manœuvres ended yesterday with the four-hour battle under the walls of Landskron. The cavalry's work was especially creditable. Two bodies from the opposing armies charged at full speed, with lances rested, across the Schlossberg fields and halted within forty paces of each other. The infantry fought on the Schlesdorf slope and at Schlossberg. The day closed with a cannonade from 121 guns. Gen. Anton Tuma commanded the attacking force, and Gen. Herta the defensive one. The umpires decided that the defence had failed. Emperor Franz Josef was present throughout the day.

It Was a Case of Asiatic Cholera.

CUMBERLAND, Maryland, Sept. 7.—It is now an assured fact that John P. Walther, the immigrant who was taken ill on a Baltimore and Ohio train, and who died in a caboose near this city, suffered from Asiatic cholera. He was buried yesterday and the caboose in which he died was fumigated. The doctors who attended him say the case was one easily defined and that all the symptoms pointed to genuine Asiatic cholera. They say there is no fear of another case in this city as the precautions taken in Walther's case were thorough.

The Kaiser's Remark at Koenigsburg.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—Most of the evening papers print conspicuously an account of an incident at the unveiling of the old Emperor's statue in Koenigsburg on Tuesday. After the ceremony Emperor William, turning to a group of officials and officers, said impressively: "This is the spot where King William openly declared that he held his crown as the gift of God alone. My own deepest conviction is expressed in this declaration, which has ever served to guide all my actions."

A Shocking Case of Cruelty.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—An investigation into a case of baby farming has revealed a horrible state of affairs. The little ones were found, with scarcely any clothing, in a filthy, unventilated room, and one infant was covered with sores, which were filled with vermin. All the children were emaciated and showed evidence of gross ill treatment and neglect. They were brought down to the Police Court, where they were handed over to the Children's Aid Society. The baby is in a terrible state, and Dr. Oldright thinks that it may die. If this happens both William Lace and his wife will be arrested for causing the child's death.

Terrible Death of an Iron Worker.

HOPEWELL, N.S., Sept. 8.—Neil Bearlste, of the Charcoal iron works, Bridgeville, met with a sad death yesterday while running a loaded car down the branch of the main line. A flat car following tore down the steep grade and collided with the preceding car. Bearlste was thrown from the car under the wheels and was terribly mangled. The poor fellow died after suffering intense agony. Bearlste came to Pictou from Maine three years ago. He was about thirty years of age and was shortly to be married to a young lady from Bridgeville.

Canadians Arrested for Smuggling.

ST. CLAIR, Mich., Sept. 8.—John Jacobs and John Gree, of Toronto, were arrested yesterday just after landing from a row boat in which were two trunks containing six hundred pounds of opium, which was seized. The prisoners had previously arranged for a horse and waggon which was in waiting to carry away the trunks.

Worked an Illicit Still.

OTTAWA, Sept. 8.—Francis Martin has been arrested by the Dominion police and placed in custody here for working an illicit still at the back of Buckingham in the mountains. Martin is 70 years of age.

Want Eight Hour Day for Miners.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The trades union congress, sitting at Norwich, has voted in favor of a compulsory eight-hour day for miners. The vote on this question was 276 to 16.

A Butter Tub Factory Burned.

UNION CITY, Ind., Sept. 5.—A fire which started in the dry house of Hooks' butter tub factory here, destroyed $85,000 worth of property. The cause is unknown.

British Imports and Exports.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The board of trade returns for August show that the imports decreased 3,360,000 pounds and the exports decreased 950,000 pounds during the month as compared with those during the corresponding month last year.

Young Kossuth Cannot Stand.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Daily News correspondent in Vienna says that the Hungarian Government has refused to let Francis Kossuth stand for Parliament. The ostensible reason is that he is not a Hungarian subject.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the few remedies which are recommended by every school of medicine. Its strength, purity, and efficacy are too well established to admit of doubt as to its superiority over all other blood-purifiers whatever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla leads all.

I was attacked severely last winter with Diarrhœa, Cramps, and Colic and thought I was going to die, but fortunately I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and now I can thank this excellent remedy for saving my life. MRS. S. KELLETT, Minden Ont.

No Such Offer Was Made.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—"It is the first I have heard of any such offer," said Acting Secretary Uhl, of the State Department, when shown the despatch from Ottawa saying that Sir Charles H. Tupper, Canadian Minister of Marine and Fisheries, had received a despatch from Victoria telling of the agreement of interested sealers to take the $425,000 offered by the United States Government as a settlement of the dispute of seizures. Mr. Uhl said that no such sum had been appropriated for the purpose.

A Prominent Philadelphian Suicides.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Dr. H. T. Creason of Philadelphia, committed suicide here. He was a prominent Philadelphian, and a graduate from the University of Pennsylvania. It is stated that the right name of the suicide is Hilbern J. Jones and that he is the son of a prominent broker of this city. Several years ago he married a Miss Creason, a member of a well known family of high social rank of this city. He then adopted the name of Creason and has ever since used the name.

An A. R. U. President Convicted.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 8.—Hiram Agler, president of the A. R. U. at Ashley, Ind., where the Wabash trains were stopped during the strike, was found guilty of violating the restraining order of the court yesterday. Sentence was suspended. Arthur Desheno, a Chicago man who led a riot at Hammond during the strike, was committed to jail for 30 days, and Oscar Larsen, accused of the same offence, was released.

At the Methodist General Conference.

LONDON, Ont., Sept. 8.—At the Methodist general conference yesterday a notice was given in effect that the words "Christian Endeavor" should be dropped from the name of the Epworth League society. The notice was not well received, and there will likely be a hot discussion. The afternoon was devoted to the reading of statistical reports, all of which showed a satisfactory condition of things in the various departments. The delegates were tendered a rousing reception in the evening.

An Insane Man Suicides.

TORONTO, Sept. 8.—The night watch in the east wing of the Toronto Asylum for the Insane found one of the inmates hanging dead from a window. The body was still warm, showing that the deed had been committed only a short time before. The suicide's name is C. R. Pears, and his parents live in Uxbridge. He was 30 years old and had been in the institution only a month. He was always quiet and well behaved, and never showed any sign of suicidal intentions.

Liquor Dealers to Organize.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8.—It is understood that the liquor dealers are to have a meeting at an early date to organize an association to fight the Dominion Alliance. One of the most important items which they will place upon their programme, and which was not originally intended for publication, will be an inquiry into the reasons why the Oxford saloon should be particularly chosen by the alliance and "prosecuted" from year to year.

The Fall Proved Fatal.

PARIS, Ont., Sept. 8.—William James about 65 years of age, caretaker of the Paris cemetery, died here from the effects of a fall from a tree. Deceased was trimming shade trees at the residence of John Walker, when apparently he made a misstep and, falling about twelve feet, received internal injuries.

Raided the Pool Rooms.

FORT ERIE, Sept. 8.—The chief of police and detectives made a raid on the policy rooms, arrested one of the employes and closed up the place. The principals escaped.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TORONTO, Sept. 8, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET. — On the street 500 bushels of wheat sold at 54 cents for white, 53c for red and 52c for goose. One hundred barley brought 42, and 300 oats 31 to 32.

Barley receipts at Buffalo were 100,000 bushels from Milwaukee. Shipments none. There is a good deal of figuring by commission men and they have steadily advanced prices on Canada samples which are now held at 65 to 70 but there has been no trading to warrant these figures. A few cars of Canada barley are on the way.

Wheat followed a break in the corn pit in Chicago, the close being 5-8 to 3-4c lower. Corn broke on lower cables and a general feeling that yesterday's reports on the crop had been over-estimated. Oats fallowed corn showing a loss of 3-8 to 1-2 on the day.

At Buffalo 7 cars of Canada lambs arrived. All were sold late in the day at $4.25 to $4.50. They averaged 72 to 73 lbs. and were good fat stock for the most part, very few being culled out.

At East Liberty the sheep supply was light; market steady.

The London market was dull except for first class investment stocks. Americans were generally lower, closing dull.

There was less disposition to trade in stocks in New York than on any earlier occasion in the week and except for some desultory hammering at the grangers in the afternoon, nothing of consequence was done up to the close.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

DR. ANDREW GRANT & Co., Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—Your "HAIRENE," I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced the most unexpected results in my case, my hair has been falling out very freely for some time, becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "HAIRENE," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and have not required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.
